TERMS OF PUBLICATION. The BRADFORD REFORTER & published every Thursday morning by GOODEICH & HITCHCOCCE, One Dollar per snnum, in sdvance. 語れ Reporter. Bradford The activition to the paper. S'ECIAL NOTICES inserted at TEN CENTS per line. for first insertion, and FITS CENTS per line for line for first insertion, but no notice inserted each subsequent insertion, but no notice inserted line for first insertion, and FIVE CENTE (index) each subsequent insertion, for nonlice inserted for less than fitty conts. YEARLY ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted to at reasonable rates. "A diministrator's and Executor's Notices, f2; "A diministrator's and executor's Notices, "A direction and the states and the states" "Yearly advertisers are entitled to quarterly Yearly advertisers are entitled to quarterly and resolutions of associations; communications of finited or 'individual interest, and notices of marriages or deaths exceeding dwellnessive charge-marriages or deaths will be published without charge. "The REFORTER having a larger circulation than any other paper in the county, makes it it be best advertising medium in Northern Pennsylvania. JOB PRINTING of every kind; in plain and fancy colors, done with nestness and dispatch. Handbills, Blanks, Cards, Pamphlets, Bilheads, Statements/Ac, of every variety and style, printed at the johrdes notice. The REFORTER office is well supplied with power presses, a good assort-ment of new type, and everything in the printing ine can be discuted in the most artistic manner and at the lowestrates. TERMS INVARIABLY CABI. REGARDLESS OF DENUNCIATION FROM ANY QUARTER. SI.00 per Annum in Advance COODRICH & HITCHCOCK, Publishers. TOWANDA, BRADFORD COUNTY, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 9, 1880. NUMBER 15 VOLUME XLI. BOTH. lunch and at dinner. This is about SUPPORTING THE GUNS. FOLDED AWAY. came again, smiling, to the anxious THE HOLY BIBLE. The effect is striking and a marked the day's routine at the house durimprovement. The sequence of the She was the laziest little woman How a Field Battery Comes into Action. Day by day we fold away group. The New English Translation of the ing the busy Congressional days. gospel narratives, the logic of St. Some treasure that our hearts hold dear, "Cheer up, Clarice," she said That ever set a mortal crazy ; New Testament-The Two Versions During the summer the President 'Twas marvellous how my erring spirit Did you ever seel a battery take bravely; "what is your little boy's Paul, take on a new appearance and iome cherished thing to which we cling Compared-Changes Maile, Etc. Business Cards. Could be subdued by one so lazy. drives in from the Soldier's Home And bless with many kiss and tear. force that is not all owing to the im- position? name ? To monosyllables addicted, A correspondent of the Chicago provement in grammatical construct It hasn't the thrill of a cavalry about ten in the morning, and leaves shred of lace may hold a place "Stephen. It was the name of To use all else exceeding loath : MADILL & KINNEY, Times, writing from London, says early in the afternoon. He has but tion of the text, although in a first charge, nor the grimness of a line That lewels rare could never win : my brother who died. My first boy Asked which of two things she preferr With love untold a right gid. Is laid our dearest shrine within. The Queen's printer, who alone by few callers. A great many people reading it is difficult to distinguish of bayonets moving slowly and was called after my father." She only murmured, "Both !" ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW. ancient statute law is permitted to go out to the Home to see him on Office-Rooms formerly occupied by Y.M. C. A "Stephen," said Mrs. Hepworth, how much is owing to one and how determinedly on, but there is a pecu-It is no paradox to say so ; publish Bibles within the realm, has business, later in the day. little tress we fondly press Reading Room. much to the other. liar excitement about it that makes opening her arms, "come here, dar-Her every movement was repose ; 3.18.80 O. D. KINNEY Take this illustration (Heb. iv., 6put his signature upon the last sheet H. J. MADILL. Unto a heart that aches with pain : On Tuesdays and Fridays there MRS. E. J. PERRIGO, old veterans rise in their saddles and As on a summer day the ocean ing, and kiss your grandmother." ben, with a sigh for days gone by, proof of the new revision of the New Similers while it ebbs and flows. are Cabinet meetings. The members ), which is a fair example of this The child sprang at once to the cheer, We fold it from our sight sgain. Testament, and within a week the Yet was there latent fire ; her nature We have been fighting at the edge of the Cabinet drop in one by one, lovely grandmother, kissing her point: TEACHER OF PLANG AND ORGAN. That of the panther, not the sloth. first shipment of the bound volumes And is there not a hallowed spot. OLD STYLE. NEW_STYLE. 6. Seeing therefore it Since-therefore, it i remaineth that some maineth that seme ent one must enter there therein, and they wi in, and they to when formerly received it it was first, preached gial promise entered a entered not in because in because of disobed of unbellet. 7. Again, he limiteth certain day, to-day, say a certain day, saying the promone time are OLD STYLE. Lessons given in Thorough Bass and Harmony. Cultivation of the volce a specialty. Located at A. Snell's Main St. Reference : Hoimes & Passage. Towanda, Pa., March 4, 1880. NEW_STYLE. of the woods. Every cartridge box but they are all on hand by twelve again and again. I asked her once which she resembled : In momory's casket lying low, will be made to America, Canada, o'clock. Each member brings his Putting him into his mother? has been emptied once and more, She only murmured, "Both !" Where day by day we fold away Australia, and wherever the English and a fourth of the brigade has meltportfolio. The President sits at the arms, the young wife lifted her own Our heart-thoughts lest the world should "Her person-well, 'twas simply perfect tongue is spoken by Protestants. ed away in dead and wounded and head of the table, and Secretary baby from its own cradle and left the Matching the graces of her mind : Many a one, now lost and gone, For many reasons that will readily TOHN W. CODDING, Schurz at the foot; on the right, missing. "Not a cheer is heard in the To perfect face and form she added In sweet day dreamings we behold, room. occur and need not be enumerated. next to the President, is the Secre-In the darkly-furnished library, A ho, in our sleep, come back to keep ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA.

Office over Kirby's Drug Store. And yet, alas ! such dreams must pass ; THOMAS E. MYER Life's sterner duties must be met. Quickly we turn and strive to learn ATTOBNET-AT-LAW, That cruck lesson-to forget ! TOWAND'S. PA. When from the gleam of love's sweet dreat Our hearts awake in sad surprise, "face with Patrick and Foyle. Sep.25, '79 low dimly hurn, wher'er we turn, ECK & OVERTON The lesser lights that meet our eyes ! When o'er the dead our tears are shed. ATTOBNEYS-AT 1.4W. While on the silent lip we press TOWANDA, "A. The last fond kiss-oh, is not this

With us their vigils as of old.

The summit of life's loneliness

And yet we know, though all lie low

Still we must leave and learn to give,

Like flowers blighted in a day,

To earth the claims it calls its own.

grief untold ! with hearts grown old

We fold our dear dead loves away.

THE WIFE'S APPEAL.

The wise people-those who man-councils when the village paper no-

Whom we have ever loved or known,

BENJ. M. BECK D'A. OVERTON. DODNEY A. MERCUR, ATTORNEY AT-LAW,

TOWANDA, PA., Solicitor of Patents. Particular attention pai orie in Montanyes Block May 1, '79

How fondly then from sight of men OVERTON & SANDERSON, ATTORNET-AT-LAW.

TOWANDA, PA. E. OVERTON. JR. JOHN F. SANDERSON

W. H. JESSUP,

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW, MONTROSE, PA.

age their neighbors' affairs in theory words, "that this is my birthday, JULY INDEE, FA. Judge Jössup having resumed the practice of the law in Northern Pennsylvania, will attend to any legal onsiness intrusted to him in Bradford county. Persons wishing to consult him, can eall on H. Streeter, Esq., Towanda, Pa., when an appointment can be made. much better than they do their own and you have given me no gift?". in practice-shook their heads in solemn conclave when Mr. Hepworth

TENRY STREETER. ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW,

TOWANDA, PA. Feb 27, 179 H. L. TOWNER, M. D.,

HOMEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. 13. Residence and Office just North of Dr. Cor-hin's, on Main Street, Athens, Pa. jun26-6m,

E. L. HILLIS,

F. GOFF.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, [nov11-75. TOWANDA, PA.

added shade of venom was in their by noon.

that she has not already." "Does not your office include the

"But I would like to choose my his arm-chair.

tlemen ?"

polies like that!"

-Fidelia.

ticed, in a flowery paragraph, the own gift," she persisted. birth of a son and heir at the great "What can I give n

- A young, fair woman, herself in like it to be known that I had shown of learning and special fitness for the among you, let him cast a stone at the very spring-time of life, yet hav- clemency to a criminal upon your ing already taken the holy ties of solicitation. You would be conwife and mother into her pure heart, stantly annoyed by the loving rela- speaking races and all denominations; wrote on the ground.

married the second time; but an bauble that was to come without fail the new revision is an epoch in Pro-Mr. Hepworth was leaning back in testantism and a red letter day in all A light step roused him from his Christian churches the world over. Its advent, looked forward to for not your hearts. reverie and his wife stood before over a decade, and the hope of thou-The fourth gospel suffers most at sands of Christian minds, will be a Over her morning dress of delicate the hands of the revisers, the synop subject of absorbing interest. rose color, that suited well her fresh tics less even than the Revelation The revision is catholic in its nayoung beauty, fell the long white and the catholic Epistles least of all. ture; cathedral in its form. It is the robes of the infant that she carried joint work of the new and old worlds; The longest excision is from the fifty with all the pride of motherhood. of all branches of the Protestant third verse of the seventh chapter to Her husband opened his arms to Church; of learning and piety joined the eleventh verse of the next, inclucaress both, and laughed as he said: hand in hand; priests and laymen, sive: The passage is that of the wo "Oh, these mothers? 'Do you sup man taken in adultery, as follows : prelate and scholar, working together. pose, madame, that babies are admit-Its origin was in that "cradle of ted into the sanctums of legal genown house. Anglo-Saxon Christendom, the Convocation of Canterbury, presided "I do," said the mother, "if the over by the primate of England." legal gentlemen have the additional The necessity for a revision of the honor of being their papas." present text has become imperative "Listen to this most conceited of -how imperative clergymen and mothers, comparing legal honors scholars alone know-and for many with the ownership of little pink roly years previously there had been care- the people came unto him; and he ful inquiry and discussion among the | sat down and taught them. "Did you know, Harold," said bisliops, clergy and theological pro-Meta, her lip quivering slightly, as fessors, as well as laymen, in regard she felt the deep import of her to the best means by which it ought adultery; and when they had set her in the midst. to be brought about. The plan that 4 They say unto him, Master, this has been slowly maturing under the "You are impatient, little wife." he answered, thinking of the costly woman was taken in adultery, in the advice of the most eminent minds in very act. this country and America was pre-5. Now Moses in the law com sented to the convocation May 6. 1870, by the committee having it in manded us, that such should be charge. The plan was so well digeststoned ; but what s yest thou? 6. This they said, tempting him ed, so broad in its catholicity, yet so "What can I give my rosebud that they might have to accuse him. conservative in its aims, that it met with prompt approval, and the work | But Jesus stooped down, and with no chance now. It was bad enough power of pardon?" she asked, her now completing was begun without his finger wrote on the ground, as when Hepworth married a chit of a sweet face paling with her earnest. delay. The scheme could hever have though he heard them not. 7. So when they continued asking had any hopes of success had it been

- 8. And again he stooped down and world; that would unite all English-

Olives.

A keen perception, taste refined. But when I challenged her to tell me, What I knew myself in troth, Whether wit or beauty charmed me, She only murmured, "Both "

Provoked at last and never hitting This lazy little woman's point, I scanned her armor, and discovered Happily therein one open joint. In careless tone I asked her, knowing Her word was binding as an oath : "" "Shall love, or friendship, be between us? the smiled, and murmured : " Both !" -San Francisco News-Letter

'A Day at the White House."

Cabinet are all men with a sunny, There is probably no man in the fun-loving side, when out of official ountry who does more work than harness. Judge Key is perhaps the the President. Quite certainly no jolliest, though the Attorney-General man in the country does more irripushes him hard for that distinction. tating and aggravating work than Secretary Thompson is a proverbial the President. It is pleasant enough lover of a pleasant joke, while Secreto receive a social call or shake hands | tary Schurz is hardly equalled in becomes a duty, and receiving all telling one. Secretary McCrary is a these she darted and whispered somesorts of callers a necessity, the pleas- good story-teller. Secretary Sherure of the thing dwindles most mag- man does not indulge in humor often, nificently. President Hayes begins | but when he does, it is, on account of who reached it first would be knightwork shortly after nine o'clock in the its unexpected character, the more paper with nervous fingers, and there morning. He then appears in the enjoyable. Secretary Evarts is one

A moment ago the battery was confused mob. We look again and "President's room," situated in the of those of the quietly humorous sort. ight wing of the White House. His fund of dry humor and wit is six guns are in position, the detach This is a large apartment, plainly inexhaustable, and though not up- between woman and child could not ed horses hurrying away, the annubut handsomely furnished. It is on roarious, is keenely enjoyable. The nition chests open; and along our the second floor, and opens into the President has probably the heartiest laid the half dollar on the counter line runs the command, "Give them liall, and looks from its windows at Cabinet that any President ever as- the woman shook her head and pushone more volly and fall back to supthe rear upon the well-kept grounds sembled around him. The old bores port the guns !" We have scarcely and the Potomac beyond, also upon who keep at them day by day are as if her resolution might not hold obeyed when boom ! boom ! boom ! the alleged Washington Monument. unmercifully dealt with by the heads opens the battery, and jets of fire The White House, especially this of the departments when they assem- out. The child to go, bugging her dolly, and ump down and scorch the green room, is excellently ventilated. Even ble. The Attorney-General seems to trees under which we fought and in the most sultry summer days take peculiar delight in joking Secdespaired. there is always a pleasant breeze retary Thompson. At a recent Cab-The shattered told brigade has a The shattered told brigate has a blowing through. The President sits inct meeting the naval Secretary inches and a big iump in his throat-chance to breathe for the first time blowing through. The President sits inct meeting the naval Secretary 'I've got a little girl like you at in three hours, as we form a line of in a cane-seated chair at a polished took a list of the midshipmen who home," said he "Come along and

table about fifteen teet long and five had passed their examinations. The show me where you live." battle behind the guns and lie down. broad. His face is to the door. To Secretary called attention to them, What grini, cool fellows those can his left, near the wall, sits Mr. Webb and said he would like that their poors and Every man is a perfect Haves. Back of the President is Mr. måchine. Bullets splash dust into Gustin, his stenographer. Around be sent to the Senate as soon as the room are chairs and one or two Bullets sing over and around them, but they do not dodge. There goes sofas. There is but one picture on men, who have thoroughly carned one to the earth, shot through the the walls-a life-sized portrait of their spurs." "Mr. Thompson," inhead as he sponged his gun. The George Washington, painted by a terrupted Mr. Devens, "how long South American' artist, and present- | since have they been wearing spurs machinery looses just one beatmisses just one cog in the wheel- ed by the President of the United in the navy ?" At a later meeting States of Colombia. the Attorney-General announced that and then works away again just as

A Texan's Errand of Mercy. Yesterday, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat of July 10, a big boned Texan, with an enormous broad-brimmed hat and a sweeping moustache reaching nearly to his shoulders, stood at the Lacelde Hotel office, carelessly examining the register. A slight twitching: at his coat skirts was passed by unheeded, but a more vigorous pull caused him to look around. He saw nothing; and was turning back to the register leaves again when his glance fell upon such a wee mite of a girl, whose head was so short a distance from the floor that it was no wonder he had not seen her. The wild looking face bent down to the little one, and deep, bass voice asked : "What is , little gal ?"

"Please, mister, won't you buy my matches?" came in weak childish tones, so low that the words could not have been understood had the appeal not been reinforced by the holding up of a box of matches. The little figure was barefooted, and the one calico garment rent, faded and torn.

"No: I don't want any to-day, sissy," said the Texan. "Please, mister, won't you buy my matches ?" with the second pull at his coat.

The man turned again, impatiently, and glanced at the little one; then, as if ashamed, with a furtive glance around as if to see if he was unobserved, put his fingers into his vest pocktary of State, next to him the Secreet, and the next instant a bright tary of War, and beyond him the half-dollar gleamed in his grimy Postmaster-General. On the left, fingers. With a half sigh the bignext to the President. sits the Secrehearted fellow said half to himself: tary of the Treasury, the next to him "Poor little cuss."

the Secretary of the Navy, and next "Please, mister, don't you want to the Secretary of the Interior on the matches, and I hain't got no that side the Attorney-General. change?" After the Cabinet meets it is ten or

"Oh. no (with an oath) : keep the fifteen minutes before the members change and matches, too." get to work. That ten minutes is Holding the precious coin in both taken up in greetings and off-hand hands the little match girl vanished. talk, in which the spirit of fun and like a shadow through the front door, humor crops out a good deal. The and the Texan, with a muttered "what a fool I am," followed. Around the corner and down Sixth street pattered the little naked feet, unconscious that she was followed, and up to one of the small streets devoted to small dealers and a perfect nest of pawn-shops. Into one thing to the woman, who took a parcel out of a drawer and handed it to was the sole treasure of her heart -her doll. She hugged it to her breast and kissed it. What was said be heard, but when the little waif ed it back very far toward the child. out. The child looked amazed, but at the door stood the Texan, with a very suspicious moisture upon his. cheek and a big lump in his throat.

Well, you may be sure that the nominations for promotion to ensigns rendered more comfortable; for an sick mother and the little girl were hour afterwards she had a receipt for possible, "as they are worthy young a month's rent in her hands and a doctor's carriage stood at the door of that tenement house.

whole brigade. We know that we certain day, saying ing rolong, a time after o David, To-day, after ward in David (at hat) are being driven foot by foot, and to barid, found, and which barries is been sold before). To sold the fore, to be a sold before, to be a sold before, to be a sold be a s that when we break back once more the line will go to pieces and the OMISSIONS FROM THE TEXT.

-efore.

enemy will pour through the gap. Here comes help! Down the crowded highway gal lows a battery, withdrawn from some other position to save ours. The field fence, is scattered while you could count thirty, and the guns rush for the hill behind us. Six horses to a piece-three riders to each gun. Over dry ditches where a farme would not drive a wagon; through clumps of bushes, over logs a foot

53. And every man went unto his thick, every horse on the gallop. every rider lashing his team and yelling-the sight behind us makes us forget the foe in front. The guns jump two feet high as the heavy wheels strike rock or log, but not a came again into the temple, and all horse slackens his pace, not a connoncer loses his seat. Six guns, six caissons, sixty horses, eighty men race for the brow of the hill as if he brought unto him a woman taken in

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW WYALUSING, PA.

Agency for the sale and purchase of all kinds of securities and for making joans on Real Estate. All lowiness will receive careful and promit attention, s. (June 4, 1879. W. H. THOMPSON, ATTORNEY AT LAW, WYALUSING, PA. Will attend to all business entrusted to his care in Bradford, Sultivan and Wyoming Countles. Office with Eac. Porter. (nov10-74.

HIRAM E. BULL,

NURVEYOR.

ENGINEERING, SURVEYING AND DRAFTING. Main street, Towanda, Pa. 4, 15.80. E. H. ANGLE, D. D. S.

OPERATIVE AND MECHANICAL DENTIST.

office on State Street, second floor of Dr. Pratt's apr 3 79. TILSBREE & SON,

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA. L. FLSBREE N. C. ELSBREE. MCPHERSON,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA. Dist Att Brad. Co. [feb.1 78.

TOHN W. MIX. ALTORN &T-ST-LAW AND U. S. COMMISSION BR.

TOWANDA, PA. omee-North-Side Public Square.

Jan. 1, 1875. SAM W. BUCK,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PENNA S

fiffice-South side Poplar street, opposite W27 DAVIES & CARNOCHAN.

7 37 ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW. SOUTH SIDE OF WALD HOUSE. TOWANDA, PA.

ANDREW WILT.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. once-Mean's Block, Main st., over J. I., Kent's Bre, Fowanda. May be consulted in German. [April 12, '76.]

J. YOUNG, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

TOWANDA, PA fuffire-second door south of the First National Bank Main ST., up stairs.

WM MAXWELL.

ATTORNET-AT LAW. TOWANDA, PA.

times over Dayton's Store. April 12, 1876.

DR. S. M. WOODBURN, Physi-Frian and Surgeon. Office at relidence, on The scheet, East of Main. Towighta, May 1, 1872 19

B. KELLY, DENTIST .-- Office

TN D. PAYNE, M. D.,

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. SPETMONTARYES Store. Office hours from 10 1012 A. M., and from 2 to 4 P. M. Special attention given to Store attention given to

(DISEASES and THE EAR ănf eyêv

Ŵ. RYAN, (1.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDE 2016 day last Saturday of each mouth jover Turner & cordours; Drug Store, Towanda, Pa. Fraunda, June 20; 1878.

C S. RUSSELL'S

GENEBAL INSURANCE AGENCY. TOWANDA, PA. May 28 7017.

66,000

THEST NATIONAL BANK, TOWANDA, PA.

CAPITAL PAID IN ..... This Bank offers unusual facilities for the trans-

Velaus of a general basking business.

knelt in one of the rooms of the tives of scamps and rogues, trying great house-knelt to bring her beau- to move me to pity through your in- feepted, in all lands and among all "But this is not a case of roguery, and a correct rendering of the origitiful face nearer to the cradle pillow rtercession." upon which rested the soft cheek of her baby boy. had married the man she loved and from a path of duty by a love as When the present translation was who loved her, and had gone from warm and true as our own, but mis- made there had been comparatively one home of luxury to preside over taken. Oh. dear husband, do you no comparison of manuscripts for not know for whom I plead? Cananother.

She was very beautiful, and many not you guess for whom'I would beg very few manuscripts available; no had thought it's great sacrifice when your pity and forgivenes?" "Clarice," he asked, hoarsely. she married a man as old as her own father, yet in her sweet humility she who has told you of her?" "She has come gerself to seek only prayed to be worthy of the love cour forgiveness." bestowed upon her. " She is here ?" A low knock at the door aroused

"Yes. You will forgive her? For her, and mising to her feet she anthe sake of your own boy, Harold, swered the summons. let this be a home for ther and Ste-Upon the threshold stood a woman, a few years older than herselt. bhen." " Stephen !" he cried, starting. who led by the hand a bandsome "Her son. Her husband is dead. boy who had seen two summers only. She is widowed, poor and lonely. The woman was poorly dressed, in Let her return to your home and shabby mounting, but the child wore vour love. Harold.' dainty white garments.

There was a moment of silence. " Did you wish to see me ?" Mrs Hepworth asked, smiling upon the and/ the mother softly carried the strong, right hand of her husband in child. her own until it rested upon the head

" May I come in ?" was the woof the babe in her arms man's question; in return. Hellooked down, and said :

" Certainly. ' You look tired ' "I will grant your birthday wish, The stranger accepted a chair and Meta. Take me to Clarice.' looked sadly around the room. With a tender, loving kiss upon "Everything is altered," she said in a mournful voice. Af Perhaps 1 the hand that still rested upon her had better stayed away. Mrs. Hep- | child's head, Meta led the way back to her own pretty sitting-room where worth, you have heard of Clarice

Clarice waited the result of her cr Manderson ?" us is made from careful comparison "I have not," was the reply. I rand. of over twelve hundred, ninety-eight She waited, with fast throbbing am almost a stranger here. We have being ancient-from the fourth to heart and trembling 17mbs, for the been traveling ever since I was marthe tenth century. In addition, al words that were to give her sorrowried, until a few months ago." "And you never heard of me ing, lonely heart peace and rest, or said the stranger, the tears rising in the stern mandate that would close her eyes; |" then my errand here is | the doors of home upon her and her Latin, Gothie, Egyptian, Celtic, Araindeed hopeless. If, in his new hap- boy forever. bie and Slavonić.

Her gratitude could never fail, she piness as your husband, my father never spoke my name, it is useless to felt sure, for the beautiful woman who had so lovingly undertaken the hope he willtforgive me." Your father? Mr. Hepworth office of mediator on her behalf, and your father? He told me he had the tears rolled down her cheeks as. she thought of the unselfish tenderlost his only daughter." "Not that I was dead. I was lost ness of her stepmother. As she heard the steps coming to him by my own disobedience. across the wide hall toward the room You love my father ?'h where she was seated, her agitation Just a smile, proud, happy and became too great for patient waiting.

tender, answered her. and she stood up, holding her child "Then you will understand me. said Clarice, "when I tell you I by the hand, her breath coming in loved my husband better than father, quick, panting sobs, her. eyes dilated portant changes in the New Testacame, I determined to make one more united them once more.

home or duty. Father would not with suspense, and her whole, figure ment THE TWO VERSIONS COMPARED. hear of our marriage, and sternly quivering with intense emotion. The translation of King James was It was this eager, flushed face that forbade me to speak to Lucien Manderson, assuring me that he was a met the father's eye as he opened the more a new revision than the ordered fortune-hunter, a gambler, and un door-the face of the child to whom translation : the revision of Victoria worthy of my love. I would not be he had given the entire strength of more a new translation than the ordered revision. In each case the lieve this. To me he was the noblest his love for years. exigencies of the labor compelled a and best of men, and for him I left He forgot her, waywardness, her all to fly secretly from home and disobedince and the six years of her departure from and compromise with the instructions. In the latter case father. I have been bitterly pun- absence.

ished. When the letter imploring He remembered only that she was there is less reason than in the former, forgiveness was returned to me by his only daughter, the child of his but after the first excitement dies my father, with a lew brief words dead Clarice, and he opened his Away it will not be regretted. casting me from his heart and love, arms, with a smile that carried love i The new revision of the New Tesmy husband proved what I had so and forgiveness to the sore heart. fondly hoped was false. He had There was a glad cry of-"Father, dear, dear father ! married the only child and presumed And they were folded fast in each heiress of Hepworth, the millionaire, and found himself burdened with a other's arms, while Meta drew won- are gone; the running head lines are penniless wife. I spare you the his. dering Stephen into an inner room tory of the four years of married and closed the door. come graven on the minds of church Not even for her ears, she misery that followed. Then my huswere those first sacred words of reband and eldest child died of contagious fever, three months later, on conciliation. the very day this boy was born. I It was not long that Stephen was heard of my father's marriage. I re- withheld from his grandfather's kiss, ear. Verbal and grammatical changes turned here, hoping for pardon; but for father and daughter alike turned may be quoted by the tens of thouthe house was shut up. When you again to the gentle influence that had sands.

The first general idea that will to his works," not "the Lord reward strike the scholar, however, is the him." "Supposing that godliness The gossips are divided in their convicted by their own conscience, their faces, but they do not wince. went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last; and there haby boy. The child of wealthy parents, she who erred in extreme youth was led when the agreed upon by scholars. ad married the man she band and form a child of the midst.

9. And they which heard d, being hearts.

CHAPTER VIII.

Of the Adulterous Woman.

1. Jesus went unto the Mount of

2. And early in the morning h

3. And the scribes and Pharisee self., and saw none but the woman. he said unto her, Woman, where art those thing accusers? Hath no man condemned thee?

14. She said, No man, Lord.' And the inaccurate Vulgate (Latin translesus said unto her, Neithgr do I lation) of that day was the staff upon | condemn thee; go, and sin ho more. The following verse (12), in which which the forty leaned; and texts Jesus declares Himself, the light of known to be corrupt had to be used the world, is joined upon and is a for want of better. The oldest copy reply to the scoff of the l'harisees in of a manuscript that they consulted preceding chapter, that out of was of the middle ages. Within the present generation two Galilee ariseth no prophet.

opies of the Bible, made about 340 The next deletion of importance i the angelic coloring of the descrip-A. D., have been brought to light, tion of the pool of Bethseda, in the the pages photographed, and copies fifth chapter. The following passage distributed among scholars. These is omitted by the revisers: 3 4 * Waiting for the movare the celebrated "Codex Sinaiticus," found by Tischendorf in a con-

ing of the water. vent on Mount Sinai, and the "Codex Vaticanus," found in the Vatican 4. For an augel went down at library to Rome, where for centuries | certain season unto the pool, and it had reposed unnoticed and uncared | troubled the water; whosoever then for. These two alone have been of thirst after the troubling of the wapriceless value in detecting errors of ter stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had. transcription and in harmonizing The famous text of the three Heav discordant passages satisfactorily to the skeptical as well as the credulous | enly Witnesses (I. John v., 7-8) is secker for truth. The present ver-ion of couse thrown out, the following of the Bible is based union a very words being expunded : In heaven, the Fa . . * few modern manuscripts, not exceed ing five in number. That now before ther, the Word, and the Holy Ghost and these three are one. S. And there are three that bear witness in earth * 3 Another notable omission of the the unotations by the patristric and revisers is to be found in the converearly writers have been collected, sion of Paul as recorded in Acts ix. and the early translation- into Syriac, 5-6. The words expunged are : * It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6. And he trembling and aston-Three centuries ago the translator of King James had few aids and lit- ished said, Lord, what wilt thou have the material for the work. Those, of me to do? And the Lord said unto Victoria have the accumulated treas him. * * *

There are many other familiar pas ure of ten thousand able workers and storchouses filled with material, sages that have disappeared: "Many A stonishment must be expressed that be called but few chosen." from Matthey have found so little of vital im thew xxii., 14; "If any man has ears portance to Christianity to condemn to hear, let him hear," from Mark n the work of their predecessors- | vii., 16. -

Some of the happiest changes are not that they have made ten thousand trivial and one thousand im- of a single word, as "alive" for "quick." "They had swallowed us up alive," has a very different sense than "swallowed us up quick." Again, "" He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet," becomes much more simple when rendered "He that has taken a bath needeth not save to wash his feet." " Darkness over all the earth," and "over all the land " (Palestine), are very? different things. In every change the revisers lessen the strain upon faith.

THE GRAMMATICAL CHANGES.

Minor changes have been hinted tament issued from the University at. It would take too long to sort of grass has its herrible stain. press will at first shock the Protes- | out, arrange and classify them. Here | tant world. It is not recognizable are a few that come hap-hazard: as a Bible. The chapters and verses "As we have forgiven," instead of where historians saw glory. - 44 The ' forgive " " our debtors " pinnacle of the temple," instead of one: verses are missing, changed. pared; familiar texts that have be "a pinnacie" (there was but one).

The first fruits of them that are people for generations have disap- sleeping," instead of "slept." peared, and in their, place are words one died for all, then were all dead," foreign to the eye and strange to the instead of "then did all die " 'Paul while the man that can beat Aaron of old did not pray the Lord to avenge him on Alexander, He said: "The Lord 'will' reward him according effort for forgiveness, noping you N.N. BETTS, Cashier Made arrangements to see during the see MRS. SNOOGLEFIX says that she has dinary women ?-Boston Post. taught her children to stick to the old flag, and made them familiar from infan-NATURAL religion : Bishop (reproving delinquent page)-" Wretched boy ! Who is it that sees and hears all we do, and and begging of a stranger the gift of bis birthright." "If my prayer will keep you shall not leave your father's house fagin. Mr. Hepworth's second wife. is in the library, and I will speak to bim at once." She waited a moment to bathe the traces of tears from her face, and Mr. Hepwortd. The misleading headlines traces of tears from her face, and The traces and at will be forgiven. — Titusville traces of tears from her face, and traces and at will second wild. The traces and at will be forgiven. — Titusville traces of tears from her face, and traces and at will second wild. The traces and at will second wild. The traces and at will second wild. The traces and trace from her face, and traces and traces from her face, and traces from her face, and traces and traces from her faces from her faces from her faces from her faces from h TRS. H. PEET, BLACHER OF PIANO MUBIC, TERMS.-$10 pertorm. (Restdence Third street, 1st ward.) Towarda, Jan. 13, 79-19. (JET YOUR JOB PRINTING Buter at the REPORTER OFFICE, opposite the traces of tears from her face, and Petroleum World. 4 • - · ,• •. .

-New Haven Register.

Although the I<sup>s</sup>resident is ready there was a story afloat of a character to receive callers at an early hour he so derogatory to the inland marine Now the shells are changed for never finds the visitors wanting. secretary that it ought to be.met. grape and canister, and the guns are Members of Congress and the Presi-Judge Key called out, "let's have served so fast that all reports blend dent's advisers walk past the doorit !"" "It was when he was first made into one mighty roar. The shrick of keeper without showing their eards. a slieff is the wickedest sound in war. Secretary of the Navy," proceeded Other visitors must first send their Judge Devens, willingly. but nothing makes the flesh crawl "A comcards in by Charley Loeiller, the mittee from the Navy Yard invited like the demoniac singing, purring, door-keeper. Sometimes there are him to go down on a visit of inspecwhistling grapeshot and the serpentas many as twenty people in the tion. If e was taken through the difflike hiss of canister. Men's legs and room at a time. Members of Conerent shops and works, and finally arms are not shot through, but forn gress take their turn at talking to the on board a man-of-war, which was off. Heads are torn from bodies, and President in the order in which they lying at the wharf. After being bodies cut in two. A round shot or shell entered the room, keeping the tally takes two men out of the ranks as at shown over the different parts of the erashes through. , Grape and canister | themselves. The Bresident indicates ship, the captain stopped by the now a swath and pile the dead on to the others when he is ready to hatchway, and askedd the Secretary hear them. The interviews are short to look down. Thompson took a op of each other. or long, generally the former. When Every gan is using short fuse shell. look of some length, and finally exthe President desires to consult with-The ground shakes and trembles-claimed 'My goodness! the durned out interruption with callers, they old thing's hollow." " The naval secthe roar shuts out all sounds from a retire to, the library adjoining. retary bore the bantering with equan battle line three miles long, and the Everybody who calls is received eximity, and remarked that the joke shells go shricking into the swamp to cut trees short off-to mow great | cept those upon business stricly perwas a good one in its prime, but now taining to the different departments, gaps in the bushes--to hunt out and had an ancient and fish-like smell. such as minor appointment. The hatter and mangle men until their After this ten minutes of boy play President positively refuses to hear before school, the President calls the corpses cannot be recognized as huapplicants for such places. 'They meeting to order, the regular business man. You would think a tornado are referred to the departments. It is taken up, the Secretary of State was howling through the forest, folis his rule not to interfere in any ap-pointments in the departments The leading off with his budget. The lowed by billows of fire, and yet men live through it--aye! We can hear discussion is conducted in a convertheir shouts as they form for a rush. | people he receives during the day, sational way. The meetings gener-Through the smoke we can see a up to half-past two in the afternoon, ally last about two hours .- Washing warm of men. It is not a battle generally average about two hun ngton Stor. dred. line, but a mob of men desperate As a general rule each caller is on Wanted to See the Editor.

enough to bathe bayonets in the flame of the guns. The guns leap a different business. Delegations from the ground almost as they are sometimes take eight or ten in on the lepressed on the foc, and the shricks same mission-except in Baltimore and screams and shouts blendy into delegations, which split up when one awful steady cry. Twenty men | they get before the President, and out of the battery are down, and the cach man urges separate candidates. firing is interrupted. The foe ac- The number of people who call to aptifit as a sign of wavering, and "pay respects and shake hands" i come rushing on. They are not ten great and growing. They mumble feet away when the guns give them something, seize the President's hand a last shot. That discharge picks and depart. It is a great thing for living men off their feet and throws the principals of female seminaries them into the swam, a blackened, in adjoining states to fetch to Washington whole batteries of beauty, loody mass. Up now, as the enemy are among and bring them to bear upon th the guns! There is asilence of ten President. Bridal parties are quite Sometimes they anseconds, and then the flash and roar numerous. of more than three thousand muskets. nounce to the President that they and rush forward with bayonets. are newly married, but whether they

Hor what? Neither on the right nor do or not, that fact is perfectly apleft nor in front of us is a living foe ! parent. When no attempt at the there are corpses around us which concealment of their happiness is diave been struck by three, four and made, the President presents the even six bullets, and nowhere on this blooming, blushing bride with a flowacre of ground is a wounded man! er from the large, fragrant boquet The wheels of the guns cannot move which is always on his table. until the blockade of dead is remov- concealment is intended, he looks ed. Men cannot pass from caisson unconcious, while the groom is reto gun without climbing over win- markably conscious. The President rows of dead. Every gun and wheel pays a good deal of attention to bridal parties, evidently rememberis smeered with blood--every foot ing the time when he was a happy

Historians write of the glory of and fortunate groom. Another class war Burial parties saw murder dreds. These and large delegations are received in the east room. There are frequently as many as five hundred people on one of these excur-Iss'T it funny? The man who about forty-seven hairs growing on his The member of Congress, sions face is always possessed to wear a full whose constituents they are, arranges beard, and goes about with a countenance with the President for their reception. like a thinly-sottled huckleberry pasture. He gets them in line, and as they file clean out of sight with a full beard. shaves close twice a week, and the restop the time his face looks like a sheet of No. time 4 emery paper. They are each reaching, for the impossible, and miss it by a hair.

Then the persons whom he has made arrangements to see during the

-----How He Got Ahead of Providence.

Many years ago there lived in alem, Conn., an eccentric man namd Amasa Kilborn, about whom numerless stories are told to this day. In one occasion in summer he had a five acre lot of choice grass, cut and spread out to dry. In the afternoon a shower came up and drenched it. The next day the hay was spread out to dry. Another shower ame up and redrenched it. On the third day the same programme was repeated. On the fourth day, after the hay had been properly dried and raked into winrows, a cloud pillar moved up over, the western horizon, and a distant growl of thunder echoed from the hills. Kilbourn was mad He looked at the hav and looked at the cloud. "Run up to the house, boy," said he, in a voice trembling with resentment, "and bring down a fire-brand; quick, now !". The boy asked no questions. He came back with a blazing torch, and Kilbourn touched off each windrow. "There. said he; "I'll see if this hav will git wet again l"

EPIDEMIC CYCLE. - Dr. Arthur Ransome, of Manchester, England, a physician of some eminence, has nade some very extended and careful observations, on which he bases the theory that there is a regular succession of certain epidemics in A man on the cars was offered distinct cyclical periods. Whooping newspaper. He took it, looked as cough, for example, has a cycle of the heading, and then threw it aside about four years; small-pox, before the introduction of vaccination, had "I don't want news from that paa cycle of from four to ten years: the cycle of measles is about seven "I supposed everybody read it in years, while scarlet fever recurs as a these parts," I answered. "Has it great visitation once in fifteen or twenty years. Dr. Ransome dismiss-been pitching into you ?" "Pitching into me? Great Cæsar! es the theory that these epidemic cyshould think it had. But you just | cles have some connection with the et me meet the editor of that paper." sun spots, and he accounts for the "You never make anything by curious facts which he considers that striking an editor," I said, "better his observations have established on orin and bear it." a much simpler and more sensible

"Yes, that's all right for you to theory. This is that a certain destisay, but just let me meet the man! ny of the population at susceptible. I'll show him how to run a newspaages is necessary before a disease can spread with the vigor of an epiwith disgust and remarked :

"What did he do?" demic. All the facts can probably "Do! He did a deal. Here's how be accounted for on the supposition it is : I often go to Springfield in the that these disorders can only become evening and come home on the first epidemic when the proximity betrain in the morning. Well, one tween susceptible persons becomes night I met an old crony and we sufficiently close for the infection to went to the Music Hall and the pass freely from cne to another. theatre. When we came out we met When, therefore, an epidemic has some friends. Of course I could not reached nearly all the susceptible get right out, so I treated; in fact persons in a population, mostly chilwe were having a pretty good time, dren and infants up to a certain age when some fellow came in and tried it must wait a certain number of to raise a row. In less than no years for a gradual restocking of the time the police were in and had us. nation with material fit for it to feed The next morning I was hauled beupon.

fore the court and fined $7:40. I did not care much, because I gave a false Ax exchange calls Murat Halstead. of name, and I knew my wife couldn't the Cincinnati Commercial, "the Maud Muller of the Ohio Valley." It may fit, find it out : but the very next morning I'll be enternally confused if that him, for all we know; but for the Democratic editor who is addicted to flinging dirt at General Garfield, the "Mud Mauler" would be a more appropriate title.-AT the Wentworth House, Newcastle, N.H., there is a dish-washing machine which does the work of ten ordinary wo-men, and is warranted to break no dishes.-New York Evening Post. Then how in thunder does it do the work of ten orpaper didn't have it all in, and my name too." past the member introduces each one. "Did your wife see?" and makes lots of votes for the next "I should say she did." "Did she make a fuss?"

When

"Fuss! Godfrey Elihu! Are you married ?"