

Bradford Reporter.
CHAS. H. ALLEN, LOCAL EDITOR.
TOWANDA, Pa., July 21, 1881.
ENTERED IN THE POSTOFFICE AT TOWANDA AS MAIL MATTER OF THE SECOND CLASS.
LOCAL AND GENERAL.
The expiration of subscription in print on the colored label. By noticing the date every subscriber can tell when his paper will be stopped unless the subscription is renewed.
WANTED—AN APPRENTICE.
A good, steady boy, between the ages of 14 and 20 years, and possessed of a fair education, will be taken as an apprentice at the trade. None but such as desire to learn the trade of a Printer, need apply.
Muzzle your dog.
There is no ice in the river.
"Do, do," commenced on Monday.
What has become of that cold wave?
Leaves and cream will soon be here.
DIPHTHERIA still lingers around Monroeton.
The weather is somewhat cooler than it was a few days ago.
"Get past your tongue in splits," is the most fashionable slang.
The President eats heartily of beef, steak and other solid food, now.
There is a large number of Townspeople attending the race at Elkhart on Saturday.
SACKETT'S Drug Store, in Athens, was closed by the Sheriff's day last week.
Some one after VENDOR. He said July would be hot, and we agree with him.
The tannery of E. VAN DUSE, Troy, turns out about $1,200 worth of leather per week.
ELMER POSE has the agency for selling the Wilkes-Barre Zeal, a popular morning daily paper.
A barn belonging to O. WILSON, in Columbia township, was destroyed by fire on the 14th inst.
The farms in the western part of the county say that their hay crops are not nearly so heavy as it was expected to be.
The Troy House, at Troy, has quite a goodly number of rooms for the summer months.
A new bridge is being built at Meryall, to take the place of the one carried away by the fresh last spring.
LOUIS Claybake Springs, near Troy are gaining quite a celebrity, and are visited daily by a goodly number of people.
A young couple has put in an appearance. It is thought to be the 1907 family. It is, in fact, visible to the naked eye.
Is the reorganization of the militia of this State, Company I, 12th Regiment, of Canton, will be mustered out of service.
The State Teachers' Association meets at Washington, Washington County, on Monday next for a session of three days.
The temperance workers in the State have decided to call a State prohibition convention to meet in Harrisburg in January, 1882.
The Mother Shiptons have once more predicted the end of the world. The date of their next disappointment is the 11th of November.
The slanty gear the lower depot, for nearly thirty years past the home of LEON GILBERT, was torn down last week by the Bradford County.
The man who may earn his bread wholly in the sweat of his face has lately had excellent and easy chances to accumulate a number of boxes.
A table covered by GEO. DENNETT, of North Towanda, was killed on Thursday, it having shown unmistakable signs of being afflicted with rabies.
The premium list of the Bradford County Agricultural Society is now being circulated. It is in pamphlet form, and is sent from the Bradford office.
The Chamberlain household, at Wyalusing, is undergoing repairs and improvements, which, when completed, will add very materially to its appearance and convenience.
While walking on the track a man by the name of EDWARD O'DONNELL was run over and killed by the cars at Sayre, Saturday evening. It was about 6 1/2 years of age.
They everything in nature has some use for man has often been asserted, and now some body comes forward with the statement that cockroaches are capital bait for black bass.
All physicians and surgeons of this county should call immediately at the Psychological office and get registered in the book for such registration made and provided.
The Chamberlain household, at Wyalusing, is undergoing repairs and improvements, which, when completed, will add very materially to its appearance and convenience.
While walking on the track a man by the name of EDWARD O'DONNELL was run over and killed by the cars at Sayre, Saturday evening. It was about 6 1/2 years of age.
They everything in nature has some use for man has often been asserted, and now some body comes forward with the statement that cockroaches are capital bait for black bass.
All physicians and surgeons of this county should call immediately at the Psychological office and get registered in the book for such registration made and provided.

TWO Poets of the Grand Army of the Republic of this State will go on camp on the battlefield of Gettysburg on Saturday next, July 29th, to remain for a week. The rates from Elmira and returns will be only $4.00. A grant time is anticipated.
The Athens Gazette says: "The New York, Lackawanna & Western Railroad is nearly completed through South Waverly, and presents a grandly elevated position. It is said that the depot will be built on Pennsylvania avenue, near Pleasant street.
If all newspaper men were as honest in doing a credit business as CHARLEY ALLEN of the Reporter, a great many more items would have italic terminal facilities.—Canton Sentinel. Virtue has its sure reward. The editor of the Argus ought to make a note of this.
An organization was started in this place on Tuesday, to aid in raising the fund of $50,000, to be presented to Mrs. GARDNER. N. N. BERTS, cashier of the First National Bank, was selected as treasurer, and all subscriptions should be sent or handed to him.
A barn belonging to JOH. MORELEY, near Burlington, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday last week. HENRY HILL, who was making some repairs to the building, lost nearly all of his set of carpenter's tools. It is supposed the fire was the work of an incendiary.
The annual encampment of the National Guard of Pennsylvania will take place next month. The troops in the western part of the State (the Third Brigade) will camp at ELLIOTT'S Grove, near LEE Park, Wilkes-Barre, commencing Tuesday August 16th, and continuing one week.
The city authorities of Wilkes-Barre have finally been compelled to adopt stringent measures to prevent the spread of small-pox. There are some twenty-five cases in the city, and several deaths have recently occurred. The doctors are all vaccinating the poor free of charge, and there is general alarm.
The dwelling house of WARREN CASE, on Elmira street, Troy, was slightly damaged by fire on the 10th inst. by the explosion of a lamp that had been left burning in a room in the rear part of the building. The fire was extinguished by FRANK G. LORAIN and his brother, who suffered the loss of nearly all their clothing.
Look out for the rocket! It seems that our paternal government at Washington proposes to send every year at the close of each year, on certain points, in the agricultural districts, rockets of various colors, to indicate to the farmers the expected character of the weather during the day. Due announcement will be made when they are ready.
BENJAMIN CHAMBERLAIN of this city, while riding in a Lehigh Valley car on Monday, was mistakenly arrested by a Towanda officer as PHILIP STEINHAUS, whose capture at Elmira was noted yesterday. He spent the night in the lock-up, but was released in the morning. He will probably be fined for false imprisonment.—Wilkes-Barre Record.
It is proposed among the Knights of Honor along the line of the Erie and Lehigh to hold a grand picnic at Haworth Island, near Owego, the first week in August. Grand Dictator ADAM WALKER, of New York, is expected to be present. A clam bake is to be one of the features of the day. The Knights of this section should make arrangements to attend.
ROLL of Honor of Akeley School, Spring Hill, ending July 8, 1881: BERTHA TAYLOR, GEORGE WOOD, MARY HARRIS, DENNIS BOWEN, VIDA TAYLOR, GEORGE SYDNEY, MINA COOPER, FRANCIS C. GUY, WALTER, HANCOCK, LOUIS, CHESTER WELLS, HARRY ACKLEY, GEORGE COATS, TOMMY LYLES.
EVALINE ALLEN, Teacher.
MR. JOHN S. HENSON, a young man well known in this city, has fitted up in first-class style, and well stocked with cigars, tobaccos and smokers' goods generally, a store in Mercer Block, Towanda. MR. HENSON is a gentleman whose business qualifications, together with his genial manners, is a guarantee of success in his new undertaking.—Elmira Enterprise.
ROLL of Honor of Kenedy School, for the week ending July 1, 1881: ADRIAN PEET, CAROL MARY WOODRUFF, LOUISA WALKER, MAMIE MANNING, EVA WHELAN, MAMIE McLOE, MISTYVA WILSON, BERTIE PEET. For the week ending July 8, 1881: MARY ANN HENNER, MARY KENNEDY, WILLIAM KENNEDY, WALTER KENNEDY, HARRY PEET.
J. WALKER, Teacher.
JOHN WELSH, of Waverly, employed with the steam boiler, located about a mile and a half east of this city, had his leg broken by a falling bar, and was seriously injured Thursday. He was buried under a falling bar, and three ribs broken and sustained other severe injuries. A large slide came down upon him without warning. Nearly half an hour elapsed before he could be dug out.
MELBA, a child of the name that the average pulse-beat of a healthy adult male, when standing, is 81 minutes; when sitting, 71; when lying down, 69. In a healthy adult male the respirations are from 14 to 18 each minute. The normal temperature of the body in a state of health is 98.5 Fahrenheit. The same will give the reader a clearer understanding of President Garfield's symptoms as recorded in the surgeons' bulletins from day to day.
A serious accident, says the Troy Gazette, occurred on the 14th inst. by the falling of a horse on one of the streets in the town of Troy. The horse, owned by the Methodist of all hands, was the blessing of God to rest on the Ecumenical Conference, which meets in London in the fall.
KELLOGG & MARCHER, the bridge builders, at Athens, have more orders for bridges than their works, than any previous time since they started in the business. Their bridges are said to be among the best manufactured.
A TOWANDA REPORTER employee gets his cigars by imp-tuning visitors.—Wilkes-Barre Record. And out "imp" rises to remark that the author of the above is an old imp-tuning, imp-tunable, imp-tent. So there, now.

FAMILY GATHERING.
The children, relatives and friends of BROOK and ELIZABETH TOWER, of Rome, Bradford County, were on July 15th, at the residence of the late ALVIN D. TOWER, the husband of ELIZABETH TOWER, widow of the late ENOCH TOWER. The occasion was one of unusual interest, and much social enjoyment to all present, and to none more so than to Mother TOWER, for one of her age Mother TOWER retains her faculties remarkably. She being a great reader converses intelligently upon the topics of the day. Her relation of many occurrences of Pioneer life in Northern Pennsylvania are interesting. Her father, JAMES MOORE, settled in Bradford County when she was very young. Of eleven children living of her mother, five of whom she has, three daughters were present. Three daughters whose homes were far distant were absent. Five generations were represented—Mother TOWER has lived on her ancestral home great-grandson. After partaking to the number of seventy of the contents of the well-filled baskets and listening to excellent music, the company returned indulging the hope that Mother TOWER may live to enjoy many birthday anniversaries.—H.
FIRE AT TROY.
A correspondent of the Elmira Gazette gives the following particulars of a fire that visited Troy on Thursday last: A fire broke out at 5:45 P. M. in a small barn owned by C. P. STANLEY, the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The buildings were very old and burned like tinder, and before the engine got to work the fire consumed with GRIST's barn and fire, C. V. DANA's house, vacant for several days last past, but is now said to be getting better.
Editor HINTON, of the Athens Gazette, was in town Tuesday. He reports that the fire broke out in the rear of two small wooden houses on Canton street owned by ARNOLD JOHNSON and occupied by GILES BRANT and JAMES NAGLE. The