脚を見けずくぎくきょうしょ かく動い たきせいし

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET. GEN. JOHN F. HARTRANFT, Of Montgomery. HENRY RAWLE, Of Erid County.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

FOR SHERIFF. ANDREW J. LAYTON, Of Litchfield. OR PROTHONOTARY CAPP, BENJAMIN M. PECK. of Towarda Borough. CEPHAS E. ANDRUS. FOR TREASURAL MAJ. J. C. ROBINSON Of Bldgbury, FOR COMMISSIONERS. UNPT. GEORGE W. KILMER.

MORRIS J. COOLBAUGH, Of Wysox. FOR AUDITORS, DANVERSE BOURNE. J. R. BRASTED, D. B. WALKER, Republican Mass Meetings.

Republican Meetings will be held at the following places, on the dates indicated. The meetings will be addressed by able na eting: THURSDAY-EVENING, Oct. 21. Herrick, Ballyaoy School House.

FRIDAY EVENING, Oct. 22. West Franklin. rnent. Standing Stone. Litchfield Centerville, Ridgbury twp.

SATURDAY EVENING, Oct. 23 MONDAY EVENING, Oct. 25. Burlington Boro.

Green's Landing, Athens two.

*TUESDAŸ EVENING, Oct. 26. West Burlington. Neath. Pottervili Springfield Center.

Wilmot

WEDNESDAY EVENING, Oct. 27 -ylvania. THURSDAY ENENING, Oct. 28. Austinville

Bardwell School House, Springfield twp. Granville Center.

SATURDAY EVENING, Oct. 30. Bentley Creek.

Wysox. M. E. Church near Stones LeRoy. MONDAY EVENING, Nov. 1st.

To examine your tickets before de-human:" but when men ask for public nine-dollar boots, but I jes' lef 'em, my regrets that it is atterly impossible support and base their claims on certain specific acts or virtues, it is only dollar shoes!"

your kind invitation, and with my manage my regrets that it is atterly impossible for me to take part in any political campaign at present. Both my duties here and the present state of my voice, oblige my regrets that it is atterly impossible for me to take part in any political campaign at present. Both my duties here and the present state of my voice, oblige my regrets that it is atterly impossible for me to take part in any political campaign at present. Both my duties here and the present state of my voice, oblige my regrets that it is atterly impossible for me to take part in any political campaign at present. Both my duties here and the present state of my voice, oblige my regrets that it is atterly impossible for me to take part in any political campaign at present. Both my duties here and the present state of my voice, oblige my regrets that it is atterly impossible for me to take part in any political campaign at present state of my voice, oblige my regrets that it is atterly impossible for me to take part in any political campaign at present. Both my duties here and the present state of my voice, oblige my regrets that it is atterly impossible for me to take part in any political campaign at present. minds a re-election to the office-of the smaller amounts. Register and Recorder because he has been honest and adhered strictly l.

dence that Mr. Chubbuck has not the professed interest of reform. done this ignorantly, we are informed that for the first day or two he charged but $7.50, and that he now adheres to the fee bill again.

revious to the Republican Conven- a temperance man. ion, that "the party could not afford real worth, the equal of Mr. Chub- by Mr. Stores. BUCK; and if we in refuting his dis-breaking up the Republican party. other men whom he so shamefully must bow as abjectly as a slave. deceived, to support him, notwithstanding his oft-repeated declaration that he had money enough without.

As we have several times intimated.

Mr. Chubbuck's pretensions to honesty in the discharge of his official duty, reminds us very much of tleman inviting him to be present at siting them in the ballot-box. Ev- the old darkey who experienced refry species of trickery will be resort- ligion and was very zealous in recd to by the Democrats in order to se- ommending his colored fellow-eitizens care votes for STORRS and CHUBBUCK. to follow his example. "Kase," said the colored proselyte, "ligun is such It is not an agreeable task for us to a great shield against temptation. It point out the faults of others, as we saved me todder night." "How so?" are conscious of our own imperfect inquired the sable listener. "Well." tions, and realize as keenly as any you see. I went into Brown's store the truth of the maxim, "To err is and was tempted to take a pair of justice to the people that they should So Mr. Chubbuck, while he has by informed whether their claims are not taken as large fees as he charges founded in fact. Mr. Chubbuck de- upon his predecessors, admits taking

WE KNOW that many of the Repubto the fee-bill in his charges. If his lican subscribers to the Journal will elaim is true, he has only done his feel aggrieved while perusing the pathe fact that some of his pred- per during the present campaign. Its dealing, leading through some exertion cressors had taken illegal fees did covert advocacy of the Democratic honored place among the great nations of the justify him in following the exparty, and open attacks upon promising the world, on the other. ample. But we charge, and defy Mr. nent members of the Republican or-Cit rener to disperse the allegation, ganization, are weekly becoming more darkness. With you are the vast majorithat Lie-has taken illegal fees during apparent. We have no disposition to other countries: you are fighting the bat-the whole of his term. By his own admission he charges of the paper, out in the paper, ou By his own admission he charges of the paper, but in the name of hon- for the poor man against financial trickmake colors—prolessing to be non- tio Seymour, of this State, I think he make invariably charges $9.50. The partisan, and at the same time insid- showed himself a statesman when he said: partisan, and at the same time insid-five bill only allows him for the ser-lously laboring to create distrust and dissension among Republicans in worst." Solvery truly yours, A. D. White.

but ask them to examine the records. sented in the Temperance Conven-

which has honored him with office that he has been promised a Deputy- founded in genuine merit. for nine years, and has maliciously ship if the Democratic candidate is traduced his opponent, who is, in elected. He isn't the only man who | The people of the county who have point of ability, moral character and has been promised the same position been bored by Mr. Storms' oily words, we have no apology to offer, endorsement by the Democrata?

PIOLLET's great hobby while hathe Journal has all along displayed ranguing the people is "onerous tax- Democrats, and forthwith endeavor decided Democratic tendencies. One ation," and the great injustice done to put the Republican party on the indication was an article just after the farming community in compelling defensive, by charging corruption in the election last fall, when the Re- them to pay exhorbitant taxes. It the National and State Administrapublican ticket was, defeated; this may be of interest to the people who tions. This base slander needs no independent (?) journal said, "We are not acquainted with the old dem- denial before the intelligent readers told you so. The Republican party agogue to know something of his of this country. The Republican has been taught a lesson by this de- circumstances, and how much of the feat: it will know hereafter that hon- "great burthen" he bears. PIOLLET est men must be nominated,"-or and his brother are assessed with language to this effect. Such language 1644 acres of land; 1 brick store, 1 sounded a little strange to those who saw-mill, 36 cows, 15 horses and 6 knew that both the senior and junior oxen. The land is mostly under the of the Journal had favored the nomina- best state of cultivation: the store is tion and election of Hon. B. LAPORTE. a large brick structure, and the cat But we were charitable enough to the are the best breeds. Their whole think the article referred to the result | property is assessed at $24,000, upon in the country generally, and that which they pay four mills, or ninety- and treason stalking abroad all over the Journal editor had paid more six dollars, for county and State pur- the land, culminating in open rebelattention to the diatribes of his Dem- poses. A quarter of a million is a ocratic exchanges than personal low estimate of the real value of knowledge. On sundry occasions their property, and yet Pioller has since, the columns of the Journal the effrontery to go about the counhave quite clearly indicated that the try complaining of the tax-ridden early political education and teach- farmers. During the war, when an ings of the senior were not entirely income tax was deemed necessary in ignored, although they have for years order to raise means to carry on the been denied, especially when that war, and lighten the burthen of the gentleman has sought political ad- poor, the PIOLLETS, with all their vancement from the Republican party. property, paid five dollars, and that And now the thin mask is thrown only occurred by a little miscalculaaside, and the Journal of last week | tion on the part of PIOLLET, and a comes boldly to the defense of the thorough understanding of the law Democratic ticket. It sees nothing by the officer, Deputy-Assessor Farout calumny and detraction in the BER. The PIOLLETS had made their opposition to Storms, but has not a figures in this wise: The receipts of single word of rebuke or condemna- the farm exceeded the expenses just has been accomplished under Repubtion of the black and calumnious one hundred dollars, while the debit lican rule. That dishonest men have speakers, whose names will be announced falsehoods Stores and his friends column of the store account showed held positions, we do not deny: but in posters previous to the day of each are retailing all over the county a balance of just the same amount. against Mr. LAYTON, or the base mis- (Singular coincidence.) But the representations of our brave soldier faithful revenue officer informed the been so faithful in punishing corrupt candidate by Mr. Chubbuck. If the wily Pioliter that his calculation was officials of its political creed as the Journal were honestly what it pro- not well made, and that the farm and Republican party. It is a matter of fesses-independent and unbiased,- store were two distinct branches of history that under the old Demo it would hardly advocate the election business, and each must stand by it- cratic regime, corrupt officers were of so bitter a partisan as Mr. Storgs. self, so the firm were compelled to the rule and not the exception, and We believe the paper would have contribute five dollars toward sup- who ever heard of a dishonest Demo had more real friends had it to come porting the government in its hour cratic official being brought to jus out manfully and advocated the Dem- of trial. And now comes the sequal. tice by his own party? ocratic party and principles from the While PIOLLET professed to have no The Democratic papers and orator

beginning, instead of spending its income during the war, he managed persistently charge that there is energies in the negative effort of to save enough to purchase several large defalcation in our State Treas thousand dollars of railroad stock, ury, entirely ignoring the fact that and put by enough cash to build a their Democratic Auditor General has "I pon'r want it, I don't want ite forty thousand dollar mansion and stated, under oath, that the accounts of but you may put it in my hood," is furnish it elaborately, from the wine the State Treasurer are all correct an old Russian proverb, which exact- cellar to the garret. These are facts But we did not intend to pay any ly illustrates the position of Storms which we presume the honest(?) old attention to these silly charges made before the Democratic Convention. granger forgets to mention, while aginst our Republican rulers, because He was continually asserting in publications on the rough fare and we know that the people of this coun- Storms, so far as they relate to himlie that he did not want the nomina- plain apparel, of the toiling farmer. ty are intelligent, and know their tion for Sheriff, but (secretly) was Were one of the honest, hard-fisted falsity. intriguing for it for months. Several grangers who listen with so much inworthy gentlemen in the Democratic terest to Piolier's honeyed words, party would have been pleased to to visit him in the interim of a poreceive the nomination, and Mr. litical campnign, instead of the work- amended National Currency Bill ing farmer, he would find himself in was under consideration in the House lated through the county, during the assurance that he was not an aspirant | the presence of a most arrant auto- of Representatives, the following but he expects W. H. Russell, and crat, before whom the modest laborer amendment was offered:

MANLY WORDS. An acquaintance of President WHITE of Cornell University, residing in this place, wrote that genthe Republican mass meeting here on Tuesday evening last. In declining the invitation, on account of pressing business engagements, the Professor took occasion to indite the following manly and patriotic senti-

CORNELL UNIVERSITY. PRESIDENT'S ROOM, ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 15, 1875. My DEAR SIR: Accept my thanks for your kind invitation, and with my thanks me to decline all invitations to speak in large halls, or in the open air.

But I assure you that I am none the less doubly interested in your approaching election. No political contests within my memory seem to me more important than the two elections this year in Ohio and Pennsylvania. The choice seems fairly and squarely put before us between the same long course of financial folly that has disgraced and crippled several other countries on the one hand, and upright

You are certainly fighting the battle of

L. ELSBREE, Esq.,

If Mr. Chubrance intended to accept the Prohibition nomination, why did he not (like Mr. Rockwell) do so at the time? Instead of coming out manfully he skulked, and left the matter of manipulating the conjuints of the least of some solves ready to violate any pleages, the the trends of the trends of the matter of manipulating the conjuints of the least of the matter of manipulating the conjuints of the least of the matter of manipulating the conjuints of the least of the matter of manipulating the conjuints of the least of the matter of manipulating the conjuints of the least of the On deeds he has charged illegal so at the time? Instead of coming the election of Storms, while profess- In the past, these men, and their fees on two out of every three he has out manfully he skulked, and left the ing to be a Republican. Mr. Storms deluded followers, have sworn them-We do not ask readers to rely tee to his clerk. The ward in which lized mostly from successful business or principles, the application and upon our allegations in this matter, Mr. Chubbuck lives was not repre- ventures, while his opponent is a consummation of which would prove We charge, furthermore, that Mr. tion, and he lacked the courage to with his hands, and who has been They were the eager traffickers, with CHUBBUCK has been for years cogni- either act or allow his elerk to do so more than generous to his neighbors their pro-Southern associates, before and of the fact that illegal fees were in that capacity. And yet he has and friends. Mr. Storms knows but rebellion began, in the violation of taken in the Register's Office, and the impudence to report that the little of the hardships and privations compromises; in the passage of infathat he said to gentlemen in Orwell, junior editor of the REPORTER is not incideent to manual labor; it has mous laws to belittle the free sentiif they did he would divulge matters and Otis J. Chubbuck both partici- felled the forests, tilled the land, and when rebellion began, and red-handin connection with that office, which pated in the Republican caucus in garnered the crops. Which deserves ed war progressed, the more or less would be kept secret if he succeeded." the Third Ward of this borough, and the most encouragement from the corageous allies of the rebel in arms. We make these statements not both voted for the LAYTON delegates. laboring men? We do not depreciate | Then, they opposed the issuance of We make these statements not willingly, but out of henext convict for the LATTON delegates, willingly, but out of henext convict for the latter recently published in the Reporter, with the statement of the worth of intellectual labor or greenbacks, as a war measure, known as the important issue of the worth of intellectual labor or greenbacks, as a war measure, known as the important issue of the worth of intellectual labor or greenbacks, as a war measure, known as the important issue of the worth of intellectual labor or greenbacks, as a war measure, known as the important issue of the worth of intellectual labor or present that a report in the strength of the worth of intellectual labor or the worth of intellectual labor or present that it is sheer the strength of the worth of intellectual labor or present that it is sheer the worth of intellectual labor or the worth of intellectual labor or present that it is sheer the worth of intellectual labor or the worth of intellectual labor or present that it is sheer the worth of intellectual labor or greenbacks, as a war measure, known in the worth of intellectual labor or present that it is sheer the worth of intellectual labor or the worth of intellectual labor or present that it is sheer the worth of intellectual labor or the worth of intellectual labor or present that it is sheer the worth of intellectual labor or the worth of intellectual labor or present that it is sheer the worth of intellectual labor or the worth of the wo honorable attacks upon a brave sol- Did Mr. Chubbuck accept the referred to when he spoke of the man worthy the hearty and unanimous dier and the party have used plain Prohibition nomination prior to his "who could say more in a minute support of all Republicans. Let us than he could stand to in fire."

THE MOUSTAIN LABORED AND

WHAT ARE THE INCURS?

"Old issues are dead." say the Mr. STORES has finally found himf in such straits that he has but tory in a very much modified into an affidavit. It will be n however that the statement es not in the least affect Mr. LAY-TON. It only purports to be the report of several consultations between party has a record for honesty and forms and William Griffis, and unswerving integrity which has no if entirely true, in no manner whatparallel in the annals of any nation. ever affects Mr. LAYTON. or any Coming into power at a time when other candidate on the Republican through the mismanagement and proticket. But it strikes us that accorfligacy of the Democratic party the ding to his own version of the mattreasury was depleted, the credit of ter, Stours is as "deep in the mud the Nation destroyed, and the navy as GRIFFIS is in the mire." Because scattered to the four winds; the Dehe confesses to having several conpartments filled with disloyal men, versations with GBIFFIS in regard to "political affairs," and putting the most charitable construction upon lion on the part of the large portion the matter, when it is taken into of the Democratic party. Did ever a account that STORRS was himself an party come into power under more aspirant for the office, it does not unfavorable circumstances? For four place him in a very enviable position. rears the Southern States fought to Mr. Stores, however, is contraoverthrow the government, while dicted in every material point by their Northern allies of the Demo-Mr. GRIFFIS, who is corroborated by cratic party afforded them aid and Joan F. Sanderson. Which is to be comfort by throwing every embarrass believed the public must judge. The ment in the way of a successful profart, however, that STORBS actually secution of the war for the Union: gave GRIFFIS money, as the latter and yet, under all these unfavorable swears, for the purpose of procuring circumstances, the rebellion was conhis influence to defeat the Republiquered, the credit of the government can party, seems undeniable. Grifsustained, and the Nation set forward FIS says no note was demanded for on a course of prosperity unequaled the $250 until after the Republican in any epoch in our history. All this Convention and nomination of LAY-TON. In addition to Mr. GRIFFIS' affldavit, we will next week publish affidavit, we will next week publish affidavit, we will next week publish affidavits of Mr. Smith and Mr. Lay- affidavits of Mr. Smith and Mr. Lay- raft sold at Little York, and he knew I we assert, without fear of successful Tox, that, so far as they are concerncontradiction, that no party has ever ed, there is not an iota of truth in Storms' story (?). As to the credibility of STORRS and GRIFFIS, the public must judge. From their affidavits, it is evident one or the other has sworn falsely. There are indications, which we shall more fully develop next week, which go far toward corroborating Mr. GRIFFIS. But admitting, for argument sake, that Griffis really said all to Stores which the affidavit sets forth, no one weak enough to believe that he had authority to speak for the persons referred to, or influence to control the action of the Repbblican Convention. ly letter published last week, solemnly denies all the charges made by self, and his reputation for truth and veracity has never been questioned Taking any view we may, then, Mr. STORRS stantis convicted of traducing In the last Congress, while the the character of his opponant in the reports he has so industriously circu-Ton in the transaction he refers to:

THEN AND NOW.

of June 30, 1864, that "the total

"That from and after the 4th of July, in the year 1876, nothing but gold and silver coin of the United State shall be legal tender for the payment of any debts thereafter contracted."

in the year 1876, nothing but gold and silver coin of the United State shall be legal tender for the payment of any debta thereafter contracted."

Here—to quote the language of the Eric platform—was a "further contraction proposed, with a view to the forced resumption of specie payments." It will be interesting to see how this proposition was regarded and what action was taken on it by the Democratic members from Pennsylvahia. Consulting the Congressional Record, we find that not a single Democrat lifted up his voice against their, measure, and that, with the exception of Mr. Storm, who is recorded as not voting, the Democratic delegation from Pennsyl, delegation from Pennsylvahia. Consulting the Congressional Record, we find that not a single Democrat lifted up his voice against their measure, and that, with the exception of Mr. Storm, who is recorded as not voting, the Democratic delegation from Pennsyl.

Democratic delegation from Pennsyl.

Ton in the transaction he refers to:

William Griffis came to my house Saturday, Apr. All, 1875, and remained all night. In conversation he spoke of his financial condition; did not know what he second nomination for sheriff and make do do in the future to raise money to meet his obligations. Laked him why he did not know what he was to do in the future to raise money to sheriff and make money enough to pay his liabilities; I had held conversation with him previous to she he should take the second nomination again. He replied to me that Monroe Smith had been nominations; I had held conversation with him previous to she he was the make money enough to pay his liabilities; I had held conversation with him previous to she he was the make money enough to pay his liabilities; I had held conversation with him previous to the saking for the nomination again. He replied to me that Monroe Smith had been nomination against the was lied and elected the second nomination for Sheriff and make money enough to he had been nominations against the was all the was indicated the second nomi who is recorded as not voting, the Democratic delegation from Pennsylvania voted solidly in its favor.

But the Republican House rejected the amendment; the only Republican member from Pennsylvania who voted for it being Mr. Scofield.

And now we have the diverting spectacle of Messrs. Randall, Clay Mer, and Speer, Democratic Congressmen who voted for the foregoing amendment, leading the Configuration of the said the lived in Litchfield; I asked him if they had made the agreement as he had talked to mee and he replied "that matter is all understood and we intend to nominate nim.

On August 1st, William Grims, wife and daughter came to my house and took dinner. At this time Mr. Grims told me that he felt very confident that Layton was the weakest man they could put in the Congressmen who voted for the foregoing are son-ingressmen who voted for the foregoing amendment, leading the Coning amendment,—leading the Convention at Erie and complaining of you, for I have a business matter to attend that the latest material to go to his office, saying he had important business with me! I said it is impossible for me to go with you, for I have a business matter to attend that which take me about an about "the further contraction proposed by the Republican party, with a view was important for me to go to the office. I said it was important for me to go to the office. I said it was important for me to go to the office. I said to the foreign and the said it was important for me to go to the office. I said to the foreign and the said it was important for me to go to the office. I said to the foreign and the said it was important for me to go to the office. I said to the foreign and the said it was important for me to go to the office. I said it was important for me to go to the office. I said it was important for me to go to the office. I said it was important for me to go to the office. I said it was important for me to go to the office. by the Republican party, with a view of the forced restimption of specie of species of the forced restimption of species of the species of th TRUE TO DEMOCRATIC INSTINCTS. Why should there be a new issue of greenbacks? Perhaps the true motive in the minds of such old-time Democrats as Allen, Wallace, Per-

SHING, VOORHES, PIOLLET, PENDLETON & Co., lies in the fact that it afternoon and evening, in shaping the nominations of the would be a deliberate violation of the to be made to-morrow.

He said Monroe Smith weakened this afternoon but the said Monroe Smith weakened the said Monroe Smith weakened this afternoon but the said Monroe Smith weakened the s pledge made in the Act of Congress | I liave stiffe I have stiffened him up, and the nomination will be made to-morrow, and the nomination will be made to-morrow at the turn of that hand, and Andrew Layton gard to certain alleged conversations between him and me, I deem it but justice to myself to say that every material allegation contained in that letter is false, except as stated below. True it is I visited his house during the past season,—as he and his family have visited at mine,—and true it is also that I had a conversation with him on Sunday, August 1, last. In that conversation, he asked me if he could not afford to pay me $2,000 if I could get Monroe Smith to keep quiet this fall, and keep quiet myself. I replied I was not "rafted" deep enough; that Smith was a strong Republican, and would be for whoever was nominated. He said; "I for whoever was nominated. He said: "I can get Lon. Thomas to help you work at SMITH." I told him I did n't believe he could. True it is also that at the same time, he saked me, "Can I not afford to pay you $500, if you get one of two men nominated?"—neither of whom was Mr. LAYTON. I told him I could not do it. True it is also that he loaned me $250 before the nominations had been made, but refused to take my note at that time. the note, and I gave it. When he gave tions, me the money, I offered him my I dont know what occurred between Sanderson and Storrs at the Means House. The account which Storrs gives of the conversation at Sanderson's office is in many respects untrue; in that he charges me with making statements which he made himself. Following his gift in that respect, he did most of the talking. I did not say I could control the nominations to be made the next day. The most I gathered from the loose talk upon that occasion, was, that while he was protesting his intention not to be a candidate, he was doing all his power to be the Democratic nominee for Sheriff. I may have done some talking for the purpose of seeing what Storrs was driving at. I had heard he was talking all over that he it—wouldn't have the office. In fact he said that night, "Bill you and I are getting old, we should give our attention to our families, it's the annoyance of the thing I dread." I coalesed, but couldn't see the reason. I am sure Bill went away thinking I wanted to be a candidate. WILLIAM GRÍFEIS. P. S. When I spoke of not being "raft-

> BRADFORD COUNTY, S. S. Personally came before the subscriber the Peace in and for said WM. GRIFFIS, who being duly sworn, says that the facts set forth in his to the affidavit of WM. R. STORRS, Dem-

Sworn and subscribed before me this 20th day of October, 1875. W. J. Ycunes, J. P.

THE GRAND BALLY IN TOWANDA. The Republican rally in this place on Tuesday last, was a success in every respect. The number of people some former occasions, but the Court House was densely packed both afternoon and evening by an intelligent, appreciative audience, who listened to the able speakers with almost breathless interest. The meethave satisfied him that the people of not receive their support. in his a fidavit to implicate Mr. LAY- the 2nd Tuesday of November to the bill sancting the Local Option

In the evening the Court House was again crowded with ladies and gentlemen. The Governor made a House of last winter's Legislature short address, and was followed by was elected on the temperance issue. H. W. PALMER in a speech of great power and eloquence. Mr. P. is one of the most effective speakers in the for the new law on its final passage. country, and handles the political In twenty-five of the forty-one Local questions of the day in a manner to Option counties, men were elected to carry conviction to unprejudiced minds. Hon. W. W. KETCHUM was repeal of the Local Option law.—What then? The popular branch of next introduced, and spoke for over the Legislature repealed Local Op- around town, interviewing voters, espean hour. He contrasted the two tion by a two-third vote, and preent- cially Republicans, inducing them to vote parties and candidates, showing con- ly demanded its perfection into law. clusively that the interests of the The Senate modified the substitute power of the Republican party. His views of a Legislature, the branch of speech was attentively listened to which had come from the people.

and heartily applauded. The Naiad Band furnished most afternoon at the Ward House.

young man named LEWIS for Sheriff. Democracy; for every intelligent sult of the Prohibitory movement is ing a representation of Pioller in tion as the important issue of the

HARTRANFT AND TEMPERANCE.

The article published by us, a few days since, detailing the actual relations of the Republican party to the Temperance question, has stirred a people to the careful consideration of the subject. They see that it is entirely possible to be right in principle, but to erroneously apply the principle, because of lack of full or accurate information. One such communicates to us that he had pledged himself to work for Brown, but that he is "under conviction" wishes two questions solved. Should be not vote for the professed temperance ticket; 2. How can we satisfactorily explain Governor Hartranft's course, in signing the repeal a fight with the locomotive. of the Local Option law.—We will After the nominations he asked me for try to explicitly answer these ques-

1. We think it wise to work and vote for temperance, in a way likely to produce practical and favorable results, rather than merely follow the leading of professed but mistaken the Republican party has given the Commonwealth all the temperance legislation it has had, and that it has been generally faithful to this idea, temperance; and if the effect of voting the Prohibition ticket is merely to help the Democratic and injure the Republican party, is not a vote for Mr. Browne practically a vote for Rum: and would not a vote for the Republican party be in the interest of temperance? We can see but one answer to this, and that, a vote for Mr. Browne, while not so intended. will really go to the liquor interest. We subjoin the following extract from the New York Christian Advocate, the official organ of the M. E. Church in this country, as bearing directly on this question: "Last of all, among the political factors of the times, comes the temperance question. A portion of the very best of citizens have judged it expedient to make the prohibition of the liquor traffic their suffrages; and as neither of the chief parties come up to their standard, they have ocratic candidate for Sheriff, are true and drawn off from both, and set up for them selves. Of course there is no rational hope that they can succeed in electing. nediate result of their action is to with draw from the election a part of the best munity.

"When a party recognizes the fact that it contains a considerable temperance element, its platform and its nominations will be made with respect to that element; but if that is withdrawn and arrayed in opin attendance was not so great as on position, then, since that vote is hopelessis to be sacrificed for an idea. And here, again, the Republican party seems likely to be the loser, since nearly every prohibitionists is drawn out of that party, and, the bill repealing the Local Option again say to him, "Well done, good Law. We preferred that he should and faithful servant." The Governor not do it, but we fully recognize the was followed by Hon. G. A. Grow, compulsion that caused him to give who spoke at considerable length his signature. The Governor is merewith his old-time eloquence and vigor. ly the Executive of the will of the listened to in this section, and elicit- law of the land. For a Governor to which clearly represents the views of the people, is to assume arbitrary names were on their tickets, voted the Legislature, in the interest of the then he proceeded with the same tune he as far as possible, and the bill thus passed went to the Governor, as the elected on this express issue. We hold, as do all lawyers and persons versed in the requirements of Govern-excellent music, and serenaded the ment, that under the circumstances, call names so justily; and make spiteful rural districts. He thinks our Ali Mo Governor and Mr. Grow during the the Governor had no option but to The only question that can be WE LEARN that the Prohibitionists | raised, as an offset to this, is the fact have nominated a very excellent that he vetoed special legislation This was done under the operation of

Mr. L. will accept the empty honor, to consumate special legislation. On or rather dishonor, of aiding the rum the contrary, popular sentiment was "feelings of neighbors and friends" voter is well aware that the only re- Gubernatorial office, the people were to give aid and comfort to the party tion, the chief object of which was to ers in religion. Their system is usually admitted on all hands to be deadly utterly prohibit special legislation, negative and disorganising, rather than worthy, intelligent and capable gent terms, whose claim to the sympathy and support of laboring men is founded in genuine merit.

The people of the county who have been borsed by Mr. Sroaks oilly tengthe, have made up their minds that he is the chap BILL SHAKKEFZARE referred to when he spoke of the man who could say more in a minute than he could stand to in fire."

Indeed the moore of spera at that time, but as he worthy, intelligent and capable gent tent to their worst scives, when they is the dargened so the lock his days entered them the several necessary or credit.

The people of the county who have been borsed by Mr. Sroaks oilly tengthe, have made up their minds that he is the chap Bill SHAKKEFZARE or referred to when he spoke of the man who could say more in a minute than he could stand to in fire."

The proposition of the sympathy and support of all Republicans. Let us therefore be not of the county who have been bored by Mr. Sroaks, in re
The proposition of the sympathy in the lating of the solid point of the lock his ideal that he sever in lating to the shift that he sever in candidates asking for the suffrages of the people. He pall befitting regards to thus 10y- ality, sacriffces and the claims of the southy. He has always managed to get with feeling, the plant of the internation of the sympathy in the shift of the shift

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

EDITOR REPORTER; The firmness stick-to-itiveness manifested by the Third party men of this State in throwing away Republican votes on Browne, and the apparent satisfaction with which the Demonumber of honest-minded temperance orats look upon the movement, may be people to the careful consideration strikingly illustrated by the following

A Democratic farmer living in th owned a little, scrawny, cantankerous, cadaverous bull, that could not be kept inside of any lot ever fenced in Pennsyl vania. One day, just after the railroad was built, Mr. Bull broke out of his pas ture and ran for the railroad. The old Democrat saw the tip end of his tail disappear over the fence, and "but" for him double-quick. Just as he railroad along came a train at full speed, and there stood his bull on the track with his head down and tail up, ready for a fight with the locomotive. The farmer swung his hat and shouted at the top of his voice, "Go it, Bully; I admire your pluck, but despise your judgment."

The Democrats are pleased with this movement of the Third party men, and encourage them to stand firm and vote for principles. While they admire their pluck they despise their judgment, as the farmer did that of the brave bull. Their defeat s certain, and they will find themselve temperance men. If the true that after election situated about like the bull after the train had passed. recent issue of the REPORTER I observed and it has been further true that the a communication from Mrs. MILLER sta-Democratic party has been hostile to ting that you had properly adjusted her claim against you. Thinking that per-haps this would be an auspicious time to have my claim against you also adjusted I take this method of informing you that whenever you shall pay me the balance you have owed me since 1457, for labor per formed for you in the Bradford Time office, I will receipt it as publicly as has Mrs. MILLER; whilst your character for honesty and integrity will be considerably higher in the estimation of at least one 1 CHARLES H. ALLEN. Towanda, Oct. 20, 1875. ----

ED. REPORTER-Dear Sir: In conversation with O. J. CHURRICK, some two weeks previous to the Republican Convention, three years ago, I asked him who he preferred for Sheriff. He replied that, from the nature of his situation, he did not think it advisable to express himself upon that matter, but he said that he should oppose Monroe Smith to the bitter end, even though he lost his own nomination and election in consequence. Orwell, Oct. 16, 1875. ---

EDITOR REPORTER: You know, Mr

Editor, that at best doubtful things are mighty uncertain: and this was exemplified here last week, as it often is during a political campaign. The very Rev. Hon. George was billed fer this place last Wednesday eve., to enlighten the people as to but when the time came he failed to put in an appearance. Perhaps visions of the time when he was honored and respected in our own little village, and could "sway the listening multitudes, as breezes swa the beds of osiers," rose up in his mine vor the anti-temperance element. But and like Banqos's ghost, disturbed him these good people seem to have made up so much that he dare not come; but be a Mr. Simpson, wanted the office of Rhad half loaf, and so that available somewhat his place came two very disinterested men call it. Well, he came to Thomas Jeffers is to be sacrificed for an idea. And have in the persons of Mr. Chubbuck and son and asked for his support, saying he "Col." Storrs, who had come along as a would make it all right. It is do say it. sort of chinking; so as the great wind my man never does anything by the instrument could not perform, the two second fiddles had to do all the playing. let the corn go unhusked and the potatoes ing was organized by the election of Gen. H. J. Madill as President.

The entrance of Gov. Harraner met with deafening applause from the assembled multitude. His speech the assembled multitude. His speech the assembled multitude. His speech publican party has not the favor of that were only waiting for a change to roll and my little Patrick Henry entring teeth publican party has not the favor of that were only waiting for a change to roll and my little Patrick Henry entring teeth were only waiting for a change to roll and my little Patrick Henry entring teeth publican party has not the favor of that past month, as he has entirely failed Bradford county were prepared on 2. We hold that Governor Hart-failed to explain how he come to be so good courage, however, and baked, very exemplary, when he went into the husked, patched and scrubbed, very exemplary, when he went into the vampires they were, he was so anxious to secure the nonlination at their hands this fall, and only denounced them when he found he could not succeed. No. sir. Mr Chubbuck; your story is entirely too thin. people; and the will of the people in If you had denounced wrong and dishon-His effort was one of the ablest ever this country, is sure to become the esty in the past when first discovered, and ed frequent and hearty rounds of ap- set up his will against a Legislature by their help, we should have stood by which clearly rounceents the views of you and voted for you, but now we can't sec it.

"Col." Storrs next turned up his in power, which would not, for a mo- strument. He did not come to make a ment be submitted to. The Lower speech-in fact, never made one in his life; but he just happened in the place, and just happened into the meeting, &c. In fact, the whole performance was quite of the temperance people, and whose but at the earnest request of the audience &c., &c., he would speak his piece for our about his neighbors, and thought it a highly reprehensible practice, but he was

The next day the "Col." spent in riding day will tell.

"THE ONLY TRUE PRESS IN THE COUNTY."

shaken of the traminels of party, and claims to have attained a higher atmosfaces through the fence, at the unfortunate men upon whom devolves the re-sponsibility and direction of such munine and secular business, as goes to make If by tested ability, and close application to matters of state, they come in time the same rule. No one will pretend to be looked to as leaders, it does not We can hardly believe, however, that that any Legislature was ever elected strike us as particularly becoming in the conductors of a liberal press, and one as suming so conscientious a regard for the strongly against it, and when Gov- make a regular weekly onset at what they ernor Hartranft entered upon the style the "Ring;" as if they were a band preparing for a Costutional Conven- in politics, are as unreliable as freethink-

The Governor, in this respected the reformatory. Thus, the same political the Towarda Journal, warned Bradford county voters out of the arena of political discussion, and away from the assemseen, under this identical rule that fuller resolve and larger movement, on may think I in getting extravagant, but those vital principles that underlie naple should remember that their inter- tone of authority as provokingly amusing ests are far more safe in the hands of a that which clings about the skirts of a party which has always respected the papal infallibility, whereby we infer that this worthy sheet is quite willing is a Democrat, and will make plenty of to give shape and tone to the politics of paper money and that will save the coun In last weeks issue after hurrying down the three ticketed column with qualified man to do who wants to be sheriff and praise of Hartranft, and despite the wri-Storrs, that sets the whole throng of He is liberal and munificent, for he one lawyers" agape with wonder at a method husband was sick. He is the poor man's called upon to preside. The meet so marvellously suggestive of a triple mouthed capacity for bloaves and fishes. The Journal has ceatainly imbibed the | that will be good for the poor man. B. M. Peck, took the stand, and pro- local democratic passion for rich men, ceeded in his happy and vigorous; for a more unscrupulous political hucksmanner to discuss the currency onester than Wm. R. Storrs, never peddled of admiration, and falls into danger running the county ticket ahead of the State. It has a fatal facility for going astray generally, which is probably due to its reverence for men, rather than the principles men are called to represent. All the aching bosoms and yearning bow. ells that fall off ungorged from the Republi can body, come to it, claiming sweet fellowship, and the privilege of growling at the "Ring."

and gloomy prophecy, and is gradually identifying itself with every agency that has in view the severing of unity in Republican action. Not a sorehead at the heels of the Republican ranks, but takes heart at the keenness with which it seeks for flaws in the local and governmental fabric, and not a sharp visaged democrat which it sharpens its wedges and drives From such indications we make infer that the Lord has not laid the task of political regeneration upon "the only Free Press in the County.

WOMAN'S VIEWS OF THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

Politics that did not Pay, and Politicians that de Pay-Different Kinds of Candidates-The Democracy Arisen-Rag Money Plenty-Why Bill Storrs Must be Sheriff-He Will Save th Country-Noble Peddler and Brave Baftist-

I never had any high idea of politics for dinner three times a day, but I have been converted this fall. Mr. REPORTER, I you have half as much curiosity as most men, you will like to know the particulars Firstly, lef me inform you that my hus band. Thomas Jefferson Jones, and I, his wife (Ann Maria Jones), live on a smal farm several miles from any railroad town, where we are never disturbed by be," as the poet says. Of course we have visits from agents for sewing machines, patent stove handles, soft soap, books, grgaus, apple trees and the like. When the leaves begin to fall and chestnuts to ripen, then the candidates for office come swarm Just as sure as I get my sleeves rolled in and my hands in the dough mixing bread or am steaming over the hot suds, and blacked stove, there comes a "rapping and a tapping at my door. I look for ; knot hole to crawl through, but finall smooth down my hair, shake the flour of my apron, and open the door. Oh. how meak and innocent they mostly look. Generally the first remark tells the story What a fine situation you have here and if any of the boys peak around the corner of the house, they observe: "What intelligent, sprightly children are these: do they belong to you, my dear Madame?" day's work. Thomas Jefferson has to sit and whittle and talk, and talk and whittle. while I get dinner for that candidate: used to hate the sight of a politician, he that was when I was in the gall of bitter ness and the bonds of ignorance. Now dote on 'eu. I will tell you how I came to change my mind, a thing that wor

Last fall's occurrences are a sample of let the corn go unhusked and the potatoes Mr. Chubbuck led off by telling us what sundug, and pitched into the political canhis wife was so stuck up, do you think of his promises. Simpson said that when he butchered we might have the laginteriors to make soap-grease of, and lie Like Micawber, we have waited for some gone forth like a roaring lion, seeking have greenbacks as plenty as dirt-and a country and ourselves this fall. I will tell has played so much, and with which we growing boys. Well, Bill Storrs is a Dem-You just ought to hear him talk. fatherly and gushing-like. Our neighbour say that we have got the meanests hough but Mr. Storrs gave each of them a cent hammed will certainly be Governor softer rather red) is cut but for a great him wants him to lean on in the hour of trial dreads being made a public spectacle ofhe is so modest, you know. I can tell you working out-doors any more and going bare-footed. I'm going to have a bottle pinned-back overskirt, just like them To Storrs is a noble son of toil, a great and glorious sweater of the brow (so the > save his country. He used to work the pump handle, and that is how he came to so powerfully gifted at shaking hands al gave a ten-cent scrip to a woman whose for somehow, though f can't rightly tell. the less I said about Stores' rafts the better-they were too thin! Anyway, Storr chopping wood is hard work. Besides, he