

This time next week our County Fair will be in full blast.

It is rumored that a large car factory is soon to be built at Sayre.

The LeRoy Grange Fair will be held on Monday and Tuesday next.

EDEN PUFFERS is now operating the stage route from Canton to Trent.

THERE are two hundred and sixty scholars in the Canton Graded School.

DR. BARTLETT has moved into his handsome new residence at Sugar Run.

A. D. JOHANNESON and S. N. SPALDING have opened a new meat market in Troy.

FRANK ROSENFELD has sold his confectionery establishment to Wm. H. Roway.

TEN tons of butter were shipped by express from Troy on Thursday last week.

MR. H. O. DONHAM has received the contract for building the new lock up in Canton.

D. B. ROBERTS and J. D. BRIGGS, of Sugar Run, are each erecting dwelling houses in that place.

WILLIAM SCOTT is putting down a substantial stone wall, in front of his premises on York Avenue.

ARRANGEMENTS are being made looking to the early organization of a military company at Athens.

H. C. MERCHANT, of Waverly, has just filled an order from San Francisco for ten thousand cigars.

W. M. MALLORY's horse "Malloy," was the free for all race at the Wyoming county fair last week.

The Good Templars of Athens cleared fifteen dollars by their festival on Tuesday evening last week.

J. W. NICHOLS, of Mountain Lake, has five yearlings that weigh 4100 pounds; an average of 822 pounds each.

The citizens of Lefayetteville are taking the necessary steps for the establishment of a public library in that place.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Elmira paper says that there are thirteen marriageable widows in Canton, this county.

The Mutual Musical Alliance will be held at Canton this week. The concert takes place on Friday evening.

It is rumored that W. M. MALLORY, Esq., of this place, has refused an offer of $8,000 for his trotting horse "Malloy."

N. C. ELIASSER, Esq., has put down a broad and substantial stone pavement in front of his residence on Chestnut street.

FROM all points comes the intelligence that the wages of workmen, especially those in the iron business, are being increased.

The Temperance party in Columbia County has secured a full ticket in the fight for Sheriff, Coroner and Jury Commissioner.

SEVERAL of the young ladies of Athens are competing for the equestrian prize at the Fair of the Troy Farmers' Club this week.

The matter for the Educational Department of this week's issue of the Reporter, did not reach us until too late for insertion.

FRANCIS GRADY, of this place, shot and killed an eagle, on Thursday last, that measured 5 feet and 6 inches from tip of wing.

If you want to vote at the coming election you must pay your taxes on or before the fourth of October. Don't fail to attend to this important matter.

LEM KINGSBURY's horse, "Little Sam," was the first money in the three minute race of the Wyoming Agricultural Society, at Tunkhannock, on Thursday of last week.

MR. CHARLES G. SMITH, of Elmira, is holding a series of temperance meetings at East Burlington, and we learn that a large number have already signed the pledge.

"The Ladies of the Church of the Messiah" gave a very enjoyable evening in the Church Parlors on Tuesday evening last. Quite a goodly number were in attendance.

The reunion of Company F, 11th Pennsylvania Cavalry, will take place in Troy, on Thursday, October 10th. Captain B. B. MITCHELL is Chairman of the Committee.

CHURCH of the Messiah, Rev. Wm. Taylor pastor, at 10 1/2 A. M., subject, "The Christian's Sense of Strength;" at 7 P. M., "Common Sense in Religion." All welcome.

The bill given in Mercer Hall, on Wednesday evening last week, by the C. Y. M. A., was a very enjoyable affair, and we learn quite regenerative to the Association.

THE Montrose stage now waits at Wyalusing for the afternoon mail train up, on the Pa. & N. Y. Railroad, which is a great convenience to the people along the stage route.

PATRICK MCKENNEY, of Ulster, kindly lodged and fed a lame man one night recently, and was rewarded for his generous hospitality by having nine dollars in money stolen.

We want two or three loads of good kindling wood at this office, on sight. Now is the time for those persons who seemed so anxious to pay for their papers in this way.

GAMBLE BROTHERS, of Sugar Run, are running a cider mill, and have already manufactured quite a large number of barrels of cider of excellent quality—for vinegar of course.

The Troy Cornet Band is going to Towanda Fair to play for the premium of $25. Frank Loomis is leader. Boys, do your level best! and if justice is done, you'll get that prize—Troy Gazette.

An exchange advises its readers to clean out their cellars and coal bins and get ready for cold weather. It strikes us that a cleaned out coal bin and cellar is just what we don't want for winter.

WILLIAM W. BENTLEY, of Lefayetteville, was including a pistol one day recently, and in some way discharged, and the ball from it passed through the right hand of ARTHUR BAKER, inflicting quite a severe injury.

The Commissioners of McKean county advertise for proposals for building the new court house at Smethport. Printed specifications will be furnished to actual bidders upon application to H. P. Barnhart, Commissioner, at Smethport.

This next yearly meeting of the Church of Christ in this vicinity will be held in Canton, beginning on Friday evening, September 29th, and continuing over Sunday. All are cordially invited.—Canton Sentinel.

HEREAFTER postal employees will not be permitted to change the directions on mail packages passed through their hands. All misdirected letters must be returned to the senders or to the Dead Letter Office.

REV. W. H. DUKES, of the Catholic Church, Troy, has bought the house in that village, now occupied by Rev. S. L. Conde, formerly the home of F. L. BALLARD, and the possession of which was so long in litigation.

MR. F. S. ELLIOTT is very ill at his residence in Canton. Drs. BULLOCK and DAVISON are attending him. Nervous prostration and affection of the heart are the causes assigned for his illness. His recovery is despairing.

MR. W. S. PITT, of Gilletts, took by mistake, a swallow of bed-bug poison on Thursday last, and was at last accounted for in a very critical condition. He now hopes being entertained that he would recover from the effects of the poisonous dose.

VERY few of our citizens, says the Athens Gazette, probably know of the improvements in our borough. Since the first of January there have been twenty-two houses built, and there are now five more in course of construction and close looking.

FIRE destroyed the large barn of Dr. E. MILLA, about two miles from Ulster, on Tuesday last week, together with its contents, which consisted of hay, oats and farming utensils. The building was insured in the Waterbury, N. Y., Insurance Company.

SHERIFF DEAN, accompanied by RICHAUD BENJAMIN, Policeman DIMOCK, and City Street Ed. DEAN, started down the Susquehanna on Tuesday morning last, with the intention of dismantling the cell-ways between here and the Wyoming County line.

MR. FRANKLIN PIERCE was surprised recently by a visit from a few of his friends, at his home near Milan. After spending a very pleasant evening they quietly withdrew, leaving some very substantial tokens of their good will and appreciation of his efforts in their behalf.

J. J. WHITFIELD, conductor of the "day shift," in the Lehigh Valley yard at Waverly, buried another child on Tuesday afternoon last week. This is the fourth he has lost from diphtheria within the past two weeks. The only surviving one is dangerously ill with the same sickness.

The Binghamton Rifle Team won the galling gun for a second time at Creedmoor last week. They also won the first prize in the Army and Navy National match, which is a cup valued at $750, and the first prize at the New York State National Guard match, which is a trophy valued at $500.

The next session of the Sullivan County Teachers' Association is to be held at Laporte, Friday and Saturday, October 17th and 18th. Hon. THOMAS J. INGHAM will deliver an address before the Association, and it is expected that prominent educators from several adjoining counties will be present.

The Lefayetteville Advertiser says that Mr. J. M. COLEMAN, of Warren Center, raised this year on a piece of ground, fifty-four by one hundred and twelve feet, seven bushels of nice pumpkins. Such a yield would be hard to beat. It is said that a potato this year which measured seven by twenty inches.

The prospect of the Elmira Weekly Gazette appears in another column. While we disagree with the Gazette in politics, we are free to admit that it is an exceptionally well printed and ably edited paper, and deserving of a liberal patronage from all who choose to call themselves members of the Democratic party.

The North-Eastern Convocation of the Protestant Episcopal Church, will be held in Christ Church, in this place, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next. All are welcome to the services, which will be held at 10 A. M., 7 P. M., and 7:30 P. M., on Tuesday, 9th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, and 31st. Interesting addresses, discussions, etc., may be expected at each service.

GRAN. DOWNEY attended the Smithborough camp meeting, and we suppose started out on one of his usual raids, with plenty of whiskey on board, and met another party looking for trouble—they were evidently the product of a boatman whose craft in bygone days plowed the turbid waters of the North Branch Canal.

SHERIFF DEAN conveyed to Philadelphia on Wednesday night last, the following named prisoners, sentenced to confinement in the Eastern Penitentiary: JOHN DOWNEY, three years; ALONZO and WALTER POOL, two years each. W. B. THOMAS, of this place, and Constable ANDREW, of Troy, accompanied the Sheriff as assistants.

The dwelling house of MATT ROSS, in Ulster township, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last, together with its contents. There was an insurance of $1,000 on the building and furniture. The fire broke out in the roof, and the family being absent at the time, it was not discovered until it had made such progress as to be beyond control.

The Loyal Sock Coal Company has been shipping in the vicinity of three hundred tons a day for two weeks past. It is understood this company has orders that will run the Bernice breaker to its full capacity through the fall, and the prospects are that there will be no stoppage before next summer.—Dushore Review.

JEWISH NEW YEAR.—The anniversary of the Jewish year began on Wednesday evening last, and ended on Thursday evening of last week. This is considered by the people of that faith as one of her most solemn festivals. All of our Hebrew population closed their places of business and attended to the ministration and devotions of the period with marked attention.

POLICEMAN BURNS left this place on Monday evening last for Pittsburgh, having in charge, FRANK, the Wyoming county child distiller. FRANK having fled to the States, will be confined from the Lehigh Valley until the time of his trial, which will be sometime next month.

QUITE a large number of our Sullivan county friends came to town by a special train over the State Line & Sullivan Railroad, on evening last, to witness the performance of Uncle Tom's Cabin in Mercer Hall. They were accompanied by the Dushore Cornet Band, who discoursed some excellent music during their stay here.

CONA JONES, an adopted daughter of Joe Jones, of this place, was arrested in Lehigh county one day last week and brought to this place by Borough Constable WELLS, on a charge of forging the name of Mr. JONES to a check of $180 on the first National Bank of Towanda. She was given a hearing before Squire YOUNG, and held for an appearance at December Court.

The Bradford County School Journal, is the name of the new newspaper to be published in this place. It will make its appearance on the 14th of October, and is to be devoted to the school interests of the county. Its subscription price will be fifty cents per annum, and its editorial management will be in the hands of E. E. QUINLAN, E. T. BURMAN, J. A. WILKINS, and THOMAS and E. H. MCKEAN, of this place.

A GOOD YOUNG MAN, JOHN McAVENY, says the Athens Gazette, has been a friend in California six months, which he sowed, the same yielding seventy-three pounds. Also, there were 28 heads, on one kernel, yielding 1,079 kernels; one of the heads belonging to the group was lost before counting which would have made quite an addition to the number of kernels.

The subscription price of the Athens Gazette has been reduced to one dollar per year; and Mr. CHARLES HINSON will be the sole proprietor. He is one of the best printers in the county, and a writer of no mean pretensions. Under his management the Gazette will be worth all that is asked for it—and more too—and should receive, as it no doubt will, a generous support from the citizens of Athens.

BRING something to the Fair next week. If you have anything that you can exhibit, don't leave it at home because you are afraid some one else will have something better. If only those who are sure of a prize contribute to the display, the show will be a small one. Try to help the Society by showing the best you have. It should not be the chief object of our farmers to secure a prize, but to get knowledge by comparing notes—or rather products.

LITTLE FRANKLIN, son of NEWTON BUNK, of Pike, aged about eight years, on Saturday last fell forward on the top of an open jack knife which he held in his hand, the blade penetrating the left lung. He bled profusely several hours before he could be stopped, and he died before he could be internally treated. He has from the effect of the wound a high fever, and but slight hopes are entertained of his recovery.—Lafayette Advertiser.

THERE are several able and brilliant contestants for the champion lark belt. But we will back the author of the following article "the field." He is in Wilkes-Barre, and should be looked up and crowned at once. And he edits in the Record of the Times, that an article and his mother stood on West Market street, near the millinery of Mrs. LEONARD.

BRILLIANT AT CANTON.—A dispatch from Canton says that the hardware store of J. H. TRIPP & Co., the grocery store of JAMES FINNELL & Son, and the drug store of MIX & WITMAN, were entered by burglars Monday night. The entrance was made in J. H. TRIPP & Co's and was made in J. H. TRIPP & Co's and was made in J. H. TRIPP & Co's.

MISS LILLIE ANGLE, of Campbown, is visiting in Tunkhannock.

MR. D. B. HITCHCOCK, of Potterville, is visiting friends in Kansas.

MR. N. DENNIS, of Canton, is visiting his mother in Lockport, N. Y.

CAPTAIN S. H. NEWMAN, of Burlington, Kansas, is visiting friends in Canton.

MR. LISTON BLISS, of Troy, is undergoing treatment at the Elmira Water Cure.

GEORGE BLACK, of Wyalusing, is studying medicine with Dr. HOMER, at Campbown.

MR. HANBROWN BLACK and wife, of Wyalusing, visited the State Fair at Philadelphia last week.

SHELDON LINDBLEY, of Canton, has purchased the Bemert farm, adjoining his premises, in that township.

MISS JULIA PHINNEY has been elected organist in the Methodist Church, in this place, vice F. GOFF, resigned.

JOHN W. WILSON, of Campbown, has gone to Kansas to visit his son CLARENCE, and expects to be absent several weeks.

G. S. BURBOW, of Sunbury, Northumberland county, Court Stenographer, is at home in Stevensville visiting friends.

The condition of Bishop STREVENA, although still critical, is thought to be slightly improved.—Wilkes-Barre Record.

ED. MANON, who went to Kansas City on this place, last spring, has been appointed a clerk in the post office in that city.

Mrs. GEORGE V. MYER, of Towanda, is in this city visiting her brother, Dr. C. W. MYER, of this place.—Lafayette Advertiser, September 29th.

The many friends in this county of Captain A. J. TROUT, will regret to learn that he is seriously ill at his home in Williamsport.

J. P. LEE has leased his farm in Blacklick and contemplates erecting a blacksmith shop near the covered bridge, at Campbown.

ALVAN E. CHAMBERLAIN, of this place, has received the appointment to an lucrative position in the New York Custom House.

Assistant Superintendent GOODMAN, of the Pa. & N. Y. Railroad, was among the pleasant callers at our office on Wednesday last.

Mrs. D. HOMER and daughter, Jessie, have returned from a three month visit in Illinois. They are very much improved in health.

Dr. W. B. KEZLEY, of this place, was elected on Tuesday, President of the 50th N. Y. V. Engineers Association, for the coming year.

E. M. TROY, of Bentley Creek, who has been suffering from an attack of typhoid fever for the past three weeks, is fast recovering his health.

Chief Engineer, ED. FROER, received severe injuries by a fall on Tuesday afternoon. He was engaged in repairing a well pump, which had been drawn up from the well for the purpose, at Frost's Sons' factory, when he slipped and fell, striking the pump with his side and dislocating one of his ribs.

J. P. WILLIAMS, of Troy, township, left for Canton on Monday of last week, in search of a son of whom he has not heard for several years.

ALBERT RYDNER, who was a resident of this place some thirty years ago, is visiting friends here this week for the first time in many years.

MISS MARY ANN, formerly of this place, has accepted a responsible and lucrative position in the office of the Erie Railroad Company at Fort Erie.

Mrs. KNAPP, widow of the late Dr. H. KNAPP, of Orwell Hill, is visiting at the residence of her son-in-law, AMOS CAMPBELL, East near Southboro.

E. H. CHAFFER, of Warren Center, who has been studying medicine with Dr. MORROW, in that place, has gone to Ansonia, Vermont, to attend lectures this winter.

FRED E. WILCOX, who was injured at Roper's mill, in this place, one day last week, lies in a very critical condition, but slight hopes being entertained of his recovery.

MR. R. KYTTORIDIS, of this place, has been elected Guide of the Supreme Lodge Knights and Ladies of Honor, at the session of the Supreme Lodge, held in Boston, last week.

MISS LETTIE FULLER, of Campbown, who has been suffering for the past few weeks with typhoid fever, is slowly recovering. She is now able to sit up a few hours.

F. ELLIOTT, of Campbown, who has been studying medicine with Dr. WELLS, at Meshoppen, went to New York last week, where he will attend a course of medical lectures.

MR. ROBERT MCKER, of this place, has been given the superintendency of the brick work in the building of the railroad shop at Sayre. The company have made an excellent selection.

S. C. ROSS, of this place, who has been reading medicine in the office of Dr. PRATT for the past year, left this morning (Wednesday) for Ann Harbor, Mich., where he commences a three year course in the Medical College at that place.

MR. G. H. HALE, former three years pastor of the M. E. Church, at Waverly, received, on the 13th instant, a notice to the effect that he was transferred to a Conference in Minnesota. He left for his new home in the West on Wednesday of last week.

MR. E. O. GOODRICH, who has always been a prominent citizen in the firm, gave a renewed token of his regard by presenting the President of each company with a handsome bouquet yesterday, while they were passing her house.—Daily Review, 18th.

DR. JOHN D. MERCER has resigned his position as physician of Blockley Alms House for the purpose of his profession in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The Doctor has a thorough knowledge of the "healing art," and will no doubt speedily acquire a large practice in his new location.

DR. PATRICK BRENNAN, who is glad to state, has opened an office at Friendsville, Susquehanna County, for the purpose of practicing his profession in that locality. He has from the effect of the wound a high fever, and but slight hopes are entertained of his recovery.—Lafayette Advertiser.

MR. M. E. ROSENFELD and wife, of Towanda, have been at Captain DEAN'S, on the 22nd inst., to see the new book. When Mr. ROSENFELD came here he was suffering from asthma and hay-fever to such a degree that he had not been out of bed for a fortnight, but the bracing mountain air has proved so beneficial that he has for some days been able to ride out and enjoy life once more. Dushore is located a few rods above tide, which seems to be an excellent remedy for the case of hay-fever in a remarkably short time. In addition to climate influences, railroad, telegraph, daily mails, good physicians, and the best hotel accommodations, should make this a popular town for summer visitors.—Dushore Review.

MR. M. E. ROSENFELD is again able to attend to business.

MISS LILLIE ANGLE, of Campbown, is visiting in Tunkhannock.

MR. D. B. HITCHCOCK, of Potterville, is visiting friends in Kansas.

MR. N. DENNIS, of Canton, is visiting his mother in Lockport, N. Y.

CAPTAIN S. H. NEWMAN, of Burlington, Kansas, is visiting friends in Canton.

MR. LISTON BLISS, of Troy, is undergoing treatment at the Elmira Water Cure.

GEORGE BLACK, of Wyalusing, is studying medicine with Dr. HOMER, at Campbown.

MR. HANBROWN BLACK and wife, of Wyalusing, visited the State Fair at Philadelphia last week.

SHELDON LINDBLEY, of Canton, has purchased the Bemert farm, adjoining his premises, in that township.

MISS JULIA PHINNEY has been elected organist in the Methodist Church, in this place, vice F. GOFF, resigned.

JOHN W. WILSON, of Campbown, has gone to Kansas to visit his son CLARENCE, and expects to be absent several weeks.

G. S. BURBOW, of Sunbury, Northumberland county, Court Stenographer, is at home in Stevensville visiting friends.

The condition of Bishop STREVENA, although still critical, is thought to be slightly improved.—Wilkes-Barre Record.

ED. MANON, who went to Kansas City on this place, last spring, has been appointed a clerk in the post office in that city.

Mrs. GEORGE V. MYER, of Towanda, is in this city visiting her brother, Dr. C. W. MYER, of this place.—Lafayette Advertiser, September 29th.

The many friends in this county of Captain A. J. TROUT, will regret to learn that he is seriously ill at his home in Williamsport.

J. P. LEE has leased his farm in Blacklick and contemplates erecting a blacksmith shop near the covered bridge, at Campbown.

ALVAN E. CHAMBERLAIN, of this place, has received the appointment to an lucrative position in the New York Custom House.

Assistant Superintendent GOODMAN, of the Pa. & N. Y. Railroad, was among the pleasant callers at our office on Wednesday last.

Mrs. D. HOMER and daughter, Jessie, have returned from a three month visit in Illinois. They are very much improved in health.

Dr. W. B. KEZLEY, of this place, was elected on Tuesday, President of the 50th N. Y. V. Engineers Association, for the coming year.

E. M. TROY, of Bentley Creek, who has been suffering from an attack of typhoid fever for the past three weeks, is fast recovering his health.

Chief Engineer, ED. FROER, received severe injuries by a fall on Tuesday afternoon. He was engaged in repairing a well pump, which had been drawn up from the well for the purpose, at Frost's Sons' factory, when he slipped and fell, striking the pump with his side and dislocating one of his ribs.

To G. F. Mason, for thirty-five acres of land in Asylum township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $1,000. By J. B. Mason, for the property of G. F. Mason.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J. Taylor.

To M. J. Taylor, for one acre of land in Towanda township. Sold September 5, 1879, for $100. By J. B. Mason, for the property of M. J