

The ladies of the Church of the Messiah will hold a social at the residence of C. H. ALLEN, on Second street, Tuesday evening, May 17th. All are cordially invited to attend.

The jury in the WILLIAMS homicide case, as will be seen by the Proceedings of the Court published in another column, after a few minutes deliberation, returned a verdict of not guilty.

The Germania Band gave their first concert of the season in the Park on Friday evening. A large and delighted audience listened to the music and enjoyed heartily each piece performed.

There is an unusually large amount of papering, painting and repairing being done in Towanda this spring, and every artist in those professions, seems to have all the work he can possibly do.

The Printers got "scooped" in their game of ball at the Mill Works on Saturday last, as usual. Score, 30 to 15. The boys evince much pluck and endurance, but seem to lack skill and agility.

S. C. WELLS, of Potterville, has an old flintlock musket which was used in the French war of 1754, and has been handed down through the family relatives since that time.—Loyalist Advertiser.

There is said to be no equivalent for "hash" in French. There is no equivalent for hash in physics. Each hash is a separate species—a compound that never was before and never will be again.

The citizens of Loyalville decided by ballot, one day recently, as to the location of their new school building. They selected the BENJAMIN lot, nearly opposite of the residence of P. H. BUCK, on Main street.

The brick block on Main street, occupied by S. M. BROWN as a restaurant, was offered at public sale by the Mutual Building Association on Monday afternoon. But $3,000 being bid the sale was adjourned.

A disease that proves fatal is prevalent among the swine in this vicinity. E. D. REYNOLDS has lost about 20. T. R. JORDAN quite a number, and J. M. AYERS, of North Towanda, says that about 40 of his have died.

The Loyalville Advertiser is confident that the dark bay four-year-old Hambleton colt, belonging to STEPHEN GRAMM, of that place, is one of the handsomest colts in the county, as well as most valuable.

The committee of Watkins Post, G. A. R., of this place, having charge of the Decoration Day Services, request the ladies of Towanda and vicinity to meet at the Grand Jury room on Friday next, 20th inst., at 4 o'clock, p. m.

WYOMING COUNTY comes to the front with an insurance company now—The Mutual Aid Association of Loyalville. We are not aware whether it is of the class that takes risks in the "Valley of the Shadow of Death," or not. We trust not.

SAYS the Athens Gazette of last week: "The debt of the Universalist Church is to be paid off soon, and the society is in hopes of seeing prosperous times again. Rev. S. C. HAYWOOD will continue with them until a permanent pastor can be secured."

CONCERT Friday evening.—Benefit—Towanda Library.

It is really strange how some otherwise very sensible people will congregate around some itinerant buffoon on the street, and hand up their quarters and half-dollars for a spurious merriment, when they might get a genuine article by patronizing a respectable home dealer.

We learn from the Canton Sentinel that the Alabama threshing machine factory has come to an untimely standstill. One of the men who agreed to take $1,000 in stock and furnish the land, backed out when the frame was all ready and partly up. A law suit will probably end the enterprise.

A HENRY SAVERCOOL attempted to escape recently from the jail in this place, where he has been confined for some weeks awaiting trial on a charge of larceny. He had loosened the floor of his cell, and had made considerable progress toward out-of-doors, before his plans were discovered.

The Pennsylvania Reserves, of which gallant corps there are a number in this vicinity, should take action in regard to attending the reunion to be held in Bellefonte soon. It is the feeling that the meeting there will be very interesting gathering of veteran survivors of the famous Reserves.

A PUBLIC road has been laid out, and is now in course of construction, by the commissioners of Litchfield township, leading from STRUBLE & BORTWICK'S mill to the road near JAMES RANDOLPH'S. When this is completed it will form part of a thorough easy creek road all the way from the S. & B. mill to Rome.

In a complete new dress comes our table the Wayne County Herald, published at Honesdale. It looks as neat and trim as a Towanda young lady in a "poker" bonnet. The "make up" of the paper has been greatly improved and several new and interesting departments added. Evidently the paper is prospering.

With the advent of warm weather comes that source of annoyance known as corner stumps, whose duty it is to stand on all convenient corners, more particularly on Sunday than any other day of the week, and stare out of countenance all church-goers, especially the young lady portion. This sort of picket duty should be broken up.

There is a good deal of complaint that parties are violating the fish laws in catching bass and pike before the season opens. No bass or pike can be taken between December 1st and June 1st, under a penalty of $10 for each fish caught. It is also unlawful for any person to catch bass or pike in any way but by hook and line, under a penalty of $10 for each fish caught.

T. P. McVOR, foreman of the foundry at the Edge works, informs us that yesterday he inflicted a scratch about an inch and a half long on his eye. Another piece struck him on the side of the upper portion of the head, also inflicting a wound, but fortunately not fracturing the skull.—Troy Gazette.

The Troy Gazette of last week thus reports the business establishment of our general County Treasurer in this village: "JOHN H. GRANT has been fitting up his jewelry store anew and making it still more attractive. Mr. GRANT has so long had the confidence of the public that he has learned to rely with absolute confidence on his representations as to the value of his wares. His assistant, A. M. JEWETT, is a most efficient, prompt and faithful officer, and President GREENFIELD could strengthen faith in his professional desire for genuine civil service reform by promptly appointing him to fill the vacancy.—Review, Thursday.

THAT TIOGA DISASTER.—The Tioga correspondent of the Owego Gazette furnishes that paper, last week, with the following: "A switch lock of the N. Y. L. E. & W. R. R. has recently been found in field opposite the depot at Tioga Centre, supposed to have been tampered with and taken from its switch at the time of the recent disaster to train No. 13, at that place. The lock shows signs of having received two heavy blows by a crowbar, one on each side of the latch, and the latch was pried out of its place in the lock by a crowbar spread. The lock was otherwise more or less damaged and was minus its key cover. The chain was attached properly to the lock, but the lower link was spread to loosen it from the switch fastening. The lock is supposed to have been broken from the switch and the switch turned before the accident."

STEVENS POST No. 69, G. A. R., of Rome, will decorate the graves of Union soldiers in the cemeteries of Wyand and Rome, on the 30th inst.; in the former place at 10 o'clock a. m., and in the latter at 2 o'clock p. m. L. M. HALL, Esq., of Rome, will be in charge of the Wyand Band. The committee arrangements will be announced hereafter.

B. G. WILSON, Comptroller.

SAYS the Athens Advertiser of last week: "S. H. DAVIS, Esq., of our borough, brought to the Athens store on Saturday, a peculiar and fashionable "brow brush" with the handle all on one side, and stamped as follows: "1073, SAMUEL MORSE, 2 Castle Square." The jug evidently came from a Welsh Pottery in Wales, as its owner is a full-blooded Welshman, of the real old stock."

A GIANT ON, six feet four inches in height and nine feet six inches from head to tail, was exhibited on the square this afternoon. He is the property of MARK WELLS, of Plymouth, and came from Bradford County. Six feet four was the advertised height of BARBUD'S ox, but the general opinion is that this is larger than his was.—Wilkes-Barre Union Leader.

BENJAMIN KNIGHT, says the Athens Gazette, who was one time head assayer in the Wolcott Hollow mill, met with a serious accident, a few days ago, while employed in Mr. MORLEY'S mill in Michigan. An emery wheel burst, and a piece of it struck him upon the forehead and glancing nearly scalped him, besides crushing his skull. "At last accounts he was likely to recover, though pieces of bone had been taken from the wound."

TOWANDA boasts of a steam boat. Its trial trip was made Tuesday afternoon. It is not a large boat. Neither has it a large number of decks. In fact it is not troubled with a deck at all. It's a steamboat just the same, deck or no deck. And when the Waverly editors learn we have got it they will go out and set on their old, dilapidated, abandoned coal boats, and just weep. Poor Waverly! You'll be a better man.

THE commissioners of Wyand township were in town at an early hour Tuesday morning, says the Review of yesterday, having been invited to appear before Justice HALL between the hours of 7 and 8 a. m., to answer W. H. THOMPSON, Esq., attorney-at-law, late of that township, in a demand for legal services. The plaintiffs were named THOMAS CONNOR, from Bradford county, and several others. The defendant was named THOMAS CONNOR, from Bradford county, and several others. The defendant was named THOMAS CONNOR, from Bradford county, and several others.

CONCERT Friday evening. Attend.

SAYS the Athens Advertiser of last week: "A young man named THOMAS CONNOR, from Bradford county, and several others. The defendant was named THOMAS CONNOR, from Bradford county, and several others. The defendant was named THOMAS CONNOR, from Bradford county, and several others."

THE young ladies who figured as members of the "Broom Brigade" at the Church of the Messiah Social Tuesday evening of last week, had a group picture of themselves taken at the residence of D. W. ROCKWELL, on Monday forenoon last. We wonder if impetuous editors will be furnished with a copy of the "shadow" free. Editors admire beautiful things, just the same as ordinary people—but how seldom they possess them."

THE Troy Gazette says about a cord of Indians have been dug up at the County House so far. If we remember correctly, DAY'S Historical Collections of Pennsylvania, published in 1840, states that when the cellar of the old McKean house which still stands on the county farm was dug, the bodies of two Indians were found buried in a sitting posture, the walls of the graves being formed by flat stones. We understand that some of the bones found are of gigantic size, and indicate that some of the aborigines buried here were of unusual size.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Managers of the Canton Agricultural Society, it was decided to at once commence the erection on their fair grounds a building to be known as Machinery Hall, and in dimensions twenty by sixty feet by two feet in height, also a building to be known as Main Hall, twenty-four by sixty feet and twelve feet in height, both to be boarded up and down and to have a shingle roof; also ten enclosed stallion halls, with doors seven by twelve feet; also forty cattle and horse stalls five by twelve feet, enclosed without doors, and forty open stalls.

TAKE your girl to the Concert.

THE quince-seed is King. Two years ago not more than two hundred pounds of quince-seeds were sold in the entire Union, and they were worth but 45 cents a pound. During the past year ten thousand pounds have been imported from England, and the price is $1.50 a pound. The demand is so great that the ladies (having been told) who must have quince-seed mucilage to make those elliptical curls that decorate their alabaster brows. The European supply is now exhausted, and a quince-seed famine is threatened. By making their hair hang down, the ladies have made the quince-seed trade hang-up.

THE annexed fact story is from the Loyalville Advertiser of last week: "On Friday afternoon last the machinery in JOSEPH HARRIS'S woolen mills, near this borough, commenced slacking in motion, so much so that the proprietor was compelled to believe that the water was fast and he should be compelled to shut down. In the evening he visited the pond, and in examining the gate through which the water passes, saw something black at the bottom of the gate, which made it impossible to shut the gate down. With a little effort he soon brought the object to the surface, which proved to be a large eel, which weighed six pounds and one ounce."

On Wednesday last, THOMAS COLONY, of the firm of COLONY Brothers, of Sylvania, met with a singular accident, which came near costing him his life. In the mill which he recently purchased from PECK Brothers, there was an emery wheel about four feet in diameter used for grinding the leath of saws, and while operating this, it was running at a fearful rate of speed. At length the centrifugal force was altogether too great for the cohesive power of the stone, and it burst with great violence, throwing the fragments about in a frightful manner, and one of these struck Mr. COLONY on the forehead, inflicting a scratch about an inch and a half long on his eye. Another piece struck him on the side of the upper portion of the head, also inflicting a wound, but fortunately not fracturing the skull.—Troy Gazette.

MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR. A correspondent writing from Sugar Run says that F. N. MOODY of that place drove to Towanda on business about two weeks ago. N. thing was heard of him until a few days since when his mother received a letter from him stating that he was in Michigan. He said he had no knowledge how he came there. He never wrote to his mother and when he wrote he was in Michigan without a cent of money, although just before he started he had between fifty and eighty dollars.—Review, Thursday.

SUICIDE AT SYLVANIA. Mrs. ALPHARETTA BIRDY, of Painter's lick, near Sylvania, committed suicide by shooting herself, on Wednesday morning of last week. A man standing near by, with his back towards her, heard the report of the pistol, and going to her found her dead with a bullet hole through her forehead, and the revolver in her hand, ready to be committed. She was thirty years of age, and leaves a small family. No cause is assigned for the rash act.
