Inch..... | $1.50 | 3.00 | 5.00 | 6.00 | 10.00 | 15.00 2 faches.... | 2.00 | 5.00 | 5.00 | 10.00 | 15.00 | 20.00

inches.... | 2.50 | 7.00 | 10.00 | 13.00 | 20.00 | 30.00

4 inches.... | 3.00 | 8.50 | 14.00 | 18.25 | 25.00 | 35.00

column... | 20.00 | 50.00 | 60.00 | 80.00 | 100. | 150. ADMINISTRATOR'S and Executor's Notices, 2.00; Auditor's notices, $2.50; Business Cards, five innes, (per year) $5.00 additional lines, $1.00 ach, YEARLY Advertisements are entitled to quartly observed. erly changes.
TRANSIENT advertisements must be paid for TRANSIENT advertisements must be paid for NAUVANCE.

ALL Resolutions of Associations, Communications of limited or individual-interest, and notices of Marriages and Deaths, exceeding five lines, are charged TEN CENTS PER LINE.

JOB PRINTING, of every kind, in plain and frency colors, done with neatness and dispatch. Handbills, Blanks, Cards, Pamphlets, Billheads, Statements, &c., of every variety and style, printed at the shortest notice. The Reporters office is well supplied with power presses, a good assortment of new type, and everything in the Printing line can be executed in the most artistic manner and at the lowest rates.

TERMS INVARIABLY CASH.

Professional and Business Cards.

JAMES WOOD, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW MITH & MONTANYE, ATTOR-NEYS AT LAW. Office, corner of Main and Pine St., opposite Dr. Porter's Drug Store. TOHN E. SANDERSON, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, OFFICE.—Means Building (over Powell's Store) D. SMITH, DENTIST,
Towanda, Pa.,
Office on Pack street, north side, Public Square S. W. & WM. LITTLE, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA. Office in Patten's Block, cor, Main and Bridge-Sts

Towarda, Pa., April 18, 73. H. STREETER. LAW OFFICE OVERTON & MERCUR. Office over Montanges Store. Dra. OVERTON. RODNEY A. MERCUR. a good sort of a fellow, and loved to TYM, MAXWELL. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. OFFICE OVER DAYTON'S STORE, TOWANDA, PA. April 12, 1876. DATRICK & FOYLE, AFTS RNEYS AT-LAW.

Towarda, Pa.
Once, in Metcur's Flock. E. C. GRIDLEY. ATTORNEY AT LAW, TOWARDA, PA.

ATTORNEY AT LAW.
TOWANDA PA.
Other first door south of C. B. Parch Espaces and floor.
Nov. 18, 75.

L. HIELIS,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW:
TOWANDA, PA. C.
Onice with Smith & Montanye.
[BOA11-75] GEORGE D. STROUD. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, 3) Chestnut St. Towa Nov. Pa. Late of Pinjad sphia. | Dec. 9, 75 T ANDREW WILT, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR-AT-LAW. to be over Cross Book Store, two doors north of tainly glanced around the office with Au German, § April 12, 75.) A Tepherson & Kinney, ATTERNEYS-AT-LAW, Towards, PA. Office in Tracy & Noble's Block

H. THOMPSON, ATTORNEY of the neighborhood. I had known to all basiness energy to be case in thereford, there as Mrs. Warland, and had besent on such Wooning Commess, once win figure party interested in her become greatly interested in her be-ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Towanda, Pa. THE CENTRAL HOTEL,

C. L. LAMB,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, 🧎 🎺 - Wilkes-Barrel PA. Collections promptly attended to: OVERTON & ELSBREE, ATTOR-A PART CAN A FINAL PLAN ATOMS A PLANT COLOR OF THE PART OF THE PAR

ADILL & CALIFF. Towaxba, Pa. Varional back, up-vairs, H. J. MADILL. (jans-73ly) J. N. CAMAYF.

JOHN W. MIX. ATTORNEY AT LAW,

AND

AND

U.S. COMMISSIONER,

TOWANDA, PA.

Office—Norm Side Public Square.

Jan. 1, 1875. TAVIES & CARNOCHAN,

MERCUR BLOCK TE PEET, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. ECEORGE W. BRINK, Justice of

The Peg second Conveyancer, Also Insurance Agest, LeBaywaite, Pa. March 1887. R. S. M. WOODBURN, Physi-

RS. JOHNSON & NEWTON, gave to her poverty when he died. vadals and Swizers. Once over the A second time she was left a widow, 48508, 31.01. O. N. NIW (ON, M. D. and since Warland's death she shad D. L. DODSON, DENTIST.

B. KELLY, DENTIST.—Office over M. E. Rische data. Towarda, Ph. Touth inserted to Good, Site J. R. deci, and Al-

C. S. RUSSELLIS

TE O. MOODY, BLACKSMITH.

However a speciality. This used feet treated. Manufactures the cele CALIFORNIA PICK. Step in St Plen's Carling - Factory, on Pine-st.

TNSURANCE AGENCY. 4 RELIABLE AND FIRE TRIED Companies to presented;

 $1_2\Lambda$  NUSHURF. March 18 7 C. MERC HANTS.

March 18 7 C. O. A. BLABK. TAREDERICK TAFT & CO.,

GENERAL PRODUCT COMMISSION MERCHANTS NO. 9, Sth WATER STREET, HON, af DOUT 1 F.F., Seed here of Wor.
HENRYSAN FORD, 1 Sep.
Supt. Adam. I spices Co., New York.
JEREMIAH WALKER, Esp. Philadephia.
HON, D. SABEN, NETT. Buildo, New York.
JEO, J., BATEN Com Enchange, New York.

Realford

toward the south.

several barrels of water, and looking into the dusty breaker, where the coal is cracked into marketable sizes,

we reached the first shaft. There are looked down into its black depths it looked bottomiess. Then we proceeded to the other and waited the coming up of the elevator. One de-

the gangway, and in the most obliging manner showed us all the curion

a stable has been cut out of the coal, anthracite of the Primrose vein. The picks and gave it to Minerva, and,

picking into the solid coal, she soon

and a beautiful selection of specimens

at our disposal. "Never woman

mined coal so deep before," says the Superintendent, while we filled our reaching that they cut several veins

One more trip in the elevator, and we were once more above ground.

hands we were tit for a minstrel show;

but a liberal allowance of soap, wa;

down for nearly an hour; never had the blessed sunshine seemed warmer

Underneath the ground,"

E. D. V. in Cazenovia Republican.

"SWEET AUBURN" AS IT IS TO-DAY.

The site of the "Deserted Village of water.

ing's descent— "

day and night.

Reputer.

REGARDLESS OF DENUNCIATION FROM ANY QUARTER. S. W. ALVORD, Publisher.

TOWANDA, BRADFORD COUNTY, PA., THURSDAY, MORNING, AUGUST 31, 1876. VOLUME XXXVII.

Selected Poetry.

Miscellaneous.

THE PAWNED WATCH.

It was on Wednesday evening.

had been that afternoon to the Globe to see "Claude Melnotte" performed, and on my way homeward I stopped in at Langford's, on Sunbury street,

to look at an old violin. Langford

was a pawnbroker, and I had known him for years; and moreover, he was talk of the old times. I looked at his yiolin, and after due examination,

made up my mind that either he must have misunderstood or misrepresented the Herr Von Schweitzen-pelter who had left in pawn, or, that said Von Schweitzenpelter had told

We had been thus engaged but the little counter Langdon went to wait on her. I sat in the shade, in :

raised her veil I saw her face dis

years, and who had served as nurse,

cause I knew very well that she had suffered under some heavy misfortune. She, was a mild-faced, sweet-spoken woman, from forty to forty five years of age, and those who had hired a small tenement-or, rather part of a tenement-down at the far from being strong or well.

had had two husbands. The first-

the love of her maiden heart was pilot, and was lost overboard while criving to board a ship in a storm, riage. After that—some years after

during the fourth year of their mar-

-she mayried again, this time taking

for a husband Donald Warland

This Warland proved to be a hard cruel man; and one of the first results of his cruelty was the running then ten years old. The mother had of her tender heart, and though his absence least 'a difinal shadow over her life, yet she could not but feel it was better for hint to be away. His step-father had been very unkind and of the second marriage, but only one

Warland drank-hard—he gave mis-

fand her child.

present occasion.

present generation.

deal fairly by me."

Le gave him no time.

with you as a pleage."

" Not yours a

"Phave come to this at length. It

"Do not misunderstand me," she

"My dear madam," interposed the

"And yet," pursued the woman,

with trembling lips and moistening

eyes, "I will tell you the truth, and broker, assuringly, "don't you mis-

loved this boy with all the strength

away of little Jack, the pilot's son, versation with the broker.

"Ten dollars!" repeated Langford, MEMORY. in surprise. He had opened the To every life there comes a time, watch, and looked into it. "Do you Whether in youth or golden prime, know its value?" One priceless dream of love-"I know that it cost a large sum, The gayest heart to make more bright, The darkest soul to gladly light,

As stars shed light above. Perchance, for some the sliver thread and seems to have been little worn." May clearly run through life, instead Of being dimly lost. That thread no fingers e'er shall find. Altho' with fate 'twas close entwined, Till myst stream is crossed. nothing else. But I will only take in heart. Ah ! memory of one brief hour. return such a sum as I know I can Return with all thy prescious power, And fairer mora shall dawn at last, Whose light no clouds will overcast.

for a year, if necessary—for more than a year—" "I will hold it sacredly to your order for five years, if you wish."

and went away. When she had gone I got up and stepped benind the counter to look at the pawned watch. "It's worth three hundred dollars, work of her heart, she laid it down said Langford. "And she has payned it for ten! "I don't consider it pawned," he eplied. "That woman has enlisted my utmost sympathy, and I will hold this watch for her while she lives." Lasked him if she had been to him before for money. an untruth. Considering that Lang-"Yes." he said. I think she has, ford was an old acquaintance I prefirst and last, received two hundred ferred to think that Von Schweitzenlollars from me. She has evidently pelter was the deceiver, and having pawned everything she could bring. put the viol back into its case, and I was telling to the broker what Iseen the case put away. I took a seat knew of Mrs. Warland when a cusby the stove, and entered into conshort time when a lady entered. She was dressed in black, and closely veiled, and as she took her place at back corner, whence I could look over the counter; and when, the lady tinctly, as the light of a pendant gas jet shone full upon it. She evidently had not seen me, though she had cerview to ascertain it she were alone with the pawnbroker. As I have used to holding authority. He had said, I saw her face, and I knew it for the face of a woman who hadlived very near to me for several

it different times, in various families tranger interrupted him: " Pardon me, sir; but will you alow me to look at that watch?" The broker handed it to him. nestion was asked with an effort.

"I had it of a customer." had occasion to employ her spoke of "In pawn?" her in the highest terms. She had "Not exactly: though it was left tith me as a plédge." The man had examined the richly Back Cove, where she lived in quiet agraved case of the watch, and finalseclusion: the only other member of her family being a daughter, of eight or nine years. She had lost other children, and the one now living was > reating manner : A light dawned upon me. nan laid interested me with some-

"A lady left it here, and her name s Warland."

childhood, á widow." A moment's pause, and then I which all the mines are constructed. harsh in his treatment of him. The years passed on. Children were born "Mr. Langford has told you that the gangway because the coal would the watch had not been really pawned. cost all and more than it was worth hers. It had been left with her by a slope is sunk down to a lower level, cry to his wife while he lived, and he her first husband—a dying gift for another gangway run out in the same their boy-a boy whom she had not way as before and breasts run unseen for many years." striven to keep a home for herself

The man reached over and took | coal is obtained. my hand. "Can you take me to her?" Having heard all this it was with cellings deeper than simple curiosity I told him I could, for she lived that I watched and listened on the very near to my home.

Langford called the woman by the broker objected, and he did, not about two miles from here. It was name, and asked her kindly what he large it. street. His heart was full, and I did the pride of our Maytime, when we from her bosom a small buckskin not disturb him with idle questions. four mounted our equipage and rolled pouch, and took therefrom a gold On board the ferry boat he paced up away over the hard smooth roads. watch. The case was heavy, and and down the gangway alone, and Just cool enough to be pleasant, the ALE & PATTON, Agents for richly carved, and I could see, from when we had landed upon the Island sun yet gave promise of making the my lar corner, that it was a unique side his took my arm as though fear middle when the sun yet gave promise of making the my lar corner, that it was a unique side his took my arm as though fear middle who and blistering. Upon affair, unlike the watches of the ful that he might lose me. We the front seat sat Mr. Christian and reached the door of Mrs. Warland's Mr. Seltzer, men of middle age, who > by the little daughter, who had rec- and back of them your correspond-He would have answered her, but ognized me." said. "I will call her." not mine, and yet I must leave it 1 would have left, but the man detained me.

Presently Mrs. Warland entered, and miserable cabins built on the re-The walk in the cool, bracing air had fuse of old mines on every side given color to her usually pale cheeks, Now we pass through a little huddle and when she saw me she smiled a of cabins, a dozen or more they call welcome. And then, following my Scalping Town, that would look exglance, she turned to the stranger, actly like an Irish village in county understand no. You have my fullest who was gazing upon her with the Cork or Tipperary if the huts only whole of his heart and soul in his had straw-thatched roofs, instead of lustrous eyes. She started, and tot- boards. The resemblance is com-charge I give. This was my first with a wild cry—she called him breakfast pipe, while the same chick—presented to him by kip owners whom he had served she clump to him and was bold to hi by ship owners whom he had served she clung to him, and was held to the possession of the remnants of the mention the poet's name in order to and when he died he left it for- his bosom. I felt my presence to be morning meal under the table in the be set on the proper track to "Golda profanation, and I crept away.

Only room. Last, but by no means smith's Auburns," as the Westmeath But I called on the following day, least, there are the hordes of children peasantry call it. * * * * * "For Jack," pronounced Langford, reading those words upon the buckskin pouch, where they had been printed with a pin.

a promation, and recept analy.

But I called on the following day, least, there are the hordes of children and both sexes, with the buckskin pouch, where they had been printed with a pin.

But I called on the following day, least, there are the hordes of children and both sexes, with the last sizes and both sexes, with the same side accumulated dirt deposits, playing in to by Goldsmith, and the noisy geese land before the doors.

It is estimated that 1,000,000 water-malons will be sold in Baltimore this season, and the doctors are happy.

It is proposed to send an affacture brass band to Montana, and thus make the Infor the watch at the pawnbroker's he of their health and activity. should have gone away without knowing that his mother lived.

And so the widow had come from the small mountain of coal dirt from merits a sympathetic listener: darkness to light; and that sacrifice the big Wadesville colliery that which had seemed to her as the rend- stands near the big shaft. Just here ince John Bishop died. I have kept she traces the finger of a Divine it hidden away all these years. And Providence? For, so feeling, to God now I must leave it with you. I have she gives the praise of her thankful pay if I live. You will keep it, sir WHAT WE SAW 1,600 FEET UNDER

GROUND. POTTSVILLE, Pa., June 15, 1876 .-The poor woman was thankful, coal regions have little idea of the nd having received the ten dollars magnitude of the labor expended in she turned toward the door; but be the production of this now important fore she reached it she stopped, and article of commerce. Lately I have ame back. She took the watch in been taking some little pleasure some 2,200 feet. But they failed to her hands, and pressed it to her lips; | jaunts among the rocky valleys of strike the basin, for at the point this anthracite region during interand then, with a struggle, as tho' tearing a fond momento from the net | vals of leisure, and have found much to interest and amuse This town itself, which is sometimes called "The Coal Metropolis," is under mined by the gangways of mines whose black mouths appear here and there on the hillsides. But it is now forbidden to dig under the town, lest some day there should be a terrible falling in real estate above. The general configuration of the surface of the ground here is something like that of Central New York that is, there are ranges after ranges of hills, all running in one direction; here it is nearly east and west, with deep valleys between, but a hundred fold more rocky and rough than anything ever seen in the Empire State The coal measures, it is well known do not lie on a level, but are tilted. tomer entered. He was a scafaring up on edge, as it were, so that they man, and I recognized him as one I pitch with various degrees of steephad seen at the theater that after- ness north and south. This pitch of noon. He had sat very near to me, the coal veins, showing the effects of and I had noticed him particularly, the tremendous upheavals of some frank, handsome, hold face; his of great service to the miner. It

air of dark brown, clinging about a enables him to mine, load into cars, signal, and we began to descend. It Spaniard pour out his heart's devoarge, well-shaped head in close, glos- break, sort into sizes and load the v curls; and possessing a frame of coal into cars again ready for trans- we were suspended by only a wire tune. marvelous strength and symmetry. His garments, though of the sailor cut, were of the very finest quality, labor and consequent expense will be mile in depth. In three minutes we lit is said the orthodoxy of the old and it was plain to be seen, from his apparent. How this is done can be were at the bottom with a strange, South church in Boston was saved of Easton, is composed of the 4th and and lively as any company there, and immediately marched off to camp. easily explained. First a shaft is sunk, which means | which, however, soon passed away, seen a sextant exposed in the win- a hole straight down like a well, un- and looking up could see the opening from whom all blessings flow, to the dow, and had come in to look at it. til coal is struck, or a drift or slope at the top, like a tiny star, twinkling tune of Old Hundred. Trinity in the Langford took the chronometer is due out, which is an inclined open- in the dim distance. from my hand, and had started to ing running down the pitch of the restore it to its pouch, when the coal vein until the bottom is reached. In either place then a gangway is dug out laterally in the direction the coal runs, east and west. These gangways sometimes run for miles under ook it, and trembled perceptibly, the ground, following one control of this?" The rails are laid down and mules pull rails are laid down and mules pull the cars in and out to the main shaft or slope, where they are hoisted. From this gangway it will be seen the coal slants up and down like great blanket from four or five to forty feet thick. So far it has been what miners call "dead work," that v his eye rested upon the buckskin is every pound of coal must have ouch. He picked it up, and saw been lifted on asshovel into the cars he words which were written upon Now comes the remunerative part of it. For a little time his frame shook the business. On the upper side of gangway, over the rails and ties, our as though tempest-riven. Then he this gangway little drifts are made braced himself, and spoke in an en- upward in the same slanting direction as the coal lays, and it will be "Will you tell me who left this readily seen as fast as the coal is pitched or blasted out it falls down the incline and drops into the cars stationed to receive it. These openhing more than his grand beauty, lings are made at intervals of a rod There was something in his face fat for two, and are termed in miners' idiar to me-something in his class parlance breasts." These breasts coutlines, and in its lineaments of are run up ten feet or more, then character, like the face of the woman branch out so as to include all the who had been my sister's nurse. And | coal between them, and are continued while the broker hesitated, I answer- upward hundreds of feet, sometimes running out at the top of the ground. After incurring the great expense of digging the shaft, or slope, and gang-"Has she a husband?" he asked. way, the egal operator now begins to "No," I said. "Her husband died get his money back as ton after ton n New York several years since, and of the black diamonds come sliding she has returned to the land of her down from the breasts into the cars. This is the general principle upon Nothing is done on the lowerside of

came sliding down; in one place the that they had a little engine away up ward the same as above, until all the there. Most of the breasts are some six feet wide and high enough to A few days since I received an instand up in comfortably. At the vitation to visit, in company with shaft we took the elevator and went two coal operators and iron masters. up five hundred feet through the what is known as "the big shaft, rock, where another gangway opened lately sunk by the Philadelphia and out into the Diamond vein. Here we He wanted to take the watch, but | Reading Coal and Iron Company. saw them put in a blast, and after walking away, could hear the dull thud of the explosion. One peduliarity about this mine is

And he went with me out into the bright and glorious mornings that are resent generation.

"Mr. Langford," she said, with dwelling, and were ushered into a have forgotten more about from and great effort, "I feel sure you will small, scantily furnished sitting-room machinery than most men ever know, ent, who needs no further introduc-"Mamma has just come in," she tion, beside a young lady whom we will designate Minerya. Gaily thro' the scattered suburbs of the town we bowled along, with black coal dirt plete. There are the same Milesian is on the road from Athlone to Bally-having recovered herself, she asked from India, and was making arrange- mother would give a fortune to be- bushes, having upon them a strange ENCAMPMENT OF THE PENN'A NAT. the broker to advance her ten dollars ments for another voyage; and but stow upon her sickly child a moiety impress of eld. Over against it is a ruinous cottage, the residence of a Over the next hill and we see the "wretched matron" whose tale of black timbers of the breakers and her own happier years assuredly

She only left, of all the harmless train, ing of her very heartstrings had it may be well to explain the reason The fields near her cottage were, up "Certainly. It is a Harrison proved an offering upon the altar of for digging the same. At Pottsville to a recent period, covered with a much speculation has been indulged in as chronometer of the very best quality, fate which had brought back joy and here, the southern limits of the coal deep embowering wood; but all of to the possibility of assembling a majorblessing. Is it a wonder that in the fields, the coal veins pitch toward this has been cut away, and now only ity of our State troops under canvass. "It has not been wound up, sir, mystic influence of the pawned watch the north, while some eight or ten the discolored stumps remain, as if Many difficulties stood in the way and miles north of here they pitch to left to heighten the apparent desolate- promised for some time to defeat the ward the south. The natural conclu- ness of the scene. Ascending an incline, which cersion arrived at was that at some unknown depth, at a certain point be- tainly deserves not the name of "hill," tion of fands for tents by our Legislature tween the two outcroppings on the we come to the cross of the "Three surface, the veins must come togeth-Jolly Pigeons," where the ruins of er, and at the junction form a sort of the alchouse may be seen; also the immense coal basin or pocket. The sycamore on which the signboard of coal and iron company sunk this that little inn used to be so inviting-People who have never visited the shaft to the depth of sixteen hundred by hung in years that are over. Here, feet, and have drilled below that too, at the opposite side of the road; some five or six hundred feet further grows a later representative of that with the diamond drill, and striking famous hawthorn bush, which, though no fragment of it now remains where the mammoth vein at a depth of those enviable old people would so often sit and chat, and where those artless loves were told by rustic where they cut the mammoth vein. lovers of long ago, yet bids fair to as the great forty foot vein is called, at that enormous depth it still sloped bloom in fancy's garden forever. To the right, a little off the road leading northwest, are the hoary roofless Arriving at the entrance we en walls of the once "busy mill." Most tered the great gate, alighted, and of the wheel has been taken away, were met by the Superintendent, Mr. doubtless by visitors, each scrap Bramley, with a cordial welcome. being in some sort as a faded palm After visiting the pump house, where branch from one of "the Delphian every stroke of the piston brings up vales, the Palestines, the Meccas of > while beneath the ceasless agencies two of the same depth, and as we of change and decay.

OLD HUNDRED. Of all the tunes ever used by the scription will do for both. It is people of God, there is perhaps none about twelve feet square inside, tim- so widely known and so universally bered all around and divided in the sung as Old Hundred. It is so well middle by great timbers into two adapted to all language, that it seems parts, so that while one elevator runs indigenous to each one. The pious up on one side it goes down on the of all nations find it the vehicle for other. Minerva robed herselt in a the full expression of their devotion, faded calico wrapper, the rest made the rude Laplander sings it in his because he was a man not to be seen remote age, soon after the coal was various little preparations, the Su-chilly climate; the convert in the tropwithout notice. He was young, with formed in the carboniferous epoch, is perintendent motioned to us to take ics warbles it under the stately palm; our places on the platform, gave the the pious Russian and the converted was a strange sensation to feel that tion in the magnificent old German the mind." The old nether millstone from the errors of Unitarianism b oppressive sensation in our ears, singing the doxology-Praise God The foreman, or inside boss, met the better land. Its melody can calm features of the place. At one place even the ferocious wild beasts intogentleness. We were once present and nearly a dozen horses and mules at an exhibition of wild beasts, and before the keeper entered a cage of were contentedly munching their rations. They looked sleek and in fine lions, the band struck up Old Huncondition; they are never taken out dred. It is doubtful whether Orpheus ever produced such effects. This till they get hurt or sick, and often remain here for months at a time sweet old tune will be sung amid the splendors of the Eillenial glory, yea, vithout ever seeing a ray of day; light. The men work eight hour it may perhaps be sung in concert shifts, three gangs of men working with the song of Moses and the Lamb in the upper sanctuary! This dear old melody has been On we stumbled through the dark wrought into the very life and soul path only lighted by two or three litcan die as long as Protestantism tle lamps such as the miners wear on lives, and we know that will live their hats. We were all in the jolliuntil the end of time. The effects est mood, and our fair companion of this grand old tune are tranquilkept us in the best of humor by her izing. The heart goes up to God on cute speeches and capital hits upon its melodious swells, and when sung her surroundings. She was rallied with the spirit by a whole congregaupon her bravery, and the Superintion, it touches and stirs the soul to tendent remarked that she was the its very centre. You may find, says third woman who had ever had the great writer splendid choirs with courage to descend to that depth. Sabbath prima donnas, whose daring t is the deepest shaft in this counnotes may emulate the steeple-and try. At the distance of three or four cost almost as much—but give us the hundred yards we reached the end of the gangway, and before, above, below, and all around us was the solid by young and old together. Martyrs have hallowed it; it has gone up from the couch of the dying saint. toreman took up one of the light coal It helps in contending for the faith favor of truth. It is one of the it is in Jesus is to be conveyed to the world. There is no dauger of pockets. Keturning along by the the chirch over falling into gross Maj. Gen. T. F. Gallaglier, commandin pockets.. Returning along by the error, as long as she clings to Old miners picking out the coal which Hundred, and similar time-honored breasts ran up nearly two hundred and consecrated melodies. They are yards, and the foreman remarked embalmed in the very heart's core of the church, and will not permit her to swerve from the truth.

> ----A PROMISING PUPIL.

Some years ago a benevolent lady ook a little neggo girl into her family, intending to give her a very through moral and religious training. Unfortunately given to lying, and though the mistress strove incessently by precept and example to its dryness; it is quite dusty indeed, eradicate this vice, her efforts were No water was found below a depth far from successful. One day, reof two hundred feet, although before turning home after some hours ab sence, the lady was met at the door by her sable handmaid, who, with many tears, informed her that she idan Cavalry, of Everett; Sheridan Troop, had broken a very valuable china pitcher, an heir-loom in the family Here was light in darkness at last strict truthfulness in the face of Stead of Williamsport. ter and towels soon improved our preprimand or punishment, and the personal appearance. We had been good mistress was delighted. Such an opportunity to reward and strengthen virtue must not be lost; Well, Jenny, since you have been tleman. such a good girl, and told the truth so quickly, I shall not even scold you. Here is a penny for you." Alas! the next morning the lady on returning home from market, was met at the door again by her promis-"Mother! Do you know me?" women in morning dishabille, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabille, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabille, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabille, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabille, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabille, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabille, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabille, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabille, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabille, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabille, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabille, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabille, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabile, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabile, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabile, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabile, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabile, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabile, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabile, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabile, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabile, sitting mahon, about six miles from the late war. Maj. Gorden women in morning dishabile, superfluous.

"Yes, yes," she said. "Jack was our hoy—our son. He vient away—had looked for her, and how he had many years ago—and—"

Here the woman broke down, and in cemmand of a ship just returned dirty; many an aristocratic, refined by a few sunted hawthorn to the road, is the very pool alluded accumulated dirt deposits, playing in of the road, is the very pool alluded to by Goldsmith, and the noisy geese band to Montana, and the moisy geese to by Goldsmith, and the noisy geese band to Montana, and thus make the Indians go West. If it has not this effect, and on its margin as I passed. It is the produce discord among the gentle saveges.

GUARD IN FAIRMOUNT PARK, PHILADELPHIA.

zen soldiery, has been anxiously looked forward to by the many military organizations composing the National Guard of Pennsylvania, for several months, and scheme. However, by the exertions of Adjutant General Latta, the appropriaand the liberality of the Park Commis-all parts of our Commonwealth, are under them. Excepting the grand review, that folowed the close of the Rebellion, when den. Meåde marched up Chestnut St. with twenty-five thousand veterans behind him, this is the largest peaceable assemblage of soldiers ever gathered on Pennsylvania larity in the camp.

sioners, the idea became a reality, and with tents, and brave and good men from

The conduct of the Guards is very noteworthy. With their supernumaries and as yet not a single man has been sont to the guard house! Governor Hartranft, Commander-in-Chief of the National Guard, has his head-quarters established in camp, and in front of his tent may be seen the beauti- Towanda. ful ilag bearing the coat of arms of our alone is likely to endure for a Keystong State, and Adj. Gen. Latta floats his flag by the side of his gallant ommander.

> THE 1ST DIVISION s commanded by Maj. Gen. Banksom, and is composed of the 1st Troop of Philadelphia City Cavalry; the Black Hus-Regt.; and 4th Prov. Battallion.

This Division is the largest and comprises the crack companies of the State. Some of which (notably the State Fencibles), are not excelled, and but rarely tion was paid to the comfort and convenequalled, by any company in the Union. The Disision numbers over 2500 officers were given for the gentlemanly and poputinese 50,000 graves represent? Oh, surely and men, and Philadelphia is entitled to lar Superintendent, as the train moved on the rum-shop is the mouth of hell; its and does, feel a great pride in her quota its way to the World's Fair. to the National Guard.

THE 2ND DIVISION. commanded by Brig. Gen. Frank Reeder, the car opposite the Globe Hotel, as fresh most beautiful camping spots in the Park

3D DIVISION. commanded by Maj. Gen. Edwin S. Osheart of God's people. It has been borne, of Wilkes-Barre, is composed of sung by millions who have gone home the Wyoming Artillery, of Wilkesbarre: vass poof, many for the first time, and us at the bottom and took us thro' to glory, and is now sung by millions McCleffan Rifles, of Pittston; 3d Infantry others for the first time in many years. more who are on their way home to Corps, of South Gibson; Telford Zonaves, of Susquebanna Depot; and the 9th Regiment of Infantry. This Division carried a flag that did service under Taylor and Scott in the Mexican War, and in the Army of the Potomie under McClellar, Burnside, Hooker Meade and Grant. 4th division, commanded by Maj. Gen. Siegfried, of Schuylkill county, is composed of the Juniata Scots, of Millintown; Russell Guards, of Icksburg; Ashland Dragoons, of Ashland; and the 7th and 8th Regiments of Infantry. This Division is from' the center of the Company Drill, State; Northumberland, Lebanon, Dau-1 hin, and Schuylkill counties furnishing their best men. The 7th Reg't is the largest in rank and file in camp, numbering over 600. Grif DIVISION. Maj. Gen. A. L. Pearson, commanding;

Reg't; Knapps Battery; and 14th and 8th Regiments, all of Pittsburg. • This is a very fine Division, numbering seeing the city. The many incidents severafivery fine and well drilled companics, as well as three crack bands, who gave promenade concerts nightly after Screnades by the bands in different parts dress parade.

once delivered to the saints, and Maj. Gen. Huidekoper, commanding; therefore, its effects are greatly in | composed of the Light Horse Cavalry, of Franklin; 15th and 17th Regiments of Inchannels through which the truth as fantry One of the best; manuavre like veterans.

10th Regiment Infantry. DTH DIVISION.

10TH DIVISION. Myersburg Troop; Griffin Battery, and 11th Reg't Infantry.

'ommander, Bellefonte. Lieut. Col. D. S. Keller, Asst. Adj. Gen., Bellefonte. Lieut Col. D. Stewart Elliott, Inspector, Evereft, Bedford county. Maj. J. R. Gordan, Qr. Master, Altoona. Maj. Jas. B. Orkidy, Judge Advocate, Huntingdon. Maj. & Starkweather, Paymaster, Williamsport. Maj. W. R. McFarland, A. D. C., Reedsville, Mrj. Geo. N. Hale, A. D. C. Bellefonte. Maj. S. W. Alvord;

A. D. C., Towanda. This Division is composed of the Sherof Tyrone; 5th Reg't, commanded by Col. fas. F. Milliken, of Tyrone; and the 12th Reg't, commanded by Col. A. H.

The 5th Division, to which Co. K., of The 5th Division, to which Co. K., of ernor and staff having passed along the Towarda belongs, is commanded by Maj. line, it broke from the right into column Gen. James A. Beaver, who entered the of companies and marched down Broad to late war as a subaltern and left it a Brigaor more cheerful than when we rode so the lady magnanimously forgot dier General, minus a leg. He is a thorhappily townward after our morn her annoyance at the loss of her ough soldier, a true patriot, a sincere cherished pitcher (one of a pair) and, christian, an out and out temperance adtaking out a penny, said, kindly, vocate, and a refined and cultivated gen-Assistant Adjutant General D. S. Keller > was wounded in the arm and shoulder at Chancellorsville. He is now a prominent lawyer of Bellefonte. Col. Elliott is also a lawyer, and won a captain's commission in the late war. Maj. Gorden route, was highly creditable to so young a lope at the feast of Apollo. Pope gives a meat; however that may be, he is exturn no more,

Co. K broke camp on Saturday morning treniely easy when in command, never

He is ever mindful of the comfort of his command; careful to change the position of rifle, varying the march, manœuvering the line or column, and in every way The Military Encampment of our citipossible rendering the performance of > sistent with a strict compliance with the established tactics. He is deservedly a great favorite with the entire regiment, street on which his headquarters were located in camp, "Stead Avenue." Adjutant Frank Burroughs is another of Williamsport's leading wholesale merchants, and deservedly popular in the regiment. The promptituded, urbanity and courtesy he has exhibited during his ad-

now (Aug. 3), Fairmount Park is white his promotion to a majorship will be received with joy and regret. Lieut. Schuyler, Regimental Quartermaster, is a merchant of Lock Haven, and together, with intervals of eating, and Paymaster W. B. Hill, a merchant of with the accompaniments of songs, dances Williamsport, together with the ever gen- and recitations." And what are the efial Dr. Bacon, made up a regimental staff feets? It is remarkable how they agree probably not equalled and certainly not with what we see about us now. "Who excelled for ability, geniality, and popu-

52 per Annum in Advance.

The regimental officers, with company A, of Williamsport, Capt. Sharrar; Co. at least ten thousand men are in camp, D, of Williamsport, Capt. Johnson; Co. degraded, hardened, and finally lost for-

Company K left Towards on the evento him, for the very satisfactory provident thousands to beggary, and fills almssars; Keystone Battery; Artillery Corps beautiful centennial car for the boys, and hecatombs of loving victims. There is of Washington Greys; Weccacoe Legion; a car for baggage were placed at the foot now in the U.S an aggregate of 500,000 First Regt. Infantry; Second Regt. In- of Park-St., at 9 o'clock, and when all drunkards. Every one of these has not fantry; State Fencibles; 3d Regte; 6th were safely aboard, it was taken to the only his heart full of wee, but his hands Grounds without change, Every atten-

> The company had a very pleasant ride, Intemperance is our direst national curse. an abundance of fun, and stepped out of It must be repressed and removed, dr our oce hive. Tents had to be pitched, wood cut, fire lit, provisions cooked, water carintil at last dusk closed around the camp and the boys sought repose beneath a can-Many and pleasant were the reminiscences brought to mind by the first night in camp, and many stories of camp life were narrated, which plainly indicated the narrators had seen camp life under less pleasant auspices. However, much as he stories we enjoyed. Morpheus was at work, and ere midnight had most if not all the boys locked in his embrace. The following morning camp-life com-menced in reality and the men entered upon their duties cheerfully and in good 6.00 A. M Reveille, Breakfast. 7.30 to 9.00 Prill (squad) Sick Call, Guaril Mount 10.00 to 11.30 12.00 M. Battallion Drill 3.00 p. x Dress Parade, 6.30Supper, Tattoo. 10.00 Taps), The above routine occupied nearly the composed of the Jefferson Cavalry, of time, but Captains of companies were Centerville; Hutchinson Artillery, 19th Permitted to excuse men from duty for of spending at least three days in the exhibition grounds, and an opportunity of alive and awake, not only during the day of the camp, were of nightly occurrence. Extempore concerts, mock trials or court martials for imaginary offences, were frequent, always funny, generally amusing, and at times extremely ludicrous. Y. M. C. Al meetings were held frequently and were well attended. Pedlars were nunergus and occasionally an extertionate or saucy one would be invited to partake f a "blanket for one." This consisted n placing notens rolens the delinquent on an outstretched blanket or tent ciotli, firmly held by from eight to twenty nemaind at a given signal tossing him high in the air-sometimes as much as lifwith a hearty good will the boys yielded Mai Gen. Jas. A. Beaver, Division gus and much hilarity, fun and good humor was to be lound everewhere and at all times. Or Thursday, the 10th inst., GRAND PARADE of the entire Guard took place, through the prominent streets of Philadelphia. From early dawn all hands were busily engaged in cleaning arms, equipments, etc., and generally preparing for the great event of the encampment. Various armess and supplifity in the midst of disease rangements had been made, mainly with and danger. He is tossed about driven the P. & R. R. R., to convey the troops hither and hither and yet he is atterly from camp to city, and at the appointed time, 2.45%. M., Broad St. fairly glistened unconscious. Death stares him in the for miles with the arms of the troops. face and yet he realizes not his position. Staff officers were galloping up and down He knows not what he does or what he the line in every direction, and at a little says. He is in a stupor or wild delirium, after three o'clock, the line was formed, like a min asless in a least in the middle vociferously cheered from end to end, by housands and tens of thousands, who top of a mast. lined the street on either side. The Gov-Chestnut, down Chestnut to Third, up Third to Market, up Market to Broad and was there dismissed, the various companies, regiments and divisions reaching camp by the same routes they came. Company K, 12th Regiment, made a creditable show in the parade, and were everal times cheered on the march. The left wheel of the company from Broad to ly, a modern disease. Chestnut street, was simply perfect and the ancients. These three closing verses drew forth a prolonged round of applause. of our lesson demonstrate this. And there At several points the company made ex-cellent movements, and its steady march, and almost perfect line during the entire the drunken revel of the suitors of Pene

Further description of that good the very cleverest men in the camp.

Further description of that good the very cleverest men in the camp.

woman's state of mind would be Co. A. H. Stead, commanding the 12th and mementoes of the visit exchanged. Hegiment, is a merchant of Williamsport, and he is acknowledged to be one of the best if not the best tactician in the State. and though the duration of the camp was short, it was with evident reluctance many The boys say tactics are his bread and of the boys left their tents, perhaps to re-

This is a short but very powerful sernon in behalf of total abstinence. "Look not upon the wine." He does not say. "Drink it moderately!" He does not merely say, "Do not drink it at all!" But more forcibly still he says, "Do not look upon it." Eve sale and sinned. The lust of the eye is very strong. We must not cast our eyes upon the glowing, fascinating wine; this is the exhortation of Solomon's superhuman wisdom. We are only safe when at a distance; out of sight, military duty as light and easy as is con- out of reach.

NOTES ON THE INTERNATIONAL LESSON

DY BEV. JOHN S. STEWART, D. D.

SEPTEMBER S, 1874.

INTEMPERANCE.

Prov. 23: 29-35, GOLDEN TEXT : Ephes. 5:18

THIRD QUARTER, LESSON X.

The effects of habitual drinking are powerfully represented in a free, unsystematic way. "They that tarry long at the and the men felt a pride in naming the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine." Confirmed topers are described here. They drink long and deep; not satisfied with the natural power of the wine they increase its intoxicating property by an infusion of drugs and spices. This is true. essentially of drinkers in our land, but it is a picture from life of Oriental habits. jutancy, has won for him the good will Their revels often continue from one to and respect of the entire regiment, and two days. "When a man wishes to entertain his friends with wine, they generally meet early, and continue at their work the whole day, or a day and night hath woe?" This refers to the effect upon the drinker himself. Ill-health, a broken constitution, a mind debased and wrecked, an imagination inflamed and B, of Williamsport, Capt. Foresman; Co. stamped with images of hell, and a soul F, of Charleston, Capt. Ludlow; Co. G, ever, these form the woe that comes upon of Wellsboro, Capt. Horton; Co. I, of the person of the debanchee. It is a fear-Canton, Capt. Smith, arrived in camp on ful curse, and yet one that he is incompethe 2d, in good condition, and were joined tent to throw off. He may cry out bitterly on the morning of the 3d by Co. K, of against it, but he is bound hand and foot.

He has sold himself for rought. "Who hath sorrow?" This probably ing of the 2nd at 10.20, arrangements hav- refers to the effect realized by the friends ing been made with the L. V. R. R. Co., of the drunkard. It means anxious care, to transport the company to Philadelphia, complaint, misery. Intemperance impovand Supt. Packer has placed the Towarda erishes families, breaks the hearts of Military Company under deep obligations mothers and wives, sends children by the sion made for their comfort. A new and houses, insane asylums, and graves with upper depot, and attached to the 10.20 full of sorrow, and they scatter it broaddown train. The car was made "special" cast over the land. Every year in this and ordered through to the Centennial country 50,000 drunkards drop into the grave—a number equal to that of our christian ministers. Who can enumerate ience of the boys, and three hearty cheers the tears, the drops of anguish, which mixed compotations the very fire of hell! nation will be overwhelmed with corruption crime, poverty and baseness. who tarries long at the wine will quarrel with his best-friends. Our modern consweetest natural temper into that of a fiend. Wife beating, child-beating, fightings, murders tind their most prolific source in drunkenness. It has come to such a pass in this country that almost murderer is that he was insane from liquor. "Who hath babbling?" This refers to the incoherent, foolish, disgraceful talk of drunken men. Liquor steals away a man's wits; it turns the most sensible man into an abject fool. "Who hath wounds without cause?" Causeless quarrels and causeless injuries always follow in the train of intemperance. Drunken men not only inflict injuries upon others without cause, but also

"Who hath redness of eyes?" This refers to the havoc wrought by drink upon the physical system—of which havoc redness of eyes is the most prominent

So earnest is Solomon in enjoining total abstinence that he repeats in varied and ntenser form what he has just said. 'Look not upon the wine when it is red." ome suppose there is an allusion to the Eastern custom of coloring wine. Others that he means the redness which results from fermentation. "When it sparkleth in the cup, when tit glideth smoothly." The last clause is supposed to refer either to the rich, oily flow of old wine, or to its pleasant progress down the pal first we make its acquaintance; but at the last (when it has wrought the effects described above) it biteth like a scrpent and stingeth, like an adder. It poisons soul and body like a serpent's bite. plained as a description of delirium tremens. "Thine eyes shall behold strange visions," not "strange women" as in our teen feet. One course of this dish was version. The connection between drunk usually sufficient, but occasionally there enness and licentionsness is elsewhere al-were candidates for a "second term," and luded to, but not here. "And thine heart luded to, lit not here. "And thine heart shall utter perverse things," or wild ravings. "The nour denotes topsy-turviness utter contradictoriness, absurdity and confusion, the talk of a man in delirium tremens. - Tayler Lewis. "Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth lieth upon the top of a mast;" verse 34. The reference is to the man's unconscious ness and stupidity in the midst of disease like a man asleep in a boat in the middle of the sea, or a boy slumbering on the The last verse carries out this idea. The wild, raving inebriate listens to the words of his friends as they tell him of alize what they say. He is not sick; he does not feel any blows; he is all right. as ever, and then I will seek it again. What a true and vivid picture this is of a and sin ! So we see that mania, potu is not wholis a striking passage in the Odyssey which free, but substantially correct translation

ghists. To people Occus and the burning coasts

Nor gives the sun his golden orb to roll. But universal night usurps the pole! this complexion must we come at last?"

The only safeguard is in total austinence. "Touch not, taste not, handle not!" trenely easy when in command, never at an early hour, and arrived home at "Look not upon the wine !" Wine is failing to move his men at the precise moment and bringing them to the precise well pleased with their trip to the great whose the desired the region is desired the rest possible work contained.

The command, never at an early hour, and arrived home at "Look not upon the wine !" Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and well pleased with their trip to the great whose trip is desired the rest possible work.

The command, never at an early hour, and arrived home at "Look not upon the wine !" Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and well pleased with their trip to the great whose trip is desired the rest possible work.