THE trouble between the pedagogue who presides over the House of Repesentatives at Harrisburg, and Mr. Wolfe, member from Union county erminated in a vote of censure or be latter by a strictly party vote. At he accountlappeared in the Patriot e were of opinion that Mr. Wolff vas in the wrong, but the facts in he case fully sustain his position and ondemn the action of the Speaker. Democratic members who felt bound sustain the Chair from partizan notives, openly admit that he was nore in the wrong than Wolfe. The ollowing scene transpired when Mr. V. was brought before the House to eccive his censure: "Mr. Wolfe said he was perfectly villing to go before his constituency nd the people of the entire Com onwealth with the record as report d by the official reporters of th louse. He cisimed that upon that ecord he was fully justified in doing that he did. If it was true that he and the floor assigned him by an act ing Speaker, he had the right to speak once, and the regular Speaker and no right to rule him off the floor He held the floor under the Consti atiou and laws, and to decide other vise was subversive of the rights of he minority. The Speaker by sucl uling had the power to completely anzzle the lips of the minority. H. greed with the members of the op site side that if the state of factwere as they are recorded on the of the House, as read by t lerks, his action was wrong. But is the facts were not as there se orth. and believing that b cted in perfect harmony with th ights accorded him by the Constitu ion and laws, he did not feel that i was necessary for him to purge him self of contempt, and he thought the cople of the Commonwealth would pear him out in that opinion." A Republican member offered solution to the effect that as ther oppeared to be a misunderstanding is to what really was the decision o e Speaker, it was inexpedient to ke any further action in the case nd that Mr. Wolfe be discharged om custody. This was followed by Democratic member demanding at Mr. W. be censured. Mr. MITCH IL (Rep.) hoped that the statemen by the member from Union would ave been sufficient to satisfy the House, and was proceeding in explanation of parliamentary law when he vas interrupted by Speaker PATER son with a reminder that he was no confining himself to the question. To is Mr. M. retorted as follows: "He did not intend to be dictated o by the Speaker, or permit himsel to be taken from the hall of the House by any of his rolings. He hould insist upon his rights, and the rights of the minority, and would no he set down or browbesten by the najority. He represented 40,000 eople of the State, who had a right o be heard here, and so long as he violated no parliamentary law he in-ended they should be heard." Mr. MITCHELL is one of the ablest men in the State, and in intellect and stature towers so far above such pigmies as Speaker PATTERSON, that it was not to be wondered at that that gentleman quailed before the able member from Tioga.

One of the most interesting fea ures of the closing debate, in the Civil Rights Bill, was the introduc tion by Mr. Shares, of a preamble, which was nothing more or less than plank of the last Democratic platform, declaring the equality of all men before the law, regardless of race or color. .It was amusing to see the Democrats throw off the preamble. One of the leaders of timidated into adopting that platform at Baltimore.
