BRICK POMEROY, the head centre of the Greenback-Labor Reform party, has one commendable trait; he is not afraid boldly to proclaim his principles. During the war he was an open sympathizer with the rebels. and now he unblushingly proclaims what his new party propose doing. In his paper of June 1 we find an article from which we extract the fol-

"In the organization of Greenback Clubs we counsol every able-bodied member of these organizations to beer me as proficient as possible in the manual of arms. In time of peace it is well to prepare fer-war, and to prepare fer war is the best way to avert it. In every Greenback Club, there should be a drill-marter—that is, in every club whose hembers are brave enough to stand at all times, under all circumstances, to defend their rights as cilizens. This Greenback movement is no boys play, and the boudholders of this country and their allies may as well understand it to-day as at any other time. We, the people, are in rebellion against the untaxed nobility of this country. We, the people, propose te have our rights, peaceably and by the means of the ballot, if possible—by the bayonet if we must. His nut a question of specie payment in the states here and the one and a precise payment in the states have a whit to us that gold and silver-and greenback inducy are all at par, because these matters are not the ones that are preying upon the vitals of Greenback industry.

It is to lift this load from the people to help the men of America to stand upright in the presence of God and under their own law, that we engage in this work of organizing Greenback Clubs and the formation of the party of the people, that so soon?as 1890, shall by concepted action, by the peaceful means of the baltot, right all our wrongs and remove the National delay from as or afforce. orget the details of the pending political contest, and the necessity of looking closely after every interest involved in a grand result of victory, while they are laboring for success n particular localities. For instance, when Republicans live in a minority county or district, and there is no possible chance for them to carry local candidates into office, they must not allow the fact to render them indifferent in getting out a full vote on the State ticket. The great and commanding object in the campaign is to get out a full Republican vote, and while it may seem like commencing work early, we feel it to be an important duty to urge our friends in the several counties at once to begin the work of organization. Demonstrations of the mass meeting order will all come in at the proper period in the progress of the campaign, but for the work of organization, the location of clubs and the registration of voters, it cannot begin too soon. It is such work as this which familiarizes all active local polititions with the details of the campaign, so that the sooner it is begun the stronger we will grow as we proceed with the campaign. Gen. Hoyt, our gallant candidate for Govenor, struck the key-note of the campaign when he said, we have nothing io defend. It is never necessary for the Republican party, its leaders or a distant city, be expected to touch, its organs, to explain or defend its deeds, its acts in office, or its words well understood as the written Constitution of the State and nation, and therefore need never be defended, because theve are the established, recognised and respected facts of the period. When people say, "Business is picking up n Wall street," I do not much care about it one way or the other. But a nation which is constantly improving the great staples of universal trade is building on very solid foundations. It is a very different thing from bolstering up a rotten trade by means of inflation and speculation. Mr. Byers' wife had gone up stairs to make arrangements for the proper reception of her guests, when D a sound as if something very heavy hav-ing fallen was heard. The family rushed up stairs and were horrified to find Mrs. Byers lying dead on the floor of her room a sudden stroke of apoplexy having caused her death. The gentleman who gave us the particulars says that the coming of the strangers to attend the funeral was regarded as an ill-omen by old Mr. Byers and that he prophesied some evil would come of it." THE natural tendency to exagerate fish and snake stories is proverbial, and this one which is copied from the New York Sun of Saturday last, probably contains about as much truth as such stories generally SHOHOLA FALLS, Pike county, Pa.,
