THE people of Troy appear to be given o hospitality. The last Northern Tier Gazette contains notices of the several social gatherings. As some of the parties honored have an acquaintance extending even beyond the limits of the county, we copy two of the items:

"On Tuesday evening, Nov. 26th, some 25 members of the Baptist Church and Congregation, having agreed to give REU-BEN CASE and wife a surprise, went to their home and succeeded in taking them inawares.

"This old couple, who in their prosper-ous days did so much for the church, were very grateful to learn that in their old age, they are not considered as in the vay. After all had assembled, Pastor HALLOWELL, with an appropriate speech, presented them with a neat stand, inventd by Messrs. OLIVER & Son, to hold a large Bible while being read. He desired them not to consider it a measure of the love of the people, but a memento of the fact that they are loved by the people among whom they worship. Father CASE endeavored to answer but tears of gratitude came instead, and his heart was too full for utterance.
