

fifty cents. No real relief after the panic of 1837 came before 1857, or eleven years after the first trouble.
 Our panic began in 1873; a chance is now at least within reasonable calculation, and a moderate revival is rationally hoped for.

known diminutive and somewhat eccentric woman dealer in saddles and bridles, in New York, died Thursday. She started many years ago on a dollar and seventy five cents, and amassed a fortune, employing a hundred men.

der which characterized Democratic proceedings prior to and during the rebellion, manifests itself upon every practical opportunity. The resolution of the House of Representatives passed at the close of the last Congress, declaring Hayes entitled to have been elected, was at the time regarded a mere vent of party spirit and feeling; but the wilful and malicious attempt now being made to unseat the

THE Eagle colliery's breaker belonging to George W. Johns & Bro., situated at Clair, was entirely consumed by fire Thursday night. The breaker was one of the largest in Schuylkill county and built in 1857 at a cost of about $95,000. The fire was of incendiary origin.
