TERMS OF PUBLICATION. The BRADFORD REPORTER is published every hursday morning by GOODRICH & HITCHCOCK, to One Dollar per anum, in advance.

AS Advertising in all cases exclusive of sub-SPECIAL NOTICES inserted at TEN CENTS per line for first insertion, and FIVE CENTS per line for subsequent insertion, but no notice inserted for leas than fifty cents.

YEARLY ADVEBTISEMENTS will be inserted at reacouptle rise. YEARLY ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted at reasonable rates.
Administrator's and Executor's Notices, $2; Auditor's Notices, $2.50; Business Carda, dvelines, (per year) $5, additional lines $1 each.
Yearly advertisers are 'éntitled to quarterly changes. Transient advertisements must be paid for in advance.

All resolutions of associations; communications of limited or individual interest, and notices of marriages or deaths, exceeding five lines are charged five Centrs per line, but simple notices of marriages and do thawill be published without charge.

'The Reporter having a larger circulation than any other paper in the county, makes it the best advertising medium in Northern Pennsylvania.

'JOB PRINTING of every kind, in plain and fancy colors, done with neatness and dispatch. Handblits, Blanks, Cards, Pamphlets, Billheads, Statements, &c., of every variety and style, printed at the shortest notice. The Reporter office is well supplied with power prosses, a good assortment of new type, and everything in the printing line can be executed in the most artistic manner and at the lowest rates. TERMS INVAHIABLY CASH.

Business Cards.

TOHN W. CODDING, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA

Office over Mason's old Bank.

THOMAS E. MYER ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. TOWANDA, PA.

Office with Patrick and Foyle. Sep.25, 79 DECK & OVERTON

TOWANDA, PA.

N, BENJ, M. BECK D'A. OVERTON, DODNEY A. MERCUR,

ATTORNEY AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA., Solicitor of Patents, 'Particular attention pale business in the Orphans Court and to the settle nent of estates.
Office in Montanyes Block OVERTON & SANDERSON,

TOWANDA, PA.
E. OVERTON, JE. JOHN F. SANDERSON W. H. JESSUP,

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW, MONTROSE, PA. Jurige Jessup having resumed the practice of the law in Northern Pennsylvania, will attend to any legal business intrusted to lim in Bradford county. Persons wishing to consult him, can call on H. Streeter, Esq., Towanda, Pa., when an appointment can be made. HENRY STREETER,

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA. TAMES WOOD,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA. H. L. TOWNER, M. D., HOMEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON es. Residence and Office just North of Dr. Corbin's, on Main Street, Athens, Pa. jun26-6m.

E. L. HILLIS, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. TOWANDA, PA. E. F. GOFF,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, WYALUSING, PA. Agency for the sale and purchase of all kinds of Scentifies and for making leans on Real Estate, All business will receive careful and frompt attention. [June 4, 1879. H. THOMPSON, ATTORNEY

E. H. ANGLE, D. D. S. OPERATIVE AND MECHANICAL DENTIST

Elsbree & son, TOWANDA, PA.

O. D. KINNEY, Rooms formerly occupied by Y. M. C. A. Hoom, fjan,3178, McPHERSON,

TOWANDA, PA. Dis't Att'y Brad, Co. TOHN W. MIX, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW AND U. S. COMMISSIONER

TOWANDA, PA. Office-North Side Public Square.

Jan. 1, 1875. DAVIES & CARNOCHAN, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW.

SOUTH SIPE OF WARD HOUSE. ANDREW WILT,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. Office over Turner & Gordon's Drug Store, Towanda, Pa. May be consulted in German. (April 12, '76.) W. J. YOUNG,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA Office-second door south of the First National Bank Main St., up stairs. Williams & Angle, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW OFFICE .- Formerly occupied by Wm. Watkins

WM. MAXWELL, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

MADILL & CALIFF, TOWANDA, PA.

WM. S. VINCENT, INSURANCE AGENT.

D D PAYNE M D.

W. RYAN,

COUNTY SUPERINTENDE Office day last Saturday of each month, over Turns & Gordon's Drug Store, Towanda, Pa. Towanda, June 20, 18782 MRS. H. PEET,

TEACHER OF PIANO MUSIC, TERMS.—$10 per term. (Residence Third street, 1st ward.) Towanda, Jan. 13, '79-1y. O S. RUSSELL'S

GENERAL THRST NATIONAL BANK, TOWANDA, PA.

Aradford

THE MOUSE CURE.

nature becomes evident.

remedies.

did the patient notice the mouse than she sprang up, loudly calling to the attendants to take it off, and lenouncing the doctor as a horrid ashamed of himself and guillotined action for damages against him.

the patient to lie on the floor and kick the paneling of a rosewood!

book-case. The doctor at once perceived that mice in strong doses were indicated. He therefore ordered that a mouse should be administered every ten minutes until the violence of the attack should abate. The first mouse ran across the patient's body, but there was no perceptible change in her heels or voice. The second mouse, however, entangled itself in her hair, treatment was necessary, and the

REGARDLESS OF DENUNCIATION FROM ANY QUARTER.

Si.00 per Annum in Advance.

NUMBER 28

VOLUME XL.

One year ago a ringing voice,

One year ago, what loves, what schemes

What joyous hopes, what high resolves:

A clear blue eye

Too fair to die.

No glance of eye,

Fair but to die.

Fair into life!

Remain alone!

Says he is dead

That sing above,

And so much gone! And yet the even flow of life

Above the head:

Tell us how coldly sleeps below

What generous strife !

The silent picture on the wall,

The burial stone, Of all that beauty, life and joy

One year, one year, one little year,

GOODRICH & HITCHCOCK. Publishers.

TOWANDA, BRADFORD COUNTY, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 11, 1879.

Hoeim.

ONE YEAR AGO.

And clustering curls of sunny hair, are wound up-ho! ho!! ho!" Only one year-no yelce, no smlie, up; what darned difference does it No clustering curls of golden hair,

"What darned difference does i

The grave grows green, the flowers bloom No sorrowing tint of leaf or spray No pause, or hush, or merry birds

The form we love. What hast thou been this year, beloved What hast thou seen? What rising fair, what glorious life, Where hast thou been? The well! the well! so thin, so strong! The mystic veil; when shall it fall, That we may see? Not dead, not sleeping, not oven gone, But present still, And waiting for the coming hour Lord of the living and the dead, Our Saviour! We lay in sllence at Thy feet This sad, sad year.

Hiscellaneous. HOW IT IS DONE. Next to the leviathan of Scripture the lightning-rod man is one of the along its surface; and if any bemost terrible objects of the animal nighted lightning rod pedler hapkingdom. Such, at least, is the pens to be in this vicinity and obopinion of an honest farmer in the and twist, agate-pointed, platinumtipped lightning-rods. "I thought I see you round here a der storm you have up here, the specof the way of the wind the served the honest old agriculturist, and you said that these here light there's a dark blue cloud coming up ning-rods were frauds."

vicinity of Waukesha upon whom one of these individuals waited a few

the bonds of sin and the gall of man's hand has rapidly attained the bitterness," said the agent contritely; dimensions of a St. Lonis girl's foot. but I've been converted since. I I guess we're going to have a thunoften shudder now-a-days when I der storm. Good-by; I must get out think that if my foot had slipped of here, for I owe it to my family to when I was putting up one of the preserve my life. If your daughter inferior articles which I was then survives, don't you worry about the palming off upon a credulous and future. I'll make a proper provision uprotected community, I might have for her, for it will be $100,000 in my gone plump down to perdition with a pocket to be able to point to her as lie upon my lips and a hammer in the sole survivor of a man whose my hand. The remorse which even house was knocked into brick-dust my case-hardened soul had too feel and match-splints because he wouldn't at last became too powerful to be take my advice about the arrangeborne with impunity; but now I am | ments of his lightning rod. endeavoring to atone for the evil "I'll get an axe and crowbar and which I committed by exposing the tear the dum thing down," said the inferior quality of the lightning-rods farmer, after a moment's irresolute

I then put up and replacing them pause. with those for which I am now agent, at cost price." exactly know that he wanted to put | With that lightning-rod instinct, with sparkled at the proposition; the cide in the second degree in sending when, at dewy eve, he had complet the deceased into the jaws of death. ed his task, he slapped the farmer on If you go yourself, I don't want-as the back, and asked him if he liked is duty I should be bound to do-to the material of the rods and the have to inform the life insurance com-antly; "then the rods are yours, and suicide. Good-by; I hope you have I don't charge you a cent. Our com- so lived that you are not afraid to pany always sticks to its word, and die. Get up, there." would rather lose a million dollars 3 "Hi! hold on," said the unfortunthan do a job that wasn't satisfactory ate farmer; I'll give you $5 to wind to the customer. If any one asks up the darned thing for me." you tell them that that $90 set of lightning rods didn't cost you a cent with a withering sneer; "why, the

The farmer asked the lightning- company as an awful example. Glang rod man to come in and have some there.' dinner, and the lightning-rod man Nation bank, up-stairs.

H. J. v ADILL. (Jans-731y) J. N. CALIFF. said he didn't mind. There seemed thrist; "will you wind up them DR. S. M. WOODBURN, Physi- to be something funny on the light- lightning rods if I pay you for them? ning-rod man's mind, for he used to look at the farmer every minute or responded the agent; "you said they two and laugh to himself gently, and weren't quite according to your taste, when asked what was wrong, say, and it doesn't seem exactly right to "Oh, nothing! nothing!" and then be taking a man's money for a thing choke with inward mirth. All through | that he isn't quite satisfied with. Be the meal he entertained his hosts sides, it is taking thousands and vith interesting reminiscences of thousands of dollars out of the comhouses that had been struck by light | pany's pocket, because what we want | ning-how in one case everything is an awful example to scare other metallic within the buildings was fellows into taking our rods just as fused, and a fac-simile of a campaign we put 'em up. However, seeing it's supplement was indelibly imprinted you, and I don't want to have your upon the person of the woman of the blood on my hands, I don't mind house, while her beautiful daughter doing it. Hand over $90, and I'll fix DISEASES was snatched bald-headed and driven it." sponsibility for damage by lightning,

This Bank offers unusual facilities for the transaction of a general banking business.

Solve LL, President.

Artil, 1879

This Bank offers unusual facilities for the transaction of a general banking business.

N.N. BETTS, Cashier.

JOS. FOWELL, President.

Artil, 1879

This Bank offers unusual facilities for the transaction of a general banking business.

N.N. BETTS, Cashier.

Artil, 1879

This Bank offers unusual facilities for the transsphere to the earth at the shortest profession everywhere, and we may sphere to the earth at the shortest profession everywhere, and we may request to ante up, many a fine young fellow is compelled to pay a visit to "my date of the discomfitted in nervous diseases by all late, for already the lightning-rod that he has just heard a lecture on plaints, at his want of activity."

After a popular politician has been

Total life, may be as stem, moralists to the stem of the cannot stop a minute. But that he cannot stop a minute. But that he "Got ahead of you?-well, I did get ahead of you," said the farmer;

"I got them lightning rods for noth-

"Yes," gasped the agent, in paroxysms of mirth, "hut go and look at those lightning rods and see if they "Well, suppose they ain't wound make?" echoed the agent in welleigned astonishment. "Shades of S. F. B. Morse, here is a man that doesn't know the difference between positive and negative electricity! Just you go up to the house, and if you have Whetstone's 'Pragmatic Analytical Synonis of Differentiated Electricity—the edition of 1876 is the best-overhaul the eleventh chapter, and you'll see what the

"I haven't got the book," said the farmer; " what is the difference, any-The difference is that a lightning rod when properly wound up conducts positive electricity from the clouds to the earth: when not wound up it conducts negative electricity from the earth to the clouds. That is all the difference there is. The The earth, as Huxley says, is a great reservoir chockful of electricity, which is constantly seeking affiliation with the oxygen and metheglin of the atmosphere. Your lightning rod is probably the only one in the Northwestern States that is not wound up; consequently the surging currents of electricity which have been meandering all over the country, striving to find an outlet, like rats seeking to escape out of a barrel, after vainly trying every other ightning rod are accumulating beneath your house, and currusticating and dilating and titillating all along the surface of your lightning-rod. Wait till it gets dark and you will see a pale, lambent flame playing all serves this beautiful and significant phenomenon, you'll see him whip up his horse and get over the hill so as days ago, urging him to protect his to be away from the neighborhood buildings with the three-ply, stub- when the explosion takes place. Talk of electric lights and Fourth-of-July fireworks! The first touch of a thunthere's a dark, blue cloud coming "Oh, yes; that was when I was in yonder, which from the size of a

All right; only I want as a special favor to ask you not to begin until I The old farmer said that he didn't am over the hill and out of sight. up any lightning rods, but the agent | negative electricity, as it is, it is sure said to him, "I'll tell you what I'll death for any uninsulated man to apdo. I'll put up a set of lightning proach it. If you send a hired man heartless wretch, who ought to be rods for you, and if you don't like to tear it down, then I don't want to them I'll make you a present of be's witness and have the coroner's on the spot. There was no recurjury bring in a verdict that the de-The honest old agriculturist's eyes | ceased's employer was guilty of homi In fact, the doctor adds that the pany that you violated the conditions of your policy by taking a deliberate-"All right!" said the agent pleas- ly risk which virtually amounted to

"Five dollars!" said the agent -you didn't think they were quite fact that your house was burst into satisfactory, and so there was no twenty hundred thousand million pieces'll be worth $50,000 to the

> "Hold up," yelled the agricul-"Well, I don't know that I should,'

THE EAR through a stove-pipe hole, leaving The farmer produced the money, great strips of her soft white flesh on and the agent gave him a receipt; the ragged edges of the sheet iron, then taking a monkey wrench, he (Here the farmer's daughter got up said solemnly, "Even for experienced and left the room, while her mother and insulated men there is considersaid, "Laws-a-massy!" and fanned able danger in the experiment I now permanent one. herself with her handkerchief) Then am about to perform; If I should be the agent burst out laughing ("at struck dead in its performance, please with the very best results in an atnothing," he said, and asked the tell my wife that I died at my post- tack of paralysis of the left leg, farmer if he was insured, and when or to speak more correctly, my rodthe farmer said, "Yes," asked to see and have the fact telegraphed to the the wife of a Parisian banker from his policy, and pointed out to him Chicago Tribune, not forgetting to making a call on certain of her husthat the company waived any re- ring in the name of the company." Pale with emotion, the noble and and said he must be up and off. But fearless man approached the lightwhen he was climbing into his wagon, rod, gave it a couple of licks with the fit of mirth with which he was the monkey wrench, placed his ear side. Both of these cases yielded seized so nearly approached the pro- close to it, hit again, and then re- promptly to the exhibition of mice, portions of an apoplectic seizure, turned joyfully to the farmer. "It's and there is no room for doubt that that the honest farmer got alarmed, all right," he said; "it has been the cure was due solely to the remeand asked him what in the name of wound up, and is now prepared to dy employed. Charles Foster he was laughing at | conduct positive electricity in large "I was laughing—ha, ha! he, he! or small quantities from the atmo- medica will naturally interest the much importance as those which he has already made in connection with Medical science has made great mice.—N. Y. Times. progress during the last fifty years. Novel and startling as this assertion

HOW TO PLAY POKER PROFITAis, there is no doubt of its truth. BLY. Modern physicians have learned to discriminate between diseases that t First-Don't buy half as many senses, nor could it be detected by the physicians of the last generation chips at the start as the other play-dozen able diseases to their reportyou borrow or "owe" up. · Đ toire. For example, it was formerly supposed that when a man who lived some one tells you, and then say that that had been undertaken. It was in his own house had a fever, the you have, and stick to it, which will not difficult to describe the places symptoms of which were apparently generally persuade some one else to favorable to the production of the the same as those of a malarious "come in" twice. This rule, though malarial poison, or to prescribe the fever from which his next-door neigh- an excellent one, must be followed proper medical remedies for those bor, who lived in a hired house, suf- with discretion. If practised too of who are suffering from it. It was fered, the two diseases were identical, | ten, it is liable to produce unpleasant | easy to say that the poison was genbut we now know that a man who feelings.

lives in his own house never has a Third-Toward the end of the ev. es, in wet meadows, from vegetation malarious fever, though he often suf- ening it is always better to "owe" decaying under a hot sun, in lands fers from a nervous affection, the up your ante" for a minute" than to alternately flooded and drained, in symptoms of which closely resemble "put" up, as the winner of the pot the moving of earth rich in vegetable. those of chills and fever. In addition frequently forgets to charge up the matter, and in the drying up, under to thus discriminating between dis- debt, and none of the other players certain atmospheric conditions, of eases which were formerly comfound- will remind him, as they may wish stagnant pools. But what the poison ed, modern physicians have made to do the same thing. discovery of what seems to be a spe- does about the middle of the game, ble to drive it away. One of its ly do before the cut. Then, by noticnot be pried open with a crow-bar | may help you in the draw-When it is remembered that women | Sixth-Keep a sharp eye on the "in discovering a microscopic funas well as men suffer from this di- discards. They may be of service if gus which, being placed under the very traditions of which are now obsense, its tremendously powerful your draw is not satisfactory. sease, its tremendously powerful your draw is not satisfactory. Hitherto there has been no remedy watch your opportunity, from time tent fever, and produced in the which could be regarded as a specific to time, to put some of your checks spleens of these animals that peculiar Thucydides the greatest historian, few of the patient's teeth, so as to luck turns, and will prevent the oth. The report of their investigations their claims, but we never read them. gested, among which the subcuta- ble, in preference to the bank. It truth of their discovery, the next ble poison, gave, on the whole, the bank may not be able to pay up.

ceps, and which will, of course, su- the whole object of the game is to only under the microscope, merits,

The French doctor in question you do, however trifling, tend to this strengthen very materially the belief was called in to attend a lady suffer- trifling end. ing from tetanus. In his report he Eleventh—When the game is over, has found in Tyndall one of its ablest father had been a slave. Horace tells says that she was a married woman if you are winner, deny it entirely or advocates. of 31 years of age, and that previous fix the figure as low as possible; if to his visit her family physician had you are loser declare that you have tried every known remedy for tetan-lost twice as much as you really have. us, including curare, without pro- This rule is never departed from. lucing any effect. The patient was The money lost at a game of poker ying on her back, with her jaws always foots up four times as much ightly closed, and the muscles of her as the money won. chest and throat were so rigid that Twelve-When it is inconvenient she was unable to utter a sound. to avoid paying your debts entirely, The doctor at once sent out and pro- use discrimination in the matter. cured a live mouse of the usual size Debts to persons whom you are not and voracity, to the tail of which he likely to meet very often you can attached a strong horse-hair. Placing avoid. Many players teel a delicacy the mouse at the foot of the bed, he about asking for a poker debt; these permitted it to walk the entire length | are safe ones not to pay. of the patient's body. No sooner

APPRENTICESHIP TO TRADES

rence of the symptoms of tetanus. lady's jaws were so thoroughly and collapse of our industry between ana 40.0 syr. cort. aur. 10.0. permanently unlocked that the hus-1873 and 1879 had the effect to scatband, who is, of course, ignorant of law, has threatened to begin an facturing centres. The partial sus-The success of this experiment encouraged the doctor to try the mouse easoned that the administration of mice powerfully stimulates the nerves them went with their tools to Coloraof a female patient, and enables the do and Utah. The sudden revival of nervous system to throw off any disease with which it is afflicted. Soon after the incident just related, he met with a violent case of hysteria. The was subject to hysterical attacks, but this particular one was of unprecedented violence. Among its promiperity the country is entering on. nent symptons was an absence of whisker on one side of the husband's face, a broken clock, and an almost irresistible tendency on the part of ed men, skilled in trades and prepared to receive their share of the pros-The trades unions, in their selfishness, would not suffer this reserve of American labor to be created. The have been compelled to import it. them to this country. There is even an importation of coal, iron and copper miners. And the trades unions. which would not suffer their members' own sons to learn their fathers' business, have the bitter satisfaction of for want of mechanical education, and her recovery was almost instantaneous. She sat up and said that if the doctor would only take that and low pay of the unskilled laborer. mouse away, she would get right up The public has an interest in this and see about dinner. No further question of apprenticeship quite as fact that the disease has not returned leads the doctor to express a strong conviction that the cure will prove a the sons of laboring men this duty is and asked, "And thou art determin- of the charm of his writings is due was, in the later years of her life, an preeminent. It is the surest way of ed to have this woman to be thy to their extremely personal nature. saving them from the deadly effects | wife?" of idleness-from becoming loafers, blackguards and criminals. It is high time that the obligation of apprenticeship in all trades should be recognized by the State and provided for and enforced by statute.—New

The addition of mice to the materia

"CHILLS" AND "SHAKES." Innumerable attempts have been made to ascertain the poison that produces malaria, and in every in-Stance until recently they have failed This poison is not cognizable by the chemical tests. The air of malarial believed to be identical, and in this ers. The expectation is that you will districts has been analyzed, the soil way they have added at least two win, and if you lose it is better, that has been submitted to microscopical examination, but no light was thrown Second-Never ante up until some on the subject by any investigation erated in salt and fresh water marsh-fever, malarial fever, tever and ague, usual treatment, was to knock out a This will enable you to "owe" up if of the pathology of this disease."

poisonous fungi may either be despersede curare and all other inferior save your own money and secure nevertheless the applause with which somebody else's, and let everything it has been received, and will

----

A REMEDY FOR DIPHTHERIA.

Mr Shiskin, Russian minister to fective here. Out of several others. Dr. Letzerich, who made extensive this remedy, has used it in twentyseven cases, eight of which were of a a favorable result except in one case, business this year encounters a scar- diphtherial membrane through a glass city of labor. Had boys been sys- tube in serious cases every three and simplicity he has described the tematically taken into our shops and hours, in light cases three times a interview. "The day I came to see drop down into a box below, while with a violent case of hysteria. The patient, a married lady of 37 years, they would now be matured by the patient, a married lady of 37 years, they would now be matured by the patient, a married lady of 37 years, they would now be matured by the patient, a married lady of 37 years, they would now be matured by the patient, a patient by the patient ling a dilution of ten grammes of but little, and that nervously; silent water.

be erected against this supply. It is had brought with him, and that trained to some useful pursuit. To Governor serencly removed his pipe, know from himself. No small part lection of Mrs. Lincoln is that she

> "I am." replied Gorton. "And you, madam, have taken this man for your husband?" "" That I have, Sir," was the prompt the frost king. He went abroad last night

On a flerce and wild foray, And treasures bright, in his frosty flight, From the hillsides bore away. Earth mourns to-day in gloom-For a crushing hand was laid Reputter.

On leaf and bloom, and rare perfume In woodland, glen and glade. He tore the garlands down, That the glowing autumn twined, And his faded crown of russet brown In her golden temple shrined.

Frost King, our hearts still yearn For the vanished summer hours. And sadly turn from thy blackened urn Of blighted buds and flowers. -Journal of Education

THE POET HORACE. It is now about nineteen hundred scape. There always comes some years since Horace died, and during happy, forcible, adjective that puts all the centuries that his works have the scene locally and individually been before a public which has in before you. He turns away from the cluded all the learning and refine overgrown city, and takes his holiment of every cultivated nation, no day among the vines and olive trees writer in any language has been so of the Sabine farm. Few letters have much read, quoted, translated, and ever been penned more delightful was that produced those remitting commented upon. He is the first of than that in which the poet, writing very extensive additions to the ma- Fourth—When the credit system and intermitting diseases which are those classic authors who become the to his country steward, complains of teria medica, and of these, the recent begins to creep in, as it generally known the various names of marsh friend of the reader, and the friend loogs to be back discovery of what seems to be a specific for nearly all nervous diseases you should "owe up" if possible, is by no means the least important. and bet chiefly against those who Of all nervous diseases, tetanus is always "put up." This is one of the Of all nervous diseases, tetanus is always "put up." This is one of the Of all nervous diseases, tetanus is always "put up." This is one of the Of all nervous diseases, tetanus is always "put up." This is one of the Of all nervous diseases, tetanus is always "put up." This is one of the Of all nervous diseases, tetanus is always "put up." This is one of the Of all nervous diseases, tetanus is always "put up." This is one of the Of all nervous diseases, tetanus is always "put up." This is one of the Of all nervous diseases, tetanus is always "put up." This is one of the Of all nervous diseases, tetanus is always "put up." This is one of the Office of the Of one of the most determined and ob most important rules. To win in vestigations into the origin of malaria Witt, when a murderous mob burst literary productions. Pope imitated one of the most determined and on most important rules. To win in jectionable. It is usually induced cash and lose on credit is the great by over-indulgence in rusty nails or secret of successful poker playing.

Witty when a mutuerous moo outst upon him, repeated to his brother the men of science, Signor Tommasi, of noble lines in which the poet describes be traced on every polished line, and noble lines in which the poet describes between the poet describes are represented by the secret of successful poker playing. hold of a patient it is nearly impossi- the bottom card, which you can easi- after spending three weeks in that not even the fury of citizens can Horace is always simple and natural. fever-stricken region, the Roman shake from his purpose or drive into His friend, Bullatius, is traveling in permanent symptoms is the closing ing how thick a cut is made, you can | Campagna, experimenting on its soil, error. What is the secret of a pop- Iona. Wes ever such a gossiping, of the jaws so tightly that they can- tell whether that card goes out. This its atmosphere and its stagnant wa- ularity which time leaves unimpaired? pleasant letter written by a stay-at ters, "have succeeded," it is said, How is it that this writer, dealing home to some acquaintance wander with the transactions of a life, the ling about in his travels? He asks him how he likes the different places. Seventh—When you are "in luck," and regular paroxysms of intermit-light, to fascinate? We know that of Mars and the stream of Tiber. Demosthenes was the greatest orator. He is glad to know all the news his for tetanus. In the last century the in your pocket without being seen. condition which is a recognized part Euripides the most tear provoking correspondent can tell him, but he has something to say himself, and he tragedian of antiquity. We admit keeps it for the end of the letter. Busy idleness, he says, is the vice of pour a little brandy down his throat, and the success and then to order his coffin. With Eighth—When any one wants to that crowned them, was read a short and students master them in after ots that people seek to live pleasant the progress of medical science, buy more checks and you have plen- time since in the Academy of Rome, life; but Horace is not for us an au- lives, and yet it is reason and discrevarious other remedies were sug- ty, give him to buy of you, if possi, and if further tests substantiate the thor but a friend. We read him in tion that take away our cares, and neous injection of curage, a particular point in preference to the pank. It with of their discovery, the next our youth, and we return to him not a spot that commands a wide experiments will have for larly deadly South American vegeta- of your winnings, and hesides the their object the means wherehy these larly deadly South American vegeta: of your winnings, and besides the their object the means whereby these and we think with kindness of the the wind they change who speed panse of sea. 'Tis the sky and not best results, and frequently so far got the mastery over tetanus that it killed the patient before the disease could kill him. At least bowever and the patient before the disease could kill him. At least bowever and the patient before the disease could kill him. At least bowever and the patient before the disease could kill him. At least bowever and the patient before the disease could kill him. At least bowever and the patient before the disease could be able to pay up.

Danielsonciile sentinel.

At present let us remove whose learning is less. Rullating as appropriate in a poisonous fungi may either be destant across the sea: If the satire on cooking which must always be done of any kind can spring up. could kill him. At last, however, an You are sure to be so much ahead of cable agricultural remedy for drainyear or two ago, selling another variety of them condiments," obtained by served the honest old agriculturist, and you said that these here light in a minute fungus, discernible agriculturist remedy for drain-drained ingenious french physician has approached the game, and they come in very him dentrusted to a restlement, whose courtly jokes age of tourist agencies and a feverish ingenious french physician has approached the game, and they come in very him dentrusted to a realways in season. We yield to a realways in season. We will the game, and they come in very hand they come in very band they come staut amid many changes. every century his works find kinshi One charm about him is that he is with every cultivated people. eminently a man of the world-a man of the world and a gentleman. in the germ theory of disease which that his birth was quite ignoble. His White birch is largely used in this manufacture, and as extensive forests of this wood grow throughout the us so himself.: He had been a slave who was given his freedom, and who vinces, many spool factories are lo devoted his life to the education of this only child. Horace was still a cated in those sections in order that the United States, writes from the youth when he took leave of the supplies of material may be easily

I told no tale of an illustrious father, ble, kindly and not avaricious. With tom through which they pass down that patron, whose kindness had so a slide for inspection. Here the in-His life was thus not eventful, and Like Montaigue, he is confidential, al suffering as a result of the privaeven egotistical, without ever being a bore. The satires and epistles are literally independent of time: Omitting a very few local allusions; they remain models of what they are intended to be. Take the fourth satire "by the authority and in accordance of the second book. It might have with the laws of the State of Con- been written yesterday. The poet necticut, I pronounce you legally walking through the street meets a in his memory by rehearsing then then and there, and Catius accordingly commences: "Let no ordinary man lightly take to himself the sci ence of dinner-parties unless he has first duly considered the delicate question of taste. Some men's genius church is engaged in a steeple-chase. poor, only equal to the invention of new pastry; whereas it is worth while thoroughly to master the qualities of compound sauces." So the satire runs on, till Horace begs that

WHEN COWPER sighed for a lodge in he may be taken to see this lecturer. some vast wilderness, he wanted a grand that he may note the bearing of the great man, "and quaff draughts of THE squeeze of the printing press man the wisdom of such a blessed life." Another notable characteristic of he poet is his appreciation of the Neven exhibit too great a familiarity country. He has the art of a landwith the new acquaintance; you may give scape painter in describing a land-

WHAT is to be the really successful electric light is about as slippery as the THE mind hath not reason to remember that passions ought to be her vassals, nor ber masters. ALL virtue lies in a power of denying ur own desires when season does not authorize them. An emperor in his night-cap will not meet with half the respect of an emperor with a crown. Expression is of more consequence than shape—it will light up features otherwise heavy. HUMOR, warm and all-embracing as the anshine, bathes its objects in a genial abiding light. Ar the last of earth, what boots it how fish-hooks, and when it once takes | Fifth—In dealing, always observe | Rome, and Professor Kleb. of Prague, the righteous and resolute man, whom his satires smell of midnight oil. handsome and popular the departing pil-

ABOUT SPOOLS.

then thrown loosely into a large cylinder, which revolves slowly so that tome to the work can pack about

Of Mrs. Lincoln, the mother of the President, an old neighbor once said to a correspondent of The invalid, and underwent great puysic-tions and exposure she was compelled to undergo in her pioneer life.

But she was always gentle, always kind. She had a sweet expression of countenance, though her face bore the lines of great physical suffering.

She was far more energetic than her husband, and was gifted with a great relish for the humorous and a keen

Gazette, of Cincinnati: "My recol-

200 gross per day.

THE oys'er is a Reformer. That's why he does business only in the months with an "r" in them. People do not reflect that they may soon die. If they did their quarrels would quickly terminate. GENERALIZATIONS and great self conceit are always preparing the most lamentable mishaps

FUN, FACT AND FACETIAE.

Kiss, but never tell-not even to tele-A THOROUGHBRED horse is the floor of

An old trunk may be utilized as a new

The best work in the world to do is to THE alphabetical parts of a man's anat-

A MAN is not unsexed when he is com-

A MISER never knows the value of a

"The early bird gets the worm;" but

Too much sojourning in a bar-room is EVEN pious people rejoice when all of our industries are in full blast.

Tue most skillful bar-tender cannot

ETERNAL vigilance is the price of liber-

A PULPITLESS clergyman in quest of a

Those gifts are ever the most accepta-

Give, if thou caust, an alms; if not afford, instead of that, a sweet and gentle ble which the giver has made precious omy are the l-bows.

elled to sally forth.

ollar until he urns it.

gnurly apple gets it also.

ften a bar to preferment.

make a "sling" of a cotton gin.

ty; and no half rates for children.

THERE are exceptions to every rule. Surgeous are not required to amputate Ther who laugh last are those who are too thick-headed to appreciate a brilliant joke at its first flash. They called the old man a "rattling" good talker because his teeth were leose.

-Keokuk Constitution. ORDINARY apprehension, or a correct view of human affairs, is the general heir loom of common sense. .THE circus that gives the most dead--Danielsonrille Bentinel. AT present let us remove what is bad must always be done before good NEVER neglect to perform the commis MEN are often more guilty of treachery any settled design to betray. Eve ate the fatal apple under the im-THE universe is but one great city, full of this wood grow throughout the of beloved ones, divine and human, by State of Maine, Canada and the Pro-Ir lightning-conductors had the powe of speech they would say: "Have your tickets ready, or go to thunder!" A MAN embarking in an important enterprise should assure himself that he is THERE are many manifestations of Coverous men need money least, yet pieces are put into a dry house and

WE respectfully suggest to England THE greater the difficulty, the more gain their reputation from storms and tempests. The "roughers" receive a cent and "By their fruits shall ye know them,"

Upon a modest gravestone in Vincen-Young ladies in maiden meditation

THAT plenty should produce either covetousness or profigality is a perversion of providence, and yet the generality of WHARP-RATS - that is to say, - the the rate of twenty-five to thirty per ways tried by a jury of their piers. " ceive a cent and a half per gross, and they can each turn out from 100 to adays they observe: "Inst-wait until I article in a recent number of the Buffalo LIFE is short and fast horses are fleet-

THERE is no greater sign of a mean and

It is because prize pedestrianism is an walkers are allowed to go as they please. Men moving on tick always claim and take that privilege anyhow. THE surest method against scandal, i to live it down by perseverance in wellier husband's coat, and a big tear stand in her eye as she thinks how late he REMARKS an accomplished fashion-writer; "The sailor hats are becoming to almost every feminine face." Are we to dear Woman are nothing more than tarr toplights?

IT is related that an ass once talked like a man, and the people wondered greatly thereat. Now thousands of me nothing is thought of it. Civilization a wonderful educator!

THE terrible temptation of the glass in factories first fascinates the boy. He must indulge in the delicious pastime of smash ing them, even if it costs him a sound thrashing. Later in life he swallows the liceman.

"Can you see the whole of me?" ask-ed a fellow, who wanted an entire view of the photographer.
"Oh! yes, sir!" was the reply; "I can cookery, and that he is trying how to learn its precepts off by heart; he fears lest he may forget them Hornece proposes that he should fix them cluded.

This life may be, as stern moralists see scarcely anything else except the hole. You had better close it."

The fellow instantly shut his mouth.—

New Rochelle Press.

The mouse cure has also been tried which was in a fair way to prevent band's relatives, and in a case of nervous prostration which suddenly attacked a lady when her husband had refused to take her to the sea-

TRAMPS stealing rides on coal trains complain bitterly of freight discriminations whenever they are put off the cars.

Before being able to comply with a man and wife."

"Gurdon, thou are a cunning that he cannot stop a minute. But hard but he paid little attention to SEELEY'S OYSTER BAY AND EUROPEAN HOUSE.—A few doors souther the Means House. Board by the day or week on reasonable terms. Warm meals served at all hours featonable terms. Warm meals served at all hours of the Means the Means the Means the Means House. Board by the day or week on animile went mad."

ATIL 187.9

ATIL 187.9

ARTER a popular politician has been treated to all the high-grade ice-cream her treated to all the distinguished French physical treated to all the distinguished French physical treated to all the high-grade ice-cream her tre procured. The wood, after being de Imperial Legation at Washington to good father whom he was never again ivered to the factories, is first sawed to see, and started for Athens to In view of the increase of diphthe- complete his education at its acaderia in several places of the State of my. It is hard to realize those times New York I hasten to communicate and to regard the Greek city as a square, according to the size of the the greatest of all is in Christ his Son to you for publicity a very simple kind of Cambridge. Cicero had a spool it is required to make. These remedy, which, having been used in son there, who was, perhaps, a com-Russia and Germany, may prove ef. panion of young Flaccus, and we can thoroughly dried, from whence they need it most, have the least regard for it. fancy the excitement that must have are taken into the factory and given been produced among the young Ro. to the "roughers," who, in an increexperiments in the application of man students when the messenger dibly short space of time, bore a hole came in with the tidings of the assas. in the centre a couple of inches deep, sination of Julius Cæsar. There were turn about the same space round very serious nature, all of which had plenty of young republicans at Ath- and cut off the length required for a ens, and the students joined the spool. The machines used for this unions to permit apprentices to be when a child died from a complication of diseases. For children of one Brutus and Cassius with garlands. Centre of which is a revolving gimlet field. they control has borne a fruit that year he prescribes the remedy, for How Hornce in his early manhood or bit, and immediately to the right a small circular saw with a gauge should impressively teach the folly internal use every one or two hours, espoused the republican cause and set to the proper size of the spools. of attempting to regulate wages by as follows: Natr. benzoic, pur. 5.0 fought at the battle of Phillipi and making labor artificially scarce. The solv. in aq. distillat aq. menth, piper. ran away, leaving his shield ingloriously behind, he has himself told us. a half per gross for their work, and was written before the small boy carried For children from 1 to 3 years old The party with whom he sided were experienced men can turn out from home apples in the legs of his trowsers. ter skilled workmen from the manu- he prescribed it from seven to eight utterly beaten; and he was reduced 100 to 130 gross per day. The round New York Express. grammes for 100 grammes of distilled to poverty, which (he says) drove blocks pass from them to the "finishpension of coal mining similarly had water, with same syrup; for children him to write. But he had made good ers," who place them in machines the effect to diminish the mining from 3 to 7 years old he prescribed friends; even Virgil, who was five which give them the shape of spools, population of each of the coal-pro- ten to fifteen grammes, and for years older than he, came to his aid, and make them quite smooth. A ducing States. Many of the miners grown persons from lifteen to twenty and another poet, named Varius, man stands with his left hand on a fancy free are form settled on Government land; more of five grammes for each 100 grammes. whose works have perished forever. small lever, and with the right places order to more effectually walk into the Besides this he uses also with The period of want did not last long. the blocks, one at a time, in the lathe, then draws the lever to him for great success the insufflation on the One day he was introduced to Mecrenas. With a delightful brevity an instant and the work is done; the lever is pushed back and the spools this pulver for 200 grammes of shame stopped me from saying more; minute. The "finishers" also re-

The effect of the remedy is rapid, but the plain truth about myself. After twenty-four or thirty-six hours You answered but little; then nine 130 gross per day. The spools are the feverish symptoms disappear months afterward you sent for me manufacturers, in their necessity, completely and the temperature and again and bid me be in the number pulse become normal. This remedy of your friends." From that time the spools are polished by the con-They have sent agents to England to was used also with the same success poverty was unknown. He lived an stant rubbing upon each other for select, skilled workmen and bring by Dr. Brahm Braun and Professor easy, happy, careless life, rich in the some time. On being taken out of ing; and our hearts, though stout and Klebs, in Prag; Dr. Senator, in Cas- possession of many friendships, un- the cylinder they are placed in a brave, fail us when we go to beat heavily sell, and several others in Russ a und touched by political change, hospita- hopper with an opening at the bot-Ancedore of Gurdon Salton- opportunely rescued him from want, spector sits and watches closely to is anything more magnificent than to lay STALL.—Gurdon Saltonstall resigned his relations remained always the see that no imperfect spools are all them out freely in acts of bounty and lib seeing foreigners come here to com- his functions as a preacher for the same. "Remember Flaccus," said lowed to pass, and a very small knot erality. pete with them for employment in office of Governor. A religious sect Mecaenas ion his death-bed to the or scratch is sufficient to condemn high-priced work, while their children, arose professing allegiance to Christ emperor, remember Flaccus as you them. The spools then pass into the only, and acknowledging no author- would myself." The solemn bequest hands of the packers, who handle are left to the chance employment ity in the civil law. Among other was not forgotten, but the poet did them very lively. They are packed peculiarities of their creed was the not long survive his patron. His last into large boxes made the proper right to contract marriage without illness came so suddenly upon him size, so that layers of spools exactly right to contract marriage without illness came so suddenly upon him the sanction of the civil authorities. that he had not time to make his fill the box, with no additional pack-doing, and by prayer to God, that he sanction of the civil authorities. that he had not time to make his income the sanction of the civil authorities. great as the trades unions have, if A man named Gorton was their will. Witnesses were called in, and ing, and a smart boy who is accusnot greater. A sound condition of leader. He appeared before Gover- the poet had just force left to name things requires a balance between nor Saltonstall one day, as his Ex- the emperor as his heir. He died in production and consumption. The cellency was peacefully smoking his his fifty seventh year, and was buried supply of labor should be equal to long pipe, and announced that he at the end of the Esquiline Hill, close the demand for it. No barrier should was married to a women whom he to the tomb of Meccenas. the highest social duty that boys be without the sanction of the law. The most of what we know about it we

"Then," exclaimed the Governor,