THE INDEPENDENT.

The foremost religious newspaper of the United States." Joseph Cook.

THE INDEPENDENT seeks the patronage of the and more and fuller departments than they can find elswhere in any journal.

THE INDEPENDENT contains 32 pages, neatly cut and pasted. It is printed from clear type (we sterotype the pages weekly, and, hence, every issue is really printed with new type) and on good paper, and mechanically it is unexcelled.

There is no question of prominence in religion, joittles, science, education, finance, or any other department of human knowledge which THE INDEPENDENT dees not discuss. It has regular departments devoted to Biblical Researches, Missions, Religious intelligence, Book Reviews and Literary News, the Sunday School, Education, Scionce, Sanitary questions, Fine Arts, the movements of ministers, Personalities, News of the Week, Financial and Commercial matters, including Weekly Prices Current, Market Reports, Cattle Market, Drygoods Quotations, Flowers and Farming, and Insurance. In its religious department; gives news and statistics of all denominations of Christians, everywhere. In fullness, accuracy, and comprehensiveness this department is curacy, and comprehensiveness this department is unequalted. Several pages of stories and poems, adapted to Old and Young, are given every week, Greenfield Railroad at the east portal of with a column of puzzles.
