WE ARE rejoiced to notice in the returns of the recent elections, that notwithstanding the fact that almost everything has gone Democratic," several Republicans who are highly esteemed in this county, were succossful. Maj. JOSEPH T. PRATT, a "Towarda boy," was elected Judge of the Court of Common Pleas in Philadelphia, a place for which he is eminently fitted, and in which he will discharge the daties with honor to himself. CHARLES C. WALLER was also chosen President Judge of the strong Democratic district of Wayne and Pike counties, by a handsome majority. Mr. W. only accepted the nomination at the urgent solicitation of his numerous friends. His election gives to the district an ble Judge and upright, honest man.

In the Wyoming and Sullivan district, which usually gives a Democratic majority of several bundred, Judge T. J. Induan led his competitor, Col. Smrn, about 300. Judge I. was appointed Judge of the District last Winter, and has given general satisfaction on the bench.

"Que-hundred and four majority for PowerE in the first ward," shouled a self-delegated trumpeter, as he made his way to the corporation rendezvous, late on the evening of election day. His voice was mighty as a rushing multitude. It waked up the babies on Main street, and brought femicine nightcaps to front windows, and put to shame the insignificant zeal of the Argus roester.

The innocent nightcaps were unanimous in the opinion that the noise meant fire, while the more practical masculine proprietors of these dainty little domestic appendages, brought forward a suggestion of "fire-water."
