On the 4th of March last he went into the City Hospital, and the physicians, after examination, deciled it a case of genuine leprosy The condition of the man is really pitiable. The disease has attacked the neck and hands and feet, and these portions of the body are scaly and shriveled, having the appearance of yellow and faded parchment. Since his admission to the hospital his tongue has become larcerated. It is dflicult for him to swallow food, and and the tubercles on his body have become hard, while the flesh on the affected parts is gradually sloughing off. The attendant physicians say there is no hope of saving his life, but they are divided in opinion as to whether or not the disease is contagious or infectious.

THE SHERMAN-CAMERON WEDDING

CLEVLAND, Ohio, April 28.—Much alk is indulged in "society" circles here over the coming Sherman-Cameron wedding. The preperations for the event are conducted with great secreey, in order to astonish the world with its effect. The following facts in regard to it have, however, been definitely ascertained: The wedding will take place a week from next Thursday night, at St. Paul's church Bishop Bedell, assisted by the Rector, Rev. N. S. Rulison, officiating. The ceremony will take place at o'clock, and the number of invitations issued will be 1,000. After the wedding a recption to the im mediate friends of the family will be held at the residence of Mr. Colgate Hoyt, the bride's brother-in-law, on Case-avenue. The arrangments a the church will be very elaborate, owing to the bridegroom being a wid groomsmen. The following is the daughter of ex-Gov. Dennison; the two Misses Sherman, daughters of Sceretary Sherman; Miss Andrews, MONUMENTS & TOMB STONES of Cincinnatti; Miss. Julia Parsons and Miss Senter, of Cleveland.
