would have met the same fate as his dog. The Valley Forge Centennial Association, having raised the sum necessary for the purchase of Washington's headquarters, will receive possession of the building on May 1st. The dedicatory ceremomics will probably take place on June 19. The property, as was shown by the title brief, was conveyed in 1861, at Westminster, by King Charles the Second, to Wilpassed fixing a stand for hackmen while awaiting for passengers.

The following petition was presented from the hackmen and carriers of baggage!

Mr. Pennypacker asked permission to put a covered drain in front of his premission to put a covered drain in front of his premises on Second etrect, or for the borough to furnish couble stones, and the clitzens would put them down at their own expense from the parsonage to Bridge street. No action was taken on the propositions.

Mr. Fitch asked that a crussing be put down from hisplace of business on. Main-st, to the Park. Not deemed expedient.

The committee appointed to examine and report as to the necessity for repairs on the borough building, submitted the following report:

The undersigned, a special committee, charged with the duty of examining the building owned by the borough of Towands, and occupied-as a Council room, residence of Chief-of-Police, &c. and ascertaining what repairs are necessary on the same have performed that duty. They flud that the roof of the building it out of repair and leaks badly. It needs patching and repaining; the water draining through has caused the plastering to fall off in pleces inside the building. The flooring under the water tank is considerably decayed and needs repairing. We suggest, in connection with repairing the taken out and the two rooms by threw into one.
