equal rights. On this the issue was the most momentous of the dehostile to the equality of men's rights | this sign thou shalt conquer. The Northern Democrat takes delight in the Southern Democratic denial of . right to the colored men-in the Southern refusal to recognize in their full force the results of the war. The terrorism, brutality, usurpation and disregard of legal restraint in the South have been for ten years, a source of pleasure and profit to the Northern Democrat, only surpassed by the pleasure which they derived from a reb l victory in the trying hour of the civil war. A quietus has been given to all this by the moral of the majestic proportions of yes. ter ay's results at the ballot-box. Nor will the lesson end here and now Both Southern and Northern Democrats have yet to be taught the full meaning of the law's triumph over treason, and of the purpose of the men who preserved the Government from destruction, to maintain it in its * very fullest force.

The beauty of victories won by the Republicans at the ballot-box and overthrown as those sustained in their purposes. Our victory of yesterday has this meaning in very large sense. It will prove a blessing to all the people, and for that we thank
