A LAST WORD.

REPUBLICANS of Bradford county, are you ready to poll every vote for the party on Tuesday, November 5, for the Republican party and honest money? Only a few days yet remain in which to work.

It is admitted by all parties that both DEWITT and DIMMICK have had records, and neither Greenbackers nor Democrats pretend to defend them. In bold and commendable contrast to both his opponents, stands Col. OVERTON.

It is the boast of that great commercial nation that throughout the world her paper will circulate at par, and with resumption formally declared the American greenback will soon, thanks to years of wise financial policy, command its face value of Anglo-Indian rupees in the marts of Delhi or Calcutta, or of English sovereigns in the banking houses of Sidney or Melbourne.

THE DEMOCRATS and their allies, the Nationalists, demand an issue of $2,000,000,000 of legal-tender currency. They demand an issue of $2,000,000,000 of legal-tender currency.
