the death of one of the most respected citizens of our township, Mrs. Ann Howie, wife of J. T. Howie, of Moore's Hill, aged about 45 years. Mrs. H. was taken with a malarial fever, and as she has always been a hard working woman, her system was not strong enough to withstand the debilitating influence of the disease, and she entered into rest, Sunday, about 1 o'clock p. m. A husband and six children are left to mourn her departure from their midst. The funeral is held at the M. E. church to-day at 1 o'clock. "GEO, F. BARRETT, Macon, Ga. DIED. OCKWELL -In Monrosten, March 27th, 1881, of congestion of the brain, Lloyd Leslie, second of congestion of the brain, Lloyd Lesiic, second son of A. L. and Ida Rockwell, aged 2 years and 3 months.

Very sudden was the stroke that removed from his earthly home this delicate blossom. Only few short hours of suffering sufficed to burn out the young life from the little form. Then, when loving ones gathered to bury him out of their sight, we could scarcely believe, as he lay there among the flowers, himself the fairest flower of all, that he was not just sleeping after his suffering, lovely did he seem in his last repose. "I know his face is hid Under the coffin-lid; Closed are his eyes; cold is his forehead fair, My hand that marble felt; O'er it in prayer I knelt; Yet my heart whispers that he is not there.

"Not there! Where then is he?
The form I used to see
Was but the raiment that he cace did wear. The grave that now doth press
Upon that east-off dress,
Is but his wardrobe locked—ac is not there. " He lives! in all the past

Of seeing him again, will I despair. In dreams I see him now;
