

GRAND INDEMNITIES TO FORM CLUBS FOR THE REPORTER.

Desiring to largely increase the circulation of the REPORTER, we will between this time and the first of January next, give a new Sixty-five Dollar Sewing Machine to every person forwarding us Forty New Subscribers, at $1.50 each.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

JUDGE MORROW is holding Court at Troy this week.

HON. E. N. FURBER will speak at Wyandising this evening.

D. W. SCOTT & Co. have abandoned their eating room, and enlarged their store.

Mrs. W. H. H. GORE, Mail Agent, has been transferred from the L. V. R. to the New York & Erie Postal Cars.

THE North-Ebene Convocation, in session at Athens last week, was well attended, and the meetings very interesting.

WE move our friends in Athens and vicinity will turn out to the meeting to be held on Wednesday, Nov. 15, at 7 o'clock, at this evening.

HENRY SAYENCOFF, of this place, was arrested here on Wednesday afternoon, charged with stealing grain at Waverly, and assaulting Officer Emeryman.

THE Republican meetings which have been held in the several townships during the past two weeks, have been well attended and enthusiastic.

THE room in the north end of the Ward House, occupied by the Fall Creek Coal Company, for the past ten years, has been fitted for the use of the Central Express and W. U. Telegraph. It has been neatly painted, and is a model office.

PROF. McGRATH is holding a very successful musical institute on Spring Hill. Prof. McGRATH enjoys the reputation of being one of the best instructors in the country. We hope to have the pleasure of seeing him in Towanda soon.

J. C. RIBOWAY, of Monroeton, has presented us with a bush of the finest looking potatoes we have ever seen. They are very uniform in size, smooth and white. Mr. RIBOWAY informs us that he raised this bush in a garden near his place, and one bush from two bushes planted.

A FREE class in WOODRUFF'S German Course, is just commenced at the Graded School, meeting at about 7 P. M. Books can be procured for a few days at publishers wholesale prices. This is a good opportunity for persons who desire to study this noble language.

SCIDEN DEATH.—Mrs. WOODFORD, wife of SAMUEL WOODFORD, died in this place on Thursday, October 19th, 1876. She had been in feeble health for some time, but her decease was unexpected, and was a severe shock to her devoted husband and numerous other friends. Her remains were taken to Mount Morris, N. Y., for interment.

WE had the pleasure of a most enjoyable visit at the house of HENRY B. ACKLEY, at the old homestead of the late Judge ACKLEY, in Tazewell township, this week. Mr. A. may well feel satisfied with his situation in life. "The lines have indeed fallen pleasantly around him, and his very estimable and ladylike wife, in common with most of the people in the township, they are in thrifty circumstances, and surrounded with all the comforts and luxuries that can be desired.

Mrs. MICHAN, wife of the late JOHN MICHAN, died at the residence of her sister, Mrs. ELIZABETH WEST, on Sunday evening, the 19th inst. She had been in a very critical condition for some months, and her decease was not unexpected. It will be remembered that her residence was burned only a few days prior to her decease, and she was carried on her bed to the house of a neighbor. The excitement incident to the fire probably hastened her end.

The first meeting of the Ladies' Benevolent Association, for the fall and winter of 1876-77, will be held on Monday evening, the 30th of November, at the residence of Mr. W. M. WATKINS, on Main street, at 7 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, the 30th of November. Full attendance is very earnestly requested.

Mrs. H. M. MYER, Corresponding Sec'y. L. B. A.

Mrs. McLAUGHLIN is paying a visit to her father, Bishop LADD, in Wilmington, Delaware.

Col. J. H. HORTON and family arrived in town on Tuesday morning, from a visit to friends in Massachusetts.

HARRY T. GRANT, of this place, was laid to rest in his father's grave on Monday last.

In speaking of the removal to this place of a family from Philadelphia, last week, our types made us say "Glenview, STRICKER, when we should have said "Glenview, STRUBB." The gentleman is a son of the late Judge STRUBB, of Philadelphia. He has been in town, and his family are settling in our city.

Deacon ELI DEARDER came from New York to participate in the semi-centennial of the Presbyterian Church, on Sunday last. The Deacon was connected with the church from 1823 to 1833.

Mrs. LADD was last week called to Philadelphia, by the decease of her son, CHARLES K. LADD, who is attending lectures at the University of Pennsylvania. We are pleased to hear that the young man is improving.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.—SPECIAL SESSION.—October 6, 1876.

Members present: JAS. McCABE, District Commissioner; BRYANT, DITTRICH, MEANS, PRATT, JORDAN, WARD and WOODRUFF.

Councilman PRATT offered the following resolution: That the authorities heretofore given to the Street Commissioners, to build a walk on the east side of Main street, from the present walk to Barclay street, be affirmed, and that he be directed to build a walk on the west side, with proper coping from point to point, as he may deem necessary.

The resolution was adopted by the following vote: Ayes—Councilmen DITTRICH, MEANS, PRATT, WOODRUFF and WARD. Nays—BRYANT and JORDAN.

By Councilman PRATT: Whereas the residents on the west side of the street leading from Franklin to Barclay street, have petitioned in favor of their property; and whereas it has become necessary to lower said walks, therefore, resolving that the grading and paving of said walks be done at the expense of the borough.
