TOWANDA, PA

SAM W. BUCK, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PENNA. Office-At Treasurer's Office, in Court House. W H. & E. A. THOMPSON, H. & E. A. ITOMIN SON, ATTORNEYS ATTORNEYS ATTAKEN, TOWANDA, PA. Ome: In Mercur Block, over C. T. Kirby's Drug Store. "All business intrusted to their care will be strended to promptly. Especial attention given to claims against the United States for PENSIONS, ItoUNTIES, PATENTS, etc.; to collections and to the settlement of decedent's estates.

W. H. THOMPSON, EDWARD A. THOMPSON. BEVERLY SMITH & CO. BOOKBINDERS, And dealers in Fret Saws and Amateurs' Supplier Send for price-lists. REPORTER Building.

Box 1512, Towarda, Pa. F. L. HOLLISTER, D. D. S., DENTIST. (Successor to Dr. E. H. Angie). OFFICE-Secon floor of Dr. Pratt's office.

Towanda, Pa., January 6, 1881. MADILL & KINNEY, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW. Office-Booms formerly occupied by Y. M. C.

Reading Room. 3,18,80 O. D. KINNEY. II. J. MADILL. MRS. E. J. PERRIGO, TEACHER OF PIANO AND ORGAN. Lessons given in Thorough Bass and Harmony Cuttivation of the voice a specialty. Located at A. Snell's, Main-st. Reference: Holmes & Passago. Towanda, Pa., March 4, 1880. TOHN W. CODDING,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA. Onice over Kirby's Drug Store. THOMAS E. MYER

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA. Office with Patrick and Foyle. DECK & OVERTON - ATTORNEYS-AT LAW, TOWANDA, UA.

DODNEY A. MERCUR, ATTORNEY AT-LAW, -TOWANDA, PA., Solicitor of Patents. Particular attention business in the Orphans Court and to the to business in the Orphans Court and to the section ment of estates.

Office in Montanyes Block

May 1, '79.

OVERTON & SANDERSON, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA. JOHN F. SANDERSON E, OVERTON, JR.

W. H. JESSUP, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW, MONTROSE, PA. Judge Jessup having resumed the practice of the law in Northern Pennsylvania, will attend to any legal business intrusted to him in Bradford county. Persons wishing to consult him, can call on H. Streeter, Esq., Towanda, Pa., when an appointment are be acade. LIENRY STREETER, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA. Feb 27, 79 1) L. HILLIS, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. TOWANDA, PA. HIRAM E. BULL, STRVEYOR. ENGINEERING, SURVEYING AND DRAFTING.

Office with G. F. Mason, over Patch & Tracy, Main street, Towarda, Pa. 4.15.80. GEO. W. KIMBERLEY, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, of three-Sicend door south of First National August 12, 1880. ALSBREE & SON, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, N. C. ELSBRER.

OHN W. MIX, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW AND U. S. COMMISSIONER North Side Public Square. ANDREW WILT.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. Office-Means' Block, Main-st., over J. L. Kent's store, Towanda. May be consulted in German. [April 12, '76.]

W. J. YOUNG, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

Onicz-Mercur Block, Park street, up stairs. R. S. M. WOODBURN, Physi B. KELLY, DENTIST.—Office over M. E. Rosenfield's, Towanda, Pa.
Teeth inserted on Gold, Silver, Rubber, and Al-

D. PAYNE, M. D., 2 A. M., and item given to Special attention given to (DISEASES

тие ЕУЕ W. RYAN, COUNTY SUPERINTENDE

O nee day last Saturday of each mouth, over Turn & Gordon's Drug Store, Towanda, Pa. Towanda, June 20, 1878.

C S. RUSSELL'S GENERAL

INSURANCE AGENCY MRS. H. PEET,

TRACHER OF PIANO MUSIC,

TIRST NATIONAL BANK,

TOWANDA, PA. This Bank offers unusual facilities for the transaction of a general banking business. N. N. BETTS, Cashier. JOB. POWELL, President.

Tradiori

REGARDLESS OF DENUNCIATION FROM ANY QUARTER.

$1.00 per Annum in Advance

or mother?"

VOLUME XLII.

There's many a trouble

Did not we rehearse it,

And tenderly nurse it,

There's many a sorrow

So sadly intruding.

And quietly brooding,

Resolved to be merry.

And no longer tearful,

But happy and cheerful,

these trains stop at Spa road."

"Don't thank me, sir," he said, a of the Borough Market the Irain came to a stop, and for the first time

near the Crystal Palace," he said some surprise. "We are not near

"The Crystal Palace!" I said, in the famed waters that bid us forget

Ail worry to ferry fashion.

road 22

and the cold.

an unhandsome one.

the Crystal Palace."

brusquely.

And give it a permanent place in the heart.

Would vanish to-morrow?

nd into the waters of Lethe depart

Would break like a bubble

GOODRICH & HITCHCOCK, Publishers.

TOWANDA, BRADFORD COUNTY, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 9, 1881.

when they are out of season? This indeed, has been brought forward as a complete answer by those who believe in these jugglers. To answer this is not so difficult, however, as it appears. India is a vast continent, and from its most southernmost limit on the Indian ocean, where there is little difference between summer isting every variety of climate at any time of the year. The mango flour-

THE STIRRUP-CUP. doubter of our account of the process how about a green and a ripe fruit, My short and happy day is done : as well as blossoms, being produced The long and lonely night comes on; simultaneously, say at a period when And at my door the pale horse stands there are no such things—that, is Menuter.

And joys of life so soft and warm. Tender and warm the joys of life-Good friends, the faithful and the true My rosy children and my wife, So sweet to kies, so fair to view.

Bo sweet to kiss, so fair to view; The night comes on, the lights burn blue; And at my deer the pale horse stands To bear me forth to unknown lands.

ourselves, in passing through the plains into the upper Himalayas, in the course of successive weeks, seen the mango season just over on the ginia City, as winter days most genplains; a little higher up, mangoes erally are in that Alpine town, and were just in season, the fruits form though the sun was bright, its rays ing higher up still; the blossoms in were as cheerless and chill almost as full flush a couple of thousand feet moon beams. Wild gusts whistled higher; while higher still the blosin their beds. So were my hunting soms had not yet made an appear. and frost in their furious course, and case summer squashes. I heard a lance: With this fact are to be tak- driving every living thing away to > Scotch" and a glowing furnace, they Denning, the baker, was one. In in Virginia City. sunshine or storm, hail, rain or snow, and best productions of his oven.

the would lie. He said that once tracks of a cow, interspersed with the dainty little footprints of some to a bad end, and pain to the hearts rying them off when the baker returnant as the thief. The officer testified be was cast away on an ieeberg, with the dainty little footprints of some to a bad end, and pain to the hearts rying them off when the baker returnant as the thief. The officer testified Unfortunately, an officer was pass ing just at the time, and the baker, syllable about what he had done to on the spur of the moment, and with-Yesterday morning, it was very feelings will be spared and your sons out giving the case that considerating before the Judge. Thereupon a comfort to your declining years. It her in custody, on a charge of theft stood before the bench, excing the > me in this way. Let me wrap a shawl know me."

The officer consenting, accompaman he would be in court next day to prefer the charge before the police The officer, on entering, found no the empty closet, and putting his little hands mechanically into the empty dishes on the table. "What made you steal the bread, my girl?" asked the officer. At mention of the word "bread" little Willie looked tearfully and piteously in the man's face. The girl hugged the

Here the child threw his arms around the girl's neck, as if to detain

"Is there no coal, or anything at "No coal, no bread nothing to hasn't arrested me as I thought he not forgetting some cakes and condiments for the smallest children, while

For his health probably. He has long had big sack of coal on his back. thirty years. Possibly it would live long- cut up large slices of bread, and help- reply.

they had never felt the pangs of "And now," said the officer, do lighted at seeing the children so happy, "sit down Lena, and answer me a few questions. Have you no father work, about eight months ago, and we hain t seen him ever since." "What is your father's name?" "Dawson-Jim Dawson." "And he has sent you no money-

NUMBER 2

"We have no mother," was Lena's othing?" "Nothing. Never heard of hir since he went away. But when he much as would last us for six months. and he'd be sure and be back before the provisions were all out." "And you got no letter from him at.all?"

deep sigh. Poor Dawson had written to his children however, but postal communications being at that time very ir. Major Andrew J George, Deputy regular and uncertain in the Silver Clerk Davis and Chier George Jones States, the children did not receive severally testificil as to the issue of

for you to morrow, and you'll accom- etly repeated his former testimony : must do my duty, you know. Good Sunday; had not been before the the warm and friendly atmosphere of after the departure of her kind bene- Mettee and others policemen were drinking saloons, where, with "hot factor, but the buoyancy of childhood then called for the defence, and from soon gained the ascendency, and bemanaged to keep themselves from fore bedtime the orphans were as freezing. Of these exceptions, Abe happy as any group of little children had been given them, and they had

Meantime the report about stealmore voraciously because it does hall dition of the children got abroad. or snow, as if to perpetrate an un- Jim Dawson, a miner himself, was and lives at 148 Chesapeake-st. Beespecially in appetizing weather, must miners, and the case created much of O. testified that he received the see to it that his customers' larders sympathy, and elicited so many remi- summons and went up to the courtbe properly stored with the rarest niscences and commentaries, that nouse in response to the first one, quite a crowd was attracted next day Even such cold weather as this did to the police coart. Judge Moses was told that the case would not not deter Mr. Denning from attend- presided. The Judge bore the name come up, and he went home without with the assiduity and attention and benevolent and if fault he had attention to the other two summonses, disappearing into a customer's house what uncompromising rigor in the intended for him. This witness was with an armful of bread, a girl of discharge of his official duties. It as entirely unlike the other as it is some fifteen years of age emerged was hard to say how the case would possible to imagine. The one is short from a miner's cabin close by, and, go. After the transaction of some the bread, and identified the defendhe found the children, but said pot a relieve them. Poor Lena stood tremb-

tion which he otherwise might, gave miner rustled through the crowd and The girl, without any attempt at ex- Judge with a deprecating look. "I ger, one teaspoonful of butter or postulation or explanation burst into declare to the Almighty, Jedge," said an agony of tears—a sufficient evident he of never knowed the state of dence, perhaps, that she was but a Jim Dawson's children, and if I did pour on half a cup of boiling water ____ " He dropped a twenty into Lena's trembling hand.

"You jest knowed as much about it as other folks," exclaimed another around my head, or the people will miner excitedly, walking up and putting another twenty into the girl's hand with an indignant air that flung nied her into the cabin, while the back any latent suspicion that he baker drove away, telling the police- knew anything of the children's distress any more than any body else. Here Long Alec, a miner-so call ol on account of his height and size -slid timidly and bashfully up to one in the cabin but three children- | Lena's side. "Leeny," he said in half whisper, "hold yer pinafore." eldest six. The hut was cold and And he slipped two twenties into her cheerless; there was no fire. The apron, and then slid back behind the crowd, into a corner, and, holding presence of the officer, exhibited dis- his hat to his face, glanced timidly colored eyes and faces, which bore around to see that he was completely out of sight.

Then came Wabbling Joe, who was far more bashful than even Long Alee, but put on a bold face, and laughed and talked aloud to make believe he was not bashful at al. "Jedge," said Wabbling, laughing and nodding familiarly at the court, to disarm that functionary of possible rigor in the trial of the case in hand Jedge, let the girl slide. She ain't done nothing but what you or I would do if we was hunry!" And poor Lena was at once the recipient of another present. The court held down his head and smiled gravely at Wabbling Joe's defence of the accused, but then im mediately recovering his gravity said: "Gentlemen, I appreciate your liberality and generous sympathy for est simplicity. the young offender, and I am particularly impressed with the ingenious pitiable object. defence made by Wabbling Joe"-here a good natured laugh escaped the whole crowd, as if to put the Judge in a good humor-"but," con- er lese their nature. tinued his honor, "whatever might sad condition of the accused, there is a public duty to be performe l, and the case must therefore proceed." "What is your name, my girl ?"

asked the court "They call me Lena Dawson, sir," was the reply. "Call von Lena Dawson! And suppose Lena Dawson is your name, s it not?" observed the Judge.

"No, sir, it ain't," returned the girl. "My father died when I was only three years old, and my mother got married to Mr. Dawson some time afterward. My proper name is Madeline Winters, but they call me "Madeline Winters! Where were

"In Kansas City, sir," was the peared at the door, having just returned from his prospecting tour in propriety that did honor to his acquaintances, who were all rejoiced to see him, was quietly permitted to join his relatives inside.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Mixing up the Malones.

A case involving a very chrious istance of mistaken identiay occupied nearly the entire session of the Criminal Court yesterday. The circumstances, briefly related, are that during the term of the May court a saloon-keeper of Cuba street, named Archibald Campbell, was indicted for selling liquor on Sunday. When the case came up for hearing on the 27th, John Malone was placed on the stand as prosecuting witness. He promptly testified, to the evident surprise of the State's attorneys, that he knew nothing of the matter, and had never been in Campbell's place on Sundry. When asked if he had not given direct testimony before the Grand Jureply. "She died about a year ago, ry, he asserted, in the most positive and father went away to Eureka, to manner, that he had not been in the Grand Jury room for ten or twelve months. The foreman of the Grand Jury at that time, Mr. Gale, was then sent for, and after looking closely at Malone, said that he had undoubtedly been before the Grand Jury but a short time before and testified in Campbell's case. He was at once was going he left us a bag of flour, arrested on a bench warrant, and and lots of groceries and things-as came up yesterday to answer under the accused as the man who testified an indictment for perjury. Foreman Gale again appeared and identified in Campbell's case before the Grand Jury. Mr. F. P. Hawkins, also a "Not one," replied poor Lena with member of the Grand Jury, though not so positive as Mr. Gale, was pretty sure that Malone and the man who had testified. Court Clerk Cary, summons and the swearing of Malone "Well, I must go now," said the in the case. The traverser then took officer, after a pause; "but I will call the stand in his own behalf and qui-their testimony it appeared that the summons in three several instances served them on a man known as John Malone of O., living at 47 Elliott-st.. ing the bread and the destitute con- a stevedore, while the accused is a puddler in the Abbott Iron Works was sworn, and, after waiting all day, ing to the wants of his customers of being upright and honest, kind seeing the Grand Jury. He paid no > in stature, fair complexion and very light har; the other is tall, spare with dark complexion and jet-black The baker swore to the stealing of bair. At the conclusion of the testimony' State's Attorney Campbell frankly told the jury that the State guilty was promptly rendered .- Bal> > timore American. 🦠 To Make Sofe Molasses Gingerlard). Stir this together, and then and stir in one pint of flour. Bake about one inch deep in a sheet. This is very nice if pains be taken to have the water boiling add to beat well when the flour is added;

> > > Thoughtful Thoughts.

No man is wise at all times. To the counsellors of peace is joy. MENTAL gi'ts often hide bodily defects. SEER not for praise, but seek to de-ENVY shoots at others and wounds

Modesty has more charms than WE sow many seeds to get a few flow

EVERY season of life has its appropri EGOTISM and self-assertion are unami-Our night dreams partake of our day thoughts.

Ha who sows brambles must not go ILL examples are like contagious dis THE sleep of the laboring man is sweet. BOASTING renders one ridiculous in the

A CLEAR brain is good, but a right air EVEN a fool when he holdeth his peace is counted wise. Norming is more attractive than more

An ill-natured old man or woman is Wolves may lose their teeth, but nev As springer imitation of fashion is mark of fashion. The hog never looks up to hrows down the acorns THE love of country, and the love

He that waits for dead men's shoes may go a long time barefoot. THE teacher may impart instruction out he cannot furnish brains. Sorrows humanize our race. Tears

A Judicious reticence is hard to learn. but is one of the great lessons of life. To live according to one's means is hon-Our age has but little to ask of the Fun, Fact and Facetiæ. To avoid being cheated in a horse

You can tell a merciful farmer as soon as he stops his team at a post. He takes the blanket off his wife's lap and spreads it over the poor horses. BURDETTE, the Hawkeye humorist, vis-

BOOMEBANG." "Yes; you're braver, stronger, and With the opening of my spring you have the knife. You must go movements in the agricultural line

The Nocturnal Cow.

"Of course; I forgot that," he clear the way."

throat. In another moment I was grasp. To spring to my feet, to seize though the escape made me stag- my hunting case summer squashes,

"If I go first you shall certainly not overtake me-you start and I'll fol-

" Me start?"

threw open the carriage door. Fortunately the self-inflicted wound of the madman did not prove fatal. Ultimately I heard that the bloodletting had a beneficial effect on his brain. I discovered next day that he was a most dangerous lunatic, who had managed to escape from a private asylum.

To my surprise, when I looked at the clock at New Cross, I found that the journey from London Bridge had certainly the longest ten minutes I ever spent .- Fife (Scotland) News.

A Terrible Liar.

"He was the orfulest liar I ever seen," said Cooley O'Leary as he returned from his friend's funeral. Ocean, on which there was a volcano. I was now erect, watching my com- And he said there was an active destruggle, which it was easy to tell melons, and he went into the business was very near. I could easily see I of raising them. And he sail one moment later. "I only answered a was no match for such an antagonist. year his whole crop failed except one one great mistake of his life was that rest.

on the half-shell. . He sprang anew to his feet, and no baggage but a pair of skates and Peri or other who evidently stepped of life. Rather over the average approached me. He threw out his a fishing pole But he skated around height, he had the broad shoulders, strong hands, and made a clutch at until he came across a dead whale frozen into the ice. So he took off ry. "This is how we begin, this is how his shirt—it was night for six months that year up there—tore it into strips cold, and when I went out to feed grow up to bless you for it and be a pleasant. Yet save for the cyes, first to give you start. Then I start for a wick, ran the strips through the my royal, self-acting hen, P found which had a peculiar and indescriba- myself and follow, you." One shout bamboo fishing-rod, stuck the rod this same cow wedged into the henble glare in them, the face was not I gave for help, but it was lost in the into the fat of the whale, and little coop. Oh, thrice blessed and longreport of a fog signal; then we were other end. He said it burned splen- sought revenge! "I did not know that we were so swaying backwarks and forwards in didly; and the iceberg reflected the

the carriage in a struggle which was light so strongly that it was as bright not back out, and I secured a large the carriage in a struggle which was light so strongly that it was as bright not back out, and I secured a large low jests is almost universal with the ling.

Iterally for life and death. The mail- as day for forty miles around, and picket from the fence and took my street lowerers. Paracte often talk.

Oh!" she exclaimed, "don't take man's breath came hot on my face, one vessel ran into the berg, thinking coat off, and breathed in a full street loungers. Parerts often talk his strong arms held me in a fierce it was a light-house. He said he sold breath. I did not want to kill her, I about "Young Amercia" having his embrace. There was a fierce joy in the iceberg to the captain for fifteen simply wanted to make her wish she day, and the boys must "sow their thousand dollars, and the captain had died of membranous croup when wild oats" and then they will "settle split it up and took it home, and she was young. made two hundred per cent. profit disposing of it to ice companies.

enough to grab it by the tongue and and the tail to shorten, and directly me as I nailed up the hen house out they came, the tongue and the again. tail, in one long, continuous string.

"He was astonishing as a truth during the war which was very small and light, while the mortar on the deck was very large and heavy, and he said the first time they tried to fire a fifteen inch shell, the shell remained great that it fired the gunboat four passenger. He threw his book on increase with the struggle. Strive tion. Be Alone Sometimes. caught myself thinking how ugly endure being alone; they are lost un-

THE EXPERIENCE OF "BILL NYE AND

Laramie has about seven cows that cried, almost to my horror, so utterly annoy me a good deal. They work luck would have it, while yet we had was I surprised. "Of course; I for me up so that I lose my equanimity. not made half the short journey, the got that," he cried again. "I must I have mentioned this matter before, but this spring the trouble seems to Still sitting on me he deliberately have assumed some new features. drew the bright blade across his The prevailing cow for this season seems to be a seal-brown cow with a and winter, to its northern boundary deluged with blood. At the same stub tail, which is arranged as a on the snowy Himalaya, there is extime the knife fell from his nerveless night key. She wears it banged. The other day I had just planted my celluloid radishes and irrigated looked up at me with a glare that together, was the work of an instant my Royal Bengal turnips and sown

> New Cross Station, and a porter vey the improssion that she was out for a walk. That night the blow fell. queen of night was high in the blue vault of heaven and the twinkling stars. All nature was hushed to rehealthy step near the conservatory where my celluloid radishes and pickled beets are growing, and I It was a lovely night. At the head of the procession there was a seal-brown cow with a tail like the handle of a pump, and standing at an angle of forty-five degrees.

and the cow went by trying to con-

That was the cow. Following at a rapid gait was bewitching picture of alabaster limbs and Gothic joints and Wamsutta muslin night robe.

That was me. The queen of night withdrew be hind a cloud.

The vision seemed to break her al Bye-and-bye there was a crash and the seal-brown cow went home My hope was that I might hold my year ms whole crop rance except one and one scar-blown cow went home ed everything that he did, and so he melon, and that kept on growing at carrying the garden gates with her own for the few minutes necessary to such a fearful rate that it crowded as a kind of keepsake. She had plenreach Spa road, where plenty of as- him off the lowland and up on the ty of garden gates at home in her sistance would be available.

"Your balloon would scarcely steam and raused an explosion which particular pattern. So she were it weekly. The writer of these lines then care fully brushed the sand off his feet whaler. He used to tell me that the with a pillow sham and retired to "I do. Consider the density of he didn't drive a plug in the crater When the bright May morn was can be seen lounging around the busiushered in upon the busy world the ness streets to a late hour. It is an some sticks of stove-wood and the bad habits and associations are formtracks of a cow, interspersed with ed that bring sons of worthy parents wear a number nine shoe if necessa-

Now I had her where she could

White I was spitting on my hands and a snare. Sometimes the boys she seemed to catch my idea, but she "Lie? Well, sir, he beat any man saw how hopeless was her position. tion to yield mine without a desper- I ever came across. Told me that I brought down the picket with the once out in Nevada a mountain lion | condensed strength and eagerness attacked him, with his mouth wide and wrath of two long, suffering open. He had presence of mind years. It struck the corner of the hen-house. There was a deafening pull. The lien roared with pain, but crash and then all was still, save the he did his level best at pulling, and low, rippling laugh of the dow, as she pretty soon the tongue began to give stood in the alley and encouraged

Looking back over my whole life, which he had passed. busted anticipations.

The Mango Trick.

crusher. Said he served on a gunboat | How IT IS DONE-NOT & WONDERFUL PERFORMANCE. mango" trick is their most effective feat. A mango seed is produced.

Now we, for our part, cannot 'un- home.

is not an uncommon thing to see fifteen year old youths staggering along so full of beer that it is difficult work for them to navigate, and the attendance of cheap cigars and novice, after all, in the art of stealdown," but such talk is a delusion

"settle down," but they more often turn out drunkards and eriminals. No boy was ever better for having been allowed to go through what is judge. called "sowing his wild oats," and. when one does survive the trial, and comes back to the right ways of thinking and doing, it is generally with an impaired constitution and the thought always haunting him of how much better off he would be in every sense of the word were it not

managed. Do not try to beat the principles of right into him, but treat him as a fellow being: do not be foreyer telling him that children should be seen and not heard, and sending With certain Indian jugglers the him off by himself to study over a dry Sunday school lesson, or peruse a chapter in the Bible on future punafter a lot of ceremony (in plain but treat him like a human being, English, fuss,) the seed is put under | with thoughts and feelings like yourthe mould and several coverings of self; talk to him of politics, and the baskets and cloths are placed over current events of the day; advise There was no doubt about it; Mr. the pot. Then there is more ceremo- with him as to your business, and ny and fingering about the covered talk up with him any new project you baskets, and the pot is shown with may have on hand, and let him thus her by force, while the other two the mango leaves just sprouting up see that you have confidence in him children screamed piteously.

Then it is covered over again and consider him of some account;

The officer, suspecting the more hocussing goes on, and the co- and with a reasonably pleasant home ver is lifted up again and the plant in other respects, you will not have > the streets rather than to remain at that he would be back again in a A LETTER should always be THE saw mills will soon be engaged urning out spring board. JOURNALISTS are careful in Algiers bout publishing gossip of the Dey. A STROKE of lightning generally spares the rod and spoils the house.

a bad spell. THE ordinary life of a locometive is

To carry me to unknown lands. His whinny shrill, his pawing boof, Sound dreadful as a gathering storm And I must leave this sheltering roof shes equally in Ceylon and in the THE JUDGE'S SURPRISE sub-Himalayan countries. We have The day was bitterly cold in Virthrough the streets, breathing icicles en two others : the first, that Indian seek shelter from its biting penetratjugglers all belong to one Masonie ing breath. And yet not everyone his letters. brotherhood, and are in intimate was housed from the pitiless gale, for communication with one another, all he who had work to do or business eyer on the move; and the second, to transict was summoned by inexorthat even they will decline at times able duty to come forth to his post, pany me to the police office, for I he had not drank at Campbell's on to perform this particular feat-that or else, when the day of reckoning is, when they are not provided with came, abide by the consequences; by." And Lena Dawson was left Grand Jury for more than a year, the blossoms, green and ripe fruits. but, with such exceptions as these, alone with her little brothers and and moreover had received no sumthe seeds, shoots, etc., are always the male population generally sought sisters. She felt sad and lonesome mons to go before them. Officer

ing) and asked him if it was not true people must eat, eat, in fact, all the there in the wraps. The glance of our eye told him that we knew every seasonable joke upon the baker, who well known and popular among the ing called to the stand, John Malone detail in the process, and had watchconfessed that what we said was the truth, and ap logized by saying that radish and squash bed had melted evil that seems to be rapidly grow. first easting wild and hurried glances preliminary business the case was melon and then come home sailing into chaos, and there only remained ing, and it is in this way that many around her, rushed to the baker's cart, called. three loaves of bread, and was car-

the youngest about three and the two elder children, alarmed at the evidence of suffering and recent tears; for the degenerating period through while little Willie, the youngest, was crying and inappeasable, moping aimlessly around the cabin, looking into little fellow frantically in her arms, ishment and the terrors of hell fire; covering him with tears and kisses. "Oh, my poor little brother!" she cried, bitterly. "What will become of you now? This man is going to take your Lena away with him !"

state of affairs, began to investigate. eat!" replied the girl, wringing her hards; "and poor Willie and the be the sympathy of the court for the boy. There may be exceptions, but rest of us have had nothing to cat

> . Here the officer went away, saying short time: "Is the man gone for bread?" asked the oldest of the children. "Hush, Molly, dear!" said Lena "I don't know what he has gone for. He's not a bad man, any how, for he screamed with delight; while Lena

Leng for short," At sight of the bread the children | you born?" asked the Judge.

ited Mark Twain in December, and people have been on tip-too ever since to

DON'T TAKE IT TO HEART. would deserve your thanks, would be There was a light in the speaker's eyes which I did not like, and there was a movement at the corners of his. mouth the opposite of pleasant. While not feeling the least dread of first to clear the way." him, I was yet not without a strong desire to reach Spa road. As bad

Were we not unwilling to furnish the wings train came to a sudden stop.
"Yes, he would be a public benet hatches out all sorts of horrible shings. How welcome the seeming factor who could deliver the people of looks that are beaming, Whether one's wealthy or whether one's poor. of London from fog," I said. Eyes bright as a berry, Cheeks red as a cherry, he groan and the curse and the heartache [am the man.'

"He would, would he not?" whispered my companion eagerly. "Then As he spoke he crouched down and the open wound and press the edges made me start. He buttoned his coat and pulled up his sleeves, as he whis- ger. At the same moment we reached pered again, "I am the man. I can life has much that's worth living for yet. free you from these fogs-I can free -Tinzley's Marjazine. myself."

For the first time the thought now flashed into my mind that I was alone TEN TERRIBLE MINUTES with a madman. I recognized now that wild light in his eyes, that One November evening a few years strange twitching at the corners of ago I had occasion to travel from the mouth. I do not suppose I am Cannon street to Spa road station, constitutionally more timid than most on the Southeastern Railway. It had of my neighbors; yet at this moment been a cold, foggy day throughout, I felt a cold sweat breaking all over and there were comparatively few me, and I know I looked eagerly out passengers. The compartment which in the darkness, hoping that as now entered-a second-class-had but the train was slowly moving we were one previous occupant, a stoutly-built near the station. I saw only the not taken ten minutes. They were man of thirty-five or forty. He was thick fog and the feeble light of here attempting, with evidently small suc and there a lamp. Yes, the man was mad, raving-mad cess, to read a book, and he fidgeted about on his seat in rather a testy There could be no doubt about it Only a maniac could laugh the mirth-Having a doubt as to the regulari- less laugh which now came from his ty of trains on such an evening I throat, as he drew two steps nearer said, "I suppose this stops at Spa and hissed at me: "We shall travel "Why, he told me once that he lived together to the moon. Adieu to the on a small island out in the Pacific "Spa road! Of course it does." fogs; say with me, adieu to the fogs." said this gentleman, with what I conpanion intently, nerving myself for a mand out in that region for watersidered unnecessary vehemence. "All simple question—a fool or madman Here the train slowly moved off, and the speaker, whose face I had not yet seen, resumed his efforts to "Your ba'loon would scarcely steam and caused an explosion which particular pattern. So she wore it read, muttering now and again an travel on such a night," I said, with blew up the whole concern to atoms, home around her neck. affected indifference. imprecation at the expense of the fog phere is too thick." When we reached the glasst dome "Too thick?. Do you think so?

he said.

I found myself in a position to obtthe fog. How could we possibly get of the volcano so as to make it watertain a good view of my fellow passen- through it?" "Well, there's something in that," ger. Hitherto he had obstinately, he said, sitting down. "Yet the efkept his back or shoulders towards me. Now he threw his volume down fort is worth a 'rial. Yes, it is worth on the seat and faced about. He was, a trial." as I have said, a man in the full prime full chest, and nervous hands of an my throat. athlete. The impression which his features produced was decidedly un I get the gas for the trip. I kill you

"The fog has affected your eve-The foam worked out of his mouth sight, my friend," was the reply. Trouble yourself to look out of this and his teeth gnashed angrily against each other. "Oh, that!" I said, smiling. "You like your joke, sir, I perceive. The Borough Market must feel flattered, ate struggle. I tore my antagonist's hands from my throat, and for a moindeed, to be mistaken for the Sy ment forced him to act on the defensive. I shouted again and again for "Borough Market! Of course, it was only my joke," laughed my comhelp, and how I longed for Spa road panion. But there was no mirth in no words can describe. The train was now running at a good rate and

He now took up his book again I knew the station could not be far and made another attempt to read, off. If only I could hold my own for Though he fixed his eyes on the page one half minute all would be safe. Pausing in his exertions for a mo- He said he had 'em at home and he it seems to me that it is strewn with leaf, it was evident that his reading ment the madman saddenly quitted showed em to me, but my belief is nothing but the rugged ruins of my was little better than a pretence. In me. Just then to my horror the train that they were only three or four deed, it was so dark in the carriage rushed through my station without cow hides and a bulk's tail dovetailed that to see the small characters in an even slackening speed. I was in the together. ordinary volume had become quite wrong train and there was no hope impossible. While he was thus en- of assistance until we reached New gaged the train reached London Cross. It was evident that my fel-Bridger The moment we entered the low-passengers had not heard my station my companion, who had drawn | shouts for assistance.

nearer me, returned to his seat in the Without a word of warning my corner farthest from the platform, companion again threw himself upon From this he gazed with evidently me, this time with a fury so resistless eager interest on the people passing that I was borne to the floor. "We shall go to the moon," he and repassing the carriage door. As at Cannon street, the number of these shricked. "I have a knife-we can was not great, and we were still alone | cut our way through the fog." I felt myself helpless. My previous The moment we were outside the exertions had exhausted my strength, station a change came over my fellow while that of the manine seemed to

in his mouth which at once repelled watching me curiously.

traveler," I said.

the floor, and rose to his feet. Hith- as I might I was utterly and entirely erto I had, being preoccupied with in his power now. my own thoughts, given small heed | How slowly the train seemed to to him. Now, without knowing why, move. I believe now that it was "Ah!" he said. "I have been eye- blue, with white spots I no longer, gone dead I reckon he'll ketch it." O'Leary was very successful as a

"Then I'm afraid that with the and I pitied the unfortunate trades- where he could measure its propor- about this feat was that the green exception of those famous heroes of man for the bad debt he had made. tions and see its regulations. So it and ripe fruits, and every branch Jules Verne there are very few about." While these and a hundred other is well at times away from our world and shoot that was exhibited, were "Just so! just so! And yet a trip thoughts were passing through my |-companions, actions, work-in or actually there, just as much as the stationery, while the recoil was so and a flower pot filled with mold, and a tree. He was a liar but now he's constructor of energetic work of fic-Secure for yourself some regular is seen to have grown. The cover- much trouble in keeping him from all to eat in the house?" said he. I felt myself fascinated. There was going at a good speed, but to me it privacy of life. As George Herbert ing, hocussing and opening go on, the streets, and will have the proud a light in his dark eyes, an expression appeared to progress at a snail's pace. says, "By all means use sometimes the plant meanwhile having further satisfaction of seeing a useful and re-And how cariously vivid were my to be alone." God has put each into grown and become strong enough to spected citizen grow up out of your thoughts. I saw the home where I a separate body. We should follow bear fruit, the blossoms to appear, "Have you been much of a trav- was expected, the kind faces waiting the divine hint, and see to it that we the fruit to form, and finally the fruit it is the general rule, that parents since yesterday morning." eler?" he asled suddenly. He was to greet me I wondered what they'd do not lapse again into the general to ripen, which is then plucked off are to blame if children love to gad THE EAR standing with his back to the door say when they heard of my death. I flood of being. Many people cannot and given to be eaten. "I have never been out of the were the madman's eyes, and I even less there is a clatter of tongues in derstand how any one can fail to see noticed the color of his necktie- their ears. It is not only weak, but through the performance, Nay, even it fosters weakness. The gregarious when to a fellow spectator who once rywhere-Italy, Russia, India, China, felt any inclination to shout for help. instinct is animal-the sheep and viewed this performance we explain-Timbuctoo, Ashantee- anywhere- To all intents I looked upon myself deer living on in us; to be alone is ed the details of the trick after it everywhere. I have been near the as dead. I even began to think of spiritual. We can have no clear, was over, he would not believe, but North Pole and quite at the South." myself as a third person, and to la- personal judgment of things till we reckoned the affair wonderful and "Indeed, you must be a very great ment in a philosophical fashion, the are somewhat separate from them. even partaking of the supernatural. ill-fortune which cut off at the begin- Mr. Webster used to say of a difficult | We can only attribute it to his hav-"I have never been to the moon. ning of his career a promising young question, "Let me sleep on it." It ing been so mystified as to have been No man can be a great traveler who man. Then I remembered that I was not merely for morning vigor, actually mesmerized, though partakowed a shoemaker for a pair of boots, but to get the matter at a distance ing of consciousness. The real truth

"Just so! just so! And yet a trip up above this detestable fog beyond the clouds would be enjoyable. In a night like this it would be peculiarly so; don't you agree with me?"

PRACTICAL FLUNDER & GAS FITTER. Place of business, a few doors north of Post-Omec. Place of business, a few doors north of Post-Omec. Place of business, a few doors north of Post-Omec. Place of business, and all kinds of dearing promptity attended to the rather be at my firest and all kinds of dearing promptity attended to the control of the call world give him. Dec. 4, 1879.

"Just so! Just so! And yet a trip up above this detestable fog beyond the clouds would be enjoyable. In a night like this it would be peculiarly suppose that at the outside more than a minute had elapsed since my united by the many proceedings, and all kinds of dearing promptity attended to their wants till they were liked."

"Just so! Just so! And yet a trip up above this detestable fog beyond the clouds would be enjoyable. In a night like this it would be peculiarly suppose that at the outside more than a minute had elapsed since my united by the many proceedings, and all kinds of dearing promptity attended to their wants till they were liked."

"Just so! Just so! And yet a trip up above this detestable fog beyond the children and herself, the two did from the follow and at the flower-pot—all in the derive mose of the exist so apply were care-into the covering. We were care-into the world from the isolation it brings, shutting out the world from the isolation it brings, shutting out the world from the isolation it brings, shutting out the world from the isolation it brings, shutting out the world from the isolation it brings, shutting out the world from the isolation it brings, shutting out the world from the isolation it brings, shutting out the world from the isolation it brings, shutting out the world from the isolation it brings, which is one of the cabin. Then they cover the many prompting in the deal warmth and comfort through warmy hide is shorp.

"Not quit "1 ou would, would you're Look | "We'll cut our way to the moon— ments each day to yourself; take struments of the exhibition after the general from having been called "Brigathat, smell that, taste that cursed my knife is sharp. Let's try it on now and then a solitary walk; get peculiar performance began, the basings, dear," so often by his numerous let's allowed the struments of the exhibition after the general from having been called "Brigathat that, taste that cursed my knife is sharp. Let's try it on low and then a solitary walk; get peculiar performance began, the basings, dear," so often by his numerous let's allowed the struments of the exhibition after the general from having been called "Brigathat that, taste that cursed my knife is sharp. Let's try it on low and then a solitary walk; get peculiar performance began, the basings of the exhibition after the general from having been called "Brigathat that, smell that, taste that cursed my knife is sharp. Let's try it on low and then a solitary walk; get peculiar performance began, the basings of the exhibition after the general from having been called "Brigathat that, taste that cursed my knife is sharp. Let's try it on low and then a solitary walk; get peculiar performance began, the basings of the struments of the exhibition after the general from having been called "Brigathat that the struments of the exhibition after the general from having been called "Brigathat that the struments of the exhibition after the general from having been called "Brigathat that the struments of the exhibition after the general from having been called "Brigathat that the struments of the exhibition after the general from having been called "Brigathat that the general from having been called been called been called the general from having been called BANK, fog." He threw open the window, or throat."

It grant you it is not pleasant, ites for the transpense.

Ites for the distance of thick woods, or the distance of thick woods, or the total suggest to with the same the folds of the transpense.

Ites for the transpense.

Ites

everywhere procurable. If there be still any other doubter. let us only add that after the performance detailed above we took the man aside (unwilling naturally to expose the man and destroy the credit by means of which he made his livthat the branches and fruits were all

Most any night a large number of young-boys, from ten years old up, of an over-indulgent mother or father. about four yards at a lick, and could Keep your boys at home nights unless you know that they are out for some reputable purpose, and your

It is an easy thing to gain such re spect and love from a son as will always ensure his obedience if rightly ociety. They say she looks good enough NASBY is going to Europe in the spring.