We learn from the Elmira Advertiser that a severe storm occurred in the vicinity of Troy, on Monday last week. It rained and hailed very hard, hail stones of the size of a walnut were seen. The storm was very destructive. It was a large black of hail stones, picked up after it had rained on them all night, and was very much damaged. The storm seems to have extended from Welles to Granville.

BY AT HOME—Our merchants are as enterprising, as liberal, and as obliging as those of any other community. They are purchased from the same manufacturers and jobbing houses, and their goods are sold to customers in the same good faith. They are the weight of their trade, is devoted to the upbuilding of our town. As they grow and prosper, they will benefit the community in proportion as they depend upon others for assistance in conducting it. It is the duty of every citizen to aid them in their efforts. We should feel bound by every duty to give the best support we can to our own merchants and business men.

The School Board of this Borough, at its last session, adopted the following resolutions: In approving the resignation of Miss Stella Pritchard, as teacher of the primary school, and in appointing Miss M. J. Smith, as her successor, the Board has shown its wisdom and foresight. The services have always been regarded by the Board as of the highest quality, and we trust that her future efforts will be
