

A THERSON & KINNEL,
ATTORNETS-AT-LAW,	DRESS GOODS,
TOWANDA, PA. Cliffee in Tracy & Noble's Block. Towanda, Pa., Jan. 10, 1876.
W. H. THOMPSON, ATTORNEY	WHITE GOODS,
I T L W. WY PERSON P.C. Will attend
to as business entrusted to his care in Bradford, 5 busin and Wyening Counties. Office with Esq. 4 business (how19-74.	EMBROIDERI
ELSBREE,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA,	LACES,
VERTON & ELSBREE, ATTOR-
A FANNE AT LAW, TOWANDA, PA. Having en- d bits co-partnership, offer their prefessional	NOTIONS,
Services to the public. Special-attention given to the association of the Orphan's and Register's Courts. E. OVERTON, JR. (apt1470) N. C. ELSBREE.
	&c., &c., &c., &c.,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,	EVANS & HILDRET
Towaxba, PA, Other in Wroot's Block, first door south of the First
<sup>1</sup> N. dional park, up-stalrs, B. J. MADILL, (june-701y) J. N. CALIFF.	Towanda, March 2, 76
OHN W. MIX.	Taylor & Co.
ATTORNEY AT LAW,	TAYLOR & CO!
U. S. COMMISSIONFR, Towanda, Pa.
Office-Norin Side Public Square, Jan. 1, 1575.
TAVIES & CARNOCHAN,
MERCUR BLOCK	WE
Towanda, Pa.
PEET, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.	ARE
I sprepared to practice all branches of his procession.
Olice, MERCUR BLOCK, (entrance on south Sole) TowANDA, PA	RECEIVING EORGE W. BRINK, Justice of
<ul> <li>V. I the Peace and Conveyancer. Also Insurance A 2014, Leitaysville, Pa. March 1887.</li> </ul>	OUR
R. S. M. WOODBURN, Physi-	NEW
Concernstore.
Teorinda, May 1, 187219".	SPRING GOODS
RS. JOHNSON & NEWTON. Physicians and Surgeens. Office over Dr.
Porter & Son's Drug Store, Towanda, Pa. T. B. JORNSON, M. D. D. N. NEWTON, M. D.	THIS WEEK
T. D. L. DODSON, DENTIST.
6 on and after Soph 21, may be found in the e-gast us w reeas on 2n1 floor of Dr. Prätts new	WE ether on State Street. Rusiness solicited.
NT B. KELLY, DENTISTOffice	HAVE
Tooth inserted on Gold, Silver, Rubber, and Al-unifium base. Teeth extracted without yain.	BOUGHT
DR. C. M. STANLY, DENTIST, Having removed his bound office into Tracy
& Martish is block, over Kent & Watrons stop, R. as physical to do all kinds of dental work. He lastile pat in a new gas aparatus.	THEM
He bas also pat in a new gas aparatus, he optita.	9
TALE & PATTON, Agents for	AT THE
CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, Other No. 3 Periffel: & Patient's Elsek, Bridge Sts.	LOWEST PRICES
a Mitch 2474.
C. S. RUSSELL'S
GENERAL (	OF
INSURANCEAGENCY,	THE
TOWANDA, PA.
• O. MOODY, BLACKSMITH. • Docoal' kinds of work in his times.	SEASON,
The HOR COMPLETE ASPECTALTY
Discussed feet treated. Meanfactures the rele-	AND
CALIFORNIA PICK.	-
Shop in Siglien's Civilago Prototy, on Prinost, Townidh Pari June 6, 75-11.	33° F.F. F
TNSURANCE AGENCY.	WILL
The following
* RELIABLE AND FIRE TRIED	SELL
Companies represented:	E.
LANCSHIRE, PHENIX,	THEM
HOME, MERCHANTS.
March 1974'. O. A. BLABK.	AT
FREDERICK TAFT & CO.,
GENERAL PRODUCE COMMISSION MERCHANTS, NOV 6 CAL WATCO STD FET	PRICES
NO. 9, Sth WATER STREET, PHILADELPHAL
REFERENCES:	NEVER
HON, AUDIE TAFI, Secretary of War. HENRY SANFORD, Esq. Sup. Adams Express Co., New York.
JEREMENT WALKER, Eq., Pioladolphia. HON, D.S. BENNETP, Bundo, New York.	BEFORE
JNO.9, BATES, Corn Exchange, New York.

-

Benjamin and I are no such senti- handsome. mental noodles. He wears, as he al-"We shall not have the trouble of ways does in the evening, a cash-IDERIES, mere dressing gown of a great sprawlcheerfully. "However, I thought ing oriental pattern, and one foot, the Rochester company. would have wrapped in flannel, is extended on a written about those trees before now. footstool before him, for he had a Remind me to send them a line tosurely smokes his evening pipe, he morrow. Now, let us have tea." nurses his invalid foot, and tells me that Jenny, the sorrel colt, has a 2., &c. &c. that Jenny, the sorrel colt, has a swelling on the knee which will most likely unfit her for work through the likely unfit her for work through the summer. distant night. I, who am five years younger than my cousin, sit opposite him in the covered porch with a thick gray ward and slips her hand through his ward off possible attacks of rheumatism. ways her pretty habit. I am knitting socks of bright crimson wool, and while I give one car to the ailments of Jenny, the colt, with the other I listen anxiously for the footsteps of Alice and eyed Alice; but I feel the shadow of young Benjamin, who have gone for an evening stroll. It is now many years since my cousin (by-the-by, although we his noble forehead. call ourselves cousins, the Foster blood in my veins has been so diluted with allen stock that the original fluid is hardly recognizable) offered me the shelter of his great warm heart and brown brick house, left vain readiness for the wedding! cant by the death of Mrs. Benjamin. , who was poor and homeless, gladly accepted the home so kindly proffered, and have never but once left for a protracted absence. Three years after that I journeyed Bank of Universal Lloye. hundreds of miles westward, for the sole purpose of rescuing from the cold charity of the almshouse Alice when 1 spoke it. Ford, the infant daughter of John Ford, convicted felon, lying in a prison cell under the ban of penal serv- you in confidence, my dear friendsitude for life. I had been the betrothed wife of gin to whisper, saying that I am not John Ford in my youth, and we had sound on the money question-if you been very fond of each other in those once make friends with the directors days of romance and roses, in those of this bank you can draw on it for evenings of song and sentiment, incredible sums, and its promises to when the young May moon is beam- pay are always good. Good Will is ing, dear," when we had dreamed of the president, Faith is the cashier, love in a cottage with nothing a year and Trust is paying-teller; while of to support it; but that day when he messengers you can have your choice groveled at my feet, kissing my hands between Truth and Charity. One and dress, and blessing me for giving thing, however : unless you approach this baby girl the blessing of a Chris- them in the right spirit, your paper tian home, I was not sorry to think will be accepted only at an immense I was an old maid. discount." I had not concealed from my cousin Benjamin the antecedents of Alice's father. I had even offered to go out as boiling water and pure Oolong into the world and begin the battle can make, the bread is sweet and the of life over; but he only opened his great warm heart and brown brick dawille, and finally Alice, finishing house the wider, bidding us stay and her cup, says, "Good-night." She i welcome. tired, and goes to her room. Ah! you do not know how many wanderers a house will hold when Charity opens the door. The roof berry and asparagus beds; vague seems to go up and the walls to and senseless speeches, that waste widen and lengthen, warmtli and their sweetness on the silent air, stands among us. Ben has come light flow thro' the rooms, and manna cliciting neither attention nor interseems to come in through the win- est. dows, spreading the table with bountiful feasts. If you do not believe back from the table and putting his starts up out of the gloom, he runs in it a cloudy indication of warning So the children grew up together; "Champagne Charlie." and as I watched them sitting and walking side by side, I should be perfectly happy but that I, in my turn, have kept a little secret from my cousin Benjamin. over his handsome face. A few weeks after my return home "I beg your pardon," he replies, I read in the newspaper that the getting up out of his chair and comcorpse of a man, shockingly muti- ing up close to us. " The fact is, I comes to welcome him. And I am that are no more.

Now, after reading the above paragraph over, I take it all back. I

When my cousin Benjamin rises groping for his cane, she runs forarm, not waiting to fall behind and chat with young Benjamin, as is al-My cousin does not see anything out of the way in this action. Il stumbles on with my own browna cloud, and involuntarily turn to look at young Benjamin. His face is serious and set with a certain firmness that draws a deep wrinkle across He and Alice are to be married this day fortnight, and I do not like these symptoms of lover's pouts. What if anything were to happen My cousin has made over his farm for young Benjamin to manage, and siderable property which has been laying on interest for years in the "Property !--what, have you got property, mammy ?" says my cousin, "Ay, millions on millions ! I tell and you need not all get up and be-We were rather a silent party a the supper table. The tea is as good butter unexceptionable. But we I make little, uneasy remarks about my garden, about the straw-At last young Benjamin, drawing My cousin turned to him with a look of rebuke in his fine old eyes. "Whistling, sir, here ?" he says. Young Benjamin flushes redly all over the rail and looking into the at this late day, when everything is The misty white dress and veil are I propose to transfer to them a con- them. more helpless. away !" she sobs. his heart. to try our patience too far." my Alice. exactly waiting-but hoping. gain, seeing there is no letter. Then, as the darkness gathers, rise to light the lamps, but before 1 and without warning our wanderer home again. He does not speak, but looks around hands in his pockets began to whistle | forward and catches it in his arms. "Oh, Ben! Ben! I am glad you on her brother's breast. He gave her a gentle shake. But he kisses her over and over. He kisses me, too, when my turn

"Times, Tribune, Telegram," says days. Kind-hearted people drop in fellow-a favorite with all the girls. ny cousin, sorting them over. "No to talk over the wedding, for which Was he changed much ?" letters; no letters," echoes young invitations have already been pro-"I got him everything he needed. Benjamin, loking down at his dusty fusely issued, and I am obliged to hut he was too far gone to want much. wrote it just for fun. My cousin boots. Ben is six feet high, and explain awkwardly that Ben has He was changed, I should think, a gone away, and it is uncertain when good deal. Had he lived I should he will be home again. We are not have given him money to go to Aus- the Demograsy kin plant itself, with answering any, then," says his father, sure whether the wedding will take tralia. I had three thousand dollars mother, left me, you know. But as place on the day appointed or not. Miss Prim calls and sits so long it was, I invested in land in Minneand stares so stonily, looking about sota. Splendid lots-right in the her as if she expected our poor, mis centre of a thriving village. They that we kin agree ez sweetly as a will double their value every year I erable little secret to jump out of a orner like a Jack-in-the-box, that I live." "Well, well; speculating in land, feel like sticking pins and needles inhey ?" says my cousin, amazedly. to her. I begin to wonder, too, if anything ahead of my time altogether." s wrong in our house. It seems to But I can see how proud the is of ne that never so many people went by before. Women in groups of twos Ben. "I thought you and Alice were and threes, men with hands in their pockets, and they all walk slowly and look us over from roof to base ment with lingering, eager eyes. Once or twice I step out and take surreptitious look at our brown prick house, half expecting to see some anathema written in flaming letters on the wall, or some strange contented to stay here with mammy uv a corrupt joory, wich inquired az and me in our old age," he continued. hilf pathetically. "But going west! uv the public munney, and was not That is too far. I was just making content to take his word fur it that the farm over to you to manage in he hed spent it legally. His answer our own way." "Oh, I will take the farm too," ays young Ben, cheerfully. "Alice heart uv it; and I shall always be with you and banner or beacon waving on the roof. ujammy. I only bought the land in canvass on the ishoo uv reform. The But no; everything is as usual Minnesota for a sort of playground, without. It is only within that n case we got too big for this counthings are changed. The wedding cake which had been And rising he stretched himself to ordered, comes beautifully decorated, the full height of his splendid six his country. In my lonely eggsile I from the confectioner's in the village, but Alice cannot bear to look at it, "Go to bed-go to bed you young the stealin that's goin dn. speculator !" is my cousin's answer. sent home fresh from the city, and Then as the boy lights his candle, Alice puts them away without trying "Mammy," cries out cousin Benjathem on, or so much as touching min, "isn't this the first time you ever agin me squashed in time, I will kum heard of a bridegroom making his Thus the time goes by, and as no wedding journey beforehand all alone letter or tidings come from the ab-and coming back just in time to be sent Benjamin, sweet Alice's face married ?" grows paler, her eyes prouder and "The very first time," I answer, sweetly. "Coming back by way of Niagara, too." (He told us that at uv the Democrasy. The trick uv re-"He will not come back! He did not mean to come back when he went lie table.) peatin hez not bin forgotten, and I "Ah! what a fall is there, my counkin handle them fellurs ez well ez ev-And such is the contagion of detrymen !" says young Benjamin, ora- er I cood." Reform and purity ez my spiring grief that I too begin to waytorically, as he disappears up the er in my faith, though my natural watchword." stairs. good sense should have told me bet-

Peter B. Sweeny who is yit in Pa-And my cousin and I are left alone ris, livin rather quiet than otherwise, again, doubtful if we were most sorry wuz still more emphatic. He seys-My cousin Benjamin wears a stern or most glad. face, indicative of the displeasure in but I will give his own words: So we have our wedding after all, and there is happiness and dancing "The boy should have written us," tired uv livin abroad, and I wasn't and feasting, and merrily the world he says; "he should remember not goes round. For it is true that love to git back to Noo York. I want a himself wearing in a conspicuous moves it and makes it whirl so And he looks with tender eyes at smoothly. P. S .- It chanced that a few weeks

So the evening preceding the wedafter the wedding, as I was going to out uv the way. The repecters aint carry out your Majesty's orders. ding day, that was to have been, the city, I bethought me to take the dead yit, and cz ship loads uv patri- Here are two white badges (at the comes round. We are all in the par- box of poor John's crystals to Jac- otic Irishmen, who are willin to take same time producing them); one is onion to Christ in verse if: "Moreover -) time to have our tea. We are not that there were some pure diamonds every day, I ken help to govern Noo "in the rough" among them. Young When John came in with the eve- Ben went down to see about it, and yoo want to do is to make this fite on ning papers, Alice looks up from her came home with a check of fifty reform and purity. Do this and git low seat in the window, with a half thousand dollars in his pocket. I me and Tweed back, and we will expectant face, but immediately drops doubt if he got the real value of make things hum. There is Noo York them, but as he and Alice are satis- and its tax levies for the victors, and of the currency, tariff, and all them fled, I suppose I ought to be.

P. P. S .- I have just discovered, at minor questions are squelched, and and true representative of the Kings have succeeded the door opens softly, this late hour, that my story has no the battle is fought on the simple moral, and hardly any point. Must question uv reform and personal puevery story have a moral in order to rity in offishel posishen we kin win be entertaining? There is not so it. Reform is our watchword, and much as a shadow of one in mine, that is wat I insist upon. I am abhim. Then, as a little white figure unless, indeed, there can be perceived sent but not forgotten." Connolly, who is residin in Belgiyoung men to exercise their own will um, where there is no extradition before marriage as well us after ; in treaty, and consekently where the have come back. I thought you were which case the bride will not be too United States fortunately tant reech never coming back again. Oh, Ben !" much disappointed when the honey- him wich makes him entirely inde-And Alice's little head goes down moon has lost its sweetness. Howpendent uv the country, wich he hez adoptid, writ me'a letter in wich he ever, my couple have lived happily forever after, which is a good point gives me his views as to the situa-shen, wich ez as follows: ghined, even if it is not a moral.-"I hevenly wan interest in the

The people is dissatisfied about it, best holt. The man wich can lift and uv course they will charge every just 200 pounds shows mity little thing to the Administrasiun A discreshun. We must hev nuthin to failyoor uv the potato crop is worth do with the questions on wich anythousands of votes to the Democrasy His address is twofold. (1) An address body differs. Ignorin is wisdom. any time. It is only when things Ther aint only one ishoo on wich is just as bad ez they can be that anybody ever thinks uv goin to the any hope uv success-only one Democrasy for a change. question on wich ther can be perfect

Wat we want is a good mouth-fil- authority ; his only dignity is that of the voonanimity-and that ishoo is Relin platform—a platform wich looks form! On that we are a yoonit on well, and the people will be satisfied them no better, no greater, "Blessed spring morning.

It is not on my judgment alone wards is 2 things, but let to-inorrow that I depend onto this matter. I hey consultid all the leeders uv the now is success. "Go to bed, young man. You are party onto it-that is all the actooal ecders, them az actilly control things. I write to that gileless patriot, Will-

to what he hed done with ten milluns wuz so striking in accordance with my noseuns uv things that I give the

"By all means go into the next corrupshens uv the present Admin-frequently shed teers wen I think uv

"Let our watchword be Reform and Puritin official posishun. Ef.

my lawyer kin get them indictments home and help in campane. I kin git control uv over two hundred saloons in the lower wards uv the city, and ef I kin git back I kin organize my old forse, and restore Tamany

istrashen, and I may say uy the Re-

PETROLEUM V. NASBY. (Wich hopes to be Postmaster.) ynm Tweed, Esq., who is now a pi-THE following historical anecdote ning on a forrin shoar in consekence with. Troo, wat is promised afored are the poor in spirit ! He then proelecshuns and wat happens after | ceeds to unfold to them the cherished purpose of his heart to build a temple for the take care uv itself. Wat we want | Lord, together with the message he had received from Nathan in regard to it. "A house of rest" after the long wanderings of the Ark. It is here called "the ark of the covenant" because it contained the two tables of the law, which were the may not prove uninteresting at the bisis of God's covenant with Israel. He present time, when we have just realso calls it "the footstool of our God ;" ceived a visit from the Emperor of probably because the Shekinah-the glory Brazil, and it may account for the of the Lord-rested upon its top. His interest he takes in Jewish affairs: preparations for the crection of the temple It is well known that the Jews of are recorded in this same chapter: vs. 11-19. Spain and Portugal were a highly The reason why David was not permitintelligent race, and that they rose ted to build the temple is generally misinto great honors in the Peninsula, terpreted. It was not because he was a both under Christian and Mohammemurderer and personally unworthy of so dan rulers, but after the final overholy a service: for David stood in a closer relation to the Lord than Solomon did, throw of Calips, the Catholic soverand the wars which he waged were the publikan party in general, is such az eigns, no longer requiring Jewish wars of the Lord (I Sam, 25; 28) for the to appal the heart uv any luver uv assistance, relentlessly persecuted the maintenance and defence of the kingdom Hebrews, and eventually expelled of Ged. But as these wars were necessa them. During these persecutions ry and inevitable, they were practical many Israelites left or pretended to proofs that David's kingdom and govern-leave the religion of their fathers. leave the religion of their fathers, fore that the time for the building of the and were known as "New Christians.' temple had not yet come, and the rest of peace been secured. The temple, as the These New Christians married freely with the highest nobility, and to day symbolical representation of the Kingdom of God, was also to correspond to the na-ture of the Kingdom, and shadow forth there are but few Spanish or Portuguese families in the highest circles but the peace of the Kingdom of God. For what have a mixture of Jewish blood. this reason, David, the man of war, was not to build the temple; but that was to be reserved for Solomon, the man of peace A certain king of Portugal becoming alarmed at the power wielded by in the type of the Prince of Peace (Isa. 9:6). dividuals of Jewish descent, issued a But though not permitted to build the decree that every person with Jewish temple of the Lord, God had provided blood in his or her weins should apthat Solomon-his son and successor-should achieve this desired consummation per at court distinguished by a white badge, the King hoping by this edict As God had chosen him by sovereign se ection out of the tribe of Judah and his to banish all such persons from his father's house, so had he chosen Solom court, as he believed no one would from his own household. This divine be willing to acknowledge his Jewish. choice had been, made known and witnessed to by the prophet Nathan, and the priest Zadek. This put Solomon's right to reign beyond question. And be-sides choosing him for David's successor, blood. On the day named he was surprised to see more than three fourths of his court wearing the "Reform is wat we want. I am white badge, and he was astounded God had revealed to the aged King that when the Prime Minister entered. Solomon should accomplish the work he had so deeply in his heart. He had adopt hand in the comin campane, for I manner the same emblem. Heasked ed him in a special sense as his son, and promised to be a father to him. And in hev just ez much power ez ever, of I him furiously what his business was? kin only git the cussid republikins His answer was: "I have come to these words, the typical character of Solomon stands forth. As the son of God, he is a type of God's greater son-the Messiah. Hence the transition from Sol quard the great jeweler. He told me offis ez soon ez the land, are a comin for her Royal Majesty, your august will establish his kingdom forever." Th kingdom was continued to Solomon dur spouse." "And for whom is the ng his entire life, and thus symbolized the York cz well es ever I did, But wat other ?" thundered the King. The endlyss reign of the Messiah. But to Sol reply was: "For your Royal Majesty !" omon the promise is conditional : "if h It is needless to say that the ediet be constant to do my commandments and adgments, as at this day." But this was immediately recalled. If this, bedience on the part of Solomon cannot ancedote be true-and there is no be complete and perfect without a corresp reason to doubt it-the Emperor of poliding obedience on the part of the peo-ple. Hence his exhortation in verse 3. Without such olicdience they could not be Brazil, who is a lineal descendent happy and have the peaceable possession of the good tand themselves and preserve of Portugal, must have a large quantity of Jewish blood in his veins. the entail of it on their children.

Hitherto, he had probably been sitting on his throne, not lying upon his bed, as the Jewish interpreters infer from I Kings, I.

to the people ; vs. 2-8. His tone is humble and affectionate. He calls them his brethren and his people, not his servants.

Humbled by the past he puts on no airs or Lord's anointed. Personally, he is one of (2). His address ends with an exhorta tion to Solomon; vs. 9-10, Solomon prob THE carpenter may look with pride bly stood by his side as he spoke. ipon the technology of his trade, for "Know thou the God of thy fathers;" it is used everywhere. To say noth-ing of old saws, we have heard of a case where a lawyer split a hair, showed a note, got up a case made shaved a note, got up a case, made an entry, framed an indictment, chal-but the divine favor. And he enforces lenged the jury panel, put twelve of this exhortation with two reasons: first them in a box, bailed a witness, hamthem, in a box, balled a witness, ham-mered the judge and bored the whole court. And what adze to his offence he chiseled his elient and turned ear-ter the Lot detained with external services, but demands smeerity and holiness. See ond, "if thou seek him, he will be found of thee;" i. e., God blesses those only

• . • .

