This TRIDUXE now warss the country that, in-spiring as the late elections have been, they do not end the danger. The Democrate and the Green-backers, if united, could have reversed the veridit. They may be united next time. They already have the Solid South to begin with, as well as the evi-dence of the control their union would give in many of the Western States. To prevent such a union from sweeping the country, we must keep the kepublican party in the highest state of disci-pline and efficiency, and must educate the voters. If friends know any better agency for such politi-cal education than THE TRIBUXE by all means most if not, they surely ought to make every ef-fort to push THET TRIBUXE's circulation.
