Saturday last: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elmendorf, reaiding at 378 West Water street, in this city, are sorely bereaved in the loss of their only child, Max, who died of diphtheria yesterday morning. An unusually bright and intelligent child, the little fellow was loved by all who know him. In this sad bereavement the parents have he sympathy of hosts of kind friends.

AT a special session of Ulster Lodge, No. 1,054, I. O. O. F., held in their Lodge Room December 20, 1878, the following esolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Almighty God to remove from our midst by death, our worthy brother, George Record; therefore,

Resolved. That in the death of our brother, we recognize the hand dealings of the Great Master, and humbly bow to the decree of Him whose all-seeing eye is. ever upon us, trusting and believing that He doeth all things well.

exception the children are settled near them, and none are very far away. The family in this case would seem doubly dear, for the father was born in England. Losing his parents at an early age he came to this country many years ago, and knows of no brother or sister or any kindred there. Aside from a feeling of sad-ness that this night, perhaps, be the last meeting, there was not, we think, a sad thought in any heart save the mother's. She would remember as no other could, the lost one. She would remember as nothing could the voice hished in death, and would miss the sound of the familiar footsteps, which long ago and forever died upon her ear. May the Lord comfort and bless her in the society of her children for years to come, and may he, who has left the graves of his kindrend in a foreign land, at the last find that rest of "Asleep in Jesus, far from thee Thy kindred, and their graves may be Yet still is thine a besset sleep, From which none ever wakes to weep." East Smithfield, Dec. 19, 1878. II. Republican please copy.
