MAY. May, sweet May, again is come, May that frees the land from gloom; Children, children, up and see All her stores of jolity ! On the laughing hedgerow's side She hath spread her treasures wide Hill and dale are May's own treasures Youths rejoice in sporting measures !

Up, then, children, we will go Where the blooming roses grow; In a joyful company We the bursting flowers will see; Up, your festal dress prepare! Where gay hearts are meeting, there May hath pleasures most inviting, Heart and sight and car delighting; Listen to the bird's sweet song, Hark! how soft it floats along; Courtly dames! our pleasures share; Never saw I May so fair ; Therefore, dancing, we will go: Youths rejoice, the flow rets blow !

Sing ye. join the chorus gay! Hail this merry, merry May ! FROM COLORADO espondence of the REPORTER.
