ATHENS' ITEMS.

Troy, December 22, 1879.

For the close of '79, we offer the following items and reflections. We had intended to give a review of the progress of our place for the year, but so much has our place for the year, but so much has been sent that we desist, only giving a few notes: The building of G. H. Eastabrook is nearly alloccupied, being a large three story brick conveniently arranged, with excellent basement. The third floor contains two very nice halls, one of which is occupied by the G. A. R. and I. O. of O. F. Susquehanna County. Iontrose Democrat, 17th. -Considerable scarlet fever is reported in Susquehanna. -Susquehanna is now rejoicing over the report that all the new engines for the Erie road are hereafter to be built at the shop in that place. -A strange phenomenon partaking somewhat of the supernatural, occurred near the residence of Isaac Howard, of Auburn Centre, December 4, 1879. Thursday evening, about six o'clock, a large blaze three feet in diameter, was een a few rods away in a northeasterly direction from the house. As seen by the family, it appeared to be on the upper part of the fence; and an examination of the premises Friday morning exhibited a light scorching and nothing more. The light was visible but a moment, and its

A LADY'S WISH .- " Oh, how I do wish my skin was as clear and soft as yours,' said a lady to her friend. "You can easily make it so," answered the friend.
"How?" inquired the first lady. "By using Hop Bitters, that makes pure rich blood and blooming health. It did it for me, as you observe." Read of it.—

If the prayers of Christian parents; and devoted friends could have stayed. Death's messenger, our young friend would still gladden the home and social circle, where he was ever greeted with gleasure, for he was beloved by all who knew him But God had willed otherwise, and His will is best; for "He knoweth all things, and doeth althings well." Truly, "Death loves a shining mark." Elmer was a faithful and studious mem ber of the Sabbath school, and will long be missed there.
