MR. BARRON, one of the Commissioners of Butler county, was in town last week. From him we learn that Butler county was organized in 1803, and DAVID Dou-6 VI. was chosen Clerk to the Commissioners. Mr. D. is still living, and takes, an active part in politics, although he will be one hundred years old next week.

WE enjoyed a pleasant call from J. H. LAMBERT, Esq., one of the editors of the Philadelphia Times on Friday last. Mr. L. is visiting different parts of the State with a view to gaining reliable political information. He is a very courteous, pleasant gentleman, a fit representative of the wide-awake journal he represents.

An invitation is extended to all to unite with the Greene's Landing Sunday School in a basket pic-nic, on Saturday, September 21st. Meet at the school house at 10 o'cleck A. M., and proceed to the grove.
