

Bradford Reporter
CHAS. H. ALLEN, LOCAL EDITOR.
TOWANDA, PA., Thursday, Sept. 18, 1879.
LOCAL AND GENERAL.
LEAVES ARE FALLING.
FROSTY PARTIES SEEM TO BE ON THE CLINE.
If you have fine fruit, show it at the Fair.
BRADFORD COUNTY FAIR, October 1st, 2d and 3d.
YE THAT HAVE CALF TO SHEAR, PREPARE TO SHEAR IT NOW.
If you own a fine horse, let it be seen at the Fair.
The tobacco crop in our county is being harvested.
The melon-cholic days have come. (This is not original.)
THERE IS A FINE $35 FOR DESTROYING signs in any form that are posted along the public highways.
POTATOES ARE SOLD FROM THE FARMERS' WAGONS IN OUR STREETS AT THIRTY AND THIRTY-FIVE CENTS PER BUSHEL.
COLD WEATHER IS NOT FAR OFF, AND THE LEAFERS WILL HAVE TO FIND SOME BETTER "HANGOUT" THAN THE CORNERS.
PERHAPS IT WILL NOT BE DEEMED IMPROPER if we ask at this time, "What has become of the Crawford County System?"
THE DEMOCRATS OF SULLIVAN COUNTY will hold their County Convention at the Court House, in Laporte, September 30th.
BASE FISHING IS REPORTED TO BE EXCELLENT at the present time in the St. Lawrence River. The latest reports from the Susquehanna are not so flattering, although the fishermen are many.
GISE DAVID, of Athens, still continues to be the lucky individual in angling for black bass. He caught five one day last week that brought down the scales at ten pounds. The largest one tipped the scales at three pounds.
GEORGE W. LUNG, of Wyalusing, had about fifteen dollars' worth of carpenters' tools stolen one night recently from a house which he was building in that town. The thieves gained an entrance by opening a window.
HAWES'S WEEKLY gives a page to the Sullivan Centennial, with first-class illustrations. The prominent feature of the page, as it was of the celebration, is the Athens Centennial, with Grons at the flag. The likeness is not good, but the attitude is life-like and perfect.—Waverly Advertiser.
THE GREENBROOKERS OF SULLIVAN COUNTY hold their County Convention, in the Court House, in Laporte, on the 9th, inst. DAVID OSBORN, of Forks township, was nominated for Jury Commissioner, and BRYAN S. COLLINS, of the firm of COLLINS & THOMSON, Dushore, for District Attorney.
IF YOU DON'T WANT TO LOSE YOUR VOTE don't move out of the election district in which you now reside. You would have to be in a new district sixty days before the election in order to insure you a vote. Don't make any changes now. Democratic names, but if you wish to move to another district, you must do so before the election in order to insure you a vote. Don't make any changes now. Democratic names, but if you wish to move to another district, you must do so before the election in order to insure you a vote.
PROBABLY, for the present year, the political condition of this county have all been held, and we have carefully read the proceedings of each and every one. Not a mention is made in any of the published reports of the "Crawford County System." Why is this? What has become of that petition which is attached to the report of the committee on the adoption of this great reform in the management of the county? It strikes us as curious that those who were loudly and persistently demanding the adoption of the "System" but a few months ago, should "rise and explain."
HAWES BROTHERS TOY MANUFACTORY.
We take the following notice of the Hawes Brothers Toy Manufactory, at Greenwood, from the Monroeton correspondence found in a recent issue of the Elmira Gazette:
"In some former articles I have cited the tributes of the life and property of the place, and now with your permission I propose to touch just one item of its importance in the whole of this grand old world in which we live. It is the manufactory of such immense quantity and dimensions in our midst; but we were not so satisfactorily successful, on the ground that Mr. Hawes has some serious objections to having his business in all its features spread before so many people as are gathered on this busy thoroughfare. At the present writing, and in so wide a range as is now taken by the Gazette, a vehicle with which he is somewhat familiar. Nevertheless, we will try to do very gently, and will try to do as much as possible, while at the same time we attach a little item of common sense, which the great public are justly entitled to. I will reiterate what has been said, but I will not say into types, from two to here in Monroe the largest toy factory that there is in the known world. I do not share in the opinion that celebrity to this fact will induce others to start additional enterprises of the kind, to the injury of Messrs. Hawes Brothers' business. An immense quantity of material for manufacturing. A great number of lathes and saws and all needed instruments, tools, and appliances, serve to detract from the material furnished. A vast amount of sunshine and wind are needed to season and dry the prepared material, so as to be ready for the lathes. From the timber woods to the saw mills, and thence to all the indoor and out labor, we will count at least forty men employed on every week day, comprising some of the finest and most skillful mechanics that can be found in any of our counties. The boxing up ready for shipment, making boxes, etc., another class of hands, while at every point of no little interest, we count some thirty to forty men, and twenty years, each having his steady daily work and place of business,—not of mischief and hours as regular as any institution in the land. Their orders are from the four corners of the civilized world, yes, even from China. Their shipments are by the day. Their business is large. Their reliability is all that can be desired. Once a week, or in two weeks as the case may be, every boy, man and employe, is made glad. For ten years there has not been such a word of complaint as failure. The toy factory of Hawes Brothers, of Monroe, is a blessed fact of reliability and prosperity—a benefit to the country. Long may it wave and shine."
FROM EAST TROY.
The papers announce that the yearly picnic on Mt. Pisgah was a failure. Why? Not because the people of Western Bradford do not appreciate the grandeur and beauty of the scenery there to be enjoyed, or are lacking in those social qualities that render such occasions enjoyable; but is another illustration of the great truth that nothing good can be gained without effort. It is said that LONNEN DOW used to announce at the close of his services, that one year from that day and hour he would preach at the same place again; and when the appointed time came around he was always greeted with large success. Do you doubt whether it was not necessary for the brethren to bestir themselves in advance and arouse the people, refreshing their memory as to the time and importance of the occasion? So Mr. GUSTIN and officers of the Mt. Pisgah association, next year let us see the hand-bills and notices in the papers. Get up something novel and attractive; send an invitation to the President and both candidates who at that time will be willing to make any and every sacrifice of domestic ease to save their suffering country from the vortex of ruin to which it is exposed every quadrennial by occupying the White House,—and then without waiting for their acceptance, announce that then and there these political luminaries will exhibit themselves to the admiring gaze of their fellow citizens (if they come of course), and then will show that we are not unappreciative or ungrateful for the great Architect of the universe has placed in our midst one of Nature's grand observatories from which we may gaze with rapture upon the broad expanse of His domain, with its soul-broad influences, as we get a glimpse of the grandeur and beauty of creation and contemplate the majesty and goodness of the Creator.

Last Thursday night Rev. S. F. MATHEWS was followed home from prayer-meeting by some fifty or more persons who unceremoniously took possession of the parsonage, and without the slightest provocation proceeded to administer to the Reverend gentleman and his amiable lady a most beautiful pounding. But they showed such Christian forbearance under the affliction, that the contending elements soon became reconciled to each other, and two most agreeable hours were spent together, after which he did not exactly turn the other cheek also, but in a most feeling address thanked them for kindly shaking all felt at liberty to repeat the offense whenever they might feel sufficiently malicious to do so.
I am sorry to say that Captain JOHN SALISBURY, one of our most esteemed citizens, is very sick. Little hope is entertained of his recovery.
Our school opened September 1st—but one room at present—with Miss ELLEN FROENKE as teacher.
