TOWANDA, PA.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

SEWELL is enlarging his European hotel by the addition of a large kitchen and store room.

Hos. E. REED MEN delivered the memorial address at the decoration ceremonies in Lefkaville on Thursday last.

The Lefkaville Democrat says Mrs.

Geo. KIRBY of this place was visiting in that place last week, accompanied by her son.

The next Quarterly Meeting of the St. John's Episcopal Church will be held at Waverly, N. Y., June 21-23.

Smithfield, on Tuesday, June 18th, and continues until the afternoon of the 20th.

John W. Mix, Esq., writes from Colorado Springs, under date of June 13:

"Quite a snow storm hit Pike Peak last night, had to close up the house and put on overcoats."

A new sidewalk is being constructed on the south side of Chestnut Street, between York Avenue and Third Street, which will prove a great convenience to some of the residents of the neighborhood.

REV. DAVID CHAPMAN will preach a memorial sermon on the late ASOS YOUNG, at the Brick Church, at Wysox, on Sunday morning next, at 10 o'clock. Mr. Y.

was one of the original members of the Church.

The Knights of Honor of this place propose celebrating the Fourth of July by a basket picnic somewhere on the line of the Citizens Railroad. The committee invoke all citizens who desire to do so to participate with them in the pleasant affair.

We regret to learn that our respected and industrious townsman, ARTHUR

BARNES, had the misfortune to lose two valuable cows last week. It is supposed the death was caused by eating some old hay which had been thrown from a barn where rats had been poisoned.

We direct especial attention of our readers who visit Elmira, to the advertisements of several houses of that city to be found in our columns. They are all reliable establishments, and we take pleasure in commending them to public confidence and patronage.

For the benefit of those who may desire to attend the festival in aid of the Presbyterian Church in Lefkaville on Friday evening, Sept. 13, we kindly concentrate to run a free train, leaving the Court House at 7 o'clock, and returning at an early hour. There ought to be a large turn out from this place.

DE LA MONTANA has opened a lumber yard in Plainfield, New Jersey, and shipments goods there last week. We regret to lose Mr. M. and his estimable wife from this community, but heartily congratulate the family on their good fortune in securing them as residents of their city.

LAST Sunday as some children of DAN-IEL SAVERIDGE were picking watermelons in the woods where the buggy was later found, the children, they found a satchel that was left there by the burglars containing bread, butter, roast turkey, etc., as well as papers bearing Mr.

DOUGLAS's name. This would indicate that the robbers separated this point after making a distribution of their plunder.

"On Sunday Mr. DENNIS CARROLL, of Wilmet, was driving a car, and when in the vicinity of the water tank below town, on the bank of the river, he was attacked by a man, who was armed with a gun, and the man fired the gun and threw the occupants out, breaching his daughter ELLEN's arm. Dr. HERMAN reduced the fracture and the patient is doing well. -Duchess Review.

The death of Wm. H. HASTON, second son of the late Dr. HASTON, although not unexpected, was deeply mourned by his many friends. Although an unfortunate cripple from childhood, he made himself useful in many ways to his family, and was a friend to everybody. He was well known and was a welcome guest in not a few households. "Life's stiller level over his steps will."

ANOTHER FIRE AT MORTONVILLE—Our neighboring village of Mortonville is being seriously scorched of late. A few weeks since we chronicled the burning of several buildings there, and on Friday afternoon last the foundry and machine shop of M. W. ROCKWELL was burned to the ground. The fire broke out at 10 o'clock and the firemen were called. We did not learn the amount of the loss, but understand there was an insurance of $10,000.

PERSONAL.—PHILIP CASE, an old citi-for papers containing a full account of the meeting.

Among the published arrivals at the Grand Central Hotel, Denver, Colorado, on June 12, we notice the name of JOHN W. MIX, Esq., of Colorado Springs.

Mrs. C. M. MAXWELL started on Saturday last for Pueblo, Colorado. She goes in company with her father, who will engage in mining operations there.

The good results of the Grange organization are being realized in many ways, and especially in the attention given to the improvement of crops. By discussing the value of the soil, farmers have come to understand that it costs no more to keep a good soil than a poor one, and many are using the experiment. We clip the following from the Harrisburg Patriot of Saturday:

We had the pleasure of examining at the depot yesterday, two splendid big bullocks, thoroughbred Ayrshire stock, from the fine herd of Wm. Calder, Esq., of this city, which were being shipped to the Adams Express Company at R. E. C.

Myer, a prominent agriculturist of Northeast Pennsylvania, at Wyandott, Kan.

The pair weighed over 1,500 pounds, light crates included.

of C. D. HUMPHREY,

The festival at the Grange Hall in Wysox, for the benefit of the Presbyterian Church, was a success. Net proceeds

"Our Boarding House" has never been presented in this section, and we have no doubt it will be crowded on Friday evening to witness it.

The Ladies' Mite Society of the Universal Church, will hold at the house of M. D. SWARTZ on Tuesday evening, that LEONARD GUYON's celebrated play at Mercur Hall on Friday evening of this week.
