Letters, 10,000
Papers and packages, 9,983
Total, 19,983
For the corresponding period last year the number was only 16,777; showing an increase of 3106 in one week.

DR. E. T. O'SHAUGHNESSY, alias "TURNER," alias O'SHAUGHNESSY, accompanied by TIMOTHY ARREN, broke out of the Broome county jail at Waverly through a section of six heavy wrought iron bars and opened the two doors into the jail yard; they then climbed over a brick wall sixteen feet high and escaped. O'SHAUGHNESSY is a horse-thief from Rome, Pa. ARREN was a resident of Binghamton and was awaiting the action of the grand jury for a trivial offense. It is supposed that they were supplied with axes by O'SHAUGHNESSY'S wife, who was at the jail to see him about a week previous. A reward of $100 has been offered for the capture of either of them.—Owego Gazette, 9th.

The heavy rain, which began on Monday evening, has been very much of a nuisance to the farmers. It is reported that the valuable horses, purchased by Col. R. A. PACKER, in Paris—a notice of which appeared in the REPORTER of last week,—died on their way to this country, and were buried at sea.

THEY were shipped by the "Ville de Marseille," and it is said their deaths were caused by neglect on the part of the crew in charge of the vessel. The horses were insured.

BUT even if it had been a regular "joint and coal" party, it is to be regretted, all would have been well paid. The whole heart of the lecturer seemed to be in his subject, and the eloquence of his language, of a most original.—New Castle (Pa.) Courier.

COLLEGE ARMS will deliver his lecture, entitled "Boys," at the Presbyterian Church, in this place, Friday evening, December 17th.—Admission 25 cents.

MR. LONGFELLOW can take a worthless sheet of paper and by writing upon it make it worth $50. The art of doing this has so touched with reflection what he relates, that the book before us is a valuable aid to a philosophical understanding of foreign subjects. We have never taken up a book of foreign travels which interested and delighted us so much as this of Mr. NEVIN'S. It is perfectly fresh and unswayed and free from the slight taint of the hand-book. We recommend it to the perusal of those who desire to get accurate and intelligent views of foreign scenes, customs and institutions.

AN abstract of the lecture would do justice to its pleasant delivery, its prevailing humor and its happy and bright expression; nor would a full report, unless it also gave the grace and ease with which the lecturer delivered his subject, be a complete record. We call attention to the prospectus in another column, and also to its extraordinary premium offers.
