

TO THE CHILDREN.

DEAR little children where'er you be, Who are watched and cherished tenderly...

CHRISTMAS AT HILLSIDE.

CHRISTMAS EVE! How the young hearts of Christendom beat at the sound of that blessed holiday!

Then they came to another and more humble home—looking in through the window, there was a poor widow and her son, their faces shining with happiness.

RINGING THE CHRISTMAS CHIMES.

RING out, wild bells, to the wild sky, The flying cloud, the frosty light;

MRS. WONDER'S DREAM ON NEW YEAR'S EVE.

I WISH there wasn't a man or a child on the earth—there now! Johnny got a sharp box on the ear and Mittie was set down on a chair with a jounce that almost shook the little house to its foundations.

strange country, and her arrival and appearance were a matter of as much curiosity to the people she met as were they to her.

She gave a loud shriek of joy and was springing away from the hands that would have detained her when she awakened and found the arms of a real live man about her as he lifted her back to the chair from which she had fallen.
