In the somewhat notorious "Smithfield case," true bills were found against the defendants by the Grand Jury last week, the other for rape. In Court the rape case was first taken up, and occupied Fri day and Saturday. The case was submit-ted to the jury late. Saturday afternoon. After d liberating until Sunday at 10 A. M., they returned a verdict of guilty as to Holmes and Jackson, and not guilty as to Pience and Matuer. Counsel for ment the Court quashed one count in the indictment for riot, and the defendants thereupon plead guilty as charged in the other count, and gave bail for their appearance for sentence on Monday next. During the whole continuance of the trial the Court House was literally packed with people of all classes and of all ages, from the boy of tender years to the man whose locks were whitened by the "frosts of many winters," and all seemed eager and anxious to catch each word of the
