LAFAYETTE COLLEGE.

The Philadelphia Press of a recent date has this to say in regard to one of the foremost educational in stitutions of the country. A wise and pleasant plan was in augurated at the recent dinner of Lafayette College Alunini in this city. The proposition was made, and was received with the heartiest enby professor F. A. having been effected so harmoniously. without the least jarring or show of fee ing, some surprise was manifested when it was found on Wednesday afternoon, that a disposition was exhibited to get up a "bolt" in order to prevent the holding of or to demoralize the Republican caucus to nominate a candidate for United States Senator, which had been called to meet at 8 o'clock on that evening. Without going into detail as to the par-
