W. A. CHAMBERLIN, Despatch.

FINE JEWELRY, WATCHES, SILVER & PLATED WARE, TOWANDA, PA.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

JOSPH J. HARRISON has leased the Adams House, Pa. for another year.

The full proceedings of the meeting of the Council on the 23rd ult., are printed in another column.

Mr. S. P. WHITCOMB, of this place, has recently taken the agency of the Ithaca Organ Company.

BEN. TRACY, of Smithfield, has a Canadian-Leicester horse, only ten weeks old, that weighs 20 pounds.

Tracy K. H. Liddell at Orwell has 40 members, and his fall to become the strongest lodge in the county.

JACOB REED, for many years proprietor of the Bradford House, South Waverly, died on Sunday evening last.

The Wyoming County Agricultural Society will hold its Annual Fair this year September 17th, 18th and 19th.

SCHEMER MARVIN, of Smithfield, the Troy Gazette says, has made over 2,000 pounds of maple sugar this season.

A ROLLER making sugar in charge of M. J. PARRAS, is now open in Mercer Hill, and seems to be quite well patronized.

SUPERINTENDENT RYAN will hold a teachers' examination at the Graded School building, in this place, on Saturday next.

The Owego steambot, "Lynnan Truman," was the first trip of the season to Binghamton and return, Tuesday of last week.

WILLIAM LEWIS and A. E. COOLIDGE have purchased the MORRIS COOLIDGE farm, Waverly, containing about 75 acres. Consideration $5,000.

The following Postmasters have recently been appointed for this county: MASON KRASER, Luther's Mills; JOHN H. KNAPP, Shesquegan.

The Elwell House is to be provided with a new bath. It will be built of brick and its dimensions are to be 42x70 feet. It will be erected here.

Don't go West unless you intend to work when you get there. That section is overrun by those who have gone looking for "nothing to do."

ELIZABETH A., wife of Dr. H. S. CHURCH, died at one time a resident of Orwell, and at Elmsville, and administered last after an illness of but a few hours.

ION, WILLIAM ELLIOTT has purchased the W. D. SMITH property, between Elwell House and Mercer Block. We understand the amount paid was $23,000.

Mr. REV. BISHOP, D.D., D.D., occupied the pulpit at Christ Church on Friday evening, Wednesday, May 1st, and administered the rites of confirmation to ten persons.

The Elwell House is undergoing a thorough renovation. The work of the interior is receiving a fresh coat of paint, and the walls are hangings of paper.

ANOTHER walking contest is to begin at Waverly today, Wednesday. Twenty-five dollars, or $175 are to be awarded the victors. The walk is to be of 24 hours duration.

HAROLD GREENBERG, JOHN F. HARTSHORN has secured a general order fixing May and June as the months for the semi-annual inspection of the National Guard of Pennsylvania.

CHURCH of the Messiah (Universalist), West William Taylor, Pastor. At 10 o'clock A. M., subject—"Secret Fasts." At 7:30 o'clock P. M., subject—"What is Faith?" All welcome.

The Troy Gazette says that Judge V. M. LOMB, who has been seriously ill for several weeks past, is still in a very critical condition, but slight hopes being entertained of his recovery.

ATTENTION is directed to the new advertisement of N. P. HICKS, the Bridge Street Furniture Dealer. His stock is very large, and comprises all the latest novelties in his line of trade.

C. L. BROWN, of Montrose, at one time Register and Recorder of Susquehanna County, and was recently Secretary of the Montrose Railway Company, died in that village on the 20th instant.

If nothing happens from this out we will have an old fashioned clerk pronounce the ticks in first-class order and says every tick will be "freed."

The duplicate valuations for school taxes are now ready to be delivered to the several secretaries of school boards in the townships and boroughs. Call at the Commissioners' office and get them.

The Committee of the State Agricultural Society have been visiting various points in the State for the purpose of choosing a site for the coming State Fair. It was thought they will select Altoona.

All those who feel aggrieved at the amount of their mercantile appraisal will be given an opportunity to present their grievances at the Treasurer's office tomorrow, Friday, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 4 P. M.

CHARLES BRIDGEMAN, one of the contributors to the forthcoming walking contest at this place, had one of his hands quite badly injured one day last week, by the accidental discharge of a revolver which was in his hand.

SEYMOUR JAMES Colley, Sullivan County, has recently purchased Alderly bellers, and the correspondent of the Dispatch writes at that place that "gilt-edged butter from that vicinity will be the result in the near future."

HARRY STRUBBERG is rebuilding the wooden structure north of Patton's Block, recently damaged by fire. The building will be lowered to the grade of Main Street, and its interior arrangements greatly improved for business purposes.

The Athens Gazette of last week says: "The Society Works have been selling large quantities of their goods to Orwell lately. The new proprietor of the Athens House has furnished that hotel throughout with furniture of their make."

We learn that the young lady, Miss Ann Moore, who attempted recently to commit suicide by shooting herself at her home in Windham, is in a fair way to recover from the wounds inflicted.

JOHN KROON's house, at Carbon Hill, near Pittston, was destroyed by fire early Tuesday morning, and two children perished in the flames, and another was fatally burned. Kroon himself was badly burned.

NOTHING as yet has been heard of the missing man DENNIS MURPHY, whose disappearance from his home in Waverly was mentioned in the Herald of last week. It is generally believed that he fell from the bridge into the river and was drowned.

REV. J. S. STEWART, of the Presbyterian Church, and Rev. GEORGE C. JONES, of the M. E. Church, exchanged pulpits on Sunday morning last. Both sermons were highly commended by the respective congregations.

We are requested to give notice that Watkins Post, G. O. A. R., of this place, will meet every Saturday evening from now until after Decoration Day, and that the presence of every member is desired at each meeting.

CONSIDERABLE building is being done in Montrose this spring. Several buildings are already nearly completed, and the hotel formerly occupied by ORVILLE KELLOGG is being much improved inside.

We never know the stores of this place to be better than they are now offering, and certainly it is an indication that better times are looked for, from the fact that the dealers all have so far putting in a much larger stock than usual.

Rev. GEO. C. JONES, pastor of the M. E. Church at this place, left for New York on Tuesday evening last, and will not be with us until after the 15th inst.

The frequent meetings for prayer, prayer and social meetings, in the several churches of town, and at localities in the immediate vicinity, is the Athens Gazette, gives assurance that the revival spirit still keeps in lively exercise, and goes out after others who have not yet identified themselves with God's people.

The meetings at Glen Valley school house on Suttell Hill, have proved interesting, and it is believed profitable.

COPPER MINE at FORKTON.—While men were engaged in working on the new shaft at Forkton, a rock was blasted which proved to be a rich copper ore. A portion of the powdered rock was put in a clay pipe and melted in a blacksmith's forge and a piece of pure copper as large as an ordinary bean was produced, which was about as much more sublimed to the pipe and the dirt.

MR. HENRY KNEWSON showed us the nugget-to-day and we have no doubt of the genuineness of the find. With its coal mine and its copper mine who knows what prosperity may be in store for Forkton?—Tunkhannock Republican.
