The post mortem examination discloses the fact that four shots took effect in Wilson's body. One shot, supposed to be the one fired in the barn, took effect in the shdomen on the right side; two shots lodged in the back, and one in the right side of the neck just below the ear. Of the wounds element the offer we have of the side of the section of the sec of the neck just below in ear. Of the woman si-ther of those in the body were sufficient to cause death. The case is surrounded by mystery, as Warren, by the advice of counsel, refuses to make any statement. Both parties are very respectably connected, and the parents and relative a of War-ren as well as Wilson have the sympathy of the en-tire community. tire community.

It might be well to add that the evidence before the Coroner discloses that Warren just previous to the killing and after the arrival of Wilson in town had his revolver cleaned at Melnuish's jow-city store, and bought cartridges and loaded it thereabout an hour or two before the encounter which resulted to Wilson's death.

NEW YORR, June 5, 1879.

MESSRS. ELY BROTHERS, Owego, N. Y.—Gentlemen. I have used your Catarrh Remedy, Cream Balm, and experi-nced great relief. In fact it is the only remedy that gave anything like comfort from a distreasing and nameous complaint. In my family I have found it specially good in colds affecting the bead and nostrils, with my children and others. The relief has been almost instant. We consider it to be invaluable for family use.

Very truly, H. R. Wells, instant at the Chr. stian Church, near her home.

A pet of her schoolmates and the idea of the household, she has gone upward and onward to learn the lessons of the higher life, and to call, by her love and friendably, the loved ones to follow her.

LYON.—On the 10th inst., at her home in Frank lin, Mrs. M., wife of Dr. Bandolph Lyon, aged it years.

Long suffering, patiently borne, endeared her to those who waited on her. A faithful motherhood to her stalwart sons, and a devoted wifehood to a loving husband, made her going out of that family circle a loss never to be filled. A third of a century of constant companionship and true friendably to til her neighbors made her loss mourned by all who know her. She was a good woman, whose life ras full of the Holy Ghest.
