

X Moor's new block, over Kent & Watrons' store, is now prepared to do all kinds of dental work the has also put in a new gas aparatus.
GEO. V. MYER, C. E., COUNTY SURVEYOR, -Particular attention given to be ating disputed "fines."	Plain and Fancy Dress Goods, Black Goods, Black Silks, &c., &c.,
office over Past Office. preside 75. Towards, Pa. Towards, Pa. Towards, Pa.	↓
• W • AT LAW, WYALCSING, PA. Will attend to all business entrusted to his care in Bradford, allivation and Wyoming Counties. Office with Esq. Porter	Hats, Caps, and Ladies and Children's Shoes.
CONNECTICUT MUTUALALIFE INSURANCE COMPANY. Office Net/Solition & Particutes Revealed and States and
DR. G. A. BUSH.	PLEASE CALL AND EXAMINE.
CAMPTOWN, BRADFORD COUNTY, PA.	TAYLOR & CO.
Treats Chronic Diseases by new methods. May be reasulted by letter. (aug674,	Towanda, September 16, 1873.
OVERTON & ELSBREE, ATTOR- webs a triLaw, Towanda, PA. Having en- tered hop co-partnership, offer their professional sectives to the public. Special attention given to bushiess in the Orphan's and Register's Courts. 5. OVERTON, Ju. (april470) a. N. C. ELSBREE.	NEW FALL GOOD S
MADILL & CALIFF, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, TOWANDA, PA,	THIS WEEK.
Office in Wood's Block, first door south of the First National lank, upstairs, H. J. MADILL. [Jans-73by] J. N. CALIFF,
C. S. RUSSELL'S GENERAL	POWELL & CO.I
INSURANCE AGENCY,
Naves-Tours TOWANDARPA.	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
ATTORNEY AT LAW, NDD U.S. COMMISSIONER, TOWARD SPA	We are new receiving our first installment of
Office-North Side Public S pare, Jan, 1 1875.	FALL GOODS,
THE UNDERSIGNED, ARCHIF TECT AND BUILDER, wishes to inform the citizens of Towanda and vicinity, that he will give particular attention to drawing plans, designs and specifications for all manner of buildings, pri- val, and multic Sumerist up nor given for pras<ul> <li>val cand public. Superintendence given for reasonal compensation. Office at residence N. E. Com Second and Elizabeth streets. J. E. FLEMING, J. 5573. Box 511, Towanda, Pa.</li> </ul>	DRESS GOODS,
C. BINBEE. CARRIAGE • PAINTER AND DECORATER, Also man- sing correct of Winamental Glass Show Cards, a few dynamic of the DEPORTER Office.	SHAWLS,
W. KINGSBUBY, REAL ESTATE, LIFE, FIRE & ACCIDENT	cî.oths
INSURANCE AGENCY.
Office, corner Main & State Sts. March 13, 1872. TOWANDA, PA.	CASSIMERES AND SUITINGS
INSURANCE AGENCY. The following	GLOVES
RELIABLE AND FIRE TRIED computes represented to
ANA SPHRE PHOEMAX, HOME,	TIES,
March 1971. CO.A. BLABK.	HOSIERY,
OF TOWANDA. C. PITAL	DRESS TRIMMINGS,
bisibank offers UNUSUAL FACILITIES for the transaction of a	AND NOTIONS.
GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS INTEREST PAID ON DEPOSITS ACCORDING	Also a jarge stock of
TO AGREEMENT.	DOMESTICS.
NOTES AND CHECKS. Parties wishing to SEND MONEY to any part of the United States, England, Ireland, Scotland, or imprincipal cities and towns of Europe, can here
PASSAGE TICKETS	CALICOES,
To or from the Old Country, by thebest steam or soling lins, always on hand.	GINGHAMS, lightest price paid for U.S. Ronds	BLEACHED MUSLINS, vote for the party which repealed the ----local-option law, in order to punish SPEECH OF HON. G. A. GROW. those who passed it and failed to At the great Mass Meeting in Philadelmaintain it against overwhelming odds, are killing their own cause, phia on the 25th inst., Hon. GALUSHA A. Governor Hartranft was not elected GROW delivered the following able and on a temperance platform; and, as a elounent speech. For several years Mr. Republican, was in honor bound to GRow has been occupied in business persuits, and only enters the political field in money, but without confidence it re-now that he realizes, the great danger quires the hundred per cent in money to preserve the power and prestige of the party which elected him. That party sustained a crushing defeat. which threatens the country through in- do the business. mainly through the intemperate acluences of the Democratic leaders. We tion of temperance people. Through commend the speech to the careful pethis action the enemies of temperance rusal of all candid men : came into power-in the lower house Fellow Citizens: Accept my grateful was before in the history of the country, acknowledgments for the cordiality of and greatly in excess of the present wants of the Legislature, and used their power to repeal the friendly legislathis greeting. Withdrawn for years from all participation of the party he represented. tion in politics, wholly absorbed in indus-trial pursuits, I come before you this time, For him to have interposed his veto against the reactionary flood which on the invitation of your commutee, only from a sense of duty such as every good ties, desires to go into business, to used citizen owes to his country. With views op resources. Some man makes a loan of the bank and gives his note, payable on the invitation of your committee, only had swept over the State must have had a disastrous effect upon the organization he was in honor bound to ministration, I shall call your attention at a future day, and receives this $100 XVI., an only to a brief consideration of the finan-bill. With it he buys $100 worth of cloth-fathers. serve; or he, at least, had good reason to believe that such would be the on to believe that such would be the case, and those who complain that he was false to a solemn obligation in order to render a doubtful and precarious service to a cause no matter how good, are simply urging matter how good, are simply urging shook the republic with its earthquake $100 bill back to the bank and pays his the old Jesuitic doctrine of the duty of doing evil that good may come. Governor-Hartranft must be polit-ically blind, and quite unfit for the position he is in, if he does not know that the continuance of the Republi-tical state of the doct in the ended in the emancipation of a race, I hoped that the whole people, with out partisan rancor or sectional hate, would turn their undivided attention to the encouragement of the industrial inter-est, the development of the natural re-ter, the doct he book work of the particular is the continuance of the Republithe old Jesuitic doctrine of the duty that the continuance of the Republisources and the promotion of the lallor of the note is back in the bank again, and can party in power is necessary to the country. We had then just passed successfully We had then just passed successfully It in a similar way. We had then just passed successfully the final mathematical states inci-dent to national existance. In all nation-alities a people have first to carve out a national existence. That our fathers did in the revolution. Next, they have to prove their ability to maintain their po-eition at the fireside of nations by repell-interests of the courty, having piled up the commons amount of goods awaiting the maintenance of the Union on a basis of freedom of the slave. Whatever hopes we, might once have had to the contrary, the past year leave no room for any other conclusion. No doubt this has been his conviction ever since the war, and if he sition at the fireside of nations by repell-interests of the country, having piled up had failed to use all lawful endeavors ing all external aggressions. That was had failed to use all lawful endeavors done in the vindication of the inviolabilito secure its ascendancy, he would ty of American citizenship when in the war of 1812 we scouted the lion of the have been a traitor to his country. proud mistress of the seas from our shores. Next they must prove their ability to It is difficult to see that his veto of the objectionable bill would have protect themeslves against themselves, by suppressing all domestic violence, The business, do not go into the marts of trade rendered any real service to the temperance cause. Temperance people grassy mounds of half a million hero had shown so much dissatisfaction martyrs will stand forever a monument of that achievement. In each of these trials with the law, had gone so far outside the great requisite of the nation was the of it in their efforts to suppress inheart of oak, a nerve of steel. [Applause] The institutions of free elective governtemperance, that he or any one else might easily conclude that they cared ment are again on trial. The capacity of man for self government is now to pass its severest test in this issue forced upon little for it, and that, like all former laws for the prormotion of tempeance, he country by the Democratic party of it had been weighed in the balance Dhio and Pennsylvania, whether the peo and found wanting: but no matter ple have honesty and virtue enough to discharge faithfully all national obligawhat was his opinion, or what were the facts in the case, his first duty tions by self-imposed burdens of taxation was to save the party which alone In this trial it requires for the successful proposed to enforce the dearly-bought issue only the common honesty that be ongs to uncorrupted human nature. ssues of the war. THAT THERE HAS BEEN CONTRACTION DI We must have a country and government before we can decide NIED. what men shall or shall not drink, or The first assumption, that there ha do. under it. First see to it that been a contraction of the currency, is not true in fact, for there has been no conthey do not pull the house down betraction. What do we mean by currency fore you turn your attention to sweep-It is that which is used to make the exchanges of commodities and property ing and dusting it. It may be paper, it may be coin, or both Some of my friends say to me Today we have in currency, all paper, three hundred and eighty-two millions of "How is it that you, an old Abolitionist, are not working fo temerperlegal tenders, in round numbers, $50,000, ance when the slavery of intemperance when the slavery of intemper-ance is so much worse than Southern lation, $345,000,000; making the whol circulation medium to-day $777,000,000. bondage? There were $740,000,000 in 1873, $683, 000,000 in 1867 and $312,000,000 in 1860 The assumption that I am not working for temperauce because I am We have a greater volume of circulation not, and have not been, praying on to-day than at any preceding period in the not, and have not been, praying on to-day than at any preceding period in the late could get a horse would be to make the street corners, and am opposed to the history of the country, and more than the enough to buy one, and then find a man who had one that suited him and the country like the lessons my good 1860. So that the present disaster to the business of the country cannot be the re-Iriend Uliver Johnson used to read sult of a contraction of currency, and if me, because I was sustaining the general bankruptcy is threatened" it is a man that would want so many hats an Constitution Still we shall be a substantial of a contraction of currency and if business of the country cannot be the re-Constitution. Still, we abolished not from this cause. slavery under the Constitution, and

WHAT PRODUCED THE PANIC it is possible I might be a friend of What then has produced this depression temperance without kneeling in the in business? First the war that destroy mud to pray at, or for, runsellers, or d so largely the productions of industry, working to defeat a party which I in calling from every branch of business gave some years of my life to build men to the field to uphold the standard of moneyed men refuse to loan except on the Paper representation based upon coin most undoubted security, and no money seeks an investment in any channel of for its redemption has this advantage productive industry, for every thing there s overstocked, and it seeks no new enter-with all people—whenever a want of con fidence falls upon a community its effects are less with such currency, for it is a cir-culating medium based on a gold value, prise, because of the uncertainty of our currency, till it is brought to a specie basis. Hence the large amount of idle cap-ital. It only requires about five per cent. of the amount of actual exchanges to be payable in gold. The Democratic party' of Pennsylvania ropuse to change the National currency and substitute for it the legal tender treasury notes. To add to the $382,000, 000 already issued $345,000,000 more to WHY MONEY IS SCARCE IN CIRCULATION. Everywhere we have over-production 000 already issued $345,000,000 more to to the stern virtue and inflexible manhood fill up the circulation that the National of the Roman judge who, in obedience to banks now have, making $727,000,000 of duty, condemned his only child to death, want of confidence, and an irredeemable paper circulation twice as great as it ever treasury notes to be issued, and not one of these protected by a coin dollar, unless it is proposed to fill the treasury with $727,- This well-merited homage is paid to the is proposed to fill the treasury with $727, 000,000 of coin to be held to redeem them. But where is it? In the banks, o course. When the bank makes a $100 bill Without that what security is there they how does it get out into circulation? By. some man who desires to buy commodi-ties, desires to go into business, to devel-op resources. Some man makes a loan of the bank and gives his note, payable the regent Orleans, the assignats of Louis VVI and the Continent of the source of XVI., and the Continental money of our tions for sixty years. In the transactions of business, in trade and commerce, is it wise for us to disre-gard the wisdom of the ages and the experience of all time? If it were a good tions. Men are indispensable, it is true, in policy to change our bank currency into administering Governments; yet in the treasury notes, could it be done without a great movements of the people-moral breach of good faith upon the part of the social or political-the individual is swep lovernment?

stays there until some one desires to use it in a similar way. If the man that has THE PLEDGE OF FAITH. I quote the pledge of the Government made to its creditors in the Act of Junc 30th. 1864 : SECTION 2. * * * Nor shall the total amount of United States notes issue or to be issued, ever exceed four hundred millions of dollars. Also, Act of February 25th, 1862, au-thorized the legal tenders and provided that all duties on imported goods shall be paid in coin, and the coin so paid shall be set apart as a special fund and shall be applied as follows :

engagements. The money is not taken from the banks, for the reason that no one desires to invest in these commodities. First-To the payment in coin of the terest on the bonds and notes of the business, do not go into the marts of trade Inited States.

to buy property. They furnish exchanges for doing that by others, and for the risk of furnishing exchange is what they charge their interest. They deal in inter-Second-To the purchase or payment of one per centum of the entire debt of the United States, to be made within each fiscal year after the first day of July, A. est bearing paper, and it is from the in-terest on money which they furnish for others to make exchanges they derive that D., 1862. EFFECT ON LABOR.

profit which they pay their stockholders heaviest upon labor, for the dealer in commodities takes into consideration the So when currency is not wanted for bu-siness it remains with those who issue it. liability of the fluctuation in the price of cors must, of course, some day have a gold, and he must add to his price to end. And that is the case to-day. So, while there is plenty of paper money there is gold, and he must add to his price of no call for it by business interests, hence guard against loss in that way. Thus it passes through the hands of all the deal ers, until it reaches the consumer. I has nothing but his labor to sell, and THE SERVICE MONEY PERFORMS.

How is money used in tee business transdoesn't fix the price of that; he has a actions of life? Here are two pieces of paper. One is stamped "one dollar," the other is stamped "one hundred dollars;" fuctuations of the price of gold. So the yet the two pieces of paper are of tho same size, the same general appearance, result of irredeemable paper to him is the same as if the money he gets depreciated while in his possession. For instance, he takes a silver dollar, and while he has it and intrinsically are of indentically the same value—no more, no less. In the transactions of business, which ten or fifteen cents is worn off, so when the advancement of the greatness and he passes it he can get only eighty-five or glory of the republic, and henceforth inety cents for it.

is but an exchange of property or com-modities, paper or coin is used to facili-tate the exchange, and is called a circula-ting medium. Without a circulating me-The national bank note is to-day sent out to the world. It is no lien upon anydium, trade and commerce could not be carried on, except by the exchange of the thing, remember; no mortgage upon anything except a promise to pay, and it only has credit because of faith in that promcommodities themselves. So that if a has credit because of faith in that prom-man who manufactured hats, and that ise. Whether that faith be given or not was the only commodity he had, and he is the issue of the hour, and the American wants a horse, if there was no (as it is people have to decide it at the ballot-box for they are now called upon to determine called) circulating medium, the only way he could get a horse would be to make whether or not they are sufficiently patriotic to submit to self-imposed burde taxation. THE INFLATION MOVEMENT.

you increase the volume of irredeemable once, for the purchaser of the hats could paper, depreciate the paper, and the day-would come when, as predicted by the Democrats, when greenbacks were first dispose of them to some one who only dispose of them to some one who had some commodity he might want, equal in value to one or some even number o issued, the currency would be as worththem, for the hat could not be divided. less as Continental money, especially if a So it could only be exchanged for a comportion of the American people proposed modity of equal value.

purchasers, find themselves with thes

t is scarce in circulation.

goods on their hands unable to meet their

that if carried into the administration of by word among the nations, appeals to the voter for the support of its candidate.

common of his every-day duties the high-est honors of the State are to be laid at his feet? If so, then indeed is the out-look for the future of the Republic gloomy and sad. For ages the world paid homage heroism that could in obedience to public duty silence the pleadings of the holiest affections that tendril around the heart. But, if the highest honors of the people are to be bestowed for the simple dis-charge of the plain duties of every-day life, what need then should be awarde to him who, bidding adieu to kindred and Even now the dollar of this republic, in all that is near and dear, and taking his the zenith of its power and boasted great- young life in his hand on the tented field streiving the ground with dead and dying comrades; perils all in defence of the life of the Republic? But policies, principles and measures of administration in a government like ours are paramount to all personal consideraalong by the tide as waifs are borne the boson of the mighty deep when it stirred by the tempest and the storm

THE DUTY OF THE HOUR. The grave duties of the hour are ccon-

my in public expenditures, honesty and us is chargeable to this party which "after these") may mean after a while. fidelity in administration, and the return now again seeks to get into power, and so was terminated with the Saviour's of the currency to a specie basis, so as to save the nublic credit from dishonor, an thereby lighten the burden of taxation, and place the industries of the country a solid and sure foundation, thus ena-bling labor to enjoy the fruits of its toil. In addition, the highest patriotism denands that we do all in our power to aid in building up the broken Commonwealth whose fields were wasted and homes desc lated in the havor of war. All nations have had their day of disaster. For long years the soil of EnglanJ was red with from; you would have neither country the blood of her best citizens in the war credit or work. Among the innumerof the Roses, yet the star of her empire, though beaming through the mists of civil able array of employes of the govwar, still shines on with undimmed lustre The evils of irredeemable paper fall A party victorious in a carnival of bloo unot, in this age, convert itself into party of perpetual hates. Hates and ranto fill their emaciated coffers? Standing, then, by the green graves o the fallen heroes of both sections, and

Gov. JEWELL has given another dropping a tear at the disconsolate fire-side where affection still mourns the unevidence of his fitness for the posireturning brave, let us bury with the he-roic dead the animosities engendered in the conflict, and, while pointing to the tion of a Cabinet officer, by providing fast mail trains on the trunk lines. past as a beacon warning for the future The mails are now carried from New let us remember that we are all America citizens, glorying in the traditions of a common ancestry, and vying with each other in deeds of patriotic devotion for York to Chicago in 26 hours., Gov. JEWELL is one of those officials who give their time, talents and energies for the benefit of the people.

LESSONS.

bound together as one people, ho ous in ideas and institutions, from the gulf to the lakes, and from ocean to ocean NOTES ON THE INTERNATIONAL with one union and one destiny now forever. [Great applause.]

OCTOBER 10, 1875. ST. JOHN XIII: 1-9-GOLDEN TEXT; PHILIPS, II: 5. The following is the creed put forth by the recent Conference in Bonn, at FOURTH QUARTER. NO. 11. which eight Old Catholics, twenty "Here begins the third main part of Greek Catholics, twenty Anglicans the gospel of John setting forth the gloriand about fifty Christians of other fication of Christ as the suffering High The results of changing this currency In regard to the Holy Gnost, we are ato national bank notes would be that the doctrine of John of Damascus as in the old undivided church, it is contained the old undivided church, it is contained denominations took part : Priest and the victorious King. It is subdivided into three sections. The first treats of his private glorification in the in the following propositions: 1. The Holy Ghost proceeds from the midst of his disciples; the foot-washing,

Father as the Beginning, the Cause, and the parting discourses, and the sacerdotal the source of the Godhead. prayer, chaps, xiii-xvii; the second, his 2. The Holy Ghost proceeds from the public glorification in his passion and portion of the American people proposed to repudiate it. This inflation movement is an attack upon the credit of the nation, which all that is in the Godhead there is only one Beginning and one Cause, out of full glorification in his resurrection and full glorification in his resurrection and duties. Meil why have proven un- ed-"and began to wash the disciple, the government would cover it with dis- faithful to the people and to their feet." To wash the feet was the work of the government would cover it with dis- faithful to the population in the left. To wash the trust in the hard no servant, it be great party of liberty and justice must not be sacrificed. Its banners came some one of the disciple to do this are less with such currency, for it is it cir-culating medium based on a gold value, and interchangeable the world over. But treasury notes will be affected in the esti-mation of money circles by every election held in this country, until they are made record of human fidelity to the no- place. Regarding it as a menial service blest attributes of humanity. It each one claimed preeminence over his reads like a chapter of Scripture__ brother-apostle. With his clear exposirich in wisdom ; full of earnest plea- tion of Christian greatness, Jesus himself dings for Divitic Justice. To destroy rose from the triclinium, saying, "I and such a party, in order to correct a among you as he that serveth." And few faults, or to satisfy private mal- after the washing was done he gently ieice, would be to blot out the sun, be- bukked their pride and ambition (v. 14) : cause a few spots have been discover- We also ought to wash one another ed on its surface. Purify the party ; feet." select the best men for office: With whom did he begin? Not with strengthen it in every weak point; Peter, as Augustine and many Catholic make it again, a living, vitalizing exegetes think, for this is opposed to v. 6 power in the land; and it will be-Chrysostom and others suppose that he come the inspiration that shall lead began with Judas. We should conjecture the nations of the world to a higher John, as he reclined nearest to Jesus on plane of civilization.

the couch. No couch. V. 6: "Dost those wash my feet?" THERE are those who are driven by the hard times to thoughtlessly exprotest born no doubt of reverence, and yet displaying Peters characteristic selfwill. However great his reverence forthe Lord, he should have allowed him to act his pleasure without asking any quesbut, as one would invest in a lottery. tions. Still Jesus is tender and gentle. The times being hard, they think v. 7 "What I do thou knowest not now something, may be, will turn up by taking the fearful chances of a change' | but thou shalt learn hereafter." "What They take their chances in a lottery I do" includes (1) the washing itself as a in which there is not a single prize. lesson of humility and love, v. 14; (2) its Democracy has carried the country symbolical meaning, vs. 9-10 ; (3) the to a dozen worse panics than this. great act of love, the assumption of the All the hard times that have come to form of a servant. "Hereafter" (literally us is chargeable to this party which "after these") may mean after a while.

not because it presents a good plat- explanation, vs. 12-17; or it may refer to form or sound policy, but simply the the illumination by the Holy Spirit on the cause some weak people think that a day of Pentacost. Perhaps if we unite change even to Democracy might help both, we shall come nearest the truth. us somewhat. Canvass well the V. 8, "Peter saith unto him, 'Never chances you take before you commit never forever shalt thou wash my feet. the deed. This is the same Demo-Here Peter is without excuse. His first cracy that used every effort to ruin protest may be ascribed to reverence, but our country. If it had not been for this impetuous, positive, forcible refusal the very party you now seek to change can come only from a perverse, wicked self-will. Even after the Lord's explanation and promise, he will not submit. He ernment is there here and there a knows better than Jesus. Compare Matt. lishonorable rascal? How much xvi:22. "Jesus'answered him, if I wash worse would it be if you opened the thee not," &c. Here is will against will flood gates to the hungry Democracy Christ's against Peter's. If he refusés any longer he separates himself utterly and forever from his Master. He becomes guilty of unbelief and disobedience. He proves that the same mind is not in him which is in Christ Jesus, Hence, he can have no part with (hrist, He chooses on the other hand his part with Judas; the part of nature instead of grace. V. 9, "Not my feet only; but my hands and my head." This is an expression o entire subjection. He cannot bear to think of exclusion from the fellowship and presence of his lord. So he resists no longer. But as is generally the case with violent reaction he goes too fhr.

Self-will still reveals at least the skirt of her carment. He wants all the uncovered parts of his body washed. He goes beyond Christ's design. He shows that he does not comprehend the symbolic import of Christ's act. Hence, the gentle correction in v. 10. Several explanations have been given of this verse. The choice lies between two. 1. As a man coming out of a bath is clean altogether, so the disciples were clean thro' faith in Christ's word. (ch. 15:3); but as in passing from the bath the feet become soiled with dust, which only needs to be washed away in order to complete cleanness; so in their highest vrice paid for U. S., Bonds,	BLEACHED MUSLINS,	working to deleat a party which 1	in calling from every oranen of business	COIN AND PAPER CONTRACTS.	is an attack upon the gradit of the nation	one Beginning and one Cause, out of	full glorification in his resurrection and minds, which only needs removal by low	s a succe the part for c. 13. Donds,		gave some years of my life to build	men to the field to uphold the standard of	a difficulty, in fact almost imposibil-	and, let it be understood in money circles,	which all that is in the Godhead pro-	reappearance among his disciples, as the ly-mindedness. 2. The disciples wer	no to up, and which I now consider essen-	by making a greater demand which stim- lity	of comming on trade in that way in-	that the American poonts and about to		pledge of his abiding presence to the end clean (all except Judas) because bathe	C X

Gold and Silver.	TABLE LINENS, TOWELLINGS,	tial to the existance of our Govern-	ulated production. That, of itself, stim- duce	d the adoption of some medium of	break their niedges on resumption if they			.a ( 4
		ment, I was glad when women be-	ulated the productive industries over any exch	ange that should be recognized by	continuo an inflated currency of irredeem-	A The Holy Ghost is the image of the	of time; chaps. xx and xxi." (Schaff. in Jesus' blood, Thro' the washing of re	e-
POWELL, N. N. BETT, JR.		gan the crusade, and glad of the	previous period. The enhancement of all, o	or of some certain value at which it	able paper, and the consequence will be	Son, the image of the Father proceeding	The time of the foot washing was the generation their sins were all removed an	.id . [
POWELL, N. N. BETT, JR. President, Cashier,	FLANNELS, &C.	spirit with which they carried it on	prices was still further increased by the shou	ld be received for horses and hats, or l	that the bonds of the Government held	from the Father and shiding in the Sou	evening before the crucifixion, "Such an cleansed; they were not only justified br	nt.
		$\vec{\mathbf{D}}_{-}$ (b) (b) (c) (c) (c) (c) (c) (c) (c) (c) (c) (c	issue of large amounts of irredeemable in ex	change for any other species of prop- i	abroad will come home to be sold at what.	an a power which emenator from high	also sanotified they faith in the D	nt woman ware aroused to feel that	paper. These two things stimulated all crty, the productive industries, but when the calle	Hence comes a circulating medium	ever price they will bring. The deprecia-	5. The Holy Ghost is the personal ema-	history-the fulness of eternity itself was each day brings new sins. Hence the	07
THE LITTLE STORE ROUND THE COBNER'	Fine assortment of goods, at low prices, in every	I then have some menonalility for the	the productive industries, but when the calle	d currency. It may be paper, or it	tion of paper will bring with it a depre-	nation of the Father, belonging to the	history-the runess of eternity itself was have need only to most its	J
I, the best place in Towanda to buy good	Department.	, they have some responsionity for the	war ended and the men from the field ( may	be coin. But if it is naper, as the	Clavion of the Government honds' and	I Son list adt from the Son because it in	condensed into a few fleeting momenta ?? I have need only to wash them away-in	16
_CIGARS AND TOBACCO.	inclus success	political evils which surround them.	went to work as producers, these indus- pape	r has no intrinsic value, or compara-	with it bankruptcy and wide-spread ruin.	the breath of the mouth of the Godhead	The place was the "large upper room" sins that cleave to their daily walk-an	id j
		I am heartily glad, now, to see that	tries still continued their production, and tivel	y none, it is only worth, if the promise	why should not the Government do as	which speaks the Word (Logos).
at low rates. Remember	POWELL & Co.	so many of these women have taken	thus they filled the markets of the coun- it be	ars is taken on, what it would sell	every debtor does, commence sometime to	0. The Holy Ghost forms the connec-	disciples to cheave the Bessere, The the petition of the Lord's Frayer: "Fo	er-
MERCUES BLOCK, opposite COURT HOUSE	I OWBELL & CO.	a good step forward, and are trying	the demand not being could to the coupled for t	o be manufactured into some other	por its over-due notes? That is all that	t tion of the Father and the Son, and is	in Jerusalem in which Christ met with his disciples to observe the Passover. The owner of the house has been identified or sins. The latter is, no doubt, the tru	ts
SIGNOF THE "INDIAN SQUAW apr29-75.	sep9-tf.	to reach an evil by making votes.	the production went on until the stock no v	alue except in its promise. So when	is sked-not that it should pay them all	I connected through the Son with the	owner of the house has been identified or sins. The latter is, no doubt, the tru	ae
•	1 contraction and		the monderion went on untritine stock no t	and except in its promise, bo when	to-day, or to-morrow, but that they should	1 · Fatuer.	by some with Joseph of Arimathæa, by explanation.	R
				,	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·			i .	a .		a The second states in the first states in the President Network (1995) second	