LEROY. On Sunday morning last, OSCAR SMITH, son of Elias Smith, of Granville, committed suicide by hanging himself in his father's barn. Early in the morning he had a difficulty with a brother, for which his father punished him; after which he ate his breakfast; then went to the barn where he was found in a dying condition. The boy was about fifteen years old.... A party of hunters from LeRoy have just returned from the wilds of the Alleghany with four deer Prof. Normsn, of Alba, preached at LeRoy, Sunday evening last....Rain has come and everybody rejoices....The Assessor has been around and is astonished to find some people so very poor. He has it in his power to make taxation more equal than it is. If all the assesors of the county would carry out the law as instructed, by the Auditor

General, there would be little cause to complain of unequal taxation. FEEBLE LADIES.—Those languid, tire some sensations, causing you to feel scarcely able to be on your feet; that conotatoes, per bushel.... stant drain that is taking from your sys tem all its clasticity; driving the bloom from your cheeks: that continual strain upon your vital forces, rendering you, irritable and fretful, can easily be removed by the use of that marvelous remedy, Hop Bitters.
