Teneral Orders—No 1: 1. The 30th day of May, this year, oc-curring on Sanday, Saturday, the 20th, will in accordance with the "Rules and will in accordance with the witness and Regulations" of the Grand Army of the Republic be observed as Memorial Day. Watkins Post, No. 68, will observe the day, by paying the customary honors due to our departed comrades, who fell in defense of our flag and country, or have since died, by strewing flowers upon, and resting place is to us unknown.

2. It should be distinctly understood that the flowers placed upon the graves of our comrades, and also those placed upon the mounds, are not to be removed by anybody, when the ceremonies are ended; but are to remain there to wither and fade. Let every member of the Grand Army consider it his duty to guard such hallowed grounds, or a single flower to be removed therefrom. 3. The customary ceremonies of the G. A.
