WORTHY OF ATTENTION.—We advise all our readers, whether they own a foot of land or not, to supply themselves with that treasure of utility, practical, reliable information, "The American Agriculturist," so named because started thirty-eight years ago as a rural journal, but now enlarged to embrace a great variety of most useful reading for the household, children included, for the garden, as well as the farm—for all classes. Each volume gives some eight hundred original engravings, with descriptions of labor-saving and labor-helping machines, of plants, fruit-trees, animals, etc., including many large and pleasing, as well as instructive, pictures for young and old. The constant, systematic exposure of humbugs and swindling schemes by the "Agriculturist" are of great value to every one, and will save to most persons many times its cost. Altogether, it is one of the most valuable papers in the world, to be found anywhere to be found. The cost is only $1.50 a year, or four copies for $5. Single numbers fifteen cents. Washington street, was being destroyed. A moving machine, two engines, a large quantity of coal and hay, which were in the barn were also consumed, including a fanning mill, plow, four sets harness, two thousand feet of dressed and undressed lumber, &c. The Independent Fire Co. were soon on hand with their ladders, hooks, ladders, &c., and with the aid of Canton Hose Company saved the surrounding buildings. A small barn in the rear of the burning structure, owned by Miss Etta Little and occupied by S. N. Coe, caught fire from sparks, however, and the barn and its contents were destroyed. Mr. Owen's loss is estimated at from between eight and ten hundred dollars. Miss Little's and Coe's loss is about three hundred dollars. No insurance. Incidentally.
