Professional and Business Cards.

H. STREETER.

LAW OFFICE TOWANDA, PA. OVERTON & MERCUR.

Office over Montanyes Store. Office over Montanyes Store. (mayers, D'A. OVERTON. RODNEY A. MERCUR. MITH & MONTANYE, ATTOB-NETS AT LAW.—Office, corner of Main and Pine St., opposite Dr. Porter's Drug Store. W H. CARNOCHAN, ATTOR W. PATRICK, ATTORNEY AT

DR. S. M. WOODBURN, Physician and Surgeon. Office over O. A. Black's Towanda, May 1, 18721y. WOOD & SANDERSON, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, AS. WOOD. [may27] JNO. F. SANDERSON DRS. JOHNSON & NEWTON Physicians and Surgeons. Office over Dr. Corter & Son's Drug Store, Towanda, Pa. T. B. JOHNSON, M. D. D. N. NEWTON, M. D. jani-75tf.

E C. GRIDLEY. April 1, 1873. ATTORNEY AT LAW.
TOWANDA, PA. GEORGE W. BRINK, Justice of the Peace and Conveyancer. Also Insurance March 18-67.

D. L. DODSON, DENTIST.

On and after Sept. 21, may be found in the seffice on State Street, Business solicited.

Sept. 3-74tf.

W B. KELLY, DENTIST.—Office over M. E. Rosenfield's, Towarda, Pa. th füserted on Gold, Sliver, Rubber, and A

DEET & DAVIES. MERCUR'S BLOCK

TOWANDA, PA WILT & MAXWELL

Office over Dayton's Store, Towanda, Pa.

J. ANDREW WILT,

(May be consulted in German.)

To all, as a warning, there cometh an end. McPHERSON, Attorney and There cometh an end. Office in Tracy & Noble's New Block, [may13. The daring youth, within whose soul The slumbering fires of genius burn. TR. C. M. STANLY, DENTIST, Having removed his Dental office into Trace Or sway a realm by a finger's turn -x Mont's new block, over Kent & Watrous store is new prepared to do all kinds of dental work He has also put in a new gas aparatus. But e'en though a host his crown defend

GEO. V. MYER, C. E., COUNTY SURVEYOR.—Particular attention given to locating disputed "lines."

H. THOMPSON, ATTORNEY to all business entrusted to his care in Bradford, Sullvan and Wyoming Counties. Office with Esq. Porter. HALE & PATTON, Agents for Office No. 3 Griffith & Pation's Block, Bridge Sts.

March 26-74.

By LINA MINA.

DR, G. A. BUSH. CAMPTOWN, BRADFORD COUNTY, PA. Treats Chronic Diseases by new methods. May b OVERTON & ELSBREE, Attor NEYS AT LAW, TOWANDA, PA. Having entered into co-partnership, loffer their professional services to the public. Special attention given to ousiness in the Orphan's and Register's Courts, F. OVERTON, Jr. (apr14-70) N. C. ELSBREE.

MADILL & CALIFF, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
TOWANDA, PA.
TOWANDA, PA.
National bank, up-stairs.
H. J. MADILL. [Jans-731y] J. N. CALIFF. C. S. RUSSELL'S GENERAL

INSURANCE AGENCY

May 25-7001. John W. Mix.

ATTORNEY AT LAW. U. S. COMMISSIONER.

Omec-North Side Public Square. THE UNDERSIGNED, ARCHI TECT AND RUILDER, wishes to inform the citizens of Towanda and vicinity, that he will give particular attention to drawing plans, designs and specifications for all manner of buildings, privat and public. Superintendence given for reasona compensation. Office at residence N. E. corn Second and Eigabeth streets. \(^1\)

J. E. FLEMING.

100(1)-71. Box 511, Towanda, Pa.

C. BEXBEE, CARRIAGE el . PAINTER AND DECORATER. Also man uffeture of Ornamental Glass Sho doors east of the REPORTER Office, 100.2475.

W. KINGSBURY, TINSURANCE AGENCY. Office, corner Main & State Sts., TOWANDA, PA.

TNSURANCE AGENCY. RELIABLE AND FIRE TRIED Companies represented:

PHENIX.

HOME.

MERCHANTS.

O, A. BLABK.

RAN

TRIRST NATIONAL BANK OF TOWANDA. SURPLUS FUND...... 50,000.

This Bank offers UNUSUAL FACILITIES for GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS | steel grey eyes.

INTEREST PAID ON DEPOSITS ACCORDING TO AGREEMENT. SPECIAL CARE GIVEN TO THE COLLECTION OF NOTES AND CHECKS.

Parties wishing to SEND MONEY to any part of the United States, England, Ireland, Scotland, or the principal cities and towns of Europe, can here presure drafts for that purpose.

PASSAGE TICKETS To or from the Old Country, by thebest steam of saving line, always on hand.

"Is she of age?"

8. W. ALYORD, Publisher.

Selected Hoetry.

BY-AND-BY.

There's a little mischief-maker

That is stealing half our bliss.

Sketching pictures in a dream-land

Dashing from the lips the pleasure

Of the present while we sigh;

For his name is By-and-By.

He is sitting by your hearthstone

With his sly, bewitching glance,

Whisp'ring of the coming morrow

As the social hours advance; Loitering, mid our calm reflections

Hiding forms of beauty nigh;

You may know him by his winning.

By his careless, sportive air:

That is straying everywhere;

Is this conqueror, By and By.

When the calls of duty haunt us,

And the present seems to be

All the time that ever mortals

Snatch from dark eternity.

Pictures on a painted sky.

For a conning little artist is the fairy, By-and-By.

Then a fairy hand seems painting

" By-and-By " the wind is singing.

"by-and-By" the heart replies

But the phantom just above us

Ere we grasp it ever flies.

Scorn the very specious lic-

This deceiver, By-and-By.

THERE COMETH AN END.

List not to the idle charmer

Do not believe or trust in

There cometh an end.

There cometh an and.

There cometh an end.

There cometh an end.

To prince and pauper, to peasant and king,

This earth is naught but a wayside inn.

Whether peace and joy, or sorrow and sin;

But this we know : to foe and to friend-

Miscellancons.

BY LINA MINA.

I had, after a severe struggle with poverty, caught at the skirts of the legal profession. A sign, with gilt letters, "David Moss, Attorney and Solicitor at Law," was tacked on my office door on Louisiana avenue.

Within, a few dusty books, an empty desk and a dilapidated arm-chair proclaimed by legal status. I had wait-prospective glance at my affairs.

glass of beer, and the two cents a my wardrobe. Like their owner, my coat and pants had evidently seen

"Go west, and you are a liar"

gle case to plead before the bar, although I was nominally a member.

To go west was to my fancy a literal burial of all my "splendid possibiliastonish the world if it could only find an outlet or an inlet. Just as I arrived at this point in my reflections

the door of my office swung softly on its hinges, and a man closely muffled in winter apparel stood by my

"Are you a lawyer, sir?" he said eel grey cyes.

"That is my business." I returned

He smiled at my manner, slipped s five dollar bill to my hand, and

This was coming to the point.

thawed instantly, and asked my client said, blandly, "I have come for adcooly, straightening myself to the full height of my five feet six.

with a questioning glance of his and fall back on the lap of false destiny."

The stern flat was spoken By the Lord of heaven and earth.

widow lone, with her cruse of oil.

With never a gleaming of rest, Tearfully to her labors may bend

Hope, happiness, fied from her breast;

With never a pleasure to lighten her toil-

With a sigh, repeating : There cometh :

The titled Prince, with his wealth of gold,

And slaves and lackeys at his command.

And the Yew trees above him their whispe

Soon fades away as "a tale that is told."-

As a name that is written in sand,

The mingling of tears with our mirth,

The laughter and sighing that blend-

By trophies that he gathers

Where his sombre victims lie.

By his sly, obtrusive presence

He's a smooth, deceitful fellow, This enchanter, By-and-By.

You may know this mischief-maker

VOLUME XXXVI.

Miller Linearies.

REGARDLESS OF DENUNCIATION FROM ANY QUARTER.

TOWANDA, BRADFORD COUNTY, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 16, 1875.

places with him—that he was the at-torney and I was the client; but tak-shaped forchead and the gradual lieved you of one trouble to drag you ing no notice of his words. I repeat-ed the question with a variation. sinking in of the features at the into another. I came hear heart-ed the question with a variation. bridge of the nose. I was not long in whole; I shall go away leaving my bridge of the nose. I was not long in whole; I shall go away leaving my age and as obstinate as a mule." "Disinherit her." I suggested. "Oh," said he, with a shrug of his I have told her she should not have a penny of my money; I have kept I now began to concoct plans to her on bread and water; hired gov- prevent this. I begged her as a great came into the old gentleman's eyes ernesses to watch her; in fact, I have left no stone unturned." "There remains only two methods: incarcerate her in an insane asylum. or put detectives on his track and convict him of some ignoble action," "Your last suggestion is the best.

I felt that I had suddenly thanged

"Yes," was the reply, "she is o

But even if I should convict him of carefully put away in my writing murder she would imagine that it desk. Then we took long rides, and was a conspiracy on my part, and marry him at the gallows." He remained in deep thought for several minutes, and then said: "Young man, I don't think your business is very lucrative; how would more profitable?" Change or starvation was evidently a necessity with me, so of course I had no objections to offer; in fact, any escape from my present position was like a godsend to me. I impart- sweetness which characterizes the once more in view of the Capitol. It ed my willingness to make any rea-sonable change. We soon agreed not bestowed her love on some wor-a reality, and my practice is not only unless prescribed by upon terms which seemed to me more thy object - myself, for instance. than liberal, and together concocted o aubmission.

I had some compunction of conscience, for two against one, and that whom her father had told me was Telegram. one of the weaker sex, seemed hardly called Walter Reveaux. fair; but the novelty and the ro-

CHAPTER II. ~ the last gleams of departing day, the train from Baltimore came puffing in. crowds were hurrying to their homes. Two days before, David Moss, at-Baltimore. This evening the train mistress. The change in my life brought hack David Moss elegantly seemed almost as wonderful as the attired, "gentleman." It is astonish- miracles wrought by the genii of Aling how one's dress increrses their ladin's lamp. I came slowly down son, "Costly thy habit as thy purse can buy, for thy apparel oft proclaims

What a change it had made in my feelings! A few days ago so despondent, now buoyed up by hope and my good looks. I felt as happy as a king. My mirror had told me the same flattering tale which it tells termined to closely watch affairs. many a belle. My ambrosial locks were curled in style, my blonde mustache was waxed to perfection, my blue eyes sparkled, and my mannerly I think it is Owen Meredeth who into it by obsequious footmen, and sank languidly on the cushions. I was driven to an elegant mansion, met by my host, and almost carried to have a large with the conditions of my life depart. No. I was determined to make the conditions of my life depart. No. I was determined to make the conditions of my life depart. The clerk grim to the conditions of my life depart. to a luxurious chamber. I was too fatigued to go down stairs that evening, but the amount of supper which I contrived to swallow, and the wine

In the morning my head was so ed patiently for criminals and per- dinner time I managed, with some plexed debtors to rush in and seek assistance, to get to the dining-room. my advice, but they did not rush and for the first time met Kate Marswell, and hope deferred had nearly ton, the young lady whose earnest made my heart sick. On the morn. hopes I had come to overthrow. Afing of December 21st, 1872, I sat ter the first glance I began to think busy life in college and my money at My finances stood two to five: that times afterwards, had allowed no is, a five-cent nickel for a two-cent margin for dreams. But I am sure copper. The five cents would buy a Kate Marston embodied all the elements which would have composed pretzel. I smiled at my anticipated my ideal if I had possessed one. She was small, a perfect brunette happiness, and took an inventory of with glorious eves, which might sparkle with love or hate; red lips and better days, for, although rusty and cheeks, lustrous black hair, white threadbare, they showed traces of shapely teeth, and in fact, everything ntal Glass Show Cards, a few their original color and texture. I which is charming in woman. She commenced to ruminate on my con- treated me very kihdly, gently, bedition and achieve plans for the fu- cause I, her father's friend, was an ture. But all I could bring to aid invalid. If I had been apparently were the words of Horace Greeley: strong and hearty she would have suspected her father's motives, and knew I was a liar, technically speak- met every advance with rebuff. He ing, because my sign proclaimed me had brought several eligible young to be an attorney and solicitor at men to his house, but Kate had sent law, and yet I had not yet had a sin them about their business in anything but a complimentary style. All the ladies who had been hired as companions she had won over to her cause. They abetted her in disobeties." I knew I possessed (what dience, and were discharged in dis-fellow." young man is there that does not grace. It was planned that while think the same?) genius that would drawing on her sympathy, and seeking kindly offices from her, I should watch over her, keep with her as was the sweetest music to me.

He was a middle-aged man, tall and sinewy, with black hair sparsely fingers of hers. I would have been force of circumstances.

"Can you not see that it is madbut a close observer of character finding out that this was Kate's lover. heart behind me. I would not have I caught him looking at me with a been presumtuous enough to have malignant scowl. With Kate's re- told you of this had you not forced appearance he always disappeared. me to explain as it is, you see the I was certain that they were keeping only course open to me is to go shoulder, "I have tried everything. up a correspondence, but I never saw You have only escaped one danger him receive any letters. to encounter another."

favor to help me in writing some let- as he replied: ters which was a necessity for me to "If Kate loves you, you can marry write, but which, on account of my her. I only ask in my son-in-law weakness, I was unable to do. I kept sterling worth, and I believe that you her for long hours writing letters possess that. I care not for money, about all sorts of things to imaginary landed estates, or whether blue blood people, which of course were never mailed. I have some of them yet she, believing me to be a stranger in the city, pointed out objects of in-terest, and answered the numerous questions which I chose to ask. I think at those times she must have thought me very stupid, and possesyou like to change it for something sed of very little information, but she always answered me with the same unwearying kindness. With all her firmness, and as her father termed it, obstinacy, there was always in her that gentleness and and Solicitor at Law," hangs on somewhere in our rides her lover, what stuff they are made.—Baltimore

At such times Kate would bow mance, and the solid cash connected and smile, while he returned a haugh with it, reconciled me to the situation. ty nod, which brought frightened grieved, looks into Kate's fair face. Then an insane desire would seize Just as the sun from the west was me to jump out of the carriage and orphan without a relative in the gliding down the Capitol dome with give him the threshing he deserved, world, but that he belonged in Canabut discretion being the better part da. of valor, I would, on reflection, re-It was Chrismas Eve, and the busy main scated, and by playful badinage | Colorado," replied the court; "you endeavor to coax back Kate's smiles. shall have a fair trial, and truth and torney and solicitor, seedy and ly a month, and had been treated as les on a Chicago womans nose. Are threadbare, had left Washington for an honored guest by both master and you guilty?" self-respect. No doubt Polonius stairs on this morning a little earlier thought of this when he said to his than usual, and entered the dining- da, you've spoken truly," said his No late suppers? room. I had expected to find no Honor. "The brandy flew to your Kate kneeling before her pet canary police flew to you. It was a flying heavy and drowsy after dinner? weeping bitterly, and between her time. Do you make a practice of 5. Do you use only that kind, and sobs saying, "Good-bye, Sweetheat," drinking brandy?" for so she called the bird. I entered unobserved, so I slipped out again, closing the door softly after me, de-

I came down late to breakfast, and Bijah. found Kate and her father already seated. There were no traces of agitation about Kate; there only seemed form was immersed in an elegant suit to be an added sweetness and gentleof broadcloth. Resides all this I ness in her manner to her father. I "I'm greatly obliged, sir and I'll of broadcloth. Besides all this, I ness in her manner to her father. I had cultivated a becoming pallor, for land to play the role of invalid. A land of feeling badly. I kept "Sir! don't you carriage was waiting; I was assisted my room most of the day, but within quester means exclaimed the court. termined to prevent it at the cost of my life. The day wore away in slow, interminable length. I did not tell her it took to wash it down, would have father what I suspected, but prepared it if he ever comes within thirty-six day, and the ceremony attracted a the house was still and silent. I knew Free Press. that Kate had gone to her room, for bad I took my coffee in bed. At I had heard light steps on the stairs some time before. I lowered the gas, opened my door slightly, and prepared to listen to every sound. The town clock struck eleven. twelve, and one, before my patience was rewarded, then the creaking of overcoat buttoned up—said overcoat made a grave mistake in bringing in lieu of a fire,—and took me there. I never had an iden; my robod of figure steeling down "Kate, darling, I knew you would mild, digestible food is what is reand said: me to your father." Then Reveaux's voice in passion

"How dare you interfere? I will each you better manners!" Before I could avoid it, he raised a pistol and fired. I felt a dull pain in my side; then come a blank. CHAPTER III.

When I returned to consciousness heard voices faintly whispering: "He cannot last much longer; poor I had a dim idea that the room was full of visitors, but I recognized no one; then came another blank. I had been badly wounded in the much as I could, and excite, if pos- side, almost fatally, but careful nurs-Reveaux's being sent to the peniten- up the action of the skin. When my head ached, and I often tiary for three years. had severe spells with my head, how Kate manifested no feeling; her tenderly she bathed it with those deft love seemed to have yielded to the

What a kind, benignant expression or plebian flows in your veins."

"It is worth makes the man, The want of it the fellow." I lost no time in finding Kate, and telling her the old, old story; when I had finished shedooked up and said 'Can you trust me now? I have been so very, very wicked." Trust her! no angel from heaver would have seemed purer, and so told her. Anybody looking into my home to-day and seeing my bonny, happy children, would know that she had not belied that trust. My sign, "David Moss, Attorney large, but lucrative. I have a special Luckily, I met no one who knew me penchant for unfledged attorneys, and

A NANDERER.

Joseph Muldoon had scarcely touched the mark when he informed the court that he was not only a poor

"I can't help it if you belong in I had been at Marston's house near-justice shall stand out here like freck-

"I took a drop, sir." "Where did you drop from?" "I mean that I sipped a little brandy, sir, and it flew to my head." "Joseph Muldoon, native of Cana-"No, sir-I drink whiskey as a both for your body and soul?

general thing." "Yes-um-yes," mused his Honor, as he looked over at the grinning it off? If not for health, when will "Well, I'll sequester you." "Thanks, sir, thanks."

"I don't want any thanks. I said "Yes, sir, and I'll be in Canada

The clerk grinned. The reporter anxiously waited. "Mr. Joy let this man out," contin ued the court, as he looked up from his papers, "warn himthat he'll catch

THE NERVES. Let all those who are troubled with weak nerves see to it that they in her working clothes. Her interest the escape of moisture is nearly enabstain from all kinds of excitement. was so intense that she stood close to tirely from the sides of the pot and As to strengthening the nerves, it the minister, who was in the water, not from the bottom and hence the cannot be done by medicines. Peru- while the ceremony proceeded. Af- futility of growing potsherd in the disconsolately in my office, with my that perhaps old Mr. Marston had the stairs drew my attention. Look- vian bark, wine, minerals, sea-baths, ter six or seven had been dipped, the etc., do not strengthen. Those which clergyman, filled with enthusiasm, robed figure stealing down, excite, as spirituous liquors, cold was seized her and pulled her into the then a clicking of the gate in a mo- ter in the form of bath, showers and water. She resisted, but the minisment. I followed out through the sponging, increase the weakness of ter imagined that she was merely gate, down to the end of the square, the nerves by over-excitement. Only afraid of the coldness of the water where a closely covered carriage was that which nourishes our body and so before she could explain the situ waiting. I arrived just in time to its masses of nerves, only that ation he soused her. She came up hear Walter Reveaux's voice saying: strengthen the nerves. Nourishing, spluttering, and exclaimed: come," when I took her by the arm quired. Milk, on account of its re- tell you!" "Kate-Miss Marston, you should almost any other article of food, but sent her "ker-chuck" below the surnot do this mad thing. Return with unfortunately, it is apt to curdle on face again. She emerged, clawing the stomach; this difficulty might, the air wildly and shouting:

semblance to blood, is better than however, be obviated by taking a very small quantity at a time, and chuck me under again you nigger!" taking it with white bread. Naturally, it must be taken quite and he plunged her under a third shorten the period dictated by custom often and with cream, which is the time, and held her there for a minute for wearing mourning, but that the fat of the milk. The weaker nerves, the so as to let it soak in and do her good. the more sleep the patient requires. Then she came up and struck for the Old people should be careful not to shore, and standing there, looked eat too much or too solid food at a like a draggled mermaid cut in ebony, time; rather let them eat little, and she shook her fist at the astonished eat often. They must avoid tough, pastor, and shricked: sinewy, hard food, and be careful not off of take too much nourishment, on off on you, you or nary trash! sousin' force much newly-formed blood thro' thereby shorten their lives. To cat religion den all the Baptisses dat sible, the jealousy of her lover, and ing and a good constitution triumphed. in the evening, or just before going evershouted, you mis able black scum! tempt him to some desperate action. After returning to consciousness the to bed, is very injurious. And to and me got the rheumatiz enough to I felt immediately that it would be second time I mended rapidly. I take a short nap just after dinner, set me crazy! Oh, I'll see what the pleasant task, although had I been think what helped me most was Kate's lynig on the left side, is very benefi- law kin do for you! I'll have you as I appeared, a young man of landed sweet face bending over me with a cial. Old people, like infants, need rested dis very day, or my name's estate. I would have entered into it world of tenderness in it. I conva- to be kept warm, therefore we rece not Johanna Johnson, you wollywith greater zeal. For a few days lesced rapidly, and Kate and I soon ommend flannel undersdirts, woolen headed herrin'! You hear me?" everything progressed smoothly. resumed our rides. One morning Mr. underclothes, warm bed-covers, and Kate was asiduous in her attentions Marston summoned me to the library, warm beds; well-warmed eating and dress, and the ceremony proceeded to my comfort. I would lie on the and told me that I must appear as a sleeping rooms, dry and sunny habi- Miss Johnson is now persuaded that sofa and she would read to me in her witness against Reveaux. This I did tations. Warm baths, cleanliness of the Baptists are not any better than dulcet tones. I enjoyed this heartily not wish to do, for fear that it might the skin in general, by means of pagans. for she was really a good reader, and implicate Kate; but Mr. Marston in-Tennyson or Byron from her lips aisted, and the trial resulted in Mr. are of the utmost importance to keep

The strain of the content to live and hask in the sum of the plain for U. S., Boults, Gold and Silver.

Gold and Silver.

Gold and Silver.

Tresident, Casher to be of a "Many for the strain of the s anointing with some fatty substance,

WHAT JOHN WESLEY SAID.

It passeth for an indisputable maxim, "Never attempt to reprove a man when he is intoxicated with at Nilwood the other day, and asked drink." Reproof, it is said, is then for the operator. A slim looking inthrown away, and can have no good dividual of the pin-back order, with-the contrary. Take one. Many years jerker." ago, passing by a man in Moorfields, who was so drunk he could hardly stand, I put a paper into his hand, the fact is, my old woman's had He looked at it, and said, "A Word another gal, and I want to dispatch—a Word to a drunkard,—that is to Aunt Nancy, in Zanesville."

me, Sir, Sir? I am wrong, I know I "Very well, sir," said the operator. am wrong—pray let me talk a little "The rate is thirty and three. Just with you!" He held me by the hand write your message." a full half hour, and I believe he got drunk no moré. I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, do not despise the poor drunkards! Have compassion on them! Be instant with them in season and out of season! Let not she could read your handwrite better'n shame, or fear of men prevent your pulling these brands out of the burnany hope for them.

Use no tobacco, unless prescribed by a physician. It is an uncleanly and unwholesome self-indulgence and the more customary it is, the more resolutely should you break off a physician. I suppose no other nation in Europe is in such vile bonsome plan to bring the young lady as David Moss, attorney and solicitor do all that I can to throw practice in dage to this silly, nasty, dirty custom to aubmission.

at law; but nearly always passed their way that they may show of as the Irish are. But let Christians be in this bondage no longer. Assert vour liberty, and that at once; nothing will be done by degrees. But this, because the evil is so general. the world, the devil, yourself, your lift.—Chicago Tribune..

besetting sins? 2. Do you deny yourself every useless pleasure of sense, imagination, honor? Are you temperate in all things? instance, in food; do you use only that kind and that degree this?

6. Do you drink water? Why not Did you ever? Why did you leave you begin again? To-day?

evil; in particular— 1. Neither to buy nor sell anything at all on the Lord's Day. 2. To taste no spirituous liquor. nor dram of any kind, unless prescribed by a physician. 3. To use no needless self-indul gence, such as taking snuff or tobacco, unless prescribed by a physician.

____ BAPTIZED BY MISTAKE.

Some of our worthy colored brethren of the Baptist persuasion had a baptism down at the creek last Sun

"What you doin'? Lemme go But he exerted his strength, and "G'way from here! Don't you

But the clergyman was inexorable, account of the enfeebled condition of me in dat dare creek and nearly their organs, which are not able to drownded me, when you knowed well society. enough all de time dat I'se a Methodist, and been crissened by dem dat's Many old people eat too much, and yer betters, and knows more bout and over that age only on the death Then Johanna went home to re

NOT A JOKE TOWARD THE END

A granger from Wacoupin county stepped into a local telegraph office effect. I dare not say so. out looking up from his instrument.

I have seen a few clear instances of informed him that he was the "wire

"Well." said the granger, name's Jerry Hogan, and you see-

The look on the granger's face was one of bewilderment. "Well," he said, "you see my learnin' ain't-"Oh, I see. Can't write?" "Not exactly that, but Aunt Nancy's eyes are very-well, I reckon mine." ing. Many of them are self-condemned: send it by our 'duplex,'" at the same of escaping out of it; they sink into a wire. "Now, all you have to do is it still deeper, because none else has a wire around your hand; to be a wire around your hand; and they forth upon the fly the from Jerusalem, the possession of a family and they first the same minute, so thirty-three thousand not pounds in a minute, so thirty-three thousand not pound not pound not pound not pound not pounds in a minute, so thirty-three thousand not pounds in the minute, so thirty-three thousand not pound not pou > wire. The granger wrapped the wire several times around his hand, and, leaning over the table, took the ground twelve thousand horse power. That is ters believed it (vs. 21, 32, 30). 2. The wire in his mouth, when bif. One the force wasted by our domestic animals Jews all believed it, (Vs. 19, 31, 37). 3. hundred and fifty cups of Calland's battery went through him like hot most sufficient, if rightly applied, to make Jesus afterward. (Vs. 47-41). They de-

Mr. Hogan was monarch of all he surveyed. Now that granger had been a gran-

DRAINING FLOWER POTS An experienced gardner, who grows hundreds of thousands of pot plants to be found out, and the utilitarian will the Jews, wrought greatly upon the sensiwithout drainage, writes to this effect hardly consider the creature worth the tive spirit of Jesus. He saw before him which is best for both your body and in an exchange: "The question of sacrifice of ten thousand-horse power of the horrid form of Sin working death and soul? Do you see the necessity of drainage is not whether plants require energy every moment of two months of wo in the world, and he was vehemently it or not; we all agree on that. But each year. It is the moralist, rather than affected in his spirit and shuddered. (Or, 3. Do you eat no flesh suppers? the question is in what way the water the utilitarian, to whom the insect's vir- he restrained himself in spirit and shudpasses from the pot; whether from tue's are revealed. The bald head is its dered). All he could say, with all possione there, and was astonished to see head, you flew to an alley, and the meal than is necessary? Are you not We who advocate that the practice sleeper is its frequent resting place. It is laid him?" His sisters replied, "Lord, of crocking pots is useless, claim that | perpetually tumbling into food, and every | come and see !" and unable to restrain nine-tenths of the escape of moisture dish in summer teems with the remains of his feelings longer, the fountain of tears that degree of drink which is best is from the sides; they who practice the fallen. In milk, in water, in molas overflowed, and "Jesus wept," It is not bottom drainage," would signify by ses, in soup and in gravy, in everything, said that he wept aloud (cried and wailed) doing, that in their opinion the es- the dead fly turns up with the regularity as did Mary and the Jews, but simply cape of water is mainly from the bot- of meal time. It is an unmeasurable and that he shed tears. It was a gentle weeptom. If any one wishes to decide novance, and in its vexations are the vir- ing, expressive of a calmand tender grief. this matter for himself, let him take tues of its being. It is also a lesson and For the tears of Jesus see in addition Carefully to abstain from doing half a dozen glazed pots, such as warning. Every misfortune of the fly, Luke xix: 41, and Luke xxii: 44; Hebs. v: water will not percolate through, let him knock the whole bottom out if he will, and "drain" in the usual way with potsherds, charcoal or anything else he thinks fit. Let him also take a half dozen of the ordinary style of flower pots. Fill these issues of its career, but the creature is were touched by it, and said, "Behold, how up with the same soil as used for the cursed by nature. It is born grown up, he loved him!" But the hostile part of the glazed pots, but without drainage. Let the same sort of plant be grown are no yoang or old and being thus creat- malignant criticism (v. 37). They could in each lot, and under the same con- ed the thing is a fool. It has no child- not deny the miracle in Jerusalem awhile ditions of temperature and moisture. bood, no experience, no parental instruct before (ch. ix), and reasoned justly that Let him note the result three weeks tion. It does not know what to do, and he who could open the eyes of a man born after the experiment has been made, so is always wrong. It is a moving mon- blind, could have saved a sick man from and if he does not find that the ument of the need of intelligence; it also death. Perhaps they had not heard how, to keep my vigil alone. By 10 o'clock miles of Detroit again."-Detroit very large crowd of people. Mrs. age, show indications of stagnant ted doors.-Hartford Courant. Pitman's colored servant girl was water in a greater degree than those very anxious to be present, and, as in the porous pots, then all my obserit was not her Sunday out, she slip-vations on this subject have gone for ped away from the house while the din- nothing. If I am correct in this ner was cooking, and went around in does it not emphatically prove that

London journals of the period are liscussing with some warmth the value of a new society which has been formed in the fashionable circles of that city for mitigating somewhat the

which the following is a copy: near relatives.
2. That it be strongly recommend ed to members of this society to exact period be left entirely optional. 3. That the heavy and extensive to extravagance and ostentation. 4. That the custom of wearing "com plimentary" mourning, viz., for connections, distant relatives, and friends be discarded by members of this

5. That children under four years of age be not put in black clothes, of parents, brothers, or sisters. 6. That servants of a household where a death has occurred be not put into mourning.
7. That the use of mourning stationery he in no case deemed essential, and that its entire disuse be recommended to members. are of the utmost importance to keep up the action of the skin.

Old people should take a warm bath at least once a week, first cleansing the skin with soap, and then in two hours.

When a man goes to a quilting party ablack sash or scarf over one sholder and crossing the breast.

9. That the previous rule be applicable at will in the case of servants of Boxeman.

and children.

ON THE FLY. It was Hamlet who expressed a prefer ence for the "fly to ills we know not of,"

NUMBER 15.

$2 per Annum in Advance.

or words to that effect, and Hamlet either was or pretended to be insane. The idea blind man at Jericho, and the vegetable that there is any more annoying torment miracle wrought upon the parren fig-tree. possible than the frequent fly affords, is an unsound notion, a sign of a very thick skin or a very thick head. But setting World and the Darkness of Death; then aside for the time the direct discomfort Martha and Mary, the loving sisters of that the creature works for man, it is in- Lazarus and the true friends of Jesus; teresting and instructive too, to see the and finally, a large concourse of Jews, seriously injurious effect that its indirect mainly from Jerusalem. We read nothing industry. There are in round numbers journey (vs. 7-16). Lazarus (a shortened 83,000,000 cows, oxen, horses and the like form of the more familiar Eleazar) was in this country, which for about ten hours of the one intimate personal friend that a day during fly-time keep their tails in Jesus possessed outside the circle of the almost constan motion. It is no exagger- Apostles." (Vs. 8, 5). Martha, the eldation to estimate that they swing them at est sister, is a type of the active, practical least ten times a minute with a force Christian; Mary, of the passive, contemequal at each swing to raising one pound plative Christian. (Luke x; 38-42). There a foot. That is, their tail force is ten foot- is an old tradition that Martha was the pounds' a minute. One horse power is wife of Simon the Leper. (Matt. xxvi: 6). "All right, sir; in that case I will thirty-three thousand foot-pounds in a Some conjecture that this Simon was the and take this in your mouth," and aggregate force of ten-thousand horse- ly tomb, and the very costly ointment he handed him the end of the ground power. Now the entire force of all the with which Mary anointed the feet of our steam engines and water wheels in the Lord (xii: 3) prove this.

grease through a gridiron; and in all the motive machinery in the land.

It is an enormous power to throw away defined that he had raised Lazarus from It is an enormous power to throw away denied that he had raised Lazarus from upon so small a thing as the fly; but so it the dead, 4. It is proved by the transpabappeus, and until somebody invents a rent honesty of Jesus and the veracity of machine for catching and transferring St. John. ger, and had built hog pens and planted corn all his life, and when he day light of the fly season. Sundays and ing Potterny to the hears of the sisters? Christ strengthening you.

Christ strengthening you.

Touch no dram. It is liquid fire. of his money; while the operator It is a sure, though slow, poison, In was an operator by birth, and when It is liquid character of the sure of the interest of the sure of the interest of the intere Ireland, above all countries in the last seen was counting railroad ties million tails kept quiet, the theory of the present. The secreey with which Marthaworld, I would sacredly abstain from between Summit and Bridgeport and correlation of forces will show us how delivered her message to Mary (v. 28), feeling in his pocket for $20 with vast the saving of food and consequent and the haste and silence with which 1. Do you stendily watch against which to take lessons on the health would be. Each flourish consumes so show that they both felt that danger was besetting sins?

food, and to stop the flourish would be to were demanded of Jesus and his friends. stop that particular demand for food. The tears of the sisters, the lamenta-What especial good the fly does remains | tions of the mourners, and the wailing of every disagreeable and annoying feat that 7. it performs, comes from its folly. It was This wonderful spectacle of "the Son not made to insult the bold or to overrun of God in tears," served as a criterion of the sleepy, or to vex the lives of 30,000, the hearts of the onlooking Jews; Luke ii: 000 cattle. Those should be only the side 34. The more friendly and well disposed all flies are of the same size, and there company resorted to their old strain of glazed pots, with the bottom drain- calls for wire-screened windows and net- in far-off Galilee he had raised from the BISHOP SIMPSON'S LIFE SAVED BY PRAYER. I remember once when there was a conference at Mt. Vernon, in this State, at which I was present. Bishop Jayne was presiding on one afternoon, and after reading a dispatch stating that Bishop Simpson was dying in Pittsburg, asked description: "But Jesus knew and heard that conference unite in prayer that his their comments, and once more the whole life might be saved. We knelt down, and Mr. Taylor, the great street preacher mourners, its uncalmed hatreds, all conof California, led in one of his beautiful centrated around the ghastly work of prayers. After the first few sentences, in death—came so powerfully over his spirit, which I joined with my whole heart, my that, though he knew he was going to mind seemed to be at ease, and I did not wake the dead, once more his whole be-months afterward I met Bishop Simpson know, but that the physician said it was a miracle. He said that one afternoon, when at the point of death, the doctor left the doctor returned, and immediately nothey had done for the Bishop; they said nothing at all. That half hour, I found, praying for him at Mt. Vernon. From has lived to bless the Church and humanity. If the Lord could touch the vitality in one direction, he could in another. members, on the death of friends. Bishop Simpson's case, and ten thousand connections, or distant relatives, to others, are living examples of that to-day. wear as a token of respect a band God does answer prayer for physical of crape on the arm or hat in the good. I know He does, On the God will still rely, scientific men and philosophers to the contrary, notwithstanding.

NOTES ON THE INTERNATIONAL SEPTEMBER 19, 1875.

T. JOHN XI:31-14-GOLDEN TEXT; HOSEA XIII: 14 THIRD QUARTER. No. XII.

The scene of this miracle was Bethany, village about two miles east of Jerusalem (v. 18). There was another Bethany in Perma, where Jesus was sojourning when the message from the sisters reached him (x: 40; xi: 3). This place is called in i: 28, Bethabara, but the true reading, as shown by the earliest MSS. of the New Testament, is Bethany. It was beyond Jordan, near Jericho, and about twenty niles from the Judean Rethany. The time was but a few weeks before the last Passover; Bishop Ellicott calculates about two months. There were only two miracles subsequent to this the ophthalmic miracle wrought upon the two The actors in this striking scene were first Jesus and Lazarus—the Life of the influence seems to have upon the world's of the disciples after the beginning of the country, used in the manufacture of Lazarus was really dead there could steam engines and boilers, is less than be no sham or trick about it. 1. His sisin waving tails to keep the fly away is al- It was never questioned by the enemies of dead the daughter of Jairus and the young man of Nain. Or if they had heard rumors of it, it was more natural that they should refer to an event more recent, and wrought in the very streets of Jerusalem-one which perhaps some of them

As to the rest we cannot do better than quote Farrar's condensed and beautiful scene - its genuine sorrows, its hired sive and extensive mourning, and this pay much attention to the rest of the ing was swept by a storm of emotion. society has framed a code of laws, of prayer, only to notice its beauty. When The grave, like most of the graves belongwe arose from our knees, I turned to a ing to the wealthier Jews, was a recess brother and said, Bishop Simpson will carved horizontally in the rock, with a ing for any person deceased be limit not die; I feel it." I then told him how slab or mass of stone to close the entrance. ed to bona fide mourners—i. e., very the feeling had come over me, and he assured me that he had experienced the was called. Then Martha interposedsame impression. The word was passed partly from conviction that the soul had around, and over thirty ministers, who now utterly departed from the vicinity of were present, said they had the same feel. the mouldering body, partly afraid in her ing. I took my book and made a note of natural delicacy of the shocking spectacle the hour and circumstance. Several which the removal of that stone would recrape trimmings on skirts of dresses and asked him what he did to recover his sary that burial should follow immediate and on mantles be disused, as tending health. He answered that he did not ly upon death, and as it was the evening of the fourth day since Lazarus had died, there was too much reason to fear that by this time decomposition had set in. Solhim, saying that he should be left alone emnly Jesus reminded her of his promise, for a half hour. At the end of that time and the stone was removed from the place where the dead was laid. He stood at ticed a great change in the patient. He the entrance, and all others shrank a little was startled, and asked the family what backward, with their eyes still fixed on that dark and silent cave. A hush fell upon them all as Jesus raised his eves by making allowance for difference in lo. and thanked God for the coming confirmcalities, was just the time when we were ation of his prayer. And then, raising to its clearest tones that voice of awful and that time on he steadily improved, and sonorous authority, and uttering, as was usual with him on such occasions, the briefest words, he cried, "Lazarus, come forth!" (literally, "Lazarus, hither! more through that region of impenetrable darkness which separates us from the world to come; and scarcely were they case of men, and in the case of women who has so often arswered my prayers, I spoken when, like a spectre, from the rocky tomb issued a figure, swathed indeed with its white and ghastly cercments-with the napkin round the head Amen. - Fxtract from a Sermon by Bishwhich had upheld the jaw that four days previously had dropped in death, bound hand and foot and face, but not livid, not