"A FINE PORTRAIT.—A few days ago while in the store of Burk, Thomas & Co. we observed a fine oil painting near ly as large as life, of little HARRY THO As, the deceased son of Mr. E. H. THOM-As, of Troy street. The likeness is remarkably correct, and received the prais of all who were familiar with the child. The coloring is almost faultless, and shows that the painter, Mr. JOHN MORAY, has studied his profession assiduously, and has a natural gift for this divine art. Mr. Moray's studio is at East Canton, where he would no doubt be happy to re ceive orders for work in his line.
