

W. A. CHAMBERLIN, Desires to

FINE JEWELRY, SILVER & PLATED WARE, WATCHES, TOWANDA, PA.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

All blossoming plants seem conscious of Decoration Day.

The night of the Presbyterian Church at Troy is without a pastor.

At Christ Church, the second Sunday service will commence at 9 a. m. during June, July and August.

All of the business places of this borough will be closed during the afternoon and evening of Friday—Decoration Day.

We are indebted to Hon. EDWIN G. HALBERT for a copy of the Legislative Manual of the New York General Assembly for 1919.

Six candidates for Sheriff of Tioga County have already announced themselves through the papers. And there are more to follow.

Navy Fire Company presented C. S. FRENCH, our popular confectioner, on Thursday evening last, with a very beautiful silver water pitcher.

The European House of C. H. SEELYE, is undergoing repairs and needed improvements being added. You can get a good meal there just the same.

The Fisherie Tackle says that the post office at this place averages about $1,000 per week in sales of Government four per cent, refunding certificates of $10 each.

Mr. PATRICK BURKE, an old and well-known citizen of Troy, died on Thursday morning last. He had suffered a long time from a cancerous difficulty of the intestines.

Church of the Messiah (Universalist), Rev. WILLIAM TAYLOR, Pastor. At 10:30 a. m.—"The Sign of Anxiety." At 7:30 p. m.—"Qualification for Heaven." At 7:50 p. m.—"The Sign of Anxiety."

A 29 year old young man is to take place between CHARLES B. BARNHART, CHAS. S. SMITH, and JOHN PIERCE, at Butts Park, on Friday afternoon next, at 4:30 for a game of $12.

All boys who live in this vicinity above eight years of age, and who are the sons of members, are requested to come to the home of Watkins Post, on Friday next, at 1 o'clock p. m.

Notice.—The ladies who are interested in the Memorial services on Friday, will please meet at the Grand Jury Room on Thursday, at 1 o'clock p. m., to arrange exercises for Decoration.

The people of the borough are requested to contribute flowers for Decoration Day, and send them to the Grand Jury Room by 9 o'clock on Friday morning, by order of committee.

There is a fair prospect for the establishment of a Lodge of the Knights of Wood in this town, who became members will never regret so doing.

CHAMBERLIN, the Jeweler, has just placed in his store the handsomest regular ever seen in this vicinity, and the most expensive. It was built in New York, expressly for Mr. CHAMBERLIN, and cost about $300.

FIELD WHITE, of South Towanda, a blackman on Conductor Harris' train on the Towanda road, had the fore finger and thumb of his right hand badly smashed while coupling cars at Waverly on Friday last, resulting amputation of the thumb necessary.

The thirtieth annual meeting of the Sunday School Institute of the Changing River Baptist Association, will be held at the First Baptist Church, Elmira, N. Y., Thursday and Friday, June 5th and 6th. CHARLES THOMAS, of Ohio, has been engaged as Conductor.

The celebration of Decoration Day should call out every patriotic man and woman in this vicinity. We sincerely trust that tomorrow (Friday), will be a holiday for all, and that the memorial services will be of a nature worthy of the deeds of the men they commemorate.

Old Fellows.—All members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, who may be in Towanda on Decoration Day (May 29th), are earnestly requested to meet with the members of Bradford Lodge in Odd Fellows Hall, at 1:15 p. m., for the purpose of taking part in the services of Decoration Day.

Two more car loads of granite monuments just received by A. W. AYRES. His trade in granite is truly enormous. With this shipment he has received this spring 18 fine granite monuments. The others his goods in any part of the county and sets them up perfect or no sale.—Advertiser.

The barn of ALBERT MEYER, at Chesapeake, was set on fire by an incendiary and destroyed, together with its contents, on Tuesday morning of last week. Mr. Meyer's dwelling house was saved only by the most strenuous efforts on the part of his neighbors, he being absent from home at the time of the fire. The loss is quite heavy, and no insurance.

The Barlow Coal Company are lowering the level of a tunnel in order to drain the mine without the assistance of pumps. One day last week Mr. WOODWARD, the mining superintendent, put in a blast 16 feet in length and loosened rocks estimated at 20 tons. The work will soon be completed and will make a vast saving in working expenses of the mines.—Dushore.

The American Bible Society has changed its plans of distribution of Bibles and Testaments. They will now be sold to the level of a tunnel in order to drain the mine without the assistance of pumps. One day last week Mr. WOODWARD, the mining superintendent, put in a blast 16 feet in length and loosened rocks estimated at 20 tons. The work will soon be completed and will make a vast saving in working expenses of the mines.—Dushore.

Mr. E. ONYX, of the firm of LYONS & ONYX, of Elmira, Conn. has been killed by a train at 5:35 p. m. on the premises of J. P. KIRBY, in Wysox, on Thursday morning last. He had been down in the well for the purpose of clearing out the quicksand and stone, preparatory to putting in a pump for which he and his partner are agents, and came up to procure tools better adapted to the work, and fell into the well when the whole lower part of it caved in, filling it up to a distance of about 30 feet. Had he the evening in taken five minutes sooner or later than it did, Mr. Onyx would have undoubtedly been buried alive, if not killed instantly.

Last week seems to have been apart by a number of young men of this borough for a social frolic, and they succeeded in carrying out their intention very closely, having been on a "jam-boree" during the entire week. Their conduct and appearance were stronger pleas for temperance than could be made by the most eloquent advocate of total abstinence.

Very many times it becomes our unpleasant duty to give accounts of unpleasing scenes that we would rather not speak of. But a person who is guilty of unbecoming conduct should have regard for his friends' feelings before he lets his nature run free, and not afterwards. It is too late to say anything when the deed is committed. The person whose name gets into the public prints, for his sins has only himself to blame for it.

A YOUNG GRAND ARMY.—A new feature will be introduced in the Decoration Day programme this year. The sons of the soldiers and sailors have organized a company, and will appear in the procession with the veterans. This new feature is quite important, as it answers the question often asked in past years, of who will keep up the memory of decorating soldiers' graves after the Grand Army will have gone into camp on the other side of time.—Dinghinton Republican.

HANSEN'S Magazine for June, which is at hand, begins the 29th volume, and is the 30th year of this sterling periodical. It has just donned a new dress, and now appears in larger type and a wider page. This is the third change that the publishers have made in the type from which the Magazine is printed—each being an improvement on the last. It is the handsomest periodicals to be found anywhere, and the June number abounds in special attractions.

THE NEXT STATE FAIR TO BE HELD AT PHILADELPHIA.—The State Agricultural Society has decided to hold the next State Fair at Philadelphia, commencing September 20th, and continuing until September 28th. The premiums will be more than quadrupled as compared with those of former years, aggregating between $15,000 and $20,000. The fair will be held on the ground where the Centennial buildings were, and the use of the permanent exhibition building has been tendered and accepted by the Society.

BAPTIST ASSOCIATIONS, 1870.—The 24 regular Baptist Churches in Bradford County belong to five Associations, three of which this year hold their annual meetings in Bradford County. Bradford Association meets in Lefroy, June 17th. Bridgewater Association meets at Warren Center September 17th. Changing River Association meets at South Creek, September 24th. and the Wyoming Association meets just over the line, at Laceyville, the 1st day of October. These meetings usually continue two days, and are open to all. County papers please copy.

LOOKING UP.—Merchants generally speak favorably of the present aspect of business in our borough. They have laid plenty of stock on hand, and anticipate a continuance of the quite lively trade. This is cheering news indeed, and is to be hoped that there may be no falling off. The stores seem to be well filled with customers all hours of the day and evening, and the aggregate of purchases made is large. There can be no more gratifying fact to note than this, that business has revived and is now upon a solid and substantial basis.

TIGER fishing is already very popular, and the streams where the speckled beauties "most do congregate" are visited by crowds of sportsmen. Already big fish stories are heard in the land. A party from this place, composed of CHARLEY DIMICK, JOHNSON WELLS, Mr. McINTYRE, the fish of the McINTYRE, was taken out in the wilds of Sullivan county last week after the speckled beauties, and succeeded in capturing enough to bring down the scales at 40 pounds. CHARLEY DIMICK is credited with taking one that measured 13 inches in length and weighed 17 pounds.

POWELL & CO., are again receiving new goods, and as a matter of course, have taken advantage of the markets to buy the new stock. They have Summer Dress Silks, in various styles, and all colors, that they are retailing at 50 cents per yard, and have lace goods at 75 cents. A large and complete stock of Worst Dress Goods at 16 cents per yard, recently selling at 25 cents. Also Cotton and Woollen Goods in various styles and colors, at 12 1/2 cents. Their stock of Plain and Lace Bunting, Hernani Cloths, Gremadines, Organdies, Lawns, &c., is extremely full and complete, and at prices lower than ever. Call in and look over the "big stock," even though you should not desire to purchase. Our word for it, you will not regret the visit.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION.—As several teachers were sick at the time of the examination May 24, and as endorsing and private examinations are not granted, another public examination seems necessary and will be held in the Graded School Building, Towanda, Saturday, June 17th, commencing promptly at 9 o'clock a. m. Teachers holding half-year certificates, and those who expire the first Monday in June, 1919, and others not holding legal certificates, will please attend and present a request for examination signed by the members of the School Board wishing to employ them. G. W. RYAN, County Superintendent.

SOMEBODY OR OTHER.—Life has a burden for every man's shoulder, some day comes for his trouble and care. It is in youth and "twit" come when we realize how close comes to our lives untold. Love comes into our lives uninvited. Loving hearts of the treasure of song: Loving glow and friendship are unguessed. Yet somehow or other we worry along. Every day is a day of wondering. Though sorrow's outcast and crest we may share: Weak is the back on which burdens are pressing. But stout hearts that is strengthened by prayer.

JAMES MATTHEWS, one of the oldest members of the Wesleyan Church, and an influential member of the Presbyterian Church, is missing. Up to last week he was esteemed one of the most substantial men in Honesdale. On the strength of this reputation he borrowed, from time to time, sums of $50 to $4,000, and many who have lent him money have no security.

A SPECIAL DISPATCH to the Elmira Advertiser, says that on Monday afternoon, JOSHUA, son of ANDREW SQUIN, of Sullivan, Tioga County, Pa., aged 11 years, was shot and killed by a son of GATZNER, YONK, aged nine years. The boy was playing in a barn, and young YONK took up an old gun standing in a corner and pointed it at the SQUIN boy, who was on the now, saying, "I will shoot you." The other replied, "Fire away," when the gun went off, and young SQUIN fell back through the temple, and died in about two hours.

Y., is now in this county taking orders and setting up some very fine monuments of Quincy and English granite; also several of the beautiful Columbian Marble, the finest in the United States. He has work now set at Soio, Wellsville, Andover, Alfred Centre, Almond, Burns, Arkport and other places. Mr. AYRES is the largest marble and granite dealer on the line of the Erie Railway. He also keeps a large stock of Marble and Slate Mantels, and all kinds of Coal Grates. All goods sold as cheap as the cheapest.—Wellsville Reporter.

"I DON'T WANT THAT STUFF"—Is what a lady of Boston said to her husband when she refused to take any more medicine to cure her sick headache and neuralgia which had made her miserable for four years. At the first attack she was told it was administered to her with such good results, that she continued to use it until cured, and made no more of it. She is now a healthy woman, and is able to do all her usual work. She is now a healthy woman, and is able to do all her usual work. She is now a healthy woman, and is able to do all her usual work.
