TALK of a land flowing with milk and honey! What is that to compare with the demonstration in St. Clair, Schuylkill county, where the people assert, with all seriousness, that during a shower of rain on Friday several bushels of green peas came down over a territory about an acre in extent. Nothing was lacking, to make it appropriate and complete, but a small amount of spring lamb.

GENERAL APATHY.

General apathy is a bad generals a leader which to often permits defeat to come when vigilance might and see that there are no laggards nor have secured an easy victory. We stay at homes amongst the carelessdo not desire to see the Republicans of Bradford under the command of such a general. But the temptation to set down supinely, and allow the campaign to run itself is very great. The average voter is too apt to think that the result of the election this year is of no consequence, and is too indolent or too careless to take the ninutes north declination, with a daily trouble to go to the polls. It does not seem to be of much account whether the unimportant offices of Jury Commissioner and Coroner shall receive one thousand or three thousand majority, as the Republican candidates, in any event, are cerain to be elected. So the negligent roter stays away from the polls, particularly as the only State office to be voted for is Treasurer, and Treasurer, and yet the result of the; election this fall is of more interest than it has been for years. The battle is for party supremacy in the State. If the Democratic party shall ership they will have the prestige of the victory to help them next year and the triumph will tend to dishearten Republicans in other parts of the country. Pennsylvania will be counted upon by Democrats everywhere as their ally, and our own Democrats will enter the Presidential campaign with that exulting faith in their cause which is an inspiration to hard work and great exertion. Possibly it may seem to ome Republicans that it does not matter much that Mr. BARR should carry the State; but the prospect of pect to a man who reflects that it will be regarded with joy by every rebel bull-dozer in the South and by every Democrat in the North, from and worthy of the support of every Re- the old trickster in Gramercy Park down to the humblest man who stuffs pallot-boxes for him. The Democratic party fully comprehends the nature of the prize and the possibilities of its own position. It is keeping the South solid by vio-
