ERIE BAILWAY COMPANY AND THE TRADE OF NEW YORK CITY.

The reports from England indicate speedy reconstruction of the Erie Railway Company. The programme, as submitted to the share and bondholders, seems to have been accepted, as dealing fairly with all the parties interested, and, therefore, the announcement that holders of nearly or quite one-half of the bonds, on which there has been a default of interest, have given their assent to the provisions of the plan for reconstruction, may be taken as evidence of the speedy putting this company, in its reorganized state, on its feet. To make the reorganized company a success, it is acknowledged that a
