Tranjoru Mine

Acquiter.

REGARDLESS OF DENUNCIATION FROM ANY QUARTER.

gave his version with equal candor.

One week later, Mr. Morton be-

The day his remains were consigned to the dust, and the day that wit-

The country rang with the story of ment ran strong against the wretch-

In due time the trial occurred

The prosecution occupied two days

mony, though purely circumstantial, ton tell Inez that after he was dead

she could follow her own inclination;

But just as the prosecution was

"I want to testify in this case," he

After some discussion he was poison, and am now beyond human

He staggered as he spoke, and dropped into a seat. He had played

A wild scene followed a scene which our pen is too feeble to depict, so we will draw a veil over it. With in an hour Guy Barton was dead and

PROVERBIAL ETIQUETTE.

AT THE TABLE.

Eat not with cheeks full, and with

Blow not on thy meat, but if it b

Smell not of thy meat, and if thou oldest thy nose to it, set not after-

Stop not in your drinks, if thou e'st not the master of the house, or thy elbows; and lean not thy should-

It is indecent to soil thy table-cloth.

and that which is worse, to clean one's face, or wipe away one's sweat with the napkin, or with the same

Taking salt, beware that thy knife neatly with a piece of bread, or with napkin, but never with the mouth.

Suck no bones, at least in such wise that one may hear it; take them not with two hands, but with one,

IN SOCIETY.

In coughing and sneezing, make not great noise, if it be possible.

Gnaw not thy nails in the presence of others, nor bite them with thy

When thou blowest thy nose,

Set not in order at every hand-

When thou sittest, put not indecently one leg upon the other, but

To sleep when others speak, to sit when other stand, to walk on when others stay, are of all things ill man-

Sing not with thy mouth, humming to thyself, unless thou be alone:

strike not up a drum with thy finger

keep them firm and settled.

turn thy beard, thy mustache, or thy Buttonhole not thy neighbor.

clean one's nose, or one's dish.

hast some indisposition or other,

hot, stay until it be cold.

thy tooth-pick.

as dogs do.

trumpet.

stockings.

or thy feet t

had aided justice to triumph.

from her mind.

for revenge, and had won; and yet witness which has been given with said, in a loud voice.

ed girl.

The detective then went away.

VOLUME XXXVII.

TOWANDA, BRADFORD COUNTY, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 21. 1876.

NUMBER 26.

$2 per Annum in Advance.

Kent & Bliss. THE LATEST NEWS!

S. W. ALVORD, Publisher.

KENT & BLISS

Have just opened another large stock of

DRY GOODS AND NOTIONS!

Consisting of FANCY GOODS

FOR THE HOLIDAYS!

READY-MADE SACQUES, FULL LINE OF FURS. SEAWLS,

SKIRTS. HOSIERY, GLOVES

CORSETS, ZEPHYRS.

CARD BOARD MOTTOES, CANVASS,

EVERY DEPARTMENT IS FULL

Call and be Convinced that we Sell as

KENT & BLISS.

Towanda, Nov. 23, 1876. Boots and Shoes-Crockery. FALL TRADE.

BOOTS AND SHOES

&c., &c., &c., old Stand, opposite Court House.

BLACK'S CROCKERY STORE

AT COST!

FULL STOCK-GOOD GOODS-

CROCKERY,

CHINA,

GLASSWARE,

LAMPS,

Towards, August 2, 1876.

BABY WAGONS.

MUST BE SOLD

Towanda, Aug. 10, 1876.

Diseased feet treated. Manufactures the cele Towanda, Pa., Jan. 6, '76-tf. TNSURANCE AGENCY.

Shop on Plank Road, near old Agricult. Works RELIABLE AND FIRE TRIED LANCSHIRE, PHŒNIX.
HOME,
MERCHANTS,
O. A. BLABK.

1877.-POSTPAID.-$1.60 THE NURSERY, A MONTHEN MAGAZINE FOR YOUNGEST READERS. SUPERBLY ILLUSTRATED. 23. Send ten centifor a sample number and premium-list. JOHN L. SHOREY, 36 Bromfeld Street, Boston.

At the old stand of

&c., &c., &c.,

O. A. BLACK.

Selected Hoelen. THE UNFINISHED LETTER.

BY GEORGE L. CATLIN. "NEAR DEADWOOD, September 21, 1876. Dear Jenny:

We reached here this morning-Tem Baker, Ned Leonard and I: o you see that in spite of your warning, The end of our journey is nigh. The redskins-'tis scarce worth a mention

Don't worry about me, I pray-Tave shown us no little attention-Confound them-along on our way. Poor Ned's got a ball in the shoulder, Another one just grazes my side; ut, pshaw! ere we're half a day older We'll be at the end of our ride.

We've camped here for breakfast. Tom's spli ting Some kindling wood, off in the pines, and astride a dead cedar I'm sitting To hastily pen you these lines.

A courier from Deadwood—we met him Just now, with a mail for the States-Ah! Jenny, I'll never forget hlm)

For this most obligingly waits. He says, too, the miners are earning Ten dollars a day, every man. fullo! here comes Tom; he's returning,

And running as fast as he can. 'It's nothing, I guess. He is only At one of his practical "—Bang! And sharp, through that solitude ionely, The crack of Sloux rifle-shots rang. and as the dire volley came, blended With echo from canon and pa-s, ho letter to Jenny was ended-Its writer lay dead on the grass. Baldicin's Monthly. "THE ONE TALENT." In a napkin smooth and white, Hidden from all mortal sight,

My one ralent lies to-night. Mine to hoard or mine to use, Mine to keep, or mine to lose : May not I do what I choose? Ah! the gitt was only lent, With the Giver's known intent That it should be wisely spent. And I know He will demand Every farthing at my hand,

When I in His presence stand. What will be my grief and shame When I hear my humble name And cannot repay IIIs claim ! Some will double what they hold: Others add to it ten-fold, And pay back in shining gold. Lord, oh, teach me what to bo! Make me faithful, make me true. And the sacred trust renew. Help me, ere too late it be,

Something now to do for Thee Thou who hast done all for me !

Hliscellaneons.

violence, and, worst of all, murder!

With a piercing cry, Inez Opher drew her hand from the clasp of the fraught with terrible significance, gypsy woman, who flung the silver at her feet, darted into an adjacent She had noticed the girl, had begged to tell her fortune, and this was the ed to pass him, but he grasped her result. Pale, trembling in every limb, hand and held her firmly. and with staring eyes, the girl turned to her humble home, in the yard of struggling to free herself. tion, but exclaimed,-

"Your uncle, John Morton, will be here this evening. You must take care not to offend him, as he is very peculiar. I have not seen him for almost twenty years; but he has now ture of the room. asked, in low measured tones.

"Yes, indeed." poverty l' "I am glad to hear you say that, like affection." for you must see at once how foolish it is for you to encourage Guy Barton. You cannot afford to marry a TRUNKS, TRAVELING BAGS, poor man, so you must give him up.

said, with an effort,-

"That will be hard."

present surroundings."

Just then the conversation was inter- borhood. rupted and was not resumed. John Morton arrived that evening. hang upon a thread. Inez watched A proud, austere, yet generous man, over him with a solicitude that was but unyielding as fate. He allowed almost painful. She administered to no one to defy his authority. The his every want, no one denying her meeting between brother and sister the privilege. At length the physiwas somewhat formal and constrain- cian pronounced the crisis passed.

their labor done, they disappeared. who arrived soon after the nuneral. Inez had a suit of rooms which and set to work in earnest. The serwere exquisitely furnished; her ward- vants were questioned together and robe was inexhaustible; her every separately, but they knew nothing wish was gratified; the elements Inez told what she knew of the case which surrounded her were taste, ele- concealing nothing, and Mr. Morton gange and wealth. Yet she was not happy. Down in the secret recesses of her heart was cherished a secret which embittered her very existence.

Inez was sitting in her room one fled the skill of the most profound morning, two or three months after physicians, and in spite of medicinal her arrival at the hall, wrapped in care he died. thought. She had pushed aside the curtains of heavy damask and priceless lace, disclosing a landscape varied nessed the fulfillment of Inez Opher's with perfume of flowers which were was permitted to accompany her.

out the room, and the magic touch of the double crime, and public sentigold was everywhere visible. A rap sounded on the outer door. and, in reply to her invitation, her uncle entered. "Inez," he said, as soon as the in examining witnesses. The testi-arranged with artistic skill through-usual salutations were exchanged, was most damaging. The housemaid testified that she had heard Mr. Mor-"I have had a visitor." "Who?" she asked, indifferently, and without looking up. "Guy Barton."

At the mention of that name the and on this point the prosecution laid girl started violently. She was no great stress; a vial had also been longer indifferent. The color slowly found hidden in Inez's room, which expression of positive terror. For a dark for the prisoner. moment she seemed to control herself with an effort.

"What did he say?" she asked, huskily. "Nothing. What could be say?" his way to the judge's seat. said Morton, sternly. The girl was silent.

Her uncle sat down beside her and took her hand. "Inez, this is nonsense. You should Barton. you. Your mother made an unfor- ception of sin." tunate marriage, and I am determined that you shall not."

Then he unfolded his plans. He had chosen for her husband Walter contents, and said,-Leroy, the son of a neighboring "I committed that crime. I had

THE FATAL MARRIAGE.

"You are my heiress, Inez," he concluded, "and I expected you to submit to my authority. When I am trouble for you. I see bloodshed, dead you will be free to follow your picton on an innocent woman. It is own inclinations."

These words rung in her head for derer! Gentlemen, I haven't long many days, and afterward were to live. I have swallowed a deadly That evening, while walking thro' the grounds, she met Walter Leroy. thicket of pines, and was lost to view. She grew pale; the magnolia blossoms fell from her hand; she attempt-

"Release me," she cried, faintly, which she was then standing. As she _ "Not until you answer one quescrossed the threshold, her mother, a tion," he said, determinedly. "I have Inez was free. But the memory of stern-looking woman, met her. She spoken to Mr. Morton, and it now the dreadful peril into which her first love you; will you bid me hope?" With a great effort she wrenched herself from his grasp. "I cannot listen to you. I am--She staggered, murmured some forgiven my foolish marriage, I feel fallen on the ground had he not Her daughter sank into the nearest arms, and supported her to a seat.

broken sentences, and would have sprang forward and caught her in his seat, and her large gray eyes wan- Soon she rallied, and drew away from dered wearily over the scanty furni- him, while a violent shudder convulsed her frame. The young man "He is wealthy, is he not?" she noticed the movement, and it stung him sharply. "Am I so hateful to you," he said

"Then, mother, this visit means bitterly, "that my presence inspires something to us. Oh, how I hate horror? I fancied, a few days since that you regarded me with something "You were not wrong."

"Is it possible that you love me?" "It is too true," was the faint reply Lerov knelt at her feet, and so well The girl turned pale and a strange did he plead his cause that she conexpression passed over her face. She sented to become his wife, his elomoved uneasily in her chair, as she quence apparently banishing her scruples. In glowing terms he pic tured their future, and she listened, "Pshaw! don't be a fool," was the but said nothing. It was a singular orusque reply. "You are handsome betrothal. Naturally they lingered enough to marry wealth and position some time, and when they finally and you must do it. There is no turned homeward, the moon had risen doubt but that this visit of your un- and was flooding the landscape with cle will change your whole life. Hear a soft, delicious light. As they went REMEMBER THE PLACE-Humphrey's my past history and learn from it. slowly on, he plucked a spray of Prior to my marriage I was a reign-myrtle, placed it in her hair, and bent ing belle, admired by all. I lived over to kiss her. As he did so, and with my brother, John Morton, the just as their lips met, the report of a wealthy planter. Among my admir- pistol rang out, and with a cry of ers was Robert Opher, your father, agony, and tossing up his arms wild-a man of talent, but poor. He won ly in the air, Walter Leroy dropped me and we were married, when my senseless at Inez's feet. At the same brother renounced me and drove me time the figure of a man dashed thro' from his home. He had set his heart the tangled shrubbery to the left of on my making a splendid match, and them and disappeared down the lane. the disappointment changed him from The girl's wild screams soon genial, hospitable man, into a brought assistance. Walter was cargloomy recluse. Morton Hall has ried to the hall and a physician sumbeen closed to society ever since, moned, who pronounced him badly, Your father perished in a Northern but not dangerously wounded. Search prison, leaving me penniless. I strug- for the assassin was made, but no gled on as best I could. How I have trace could be found, and the whole succeeded may be judged from our affair was wrapped in the deepest Mrs. Opher spoke rapidly, and miss, and why his life was attempted watched her daughter closely, but in so cowardly a manner, was beyond Inez made no reply when she ceased. the conjecture of the excited neigh-

For a long time his life seemed to

TESTIMONY OF HISTORY.

The effects, then, of the work of utterly scoffed. It created the very the tooth is easily removed by the conception of charity, and broadened operator's fingers. But the Chinese the limits of its obligation from the method of curing the toothache was narrow circle of a neighborhood to what puzzled him most, and longest the widest horizons of the race. And defied detection. The operations, it while it thus envolved the idea of should have been stated, are all pereven where its tidings were not front, under a large umbrella, the known—all over the world, wherever idea being that religious ceremony is its tidings were believed, it cleansed in some way connected with them. the life and elevated the soul of each Toothache is caused by a maggot left her cheeks, her very lips grew it was claimed had contained the individual man. And in all lands, which gets into the tooth somehow pale, and her eyes glowed with an poison. In short, everything looked where it has moulded the characters or other while the patient is asleep, of its true believers, it has created or while he is laughing immoderately. hearts so pure, and lives so peaceful, It must be removed alive, or the pa preparing to open the case, a man and homes so sweet that it might tient will go mad. He is, therefore pushed his way through the crowd seem as though those angels who placed on a seat and his head thrown that packed the court room, and made had heralded its advent, had also back. The dentist inserts a long pair whispered to every depressed and of forceps, and, after fumbling around despairing sufferer among the sons for a few seconds, produces between fruit is well known to be unwholeof men: "Though ye have lain the nippers a little wriggling black some. The regular and moderate among the pots, yet shall ye be as maggot, the cause of the whole trousworn. He said his name was Guy the wings of a dove, that is covered ble. Dr. Eastlake witnessed this widely appreciated as contributing with silver wings, and her feathers like gold." Others, if they can and match for a lady in your position. has been a fatal union. She is guilt- think it philosophical enlightenment Besides, I have different views for less of this crime. She has no con- to hold that Christianity and Christendom are adequately accounted for by the idle dreams of a noble self-He paused. A death-like silence deceiver, and the passionate hallucireigned throughout the room. He nations of a recovered demoniac. raised a vial to his lips, drank its and came here to confess all. I need between meek submisivness and the and real, between the inward and the derest conservatism and the boldest

plans of world-wide reformation

The witness of history to Christ is a irresistible cogency; and it has been so given to none but Him.—Dr. Far-

MORAL EFFECTS OF HURRY.

To the thoughtful, the moral con-their results are a matter of procome under his daily observation.

the success of the operation.

BIT OF UNWRITTEN HISTORY SUGGES TED BY MR. EVART'S SPEECH. The Evening Post of late date, in its notice of Mr. Evart's speech, of Andrew Jackson, as contrasted did not notice her daughter's agita- remains for you to-decide my fate. I false step led her, was never banished sequences of tension and a hurry are with those of James Buchanan, "who very saddening; to the physician tamely yielded to the secessionists, and publicly and shamelessly declar- proved one of the best medicines to found concern, for their grave evils ed that he was powerless to prevent cure it. Many years ago a chronic Buchanan which your words recall.

No evolution of force can take place with undue rapidity without damage to the machine in which the transfor mation is effected. Express railway stock has a much shorter term of use than that reserved for slower traffic. The law is universal that intensity and-duration of action are inversely proportioned. It is, therefore, no matter of surprise to find that the human nervous system is no excep-Cast not thyself upon the table tion to the law. The higher salut with thine arms stretched even to rity of rural over urban life is not entirely a matter of fresh air and ers, or thine arms, on thy chair in exercise. Rural life involves leisure and pause in work, which are very Cleanse not thy teeth with a table essential to the maintenance of the nervous system in a state of due nufork or knife; much worse would it trition. Unremitting spasm soon of sand." Others felt that time nial grounds at Philadelphia, we had be to do so with thy nail; but use ceases altogether. The tension of life produces weakness at the very place where strength is not needed. The damage done to the health of the most valuable part of the community, the best trained thinkers, most iseful workers, is incalculable. Work and worry, though not proportional be not greasy, when ought to be are closely connected, and an excess wiped, on the fork; one may do it of the former soon entails an increase in the latter beyond the limits which the nervous system can bear with impunity, especially under the conditions under which work has to be done. The machinery for organizing solely and properly. Gnaw them the work of a community has to be not, nor tear the flesh with thy teeth, rigid and inflexible, and in the strain involved in bringing a changing organism into harmony with a ma-Mr. Erastus Corning and Mr. Thurchine, the former must inevitably suffer.—London Lancet. Submission.—There comes a terrillieve the starving garrison at Charles-less of the table.—Country Gentleble moment to many souls when the ton. It was said that in some sense man. great movements of the world, the such a delegation would represent larger destinies of mankind, which the Democratic, the conservative make not thy nose to sound like a have lain aloof in newspapers and Whig and the Radical parties, and other neglected reading, enter like would have weight with the Presian earthquake into their own lives; dent. The same evening I went to when the slow urgency of growing Albany, saw Mr. Corning, who will-generations turns into the tread of ingly consented to go immediately. an invading army of the dire clash of Mr. Weed was not at home, but in civil war, and gray fathers know the morning agreed to act with us. nothing to seek for but the corpses of Mr. Buchanan received us in his pritheir blooming sons, and girls forget vate office, in morning gown and all vanity, to make lint and bandages slippers. After a few words of ordiwhich may serve for the shattered nary salutation, Mr. Corning stated limbs of their betrothed husbands, the object of our visit. The Presi-Then it is as if the Invisible Power | dent made no reply. After a pause that has been the object of lip-wor- I told what had been done at the ship and lip-resignation become vis- meeting in Pine street, and pointed ible, according to the imagery of the out the urgent need of Major Ander-was somewhat formal and constrainted, and their first words were tinged with bitterness and reproach. But was reasonable to contrary, he grew weaker and "blood is thicker than water," and soon, they were as tender to each other as of yore. The years of separation had been thoroughly bridged.

When John Morton returned, both Incz and her mother accompanied to make her the companied him He was charmed with his niece, and he at ofter resolved to make her the things of the best was spent in bestowing a benediction of the wind the plains shaddler under the things, fifty view of the was charmed with his niece, and he at ofter resolved to make her the companied him He was charmed with his niece, and the tother examination on the wings of the word of the was charmed with his niece, and he at ofter resolved to make her the thinder of unrelential being the was charmed with his niece, and he at ofter resolved to make her the thinder of unrelential being the planes shoulder under the thinder of unrelential being the was charmed with his niece, and he at ofter resolved to make her of the wind till the mountains smoke and the plains shoulder under the view of the was charmed with his niece, and pointed the three poet, making the flames his the contrary, he grew wasker and to that end they some the face of him with whom thou speakest, and to that end there was the flow bedwe not the face of him with whom thou speakest, and to that end the plains shoulder under the view of the wind till the mountains smoke and the plains shoulder under the rolling, fiery visitation. Often the rolling, fiery

A CHINESE DENTIST.

BUCHANAN AND SECESSION.

the country from drifting to destruc- cough which had excited a good deal This statement I can confirm by a eating ripe raspberries, recommended eminiscence of an interview with by a medical writer of high authority While General Anderson was hold-colds are more apt to occur on the ing Fort Sumpter, and just before first cool and damp days of autumn. the South Carolina insurgents opened than at any other season. We have fire upon our flag, a meeting of con- often cured these diseases on their servative men was called at No. 31 first attack, by eating copiously of Pine street to consult as to the criti- ripe watermelons. The beneficial efcal condition of public affairs. The fects of drinking freely of cold water sentiments avowed by those who on such occasions, are well known. spoke seemed either despairing or Watermelons supply a larger quansouthern. There was no power to tity than one could easily swallow in coerce a State. The government at any other way. We have not found Washington was soon to be over- these or the raspberry expectorant turned. New York was to be like an unpleasent medicine to take. Bremen; and "the Union was a rope When visiting recently the Centenought to be gained for negotiation, taken a "bad cold." Knowing that and that if the government could not | many had been made sick by drinksend aid to its forces in Sumpter, food | ing the bad water at that place, we at least might be furnished by private resolved to secure both a benefit and persons, which peaceful succor would a pleasure by using ripe watermelons not be resisted by South Carolina. instead, which happened to be abun-So painful to me were the traitorous dant at that time. Their copious doctrines of the speakers that I at use performed a surprisingly rapid empted to leave the assembly. John cure, with an escape from all the bad L. O'Sullivan, however, insisted on effects of the water. But it must be my taking part in the discussion, and remembered that the common modmaintained that the United States erate eating will not answer the dewas a real nation, and had the same sired purpose; nothing but the powers to coerce one of its members "heroic" consumption of this fruit hat a father had to coerce and bring will effect a prompt cure. back a seceding and refractory small | We mention these various facts as boy. The result was that I was re- an additional inducement for the quested to proceed at once to Albany, planting of fruit-bearing trees and suading President Buchanan to re- to economy by reducing the expen-

Marshall) with provisions, and only waited for authority from the gov In priority of time the Chinese are ernment to despatch her, but the Christ are even to the unbeliever in ahead of us in some of the arts of President answered never a word disputable and historical. It expelled | civilization, but, in most of the finer | Calling a servant who put his head cruelty; it curbed passion; it brand- and higher kinds of art, as surgery, into the room, he ordered cigars, and ed suicide; it punished and repressed etc., their proficiency is little remov- offered them to us, taking one himan execrable infanticide; it drove ed from half savage bungling A cor- self, and chewing it, but not smoking. the shameless impurities of heathen- respondent of the Cincinnati Com- When the servant had gone, Mr. came suddenly ill. The disease baf. dom into a congenial darkness. mercial describes Chinese dentistry, Corning, with a warmth quite unusual then in camp with his regiment at There was hardly a class whose and gives us an idea of what the with him, pleaded earnestly with the Charleston, West Virginia. While wrongs it did not remedy. It rescued Shanghai tooth carpenters amount to President to put down the beginning there Mrs. Hayes visited her husthe gladiator; it freed the slave; it as professionals: The native dentists of a civil war, insisting that even in protected the captive; it nursed the are the merest charlatans, and prace a party point of view it would be camp. sick; it sheltered the orphan; it ele- tice as magicians and curealls. They wise, but that as a duty of the office _ James Parker; of Mesopotamis, vated woman; it shrouded as with a insert artificial teeth of the seahorse, he held, he had the example of An- Trumbull county, was a good-naturhalo of sacred innocence the tender which are kept in place by copper- drew Jackson to guide him. Not a ed, jolly "boy" in one of the compines and magnolias, the thickets of timber which skirted the stream, the long fields of cotton thronged with negroes plucking the fleecy treasure, formed a most delightful picture. It can be a mo Walter Leroy. Amid intense excite- a curse into a beatitude. It ennobled hocus pocus process, which the den- sense, Major Anderson's forces, press of his comrades that there was no side, birds chirped in gilded cages, ment the girl was conveyed from her the gold fish darted to and fro in the acquarium, the atmosphere was heavy in the neighboring town. Her mother of flowers which possess and put the gold fish darted to and fro in the acquarium, the atmosphere was heavy in the neighboring town. Her mother of flowers which possess process, which are desirable into a contrades. It enhouses a flowers process, which are desirable acquarity into a dignity into a dignity and a duty. It sanctified marriage from little more than burdensome fr convention into little less than a represented to be the salt extracted waiting for an answer, until finally to the woman who does the sewing blessed sacrament. It revealed for from the sweat of the horse. Dr. the President, looking over his for the regiment, and get her to the first time the angelic beauty of Eastlake found this white powder to shoulder out of the window; said, fix it?" "Didn't know there was a purity of which men had despaired, be nothing more or less than arsenic, "A very fine day, gentlemen, a very such a woman. Where is she?" and of a meckness at which they had which causes the gum to slough, when fine day!" And so we rose, and after asked Parker. "She's up in the walked sadly away. As out of the three persons then | there she'll mend it for you. That's present I am the only survivor, it what she's here for." humanity as a common brotherhood, formed in a temple or in a space in the unhappy Buchanan. Mr. Evarts in hand. Colonel Hayes politely re-Evening Post.

FRUIT AS A MEDICINE. The irregular eating of unripe maggot, the cause of the whole trou- use of well ripened fruit is not so rades they were looking out for operation repeatedly, but it was only to health. Residents in regions they asked. "Why. I left it with after he obtained surreptitious pos- where more or less malaria prevails the woman to be fixed," said Parker. fore. But no matter. I have sent Inez, "is my wife. We were secretly will, may see in such a work as this session of the forceps that he discovered that nothing is a And when, in answer to their further him away, and forever. He is no married more than a year ago, and it no Divine Providence; they may ered the trick. He found that one more sure preventive of its delete- questioning, he told them how the arm of the forceps only was of iron; rious effects than a regular supply of Colonel received him, and how kindthe other was of bamboo, painted to fruit. A case is well known to us, ly the woman undertook the job of resemble the other. In the hollow of where a man with a family removed fixing his blouse, the boys could the bamboo was found a number of to the West. He had provided large hardly tell whether the joke was on little black maggots, probably ob- quantities of well-dried fruit, and Jim or on themselves. And when, tained from decayed vegetable or dethis was used regularly during the later in the day. Parker appeared We persecute them not, we denounce composing matter. When necessary first summer. Although suffering with his blouse neatly mended and them not, we judge them not; but to do service the operator simply many privations and exposures to two ample pockets in it, he was the planter, and who had been a constant intended that she should suffer for it, we say that, unless all life be hollow, squeezed the bamboo above, and the hardships, this family escaped the hero of his company. and not unwelcome visitor at the hall but at the last moment I repented there would have been no such mis- magget was ejected from the small prevailing epidemics. The second It may well be imagined that the the world which holds the perfect and then adroitly taken between the hausted, the added comforts which balance between philosophy and popnippers and held up triumphantly beularity, between religion and morals, fore the gaze of the astonished and them from disease. Many other name, with many others, is engraved grateful patient relieved. The opera- similar cases have occured. It should enough to know that I am the mur- pride of freedom, between the ideal tions he witnessed were dispatched therefore be made a special object with astonishing rapidity, and the with them all about to remove to outward, between modest stillness patients hurried away, as that part newly settled regions, and in fact to and heroic energy, between the ten- of the performance was essential to any other localities, to take with them or make provisions for the immediate planting of an ample supply of early bearing fruit plants and trees, such as strawberries, currants, grapes, raspberries, dwarf apples and pears, and the well-known early bearers among larger sorts, such as Bart ing incidents, lett pear, early strawberry, Baldwin its notice of Mr. Evart's speech, and Porter apples and many other speaks of the course and character sorts which will give crops while yet condemned to die. Some favorable But the fruit will not only prevent diseases, but in some cases it has of uneasiness, was cured by daily as an excellent expectorant. Severe and urge, on behalf of the meeting, plants, in addition to the claim of comfort and the luxury of a constant low Weed to accompany me to succession of fruit through the year, Washington for the purpose of per- as well as its important contribution

> I wish you would pay a little attention to what I am saying, sir," roared a law-yer at an exasperated witness. "I am paying as little as I can," was the calm When a Boston girl gets miffed at her husband, she says: "Base tyrent, I shall leave and go to my parental home."

When a Western girl becomes similarly affected, she simply remarks: "Old man, I'm going to git up and git, and if you don't like it, just climb up on your eyebrows and see if you can stop me."

Ar A small party in Boston the nost, having as his guest a genial New Yorker, and wishing that he should have a good impression of Boston brains, introduced him to Mr. H—, a gentleman of repute in literary circles and an admirable contained in the same and a smile all around.

Judge Marty ("A", the Martin Her off the trouble four May seek to hide its grief in see And set a carelois part.

How oft beneath the ringing langu A moun is smothered there: And in some hasty, thoughtless word,

Is breathed an earnest prayer. And oh ! perhaps when heavies The heart by sorrow's pressed. The words and actions often are Most carelessly expressed.

Then kindly judge: It is no proof Because the words are light, That nobler thoughts are buried, or The heart's no longer right.

AN ANEODOTE OF MRS. HAYES.

The simplicity of manners which make Governor Hayes and his family so popular with the people is well illustrated by an incident that oc-curred in 1863. Colonel Hayes was band, and made a short sojourn in spending an hour with him in vain, Colonel's tent," said his comrade. "and if you'll take your blouse up

may be useful to have this testimony | The unsophisticated Parker at once to the cowardice, if not treason, of started for the Colonel's tent, blouse asked whether the people were will- turned his salute, invited him in, and ing to reproduce the phantom of inquired what he wanted. He re-Buchanan's likeness in the Presiden- plied that he wanted his blouse tial chair. From my recollection of mended and pockets put in it, and the man himself, I certainly was not. that he understood there was a JAMES W. BEEKMAN in New York woman there to do sewing for the regiment. The Colonel took in the situation at once. With a merry twinkle in his eyes, he called to Mrs. Hayes and asked her if she could fix the soldier's blouse. She promptly accepted the job and told Parker to call for it in the afternoon. When Parker returned to his comsome fun. "Where's your blovse?"

incident did not lessen th of the gallant Colonel and his wife. on the beautiful monument in Mesopotamia. - Warren Ohio Tribune.

AN AFFECTING ANECDOTE.

On one of the many bridges in Ghent stand two large brazen images of father and son, who obtained this distinguished mark of the admiration of their fellow-citizens by the follow-

Both the father and the son were circumstances appearing on the side of the son, he was granted a remission of his sentence, under certain provisions; in short, he was offered pardon on a most cruel and barbarous condition, namely, that he would become the executioner of his father! He at first resolutely refused to pre-serve his life by means so fatal and detestable. This is not to be wondered at: for let us hope, for the honor of our nature, that there are very few sons who would not have spurned with abhorrence life susained on a condition so horrid and unnatural. The son, though long inflexible, was at length overcome by the tears and entreaties of a fond father, who represents to him that, at all events, his (the father's) life was forfeited, and that it would be the greatest consolation for him in his was an instrument of his son's preservation. The youth consented to adopt the horrible means of recovering his life and liberty; he lifted the axe, but as it was about to fall, his arm sunk nerveless, and the axe dropped from his hand! Had he as yielded them all, one after another, rather than again conceive, much less perpetuate, such an act. Life, liberty, everything vanished before the dearer interests of filial affection: he fell upon his father's neck, and embracing him, triumphantly exclaimed:

"My father! we die together!" and then called for another executioner to fulfill the sentence of the Hard must their hearts indeed be bereft of every sentiment of virtue. every sensation of humanity-who could stand insensible spectators of such a scene. A sudden peal of involuntary applause, mixed with moans and sighs, rent the air. The execution was suspended; and, on a simple report of the transaction to the authorities, both were pardoned. High rewards and honors were conferred on the son; and finally these two admirable brazen images were raised to commemorate a transaction so honorable to human nature, and transmit it to the instruction and emulation of posterity. The statue epresents the son in the very act of letting fall the axe.