DAVIES, CARNOCHAN & HALL, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW SOUTH SIDE OF WARD HOUSE. TOWANDA, PA

Dec 23-75. MADILL & KINNEY, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW Office-Rooms formerly occupied by Y. M. C. A 3,16,80 O. D. KINNEY. H. J. MADILL. MRS. E. J. PERRIGO, TEACHER OF PIANO AND ORGAN.

Lessons given in Thorough Bass and Harmony, Cultivation of the voice a specialty. Located at T. Mullock's, Pine St. Reference: Holmes & Passage. Towanda, Pa., March 4, 1880. TOHN W. CODDING.

Office over Kirby's Drug Store THOMAS E. MYER ATTORNEY-AT-LAW TOWANDA, PA. Office with Patrick and Foyle. Sep.25,179 ECK & OVERTON

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA.

ATTOBNEYS-AT JAW, TOWANDA, UA. BENJ. M. BECK DODNEY A. MERCUR, ATTORNEY AT-LAW. TOWANDA, PA.,

Solicitor of Patents. Particular attention pair to business in the Orphans Court and to the settle ment of estates.
Office in Montanyes Block OVERTON & SANDERSON, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA. JOHN F. SANDERSO E. OVERTON, JR.

W. H. JESSUP, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW, MONTROSE, PA.

Judge Jessup having resumed the practice of the law in Northern Pennsylvania, will attend to any legal business intrusted to him in Bradford county. Persons wishing to consult him, can call on H. Streeter, Esq., Towanda, Pa., when an appointment can be made.

LIENRY STREETER, ATTOUNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA. Feb 27, 179

L. HILLIS, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, (nov11-75. TOWANDA, PA. E. F. GOFF, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. They show'd their colors, an' set their WYALUSING, PA Agency for the sale and purchase of all kinds of Securities and for making loans on Real Estate. All business will receive careful and prompt attention. (June 4, 1879.

W H. THOMPSON, ATTORNEY • AT LAW, WYALUSING, PA. Willattend to all business entrusted to his care in Bradford, Sullivan and Wyoming Counties. Office with Eq. TIRAM E. BULL, ENGINEERING, SURVEYING AND DRAFTING. Office with G. F.-Mason, over Patch & Tracy, Main street, Towarda, Pa. 4.15.80.

GEO. W. KIMBERLEY, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA.

Office—Second door south of First Nationa Bank. August 12, 1880. ELSBREE & SON, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA.

L. ELSBREE N. C. ELSBREE. TMRE INSURANCE.

Having accepted the agency of the LANCASHIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, (Assetts over $13,000,000,00.)
I am prepared to write policies at current rates, (M. D. SWARTS, Agent, Office with Wm. S. Vincent, Towarda, Pa. 19r. TOHN W. MIX.

TTORNEY-AT-LAW AND U. S. COMMISSIONER TOWANDA, PA. Office-North Side Public Square. SAM W. BUCK,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. TOWANDA, PENNA Office—South side Poplar street, opposite Ward

ANDREW WILT, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

Office—Means' Block, Main-st., over J. L. Kent's store, Fowanda. May be consulted in German. [April 12, 176.] W. J. YOUNG, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Office-second door south of the First National Bank Main St., up stairs. DR. S. M. WOODBURN, Physi

Towarda, May 1, 1872 ly* B. KELLY, DENTIST.—Office over M. E. Rosenfield's, Towanda, Pa. Teeth inserted on Gold, Silver, Rubber, and Al-

D. PAYNE, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON DISEASES

THE EYE W. RYAN, COUNTY SUPERINTENDE

mce day last Saturday of each month, over Turne & Gordon's Drug Store, Towanda, Pa. Towanda, June 20, 1878. S. RUSSELL'S

INSURANCE AGENCY TOWANDA, PA. May28-70tf.

TIRST NATIONAL BANK,

This Bank offers unusual facilities for the transaction of a general banking business. N. N. BETTS, Cashler. JOS. POWELL. President.

MRS. H. PEET, TEACHER OF PIANO MUSIC, TERMS. $10 per term.
(Residence Third street, 1st ward.)
Towards, Jan. 13; 79-17.

Transit of the second of the s

COODRICH & HITCHCOCK, Publishers.

REGARDLESS OF DENUNCIATION FROM ANY QUARTER

$1.00 per Annum in Advance, status when they mutually rlease,

Hence, when an attempt is made see that it does not prevail without sufficient and lawful cause: for in the language of a learned English udge, "society has an interest in the maintenance of marriage ties which the negligence or collusion of parties all matrimonial legislation and litigation, and bringing into subserviency divorce proceeding, though upon its face a controversy between the par-

Upon these principles is founded the doctrine that no decree can be en because they cannot bind the public supported by due proof. A default does not, as in other suits, supercede

These considerations disclose the important and delicate functions of

VOLUME XLI

brings out the pails

m afraid he'll git to rulin' boys is boys, an'

An' John is 'bout as good a lad a

Don't mind me, sir, I'm growin

But it seems how a kind of mis es' set down on the door-step

While Johnny's bringin' up the cows flat all our boys have left na except would ha' done yer soul good, Squar', to see the is skocling cleaned the little pile we'd laid by

When the spark that touched the powder on lashed like a streak of lightnin' up across from An' I tell you what it was, Squar, my boys cum u sence she'd heard what the boys had done.

r it took all three, an' it's hard enough fur an' then when morning broke so clear-not n' then it all cum out at oust, like a storm hat Sam give up, and the boys cum they all got down by her there, think she had a forewarnin', for

An' the neighbors, thet came a pourin'

dear-old stars could shine; the flag above his head.

thro' thet day ;

· my old eves ache.

the Autumn day.

my boy was born?

that field of corn-

! ye axed if I'd eny notion ever be sold;

Jes' look down thro' the orchard.

Ken ye see them four white marble out thro' the orchard glade ?

Wall, all that is left of our boys on arth

Wall! may be, Squar, but I'll tell ye plain.

be when the old man's cold lut they brought him

n' after our soldiers won the day, an'

They said that he led his gallant boys ranger, perhaps, you have heard of Sam, n' planted the old flag high an' dry, wher hey found our boy with his brave heart still, an

In' Tom was shot at Gettysburg, in the hottest hushed in the silent sleep of death, another grave grew grassy green 'neath

An' Benjamin, he cum home at last, but it ma

To see him lay with thet patient look, when the flow'rs had died away. An' then we laid him down to rest, in the calr

With his pain an' wounds; but he linger'd

She sot down by the coffin there, white and calm

our soldler dead.

n' I'm thinkin' 'twould make an angel they all had a share of the old man's orit

, preserve the old flag whole.

in soldiers' clothes:

made my old heart thump mother's spirits rose, mother to give up one.

veins, I ken tell von first.

or she'd send the boys, an' the kneeled down to pray. How she give them, one by one.

The boys cum in with sober didn't 'speck she would :

so firm and calm,

to kissin; Sam

he jes' sot down on the

with a sob so load,

last good-bye.

shall never forgit the last night, hush of the twilight gray.

and I recken, stranger, countin'

Thar was our first boy. Benjan took to books, an' larned

But I'se bound to give the boy a chan sprig ahead-

"level best."

here to hum.

twenty-one

om, mixin'

An' worked with me upon that ar Rebel gut

East to West,

or Benjamin bad larned a tr

thoughts of mine.

vourself to hum

about our share.

He was the smartest little bow it cum

them all,

n' chasin' them ac

this way ;

WHY HE WOULDN'T SELL THE

FARM.

BY ALPHONSO DATTON.

fere! John you drive the cows up, while yer' m 's strange that boy will never larn to notice wh

I'll tell ye stranger, how it is; I felt a heap n that boy-he's our only one sence little. Nedd

TOWANDA, BRADFORD COUNTY, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, JANUARY 20, 1881.

choir rose with a sound of revelry, IN THE CENSUS OF 1880. and after the tenor had swallowed a lozenge, and the bass had coughed Without fully coming up to the up a piece of a frog, and the alto had sanguine expectations of our own hemmed, and the soprano had shook people, the census of 1880 gives out her polonaise to see if the var-Pennsylvania a very creditable posinish showed on the south side, the tion in the progress of the National audience began to rise. One or two where. What was to be done? Mr. sisterhood. Our rate of increase in Turvytop wiped the prespiration from the last ten years was twenty-one deacons got up first, with sounds like his forehead with his handkerchief per cent., while that of New York a picket firing in the distance on the eve of battle, and then a few more sew on the button. But first we must —the top one, perhaps, which he had eign commerce of the Republic, and select some thread. Here it is in so seldom had occasion to use. So about the same proportion of the forwith his knife he carefully removed that button, congratuating himself on the neatness with which it was accommand of internal trade, and the orchestra had concluded, the people "Oh, black thread, I should think, on the neatness with which it was accommand of internal trade, and the "Perfectly correct," said Mr. Tur- on the button. In trying various ex- attraction and a prestige that should Yes. Very desirable; and here is some button in position, he finally vance of that of all other American the article in perfection; good, strong, hit upon the plan of placing it States, Pennsylvania, on the other black thread, which will defy every against the knee. That seemed to hand, has devoted her attention to effort to detach my coat button the work admirably, and Mr. Turvytop railways, domestic industries, min something wrong with this needle, tially over; sewing on a button would couragement of home traffic. The Matilda. It resists all my efforts to now be comparatively a simple affair. result has proven that the Pennsylwhat could be done with all the be, under all circumstances, the wis-long; so Mr. Turvytop shortened it, and found it an improvement. Then Then Matilda wanted to cry. She Mr. Turvytop took another stitch, required? Turvytop thought it best to examine had as many miles of railway as Illisaid the child, as soon as she had the button to see how firm it had all nois her population would increase ready become. He raised the coat more rapidly. For a number of "Oh, then the fault is in the from his knee, and the button fell on years Pennsylvania stood at the head thread!" replied Mr. Turvytop. "We the floor. Astonishment! A close of the list as the first railroad State must find something else;" turning examination proved however, that in the Union. But the wild mania capable of holding the button, and tilda-his determination that this system, the growth of population which I think will go through the time his stitch should affect the but-

Matilda, I think your mother uses white thread when she saws on a but length his persistent efforts were the application of the industrial princrowned with success. The button Matilda looked doubtful, but Mr. was on! Sewed on! and Mr. Tur-

Again, we have felt the blessedness of having been able to assist enterprising railway companies, inyour dear mother.

"But I must now leave you for ment had passed. "Why, papa! What is it?" ask-do not quite understand," said Mr. We have sewed the button on the in. effect a radical cure in his immatureside of the coat!"

work basket daughter, that would hole that gentleman had made in cut-Matilda having recovered the but- ing the severed member to its place-

Growth of Pennsylvania.

was but sixteen per cent. And yet monopolizing two-thirds of the for-enormous magnitude of her resources, combined to give that State an have kept up her progress far in ading, internal development, and envania policy is and must continue to

Many people find their only happiness in forcing themselves to be un-Virtue requires no other recompense than the tribute of self-approbation and respect. The flower which we do not pluck is the only one which never loses its and begun to do patchwork, and had and drew the thread without diffi- that such an event is possible if the beauty or its fragrance.

aright in the meantime. There can be who cannot is a fool; and he who dares not is a slave. Truth is eclipsed often, and it sets aside from its eternal path. A grow dim, the sun will pale his glory; but truth will ever be young. Age is not all decay; it is the life within, that withers and bursts tion of the great trunk-line compa-

But there was nothing else in black thread that would do at all; nothing indeed, but some fine blacksilk, which Mr. Turvytop knew would be quite
Mr. Turvytop sighed. He was bethe husk.

We learn to climb by keeping our of the husk.

We learn to climb by keeping our indeed, but some fine blacksilk, which Mr. Turvytop knew would be quite
Mr. Turvytop sighed. He was bethe husk.

We learn to climb by keeping our of the husk.

We learn to climb by keeping our indeed, but some fine blacksilk, which in that it was a greater thing to sew on the mountains that rise before us.

The regioning of faith is in action.

The regioning of faith is in action. "After all," soliloquized that gen- by trifles. Again he placed the but- time that those Illinois railways not he who merely thinks a question of the respective parties at the date parties choose their own witnesses neat y sewed on the thread is not expected to be visible. Here is plenty of good, strong white thread, quite if there had been any beside Mayania, which is the parent of that which the world knows not, and divorce arose, and at the date when all along their routes. In Pennsylhe is only sad.

Which the world knows not, and divorce arose, and at the date when all along their routes. In Pennsylhe is only sad.

We are all more or less others.

Which the world knows not, and divorce arose, and at the date when all along their routes. In Pennsylhe is only sad.

We are all more or less others.

who are always with us. "There are people who live behind the hill," is an old German proverb which means that there are other folks in the world besides yourself. although you may not see them. Anxiety is the poison of life; the parent of many sins, and of more Fashion Notes.

ITEMS OF INTEREST CULLED FOR THE SPECIAL BENEFIT OF THE LADIES. Gloves of the deepest mourning are of undressed kid. Shirrings appear as a marked fea ture on the newest cloaks. Plush collars of small size ar worn with all sorts of dresses. It is fashionable to bind one side of bonnet strings only with plush. Next to the dark and black fancy furs silver and blue fox take the lead Evening dresses are still made with the front and side breadths clinging. Orange, red, and bright yellow flowers take the lead in corsage bou-

The newest silver ear-rings are faceted silver balls not bigger than a buckshot. Pleatings, shirrings and puffs make the entire decorations of some new The most fashionable bonnet strings are of Surah, bound on one The latest thing in shoes adopted

Did you ever think how much the by fashionable women is the wearing of low flat heels. When shirring is used on cloaks.

ostumes or bonnets, very little other trimming is used. Among new neck lingerie appear kerchiefs of white pineapple silk embroidered in gold.

Paris begins to appreciate the ardresses of Americans. There is an attempt to revive wide collars and cuffs turning up over the ontside of the sleeve. The poke or coal scuttle bonnet is becoming only to tall, thin women, with a Græco-Roman caste of coun-Muss of plush in the form of an by some young ladies. The latest fancy in table linen are napkins and cloths to match, emor little people and beasts and birds reality much more than a contract, and Examiner seems to be the only seems an age of pain. in colored silks. The fashionable light colors for evening wear are cream white, apricot, determines the creation of new family statutory provisions in some States he enjoys neither. salmon, lavender, mauve, heliotrope, and amethyst. Rose and blue in pale tints never go out of vogue. All hese colors are worn in contrast. The latest and costliest novelty in bed and must on no accounts designed by the weather was cold of a pendant necklace and costllest nover the most of a pendant necklace and costllest nover the most of the family group constitutes the interests of the public in determines the muthal relations of a pendant necklace and costllest nover the family group constitutes the fourth of the course size cried out with pain and object a most hough the weather was cold of pendant necklace and costllest nover that sewing on a button, but to give the first the f and that no guilty man's pants had NEW COURT RULES IN DI- riage and take upon themselves its whom the matter was referred.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

Court: The undersigned, a committee appointed to inquire into the propriety of the appointment of an Examiner in all divorce causes which are heard upon depositions ex parte, who shall take the evidence and find facts and also, to inquire in regard to the propriety of requiring such Examiner, short, and all went home praying for by way of cross-examination, to elicit all the facts of the case, respectfully lowing as rules of Court in divorce a matter of general public concern,

Truth will never die; the stars will arising therefrom, and such recommendation or decree as the case shall the Court in divorce causes as the warrant: Provided, that for cause representative of the public and the shown the Court may appoint a Mas- conservator of its interests and those and he only believes who struggles; including the residence and domicile provocation or palliation have existed, in case of alleged barbarous treat. fraud is almost absolute where the ment; whether any circumstances | management of the cause has been | referred, the fees of the Master for and he may tax five dollars in addition for each day besides the first upon which he shall have heard testitistic beauty of the revived Quaker upon the application of Master, may or unwise, moral or immoral; wheth-

It may be observed that the com the letter of the order of appointment, but this has seemed necessary in orenvelop, with the triangular flap fast planation and support of their sug. administering the law.

seal-shaped ornament, are affected per to submit the following considbroidered in the corners, centers, and on a contract between man and wo some superintendence must be exer-sufficient if collusion be prevented and strict compliance with statutory requirements enforced; and this may be done by the Court exercising the requisite supervision through a Master and Examiner, whose duties are Having determinel upon the expediency of the appointment of such an officer, your comnittee has next considered the practical questions connected with his appointment and duties. As the agent of the Court and the public, it follows that he should be appointed by the Court, and never in any case be chosen by agreement of parties. He should hold his office for some NUMBER 341 certain period, of sufficient duration to become experienced in its duties. His office not being a popular one to some classes of suitors, they should not be enabled to evade his scrutiny those who have assumed it cannot by causeless objection; and hence, The following Rules of Court have cast it off by mutual consent, as par- provision is made for the appointment of an Examiner pro hac vice, ties to an ordinary contract may anbut only for sufficient reason. The matters upon which he is required to through the courts to undo a mar- report specially are the statutory riage the public becomes a party, not points, which arise in nearly every in the strict sense to oppose, but to proceeding in divorce. Nothing has been added to the statutory requirement, and nothing could legally be added. The power of cross-examination is none other than the power possessed by the Court itself where the witness is before it, and the power of refusal to proceed in the absence of certain indicated testimony is none other than that daily exercised by the Court in such cases. Careful provision is made to protect the suitor from the consequences of arbitrary conduct upon the part of the Master, and his fees have been fixed in such a sum as to make the expense of proceeding in this manner but to a trifling extent greater than the expense of taking the testimony before a commissioner who makes no

Respectfully submitted. D'A. OVERTON. Com. JNO. F. SANDERSON, Towands, Dec. 23, 1880.

KEITT AND GROW.

In response to inquiries elicited by recent references to ante-bellum scrimmages on the floor of Congress, we print a short account, as published in the papers at the time, of one which occurred in February, 1857, in the discussion in the House on the attempt to admit Kansas as a slave State, under the Lecompton Constiution, between Galusha A. Grow, of Pennsylvania, and Lawrence M. Kett, of South Carolina.

The conversation which led to this melee and awakened the sleeping members was in this wisc: Grow was on the side of the House occupied by the Southern members, and right to be where he pleases." Keitt plied, repeating what he had said besaying. "I'll let you know that you are a damned black Republican pupexclaiming: "I shall occupy such place in this hall as I please and no negro-driver shall crack his whip over me." Keitt again grasped Grow these but one side acts and but one by the throat and again his hand was knocked off and. Grow knocked friends of the parties rushed to the fray. Blows fell thick and fast. Washburne of Illinois, and Potter of batants. At this critical juncture Covode of Pennsylvania seized a spittoon. He balanced it for a moment in the air. The objective point was the head of Barksdale of Mississippi, who was approaching him of the spittoon in a menacing attitude. But Barksdale's wig fell off and Covode lowered his suspended missile. Meanwhile the Sergeant-at-Arms was running here and there, "like the peewit," exhibiting his mace-without effect. It was near two o'clock

Ninety Years.

ings" took place."

Ninety years hence not a single have mingled with the dust and be

Physic, says an old surgeon, is the ar

THE covetous man is as much deprived

Ir those who over-eat and those who world would be well fed.

No human scheme can be so accurately

Mr. Turvytop's coat had lost a to plan as my fingers are to execute. go and make a fool of himself. bed and must on no account be dis- soon be firmly fixed in its proper silence, but has never been known to work-basket, the needle-book and a so if there had been any occasion for needle which she carried straightway it.

HE SEWS ON A BUTTON.

"All right, so far!" said Mr. Tur- ed, Mr. Turvytop prepared to resume rytop, "but some thread will also his work, but ah! where was the butbe necessary, little daughter." "Oh, yes!" said Matilda, who had not thought of that; but the thread was in mamma's room, too; so she nor under the sofa, nor, indeed, anywent softly up-stairs again; again she tip-toed into her mamma's room, found the box of thread, and carried

t down stairs. "Very well," said Mr. Turvytop, have the tools, we will proceed to to take the place of the missing one sew on the button. But first we must | the top one, perhaps, which he had every variety; blue, brown, green; with his knife he carefully removed which shall it be daughter?"

second time. But there seems to be felt that his troubles were substanthread it." "Bite the end, papa," said Matild. Mr. Turvytop bit the end, but sucseded no better than before. "Fuzz it out, papa," continued the hild interestedly. Mr. Turvytop fuzzed it, or tried to, ecording to directions, but all in learned to thread her needle beauti-"But you can't get this thread through the eye of the needle, papa," taken it into her small hands. to the orderly heart of his spouse. But there was nothing else in black Turvytop reflected. eye of that needle. On reflection, ton as well as the coat.

Turvytop proceeded to thread the vytop had done it! and only half of it pass through the hand, that her father this time might | thankful I should be for my coat. make his own selection, thereby dis-Mr. Turvytop considered as quite in by patient perseverance?

There was no needle to be found. however, with an eye large enough to admit the passage of the coarse black thread, except the darning ncedle, which Mr. Turvptop knew would not do at all. He was well aware that it would be very un- short time; I have just time to go to womanlike to sew on a button with a the post-office before tea. I take a darning needle. But after several great deal of pleasure in putting on trials a needle was found which Mr. this coat," continued Mr. Turvytop, Turvytop now threaded with white donning the garment in question cotton with perfect ease, and that "feeling that it had been repaired by strong knot on the end. "There, as he seemed about to do, but stood dross of their writings?

in a trice," said Mr. Turvytop. But the button did not seem to want to be sewed on, for it kept slipping out of Mr. Turvytop's fingers, ed Matilda. ind twice it rolled clear across the

"There is something here that I Turvytop, stroking his beard and looking puzzled as Matilda measured her length on the carbet, while with the handle of the feather dust- the collar turned up about his ears. er, she tried to poke the button from peneath the secretary. "There must be some arrangement for holding the

Mrs. Turvytop was ill in Between us both, this button will ton. It was not on the floor, where Mr. Turvytep had in haste thrown his coat. It was not on the table, and reflected.

apa, on a black coat!" said the complished. Then, unassisted, he recommenced the task of sewing ytop. "Uniformity of color. Ahem! periments for holding the trouble-One stitch! So far so good—but thread; it did not draw through est and the best calculated to enproperly. Something was evidently hance the prosperity of the Americulty. How many stitches would be over and mixing up the spools in a Mr. Turvytop had simply taken two for building railroads in the West feeting the button at all. * Mr. Turvytop sighed. He was be-Mr. Turvytop knew would be quite a button than he had imagined. Still the list of railway States, and comnsufficient to hold the button. Mr. he did not despair. Mr. Turvytop pelled Pennsylvania to accept of a was not the man to be discouraged second place. It was alleged for a quite immaterial. When a button is ed it against his knee, and the close-needle with the white thread. But Matilda was afraid the white thread ous efforts, the thread would split, been worn awhile and become soiled, is therefore good reason to believe vinced," said that gentlemen, after sure, two hours precisely by the repeated efforts and failures. "Ma clock-but it has been time well The child obeyed, and soon return- then think what it must be to make

cannot find a needle with a larger one button, think what a great thing eign emigration is flowing into the it must be to sew on eight buttons; ed bringing the needle-book in her a whole coat, and then realize how "Again, we have learned that al playing a degree of forethought which | most anything can be accomplished

"Yes, dear, yes. I know you have West. been injured, but it must be a satisfaction to suffer in so good a cause. gentleman heaved a sigh of relief. my own hands, assisted by the active riage infelicities to reconcile himself There is nothing like having brain of my daughter. The air is to his own lonely lot? plenty of thread when one sews on a keen, but I shall not feel it, for with utton," said Mr. Turvytop, as he the warm coat snugly buttoned over great epic poets have to be thankful the exultation of the previous mo-

"Daughter," replied Mr. Turvy made a mistake; a very sad mistake! ling up throughout the summer could Mr. Turvytop went to the post office with his Sunday coat on, and Mrs. Turvytop recovered in du: course of time, and when she could collect the scattered contents of her talked much of himself who did not but on in place while it is being sew- work-basket, set about repairing have a poor subject for his conversaed on; did you see anything in the Mr. Turvytop's coat-darning the ting off the top button, and restorton, replied that she did not, but also replacing the missing button for thought she could hold it while Mr. which Mr. Turvytop sought so long Turvytop sewed it on. and vainly, and which Bridget after. "The very thing!" exclaimed the delighted parent. "Daughter, that and finally advising Mr. Turvytop if little head of yours is worth as much he ever lost another button not to escaped, and read the hymn. The Finally it occurred to him that one New York has during all that period got up, and the rattling of the unwith an air of business; "now we of the other buttons might be spared enjoyed the immense advantage of yielding varnish sounded as though the fighting was becoming more animated, and then the whole audience got on its feet at once with a sound sat down gingerly, the services were the man that painted the seats .--From Peck's Sun. Words of Wisdom. Great gifts make beggars bold. Be wise worldly, but not worldly It is right to be contented with what we have; never with what we wrong with the thread. It seemed can State. Some calculations have determined to tie itself up in knots. been made going to show that at the Matilda thought it might be too same rate of increase in both States Pennsylvania will in twenty years overtake and pass New York in population. We have no doubt policy of Pennsylvania can be guided Matilda did not know; so Mr. be no sort of doubt that if this State way that would have struck dismay stitches through the coat without af under the stimulus of the competi-

OUR POPULATION AND OUR INDUSTRIES

the husk. tleman, "the color of the thread is ton in position; once more he press- could not possibly find a paying business. But they have created it by has been largely stimulated by the increase in like manner of local in-And we are happy to assert that at dustries all over the State. Latterly ciple to agricultural products, which has been found so advantageous in New York and Illinois, has made great progress in Pennsylvania in somehow it did not act right. In was going to show; but Mr. Turvy- the establishment of butter and cheese spite of Mr. Turrytop's most assidu- top thought not-at least after it had factories, canning works, etc. There course of the ensuing twenty years, so that we may add two millions of tilda. I think the fault is in the spent. We have both of us had an people to our aggregate, and probaneedle. It was probably designed opportunity to learn some valuable bly be able to pass ahead of New for a smaller thread. Once more lessons. We have learned what a York and gain the height of our amyou may repair quietly to your great thing it is to sew on a button. bition as the leading State in popumother's apartment, and see if you If it is such a great thing to sew on lation in the Union. Now that forcountry so freely, it becomes our people to be keenly alive to this great opportunity, and to adopt measures to induce the agricultural immigrants from Europe to settle upon and cultivate our wild lands in the interior of Pennsylvania under the influence of some of our many stead of seeking homes in the remote

Did You Ever? Did vou ever see a bald-headed man who didn't have such a "beautiful head of hair" till "that fever," that something or other, took it off? Did you ever seen an old bachelor who was not forever seeking for marculled about two yards through the my chest-what-what-what!" and for to those who have taken the eye, doubled it, and tied a large Mr. Turvytop didn't button his coat, trouble to separate the gold from the daughter, every obstacle is now over- looking at it with a strange, puzzled | Did you ever know an Irishman come, and we'll have this button on expression on his face, from which who didn't thoroughly understand the mysteries of "Forty-fives?"

Did you ever know a German who did not contrive to end every other sentence with an "already." Did you ever see a small boy wanttop, in a subdued tone, "we have ing in spirit that one diurnal doub fruit-eating proclivities? Did you ever see a young lady who wouldn't rather hear her husband > praised by a lady, in the next town than by the lady in the next house Did you ever know a man who Did you ever know a fool who was aware that he was a fool?  $\cdot \setminus$

Did you ever think that you might be thus oblivious to yourself? Did you ever see another do the same thing three times without thinking that you could do it much better? Did you ever know a swindled man whose hurts were not partially healed by hearing of another man being Mr. Turvytop preserved a dignified swindled in a like manner? Did you ever know a young lady

MILLS—The undersigned having the control of the care and manner and the was evidently and the control of the care and manner and the was evidently and the control of the care and manner and the was the control of the care and manner and the was the control of the care and manner and the was the control of the care and manner and the was the control of the care and manner and the was the control of the care and manner and the was the control of the care and manner and the was the control of the care and manner and the was the control of the care and manner and the was the control of the care and manner and the was the control of the care and manner and the was the control of the care and manner and the control of the care and manner and the was the control of the care and manner and the c

VORCE CAUSES.

been adopted recently in our Common Pleas. The matter is of con- nul its obligations. siderable public interest, and we therefore print the rules, together with the report of the committee to

To the Hohorable the Judge of the said cannot impair." And from this view proceeds the doctrine, running thro' report the same to the Court; and all other law on the subject, that the ties of record only, is in fact a triparreport: That upon consideration of tite or triangular suit, sui generis, the matter, a majority of your com. the government or public occupying mittee has agreed upon and herewith the position of third party. This recommends the adoption of the fol- supervision is not only necessary as

but also to protect other public in terests not guarded by the parties I. On the first Monday in February, annually, the Court shall appoint, themselves, but nevertheless directly involved. For example, the children standing Master and Examiner in divorce causes, who shall take, st |: | of the marriage have great interests scribe to and file with the record of at stake, and in some cases the decree his appointment an oath that he will may pronounce their illegitimacy discharge the duties of his office with fidelity and to the best of his ability; tered by the Court upon mere consent who shall act until his successor shall or agreement of parties of record have been appointed and qualified, and to whom shall be referred all There must be a complaint in due matters in divorce, involving inquiry form for a cause authorized by law, into facts or the taking of testimony, He who will not reason is a bigot; except where an issue shall have been formed; by and before whom such the necessity of proof, or lighten the inquiry shall be made and testimony taken, and upon which he shall report burden of the plaintiff in establishing for a night, but never is it turned to the Court the facts found by him, his allegations. together with the conclusions of law of innocent persons not of record ripening, the swelling of the fresh ter and Examiner pro hac vice. II. Upon a reference to report a who may be affected by the decree. final decree it shall be the duty of as well as the arbiter and judge be-The beginning of faith is in action, jurisdiction of the Court is founded, carefully prescribes the jurisdiction "This is a free hall; every man has a of marriage, at the date or dates and select the facts to be shown and Every heart has secret sorrow when the alleged cause or causes of the facts to be suppressed in case of which the world knows not, and divorce arose, and at the date when collusion, when they are beyond the We are all more or less echoes, in the Commonwealth on the part of meritorious upon its face so far as and we repeat, in spite of our lives, the libellant has been bona fide or the facts are disclosed, but which, the virtues, the faults, the move- merely pretended and colorable; were the whole truth known, would by a faults, the movements, and the characters of those whether any alleged adultery has receive instant condemnation. The difficulties attending ex parte been condoned; whether any reasonable cause has existed for any alleged proceedings are also great, for in desertion; what circumstances of side is heard, and the immunity of exist indicating connivance or collu- adroit and a fair prima facie showsion between libellant and respond. ing is made. and only half of it pass through the needle's eye,

"Something is wrong, I am coning is wrong, I am coning is made, and only half of it pass through the needle's eye,

"Something is wrong, I am coning is wrong, I am coning is made, and only half of it pass through the needle's eye,

"Something is wrong, I am coning is wrong, I am coning is on! It has taken time, to be internal development of Pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of Pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of Pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of Pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of Pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of Pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of Pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of Pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of Pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of Pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of Pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of Pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of Pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of Pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of Pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of Pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of Pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of Pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of Pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of the pennsylvania will be carried forward prosperously in the internal development of the pennsylvania will be ca subject to the jurisdiction of the a colorable and pretended compli-Court, free from artifice or collusion, ance with the requirement of the founded upon meritorious and suffic statute as to residence. When it is cient cause, supported by competent considered that falsehood and fraud and satisfactory evidence, and based cannot give jurisdiction, and that the upon lawful and regular proceedings. decree of a Court having no jurisdic-III. The proceedings before the tion is void, the grave consequences Master and upon exceptions to his that may follow an unauthorized dereport shall be governed by the pract | cree, in case of an invalid re-marriage, tice in Courts of Equity so far as the by involving the ruin of unsuspectsame may be applicable; and he ing women and the bastardizing of shall cross-examine in his discretion innocent children, besides the disany witness produced before him, or turbance of rights of property necesorder the propounding of additional savily involved, cannot be too careinterrogatories to witnesses examined fully guarded against.

upon commission. He may also in Under the present system of hearhis discretion refuse to proceed in a ling divorce causes upon exparte cause until certain testimony required | depositions, the Court, having freand indicated by him shall have been quently no knowledge of the parties produced: but in such case the party or witnesses, has no test of truth, and may apply to the Court for an order a fair page of writing may mask what upon the Master to proceed, before the Court, if confronted with the of the lively actors at present on the the granting of which the Court shall witness, would instantly discover to receive from the Master a report in be the boldest perjury. Nor can the writing setting forth what he has re- Court apply that great and historic away? And could we be sure of quired from the party and his rest test of truth, the advantages of which sons therefore, whereupon the Court need no amplification, viz: Cross tale that is told," a dream, an empty shall make such order as the case examination.

IV. When not more than a single of testimony in a cause or matter taking the testimony and making his most effectually without imposing report shall not exceed ten dollars, unwarranted burdens upon the suitor. mony or argument. But the Court, ions as to whether divorces are wise ular case for cause shown. mittee has somewhat transcended der to present a systematic result. and to reach the true intent and pur- their spirit be best secured, is the years are past this generation wi pose of their appointment. In ex- only question for those concerned in ened down with a bow of ribbon and gestions, the committee deem it pro-

> Regarded in its strictly legal aspect, available expedient. it must be viewed as an act which

These considerations, and perhaps others suggested by the experience day has been devoted to the hearing of the Court, are believed to have age. Like the degrees of longitude, moved the appointment of this committee. How to assist the Court is the problem presented. This has been considered without the indulgence of any personal opinmake a special allowance in a partice er they should be frequent or inefre- appear? all the pride and passion quent, or whether our legislation is the love, hope and joy, pass away in the best that could be devised or not. This is beyond the question submit. "Ninety years," says Death; "do ted. Taking the statutes as they are, bow can the observance of these rehow can the observance of these requirements and the enforcement of every day is mine. When ninety

As it appears to be impracticable that the Court should personally take or superintend the taking of deposi-Marriage is usually spoken of as a tions in divorce causes, while at the contract; but while it is founded upsame time it seems necessary that of amusing the patient while nature cure along the borders with quaint figures/ man of competent capacity, it is in cised, the appointment of a Master > group, and from which act a number and countries. In Kentucky and of relations, actual and possible, mor- several of the other States the public al and legal, spring-relations which prosecutor is required to oppose all in their aggregate constitute marriage suits for divorce. In Scotland the as a status. Like solar gravitation, procurator fiscal used to look after stage of life will make their exit long ere ninety years shall have rolled ninety years, what are thev? "A sound that, passeth on the wings of the wind away and is forgotten. Years shorten as man advances in man's life declines as he travels toward the frozen pole, until it dwindles to a point and vanishes forever. Is it possible that life is of so short duration? Will ninety years erase all the golden names over the doors in town and country, and substitute others in their stead? Will all the now blooming beauties fade and disninety years and be forgotten?

remembered not? Thoughtful Thoughts.

A YEAR of pleasure passes like a float-

This is similar to, and yet unlike, the of what he has as of what he has not, for may intervene to spoil it.