TERMS OF PUBLICATION.

The BRADFORD REFORTER S published svery Thursday morning by GOODRIGH & HITCHCOCE, One Dollar per annum, in advance. STAdvertising in all cases exclusive of sub-scription to the paper. BY ECIAL NOTICES inserted at TAN CENTS per line for first insertion, and FIVE CENTS perline for each subsequent insertion, out no notice imported for loss than fifty rents.

ing to mean insertion, but no pottee inserted for less than fify cents. YEARLY ADVERTISEMENTS will be insert-du at reasonable rates. Administrator's and Executor's Notices, $2; Additor's Notices, $2.50; Business Cards, fivelines, (per year) §5; additional lines §1 each. All resolutions of the second states of marriages or destine, exceeding five lines are instituted to functions of limited or if dividual interest, and notices of marriages or destine, exceeding five lines are charged after the destine, exceeding five lines are charged of the five files, but simple notices of mar-riages and desths, exceeding five lines are charged after the second states are constituent of the best advertising medium to Northern Pennsylvanis. JOB FileNTING of every kind, in plain and fancy colors, done with neatness and dispatch. Handbilts, Blanks, Cards, Pamphiets, Billheads, Etatements, &c., of every variety and siyle, printed at the abortest indices. The Reports and subortes indices of the pottes motice. The Reports of the pottes of the bortest indice. In Reports and siyle, printed at the abortest indices. The Reports and the pottes of the sectors are bortest indices of a sector of the sectors and dispatch. at the shortest notice. The EXPORTER once is well supplied with power processes, a good assort-ment of new type, and everything in the printing line can be executed in the most artistic manner and at the lowest rates. TERMS INVARIABLY CASH.

Business Cards. MADILL & KINNEY, ATTOBNEYS-AT-LAW. Office-Rooms formerly occupied by Y. M. C. I 3,18,80 O. D. RINNEY. H. J. MADILL. MRS. E. J. PERRIGO, TEACHER OF PIANO AND ORGAN. Lesson's given in Thorough Bass and Harmony. Cultivation of the volce a specialty. Located at A. Suell's Main St. Reference: Holmes & Passage. Towanda, Va., March 4; 1880. TOHN W. CODDING. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA. Oduce over Kirby's Drug Store. THOMAS E. MYER ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. TOWANDA, PA.

Price with Patrick and Foyle. Sep.25, 79 VECK & OVERTON ATTOBNEYS-AT LAW, TOWANDA, "A. S. BENJ. M. BECK D'A. OVERTON, DODNEY A. MERCUR, ATTORNEY AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA., Solicitor of Patents, "Particular attention pai o business in the Orphans Court and to the settle to business in the over-ment of estates. Office in Montanyes Block May 1, '79.

OVERTON & SANDERSON, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA.

E. OVERTON, JR. JOHN F. SANDERSON W. H. JESSUP,

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW, MONTROSE, PA.

H. L. TOWNER, M. D.,

L. HILLIS,

3 -

F. GOFF.

MONTROSE, PA. Judge Jessup having resumed the practice of the law in Northern, Pennsylvania, will attend to any logal business intrusted to him in Bradford county, Persons wishing to consult him, can fell on H. Streeter, Esq., Towanda, Pa., when an appointment can be made. And spill their treasures in on the sloor. Down through the toothed wheels they go To the wide, deep cider press below And the screws are turned by slow degrees

HENRY STREETER, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW, TUWANDA, PA. Feb 27, '79

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

TOWANDA, PA.

And each with turn a fuller stream Barsts from beneath the groaning beam

An amber stream the gods might Sip. And fear no morrow's parched lin; HOMEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. But wherefore gods ? Those Idle toys

The solution of the solution o What classic guidet ever felt such triffing touches though it melt, once upon a time.

As throb electric along a straw, When the boyish lips the cider draw? The years are heavy with weary sounds.

And their discords life's sweet music drowns ;

lived mostly at St. Moor's, a splendid [" Then wake up and show her in." marriage?' place near Spendrith, which is on the | She came in, with a silky rustle; wildest and rockiest part of that and I had certainly never seen her, live !" said she. "I have my lines. stopped me with a letter. I took it be." He put his hands to his mouth speakably mean and cowardly in pre- ers; a third tried to upset the tub to grand and magnificent coast, as all before. She Lottie, indeed ! I never | Will that do?" "Certainly they will do. You will the world knows. My description of can guess a woman's age, so I must him is short-he was, literally, the content myself with saying that my have to prove the second marriage, best and finest fellow in the whole visitor could not possibly have been toocound knölls where blue-beach whipstocks grou world. Were Lady Gervase writing more than thirty-six or less than this story, I have no doubt she would | twenty years old. She was of a modsay a great deal more of him; mine | erate height and graceful figure, and | must be a man's praise of a man. He was dressed much more fashionably deny that I was alive when his crime | reaches you. Everything's all right, a man or woman is drowning under what, for the sake of others, we must | pig that was not whitehed, and even had not a single fault that I could than we were used to round Spendever discover, and yet was as far | rith-in a brown silk, with bows be- | are scores and scores who will know. | from being a prig as the South is hind and down the sides, a tight-from the North Pole. He was near-fitting jacket, and g sort of nonde-rith? It is to make sure-to have good fellow, about nine, and we'll cliff to tell him all was over, I may may in our hearts and souls approve. beauty of their whitewashed babies. ly my match-which is saying some script cross between a hat and a him under my hand. I have not have a good big talk about the vot have been so absorbed in the At last I could do all things for Rething-in point of chest and biceps, bonnet, from under which escaped a found him out and tracked him down drains. I feel like a school-boy off and infinitely more than mine, or mass of fair brown hair-behind, in to let him go again. And I come to for the holidays. most men's, in brains; and his heart thick waves that flowed down to her you because you are here; because was larger still. I sometimes used waist, and in front, in a fringe falling you can watch for me. When I have to think it his single misfortune that down to her eye-brows. Her face my rights, you will have yours too, he was so rich and so happy and so was a pretty one, on the whole, clear- never fear." So she had set down my reluctance full of sense of all the duties that his complexioned, fair, and brightlybirthright had thrown upon him. colored ; but her mouth was, at the to undertake her case to a fear of Had the fortune left him the strug- same time, too small and too full, not being sufficiently well paid? If gling barrister that he was when I her nose too long, and her dark eyes I had not much liked her before. I first met him in London, he would a very great deal too large, as well liked her exceedingly little now. have made himself a great man, in- as being too closely, set together. And who at Spendrith could possibly stead of merely growing into some. Still, the general effect was decidedly have been guilty of bigamy, and of thing much greater. For he had by good, and had to be called pretty, deserting a wife abroad? I knew no means been born to a Baronetcy whatever else it might be called, and every living creature in the placeand the ownershsp of St. Moor's. He bowever much it differed from my there was not one whom I could unexpectedly inherited it from a own two standards of beauty-Lot-connect in the wildest fancy with cousin of about his own age, and ap- tie Vane and Lady Gervase. My Mrs. Lavalle. parently as strong and as healthy ds visitor looked grave and sad my na-"Who is the man you say is your himself, who had been struck down ture, as if she had a story, and that husband?" asked I. I suppose she thought that ther by death when hardly thirty years an interesting one. I showed her a old. It was a change to turn most seat, and she sat down. last words had refreshed my interest men's brains, and to send half of "You are Mr. Lambourn, and you in her. "The scoundrel who is my Lusthem to the devil. Sir Reginald took are a lawyer ?" she asked in a voice band ?" said she. " There !" his wealth and his position with less that made her prettiness suddenly A little theatrically she faid a docelation than he had taken his first change into something more. It was brief, went abroad for a while, and a clear, liquid voice, with some sort ument before me. It was a perfectly then came back to settle down for of special accent in it, and a kind of good and authentic copy of a register good at St. Moor's. The first thing singing quality about her first words. of marriage solemized at a London "My name is Lambourn, and I am | church between Ju'iet Ray, spinster, he did-which was in an hour or two was to become first favorite of the a solicitor. You call on business, I and-Reginald Gervase!

his children as if they were my own. granted that it could be nobody but not liked Miss, or Mrs., Lavalle.

names as you please. He had one of such a fancy; so I stretched myself, the largest estates in Foamshire, and rubbed my eyes, and said sharply,

Bradford

me as if she were my own sister, and For a moment I almost took for felt that, from the beginning, 1 had had not died. The thing looked too

TOWANDA, BRADFORD COUNTY, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 12, 1880.

My eyes seemed to darken and the more clear the meaning grew.

Some months before the date of the marriage my friend had been in Paris, he had returned to town. And then there was his long subsequent absence nd thought • and t

me. Excuse me now."

then ?"

"You will undertake the case

"I will try to do whatever is for you tell?"

Brooks-

It is hard to wake up all at once, I wished she had not come to me. I and only because a worthless woman whole country, and that among his suppose? Whom I have the honor poorer, even more than among his -" icher, neighbors. The next was to She opened a mother-of-pearl case send for me, then managing clerk to and handed me a card-" Adrienne sat there, triumphant in her coming with the advancing tide against the London firm, to be his friend and Lavalle." "I come to ask your adas much accuracy to my proper ment more told me the absurdity of must decline your case on any terms. coastguard path overhanging the sea, which was the shortest cut from spire. However, as you come for present Spendrift to the nearest market advice, I suppose you can prove your town, when I was met by a lad who the turn. Sir," said he. "There won't because I did not let her die! "I can prove it as surely as that I acted as rural postman, and who be so much swing on as there might ing, and opened it absently. swer returned. "When "Dear Lambourn"—I read with- slug with the oars?" out even taking heed of the hand-

R. G.<sup>m</sup>

It was like destiny. He and his wife-yes, I would still call her sowere hurrying back full sail into the storm. I knew what their coming back sooner than usual meant: was one of Gervase's crotchets that all his children should be of Foamshire, and of their home bred and born. Well, that made matters worse a thousand times. He wasecoming where that woman-I could not call her his wife-was waiting to lay hands upon him and to destroy him more terribly than even she could dream. I was not to see her again till the next day, and I did not know where she was to be found. I suppose I had acted stupidly; but it is hard to keep one's presence of mind where one's heart is concerned too deeply. How could I meet Gervase this very night with this terrible secret upon me? I could not. And yet what right had I to leave him in his fool's paradise for a single avoidable hour? I tried to ask myself what I should have done had I been simply his lawyer instead of his friend. And I could find no answer.

swim. What could it mean? As she the sea, as it rose higher and higer vengeance or in her greed, I thought | cliffs, did not change its tone. The letter-carrier could not yond compelling him to pay a certain part of the personal estate to the widow, which he was able enough to do. What a worse than a fool I had been !

When I have heard people talk lightly of their temptations to do this or that, I have said. "The greatest and strongest temptation I ever felt was to murder, in cold blood, a wo-man who had never done me a shadow of wrong." People think me jesting; but it is true.-London Society.

A MISSIONARY stationed at one of he South Sea Islands determined to give his residence's coat of whitewash. To obtain this in the absence. of lime, coral was reduced to powder by burning. The natives watched the process of burning with interest, of the rocks below, so that any pris- she had left me-the ruined lives, believing that the coral was being oner upon them must have been the broken hearts, all the world's cooked for them to eat. Next morndriven for respite from death under loss, all the shame, all the cruel pun- ing they beheld the missionary's cot-Whom should I ever have been my Lottie, who had managed to fly "I don't care about taking crimi- ed of such a word as-nothing! the bulging part of the cliff, where ishment of an innocent mother and tage glittering in the rising sun tempted to murder, and why? Put through the window all the way from nal matters," I said, rather coldly. Well, thank God that he was not at she would be altogether out of sight her children for the weakness of a white as snow. They danced, they the same question to yourself of your-self-and answer it if you can. My friend was Sir Reginald Ger-vase-of course you must allow just the sea into the sky in the shape of a would burst upon them, no longer her charms by a daub of the white from the hands of this woman, be- brush. Contentions arose. One par-

NUMBER 11

"The wind won't be here till after cause she lived, but from my hands, ty urged their superior rank; another obtained possession of the brush Would there not be something un- and valiantly held it against all comwith scarcely a word of good even- and shouted downward, but no an- ferring the perfect screnity of my obtain some of the precious cosmetic. swer returned. "Where's that young own selfish conscience to the lives of To quiet the hubbub, more whitethose to whom I owed more than wash was made and in a week not a I could only hope he had some even a worse sin for their sake could hut, a domestic utensil, a war-club, "He won't deny that," said she, writing-"One line in haste to say plan. I certainly could think of repay? Surely the ways of justice or a garment but was white as snow with a smile. "And he won't deny that we shall all be home to-morrow none. Perhaps, though as anxious are not the same as human law. For not an inhabitant but had a skin that I am I; and if he does, he can't evening, almost as soon as this as any human creature must be when the sake of others we must punish painted in grotesque figures; not a was committed ; and if he does, there but Jenny would rather be safe at his eyes, and when he can do nothing call crimes ; but we do not call mothers might be seen in every dihome just now, and so would I. but wait above and listen for the crimes necessarily sins, and what we rection capering joyously and yell-

$1.00 per Annum in Advance.

emergency as I should have been ginald Gervase. Was I too flinch, so two or three hours ago. What was that my weakness should let loose HERSELF.—In the floor of the tent or a moment's struggle with the sea upon him all from which I could hut, as it may chance to be a small compared with that worse than death save him, and that in such a way hole is excavated sufficiently large to against which I was trying to put that he would never even guess the out my hands no less in vain? I was peril in which he had been? I swear a fire of charcoal or of simply glownot, I feel sure, at that moment con- that I felt as if for this very purpose sciously thinking of the greater peril she had, as if by Providence, been in the immediate face of the less; delivered into my hands. If only scented throws a handful of drugs, but that it was the greater which had that wretched lad had never caught She then takes off the cloth or sight of her? But was I to let such | " tope " which forms her dress and well-nigh paralyzed me I know. At last the lad hurried back with a miserable chance as that destroy crouches naked over the fumes, while four long oars. The old sailor laid Reginald Gervase? What was I she arranges her robe to fall as a them all together, fagot-wise and bar- there for but to counteract chance, mantle from her neck to the ground wise, over a cleft in the edge of the and to do all things for him? Sup- like a tent. She now begins to perpath, so that the bundle of oars pose I did murder her, what but path, so that the bundle of oars pose I did murder her, what but spire freely in the hot-air bath, and, might serve for one strong beam, and good would have been done? I did the pores of the skin being thus that the rone might run through the not shrink from thinking of the thinking of the skin being thus that the rope might run through the not shrink from thinking of the thing opened and moist the volatile oil cleft for a groove before swinging by its name. I had completely cool- from the smoke of the burning perfrom the projecting rim of the cliff ed my blood by now.

out into the air. The beam of pars What she read in my face I know was kept from being pulled forward not. But something she must have scenting process is completed, and instead of downward by the form of read, for it was very far from the both her person and her robe are rethe path which rose up slightly to- birth of a hope of rescue that I saw dolent with incense, with which they ward the edge, and by the chance— in hers. She scemed looking through are so thoroughly impregnated that on which the whole plan depended— my eyes into my heart, as if she fear. I have frequently smelt a party of that the natural gutter ran between ed it more than the sea. Neither of women strongly at full, a hundred two ears of crag just high enough to us spoke a word; but, meanwhile, yards distance when the wind has serve as posts for the beam behind the sea itself rose and rose, and the been blowing from their direction. them. He fastened one end of our wind began to rise too.

longest line of rope, with practiced skill, round the middle of the oars; I was absolutely making plans. leave her there-it would not be my Children's Fancies and Sayings. It seemed strange that the thunder of he had already made the other end fault if she were found drowned. into a nopse, as soon as his ready The body could be recovered at low WHAT is the worst thing about richeyes had taken in at a glance the water, and buried, and nobody would es?" asked the Sunday School superin-tendent. And the new boy said : "Their chances of the ground. He paid out be the wiser. I must give up Lottie, scarcity." over the edge of the of course; it was one thing to com left me many minutes-long as they IRRITABLE Schoolmaster : "Now, tlfen, cliff; there was no time left for argu- mit a murder, but quite another to stupid, what's the next word? seemed-when he came running ing who should go down. make her the wife of a murderer, comes after cheese?" Dull boy : back breathlessly, shouting and point-Indeed, I felt as if forced by an even though of one who had right mouse, sir. I knew. Just before the same date ing behind him with his arm. implse from outside myself to take on his side I could take it into my "How do you define 'black as your "Mr. Lambourn!" he panted out, implse from outside mysen to take on his side ', could take in his my had should hat?" "said a schoolmaster to one of his there he some up down wonder on that matter into my owr hands. It head to leave England, and should hat?" "said a schoolmaster to one of his there he some up down wonder on the matter into my owr hands. It head to leave England, and should hat?" "said a schoolmaster to one of his pupils. "Darkness that may be felt," he had returned to town. And then "Ar. Lamoourn: he panded out that matter into my own nands. It head to reart integration, and then there be some un down yonder on abroad for nearly a whole year. But, the Carricks as lone as lone, and not still, was Reginald Gervase, who held half an hour o' tide!" if old tar, who was still as strong in last. "What are you going to do old tar, who was still as strong in last. "What are you going to do replied the youthful wit. KANSAS school teacher : "Where does duty to be even above honor—if such I was stirtled out of such thoughts of the arms and shoulders as tugging at thing can be—a man who, under as even mine. I knew every inch of the arms and shoulders as tugging at the oars can make a man, but had "I? with you?" I asked. "God umplantly should a scholar." any circumstances, would, when he that coast as well as if I had been a certainly not been in the habit, as I knows. What are you doing with A NEW pair of shoes for a little fivefound himself suddenly rich and in a smugglen of the old times, and no-high position before the world, rid body who knows the cliffs about bimself of any woman, whether his Spondrith needs talling what being his feet were in very close quarters, claim-ed, "Oh, my ! they are so tight I can't high position before the world, high soury who hadde telling what being clamoering among rocks instead of which de hard negative the high staring through a spy-glass at the friend. Are your rights or is your start to be the start of the st wife or not, and even if he had learn- alone on the Carricks means within wink my toes." offing; so that I was likely to feel a life the dearer to you ? But I can't Young lady visitor (reading the paraher to starve? No doubt she must Carricks are a point of rather low great deal more at home among the trust you." I turned faint and sick at heart. ble of the Prodigal Son).—"And he would fain have eaten of the busks that the her to starve? No doubt she must Carricks are a point of rather low gulls and cormorants than he. There have been false to him first. But rocks, projecting something like the was every reason for placing him at the work of a southe, or rather like the the fast head of the rope, and me at his sake, to be strong enough to let swine did edt.<sup>35</sup> Small boy (to teacher) -"Why did he not kill one of the pigs." gone; every illusion I had darkened pointed ram of an ancient galley, the noose. But had it been otherwise this weak woman die? Suddenly a (Young lady visitor much shaken). at such a shadow as this must be. from the base of the cliff, easily to be A GALVESTON school-boy persisted in at such a shadow as this must be. from the base of the cliff, easily to be Perhaps he had thought her dead. reached within about two hours of as representing the lord of the manor, brought her to her knees, and would browing his hat on the floor, until final But no, that could not be, unless he the highest tide; but after that, as representing the lord of the manor, ly the teacher chastised him severely. to do as I pleased above the line of have carried her into deep water at "Now," said the breathless teacher, had willed very hard indeed to think breaking the calmest sea into a rage, high water. Do something I must- once had I not instinctively thrown you know where your hat ought to have and entirely cut off from reach either and entirely cut off from reach either from above or below. At absolutely full tide the most choreward of these 'Yes, sir; mside my-mybeen?" clothes, sir." ONE of the lady teachers in a Reno, Nevada, public school, a few days ago was laboring with an urchin on the scihigh-water line. The cliff, itself a ing over the head of my friend. As Ing over the head of my friend. As "You can save me, and you bid I have said, there was no time left me sell my rights for my life!" she for a needless word; I took my way, said, with real scorn, and with a an orange which you wished to divide "You can save me, and you bid rocks for some distance, then bowed for a needless word; I took my way, out over them, and then finished its and, resolutely thinking of nothing courage that startled me. "Yes, you say truly; you are his friend. Like with your little sister, how much would pour give her?" Johnny-"A suck." REALLY a Fact this Time .- Rise of inmaster. like man." telloct in the Midland Counties .- Dioces-Should I have held her there till an Inspector: "And what happened an Inspector: "And what happened when they came to Paphos?" Child: "St. Paul struck Elymas the sorcerer blind." Inspector: "What did he strike shame of returning to the cliff alone, him blind for?" Child: "Because he would be a dead man in half an hour. save in the most general way, for the or should I have waited there until sauced him, sir."-Judy. for there was no point among the woman on the Carricks. I was in the tide had covered me also? I say LITTLE Ronny, aged three years, has network of currents which the stronganything but a philanthropic mood, anything but a philanthropic mood, or in one that would excite me to said to myself, and I say to you, what I attended Sunday School one or two said to myself. God knows. I trust months. He is an apt scholar, and gives est swimmer could hope to gain. "Who is it?" I asked. " Could risk a sprained wrist for any soul on carth but Reginald Gervase. It was all sheer impulse: noither found and the goodness of the second secon "I couldn't see for sure; but it all sheer impulse: neither foolhardiall sheer impulse; neither foolhardi-irood, or the badness of the bad, or got the better of him so as to cause him the other. I claim no credit for the strength of the strong, since that light with his more formidable weapon looked to seem like Lucy Green that keeps company with Master climb; rather blame. It could in day. taliate with his more formidable weapon "A woman-good God !" In this when Robbie cried out : "No, no, no nowise be of the smallest help to peril, at least, something might pos-Teacher says oo mu't n't strike when oo is bit." Gervase; on the contrary, I was "Ahoy, there! Hold on !" I heard sibly be done. As fast as I could risking the only life that could in a shout, and the grind of wood on risking the only life that could in a shout, and the grind of wood on any way hope to aid him. Only I the rock, and the unshipping of oars. had no hope for him left in me, in I think we were both in the boat be-discussing at the breakfast table how cover the ground I was at the coastguard station, only to find a single old-sailor on what was by courtesy the face of the proofs and of the fore we knew where we were. She niany conference delegates they would try to entertain. Two, four and six were woman in whose hands they were. It was saved without my help, and Iwith any quantity of rope at hand : the numbers before the house, and the general sentiment seemed to be in favor all came from just what I have said, I scarce know from what, if from but what could two men do? the overwhelming hunger for action anything, I had lieen saved. of the smallest number. Little ten-year-old, however, stoutly advocated the max-Nothing, certainly, without trying. of any sort or form. Sir Reginald limself was at the We could carry to the edge of the imum number. "We have three spare beds and might as well take six. Take name, by the way, is Alfred Lam-bourn, and I consider my name as of missed them, I approved of their ab-who made love to me. I took him whole of his little fortune and kept who made love to me. I took him whole of his little fortune and kept give six, mamma. Please do?" "Well." resome consequence to my argument, sence, for I could not get rid of my for a man of honor. He swore, Mr. him under water. It was she who ricks twice over. But that was little. loose end of the rope, in hope that up everything to despair. I waited sponded the matron, "if you will wipe the dishes each time, we will." Ten-How could a woman, even if she had the sailor, with whatever help the for the storm to burst even there and ear-old immediately began to sink downit, and keep herself from being dash- be able to draw her up, and then let It was simply to my amaze that no in her chair until her head almost disap W over M. F. Rosended's Towarda, Pa. Teeth by and the sight of heaven he did make me his mulum have. Teeth extracted without parts. Teeth extracted without peared under the table. "How many shall we take?" asks mamma: was the whispered answer.

----HOW AN ARAB LADY PERFUMES hut, as it may chance to be, a small contain a common champagne bottle; ing embers is made within the hole, into which the woman about to be She then takes off the cloth or fumes is immediately absorbed. By the time that the fire has expired the

-Sir William Baker.

REGARDLESS OF DENUNCIATION FROM ANY QUARTER.

hideous to be possible; and I dream-

Reporter.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW But yet I hear, oh ! sweet, oh ! sweet WYALUSING, PA. The rill that bathed my bare, brown feet Agency for the sale and purchase of all kinds, Securities and for making bons on Real Estate All business will receive careful and promp attention. June 4, 1879. And yet the cider drips and falls On my inward ear at intervals ; And I lead at times in a sad, sweet dream, W. H. THOMPSON, ATTORNEY to all business entrusted to his care in Bradford, Sullivan and Wyoming Countles. Office with Esq. In the sunny door of the cider mill. o the babbling of that little stream ; And I sit in a visioned autumn still, (nov19-74. HIRAM E. BULL, How I Became a Murderer. STRVEYOR.

(nov11-75.

INGINEERING, SURVEYING AND DRAFTING. Once with G. F. Mason, over Patch & Tracy. Main street, Towanda, Pa. 4, 15, 80.

E. H. ANGLE, D. D. S. OPERATIVE AND MECHANICAL DENTIST.

Office on State Street, second floor of Dr. Pratt's

ELSBREE & SON, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA L. ELSBREE N. C. ELSBREE. MCPHERSON. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA. [feb.1'78. Diet Att y Brad, Co. TOHN WAMIX, ATTORNEY AT-LAW AND U.S. COMMISSIONER TOWANDA, PA. Office-North Side Public Square, Jan. 1, 1875. SAM W. BUCK, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. لې. سرخېره TOWANDA, PENNA outh side Poplar street, opposite Ward Huist DAVIES & CARNOCHAN, ATTOENEYS AT-LAW,

SOUTH SIDE OF WALD HOUSE. TOWANDA. PA. ANDREW WILT, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. Onlice-Means' Block, Mainest, over J. L. Kent's gore, Towanda. May be consulted in German, (April 12, 76.)

W. J. YOUNG, ATTORNEY-AT-LASY. TOWANDA, P

Gales-second, door south of the First National' WM. MAXWELL, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA. Office over Dayton's Store. Apríl 12 1576.

DR. S. M. WOODBURN, Physi-craviand Surgeon. Office at residence. on

T. D. PAYNE, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND SUBGEONI over Montanyes Store, Office hours to 12 A. M., and from 2 to 4 P. M. Special attention given to DISEASES DISEASES and THE EAR THE EYE

G. W. RYAN,

Les day last Saturday of each month, over Turne & Gordon's Drug Store, Towanda, Pa. Tewarda, June 29, 1878. (1 S. RUSSELL'S always been, particularly strong and from the sea much on such an after-healthy, and tond of using my limbs noon. Again I let assent This Bank offers onusnal facilities for the trans a tipa of a general banking business. N. N. BETTS, Cashler said she. The The next was to marry. as wisely as man ever did in this world. French; and yet, though she did not He had fallen over head and ears in speak quite like an Englishwoman, love with the best girl in all England. her accent was by no means distinctand she with him, Before long they | ly that of a foreigner. Who could had a family of two boys and two she be, that she came for legal advice girls, and were fortunate in them all. to Spendrith? It is true that if any-The eldest was called Reginald, of body does happen to be suddenly course, being a first-born Gervase, in want of legal advice at Spendrith, The next was called Marion, after her he is bound to come to me.

GENERAL INSÜRANCE AGENCY TOWANDA, PA.

TIRST NATIONAL BANK, TOWANDA, PAL

)h 💌

should say, for his wife is as dear to

GOODRICH & HITCHCOCK, Publishers

VOLUME XLI.

Upder the blue New England skies,

The mountains clasp it, warm and sweet. Like a sunny child to their rocky feet.

Three pearly likes a hundred streams Lie on its quiet heart of dreams.

Its meaduws are greenest ever seen :

And the whitest lilles gem its lakes.

Its every rock and grove and dell ;

Above the clear springs gurgle out

Then join, and under willows flow

To rest in a shaded pool that keeps,

Sheeer twenty feet in the water falls

Spatters the knobby bowlders gray,

The oak trees clasped in its crystal deeps

Down from the old dam's broken walls.

And, laughing, dies in the shade away.

With many a tumble down to the mill.

All the way down the nut trees grow,

And squirrels hide above and below

Acorns, beechnuts, chestnuts there

In the mellow light of harvest eves,

Drink a wine of peace that has no lees.

By the roadside stands the cider mill,

Where a lowland slumber waits the rill ;

On the western hill-face warm and dry ;

And heaps of pumice, mixed with straw,

To their amber sweets the late flies draw

The carts back up to the upper door,

Down on the straw-laid cider cheese :

And odorous piles of apples there

Fill with incense the golden air;

A great brown building, two stories high,

Forever there the still, old trees

Drop all the fall through the hazy air;

And burrs roll down with curled up leaves,

Under great rocks, through trout pools still.

And the upper meadows wind, about ;

Its harvest flyids have the brightest sheen ;

I love, oh ! better than the words can tell,

But most I love the gorge where the rill

Comes down by the old brown cider mill.

Through its trees the softest sunlight shakes,

Flooded with sunshine a valley lies mother. Then came my own god- 1 bowed and waited, and she went son. Alfred, and then Nora. Their on.

THE CIDER MILL.

names have nothing to do with the "I am told that you are able and matter, but it is pleasant for myself honest," she said, "and, therefore, I "Thou shalt do no murder." I to write them. It is hardly more to come to you. You asked my name, suppose that the response which sane the purpose than to say that I, too, and I gave you my card. It is one men and women make in church to was on the eve of marriage, after a of my names, the name by which 1 ed to hate and scorn ber-by leaving even an hour of high tide. The the sixth commandment is about the long and weary waiting, but this, too, am known. I have one more. My emptiest and most formal prayer of I like to tell, because this also was birth-name is Ray-Juliet Ray. Did which they are ever guilty. Ask due to the position in which Sir you ever hear the name before?" yourself, reader, if you have the Reginald had placed me. What did "Never in my life," said I. faintest ghost of a fancy in you that, I not owe to him? Past, present, "Then, before I tell you more, may under any concelvable, or imagina- future; everything that I like to re. I ask you if you are prepared to unble, combination of impossible cir- member, all my happiness now and dertake, as a lawyer and a gentleman, cumstances you could ever pray with to come. The one trouble he ever the cause of a woman against the meaning to be delivered from the gave me was the feeling that I could most cruel wrong that ever was done her so. meaning to be delivered from the gave me was the feeling that I could most cruci wrong that the wrong that is paper," Isaid I. from above or below. At above or below of the above or below. At above or below. At above or be a fellow-man or fellow-woman. You much for me. Anybody could have you honor and glory throughout the looked after his affairs as well as I. land?" newspapers, and you know that mur- I was never likely to be so much to "Never mind the honor and glory," ders are not uncommon things. But, him as the mouse was to the lion. said I. "The question is, whether I nevertheless, you think of them as belonging to an outside world, with which you—otherwise than as a just except that he made me feel its inter-which is whether it is inter-whether is interwhich you—otherwise than as a just possible victim—cannot possibly have any sort of concern. You would as soon think of praying to be delivered from the sin of murder. They are, alike, upon life as a trust not merely to be the sin of murder. They are, alike, upon life as a trust not merely to be hear why 1 more to the provide the sin of murder. They are, alike, which is marked as a from the sin of murder. They are, alike, which is marked as a trust not merely to be hear why 1 more to the provide the sin of murder. They are, alike, which is marked as from the sin of murder. They are, alike, which is marked as a trust not merely to be hear why 1 more to the provide the pr richer than we find ourselves at start- rich blue of the sky without, the soft me, never to return."

I locked the copy of the register impossibilities to yon. Of course, I fulfilled but enjoyed, and his wife lawyer. I did not suppose you would assume you to be of the type of the agreed with him. I hardly know know the name of Juliet Ray. But in a safe, where I kept my own priaverage reader-sane, but for a few which we learned to like best-our I had my reason for asking, all the vate personal papers, shut up my harmless' and probably, wholesome tasks or our pleasures. That he same. I was born in London. I had office, and went out to walk myself crotchets, educated in the ideas and liked the tasks best, I am sure. And a mother Mr. Lambourn, but no cool. I had met with a skeleton from feelings of your time and country, I am sure, too, that if Sir Reginald other relative in the world. My St. Mooris, indeed ! I could see the and in sympathy with them, respec- Gervase, even in this ninetcenth cen- mother was on the stage. I cannot whole miserable history as if it had table and prudent in all weightier tury, had taken it into his head to tell you all, for I do not know; but been written out for me. The young matters, and as comfortable, within declare war sgainst the Queen, there we were in Paris when my mother barrister had made a fool of himself, and without, as the majority of your is not a man within ten miles of died, and when I was seventeen years as many otherwise wise men have neighbors. If I were to tell you Spendrith who would not have turned old-without any means to live, but doned. He had been entrapped by with the need to live you understand. this woman in Paris. Perhaps the that you are a potential murder- rebel. er, you would not even be angry For two months every Summer St. Perhaps you find it hard to believe, pitifulness of her unprotected condiwith me-you would simply smile at Moor's was left empty while the mas- but I was as innocent then as a young | tion had imposed upon him quite as much as her bright cheeks and her such an absolutely preposterous no- ter and mistress were in town, for girl can be." tion. And so, in the face of such and they were by no means people who I let silence imply assent; but I great black eyes. She had stuck to accusation, should I have smiled poked upon rusting and falling out was certainly beginning to wake up, him and drawn him into marriage; of the great world's stream as one of anil to call my professional wits to- no doubt his sense of honor had help-

Judge for yourself if I should not the duties of those who have to do gettier. have had the right to smile. My their best with the course of a com-the duties of those who have to do gettier. "It was in Paris that I met a must have opposed her. It was she, no doubt, who had swallowed up the because I happen to be one of a fam- ambition for my friend; it would be Lambourn, a million times to make had been the cause of those long vaily which can carry back its history something if, as member of Foam- me his wife, in the sight of heaven cations in Paris, which he used to the courage, fasten herself safely to letter-carrier could give him, would then. W B. KELLY, DENTIST.—Office if or an exceptionable number of gen-shire, he could have the chance of and in the sight of man. In the make even during his term time. doubt, he had discovered unfaithful. the rope above him? a certain hereditary tendency to let engaged alone in my office with some is a scoundrel !"

ourselves be imposed on and our mo- drainage plans, half at work upon "But if he married you at any ness in her and had left her, half ney slip unaccountably through our them, and half thinking about what time, he did his best to right you, it ashamed, half relieved, as such a man fingers in the most contented man- I could do, in the face of an ap- seems to me. Well?"

woman on the rocks; the second indifference to becoming higher or am afraid I must confess that the ty places-and then one day he left the belief was too much due to the wish-who knows? It was not for time, while I was on my way to the of slippery rock which the sea had "I am Lady Gervase!" she said tinguishing marks among ourselves. I am a solicitor; and I cannot at through the window, the caw of the From him? No; never one had done, however weak he might this moment call to mind a case of a rooks on their way home, and the word. Of him? No; tot for many have shown himself in one thing. knew the man as he was, whatever he had done, however weak he might man's being murdered, at least in the regular heave and rush of the sea years! He left me to live as best I flesh, by a solicitor. I live quietly, against the wall of rocks close, by, could, without the means, but with nesh, by a sonettor. I nive quicty, against the wan of needs close, by, could, without the needs, out with and in harmony with all my tastes united to set me dreaming of any- all the need, once more. Perhaps alized the nature of the blow that shore. I looked at my watch, and out of the reach of all aid but mine? to thank for-" and inclinations, in a little place thing but of drains. I was myself you will not find it bard to believe was about to fall? On the one hand, close to the sea, and am, as I have in love, remember, and Venus came that I was no more as innocent a father, who had plainly been able to selves and to row round. Again I let assent be implied in without entirely neglecting my brain. I had a clerk in the outer office, silence; so much I did not find, it free himself of the old shadow, trusted, honored, loved by all the world, tied in a single look from one to the Think of the first sentence of this

I have a few cupboards in my house, who was also in love, and whom I hard to believe. goodness and usefulness, and whose sailor's wits working.

not perfectly respectable and per- moter corners. One warm afternoon, in London, he married me in church, no doubt, proved a disgraceful mar. And how could one man reach her, not la whom he—he, not I—had saved to a second rope to fasten to the noose destroy him. I waited in vain. "Thank God I saw you from the Happily, the sea was tolerably that she might not swing against the yacht in time!" said he. "It was calm; otherwise, considering the face of the cliff on her upward jour- like you old fellow, to try to break shortness of the time at our disposal, ney. As to my own return, I might your neck for nothing, but I don't home circle. tingers in the most contented man-ner. I should say that our family characteristics were steadliness, pru-dence, and plain common sense, com-bind with a somewhat inconsistent bind with a somewhat inconsisten At last I stood upon the last slab duce myself."

ing. But of course we have our dis wind that scarcely took the trouble "He descried you? You did not me to judge Reginald Gervase. I coastguard station, he had seen her not wholly covered. There was just with a scornful look at me. "I thank trying to clamber farther out sea- room enough upon it for two. And you, Sir, for saving my life-" ward, as if she had become fully I stoud face to face with Adrienne "Lady Gervase !" aware of her danger, and was trying Lavalle-nay, I must call her so-"You seem suprised? I am the And what was I to do? Nothing? to place herself where she might have Nothing? When I, and I only re-a chance of being seen from the Why had she been brought here, Moor's. May I know whom I have was about to fall? On the one hand, the sailor looked out to sea. There Why had the tidings of her peril "I really must ask you to pardon there was the true Reginald Gervase, was no boat to be signalled, and not been brought to me? What was the me," said he, courteously bewilder-"I really must ask you to pardon my more than friend, brother, and nearly time to obtain one for our- true nature of that impulse which ed. "But Lady Gervase happens to had brought me-men of all men- be on board that yacht yonder. I

What could it all mean? but have never had the ghost of a strangely suspect of having been "But I hear of him at last, and he whose whole life was a growth in other. But the same look set the history! We were absolutely, utter- If you reader, cannot guess, you ly alone together, unscen even from must be as blind as I have been.

skeleton in one of them. I have no sleeping, too. Our office was cer- is masried again !" Aril 1, 187.9 Aril 1 Jos. POWELL, President. MRS. H. PEET, well off as I want to be. In spite of my profession, I am, and always have been, absolutely without au enempy, which may be partly accounted for by the fact that I have exceedingly few neighbors and scarcely any cli-ship to the best and learest friend I ship team learest ship to the best and learest friend I ship team learest ship to TEACHER OF PIANO MUSIC, TERMS,—‡10 per term. (Residence Third street, 1st ward.) Towagia, Jan. 13, 79-19. (TET YOUR JOB PRINTING Done at the REPORTER OFFICE, opposite the ship to the best and dearest friend I . "A tour House, Towanda. Colored work a specialty ever had in the world-friends, I you!" tainly been ill-used; but, all the same, | ren's lives blasted for all their days; | cades over nearly the whole length mind had been dwelling ever since | could not possibly affect his heir be- | tice, woman an angel of mercy.

Thoughtful Thoughts.

MUCH charity withch begins at home is too feeble to get out doors, and much that begins out doors never gets into the lust, but gazes on the skies,

As every thread of gold is valuable, so is every minute of time; and as it would be great folly to shoe horses (as the Roman Emperor Nero did) with gold, so it is to spend time in trifles.

MOUNTAINS never shake hands. Their wife of Sir Reginald Gervsse, of St. Moor's. May I know whom I have to the bark for " ed peaks. So it is with great men.

PRAISE GOD for all your gifts, and use them wisely and constantly. Then pray that you may do your work in life as in the sight of God. Seek to please and honor Him, put away all selfish motives.

Whether men shille or frown, go straight ahead, and you will have an approving conscience and at last a great reward.

.

- 6.

and to act as guide from below, so