LETTER PROM HARRISBURG. HARRISDURG, Feb. 19th, 1876. I notice that there is quite a commo-a cases of summary convicns which is now under consideration in the Legislature. There is no doubt but hat the passage of this actiwill result in bringing many more cases into our courts and add to the taxes of our people, but as the wise men who framed our new consti-tution have seen fit in their wisdom and love of justice, to say, as they do in Art. Sec. 14, of the new constitution, that, In all cases of summary conviction in this commonwealth, or of judgment in suit for a penalty before a magistrate or court not of record, either party may appeal to such court of reco prescribed by law, upon allowance of the appellate court or judge thereof, upon cause shown," it is undoubtedly the duty of the legislature to pass some act upon the subject, and if it should chance to result in any way detrimental to the people, they must put the blame upon the Constitutional Convention, and not upon the The Poor House Bill has passed the House yesterday but it will be a long time before it will be reached, as its numher will be somewhere about 300, and the their numerical order only.
