

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The City of Aurora, Ill., has $140,000 in its treasury, which it doesn't know what to do with.

The time and care and labor necessitated in the removal of the grass and weeds that grow so luxuriantly on the edges of pavements, and in the gutters, are well and abundantly rewarded in the increased neatness and cleanliness secured.

Wild rabbits are plenty this spring. LaBayville Advertiser, 18th. Good, gracious! Over here we have supposed for the past few days, at least, that it was the latter part of summer.

The candidates are now hard at work. See that your name is on the registry list.

The Summer tourists are beginning to return. WATKINS Glen to-morrow (Friday), $3.00.

There are two beer bottling establishments in Canton.

When you want good printing at low prices, call at the Reporter's office.

The Band will give an open air concert in the Park this (Thursday) evening.

A MINISTER is wanted by the Presbyterian congregation at Lawrenceville, Toga county.

FRITH & LEONARD, of Athens, had a horse and harness stolen on Wednesday night last week.

It is said, by those who have seen it, that the new comet, which is heading this way, has two tails.

It is said that rubbing the back of the neck steadily, often alleviates very severe headaches. Try it.

A NUMBER of the shade and ornamental trees about town have already begun to drop their fall colors.

The Sayre Club Ball Club desire to meet any Club in Bradford County, in a friendly game of ball.

The growing tobacco is maturing somewhat prematurely in consequence of the continuous dry weather.

The survivors of the famous 11st P. V., contemplate holding a reunion at this place at an early date.

Dr. H. L. TOWNSEND has purchased the residence of G. M. GAY, Main street, Athens, which he will soon occupy.

The annual Re-Union of the 8th regiment N. Y. V., will be held at Binghamton, N. Y., on September 14th.

It is rumored that a large hotel will be erected at an early day, by a stock company, at Lake Carey, Wyoming county.

ATTORNEYS several of its members were absent, the Germania Band gave an excellent concert in the park on Monday evening.

Who can tell what JELLY-PT?—New Millford Advertiser. As HARRIS-PT watermelon, it's probable that JULY-PT the same.

APPLICATION will be made to the next term of Court to make the bridge across the Susquehanna, at Athens, a county bridge.

It is said that a tea made of blackberry leaves is a sure cure for cholera morbus. As the remedy is simple it may be worth a trial.

The warehouse of the Novelty Furniture Works, Athens, is being considerably enlarged. That signifies an increased business.

It is said that Mr. IRA WALKER, of the Waverly Review, will start a daily morning paper in that village on the first of September.

AND now it is time for voters to be looking up as to whether or not their names are on the Registry List. If not, have it done.

An exchange says that paper pillows are excellent things for fever patients—that is, linen cases filled with scraps of torn newspaper.

CHURCH of the Messiah, Rev. WILLIAM TAYLOR, Pastor. At 10 1/2 A. M., subject, "Free truth, the way to true freedom." No evening service.

The Knights of Honor, of Wayne, Lackawanna and Luzerne counties, are talking of a union picnic at an early day, probably at Jones' Lake.

The report of there being several cases of small-pox at Lawrenceville, is authoritatively denied. There is not now, nor has not been a single case of the disease there.

A BRANCH of the Great Boston Clothing House is to be opened in the Meantown Block, Main street, on or about the 1st of September. See advertisement in another column.

The Lettysville Advertiser says that Asa S. FISK, of Pike, has a Bartlett Pear tree which contains one hundred well ripened pears. The tree is eight years old, and has borne every year except the two first.

MANLY, a little five-year-old daughter of JAMES JOHNSON, of Lettysville, was quite severely bruised about the head and face, by a fall out of a rear door to the Lettysville House barn, one day last week.

The S. L. & S. R. Co., have painted the depot at this place, says the DuShore Review, and erected a platform on all sides of the building, making it very convenient, and very much better in appearance.

A FARMERS' and grangers' basket picnic will be held at Hiawatha Island, near Owego, on Saturday next. W. A. ARMSTRONG, of Elmira, and Colonel VICTOR E. POOLEY, of Wysox, will make speeches.

HUNGARIANS entered the cellars of the dwellings of LISBON BLESS and O. P. PAINE, in Troy, on the night of the 13th, and helped themselves to canned fruits, vegetables, etc. They are becoming quite prominent in the line of burglaries.

A NEW paper is soon to be started at Tunkhannock, it is rumored. It will be of the Greenback persuasion, and its editor will be A. R. MERRICK, formerly of Toga. Tunkhannock is in our judgment an excellent place to start a paper to fail.

Bartholomew's Advertiser, has a "Mim Jolly" cartoon, which is a most amusing and interesting. It is a cartoon with four legs. BARRETT would do well to secure it for his collection of caricatures.

The City of Aurora, Ill., has $140,000 in its treasury, which it doesn't know what to do with.

The time and care and labor necessitated in the removal of the grass and weeds that grow so luxuriantly on the edges of pavements, and in the gutters, are well and abundantly rewarded in the increased neatness and cleanliness secured.

Wild rabbits are plenty this spring. LaBayville Advertiser, 18th. Good, gracious! Over here we have supposed for the past few days, at least, that it was the latter part of summer.

The candidates are now hard at work. See that your name is on the registry list.

The Summer tourists are beginning to return. WATKINS Glen to-morrow (Friday), $3.00.

There are two beer bottling establishments in Canton.

When you want good printing at low prices, call at the Reporter's office.

The Band will give an open air concert in the Park this (Thursday) evening.

A MINISTER is wanted by the Presbyterian congregation at Lawrenceville, Toga county.

FRITH & LEONARD, of Athens, had a horse and harness stolen on Wednesday night last week.

It is said, by those who have seen it, that the new comet, which is heading this way, has two tails.

It is said that rubbing the back of the neck steadily, often alleviates very severe headaches. Try it.

A NUMBER of the shade and ornamental trees about town have already begun to drop their fall colors.

The Sayre Club Ball Club desire to meet any Club in Bradford County, in a friendly game of ball.

The growing tobacco is maturing somewhat prematurely in consequence of the continuous dry weather.

The survivors of the famous 11st P. V., contemplate holding a reunion at this place at an early date.

Dr. H. L. TOWNSEND has purchased the residence of G. M. GAY, Main street, Athens, which he will soon occupy.

The annual Re-Union of the 8th regiment N. Y. V., will be held at Binghamton, N. Y., on September 14th.

It is rumored that a large hotel will be erected at an early day, by a stock company, at Lake Carey, Wyoming county.

ATTORNEYS several of its members were absent, the Germania Band gave an excellent concert in the park on Monday evening.

Who can tell what JELLY-PT?—New Millford Advertiser. As HARRIS-PT watermelon, it's probable that JULY-PT the same.

APPLICATION will be made to the next term of Court to make the bridge across the Susquehanna, at Athens, a county bridge.

It is said that a tea made of blackberry leaves is a sure cure for cholera morbus. As the remedy is simple it may be worth a trial.

The warehouse of the Novelty Furniture Works, Athens, is being considerably enlarged. That signifies an increased business.

It is said that Mr. IRA WALKER, of the Waverly Review, will start a daily morning paper in that village on the first of September.

AND now it is time for voters to be looking up as to whether or not their names are on the Registry List. If not, have it done.

An exchange says that paper pillows are excellent things for fever patients—that is, linen cases filled with scraps of torn newspaper.

CHURCH of the Messiah, Rev. WILLIAM TAYLOR, Pastor. At 10 1/2 A. M., subject, "Free truth, the way to true freedom." No evening service.

The Knights of Honor, of Wayne, Lackawanna and Luzerne counties, are talking of a union picnic at an early day, probably at Jones' Lake.

The report of there being several cases of small-pox at Lawrenceville, is authoritatively denied. There is not now, nor has not been a single case of the disease there.

A BRANCH of the Great Boston Clothing House is to be opened in the Meantown Block, Main street, on or about the 1st of September. See advertisement in another column.

The Lettysville Advertiser says that Asa S. FISK, of Pike, has a Bartlett Pear tree which contains one hundred well ripened pears. The tree is eight years old, and has borne every year except the two first.

MANLY, a little five-year-old daughter of JAMES JOHNSON, of Lettysville, was quite severely bruised about the head and face, by a fall out of a rear door to the Lettysville House barn, one day last week.

The S. L. & S. R. Co., have painted the depot at this place, says the DuShore Review, and erected a platform on all sides of the building, making it very convenient, and very much better in appearance.

A FARMERS' and grangers' basket picnic will be held at Hiawatha Island, near Owego, on Saturday next. W. A. ARMSTRONG, of Elmira, and Colonel VICTOR E. POOLEY, of Wysox, will make speeches.

HUNGARIANS entered the cellars of the dwellings of LISBON BLESS and O. P. PAINE, in Troy, on the night of the 13th, and helped themselves to canned fruits, vegetables, etc. They are becoming quite prominent in the line of burglaries.

A NEW paper is soon to be started at Tunkhannock, it is rumored. It will be of the Greenback persuasion, and its editor will be A. R. MERRICK, formerly of Toga. Tunkhannock is in our judgment an excellent place to start a paper to fail.

The barns of GEORGE W. SPARK, of East Towanda, about five miles north of Towanda, were destroyed by fire last Friday, together with the contents, consisting of about thirty tons of hay, five hundred bushels of oats, one hundred bushels of wheat, besides a new threshing machine and several valuable farming utensils. The loss will reach $5,000. It is a severe loss for Mr. SPARK.

A new company last week completed the purchase of 30,000 acres of timber and coal land along the southeast branch of Pine creek, Toga county, comprising the Hancock and two other tracts, says the Canton Sentinel. The agent of the company ran in Canton a few days since, and expressed the opinion that a railroad from that place to the mines would be built. They have already opened a six-foot vein of coal and wish to reach the Northern Central at that, the nearest practical point.

On Thursday last, says a correspondent, a blast pipe in the bridge shops at Athens burst doing considerable damage, besides laying off a good many work hands, until repairs could be made. The accident was caused by carelessly having the blast on when gutting the place for dinner. When starting up again, the gas which had collected in the pipes exploded. Nobody was seriously injured, although there were some very narrow escapes.

From all parts of the country around us comes up the cry for rain. The streams are dividing fast; springs are sizzling, cisterns are exhausted—in short, all nature is clamoring for moisture. This section could stand a weeks continuous rain without being set back very materially. The growing corn is suffering, and much more serious is being felt on the scarcity of water. The drought is wide spread, embracing other states beyond Pennsylvania—there being an actual water famine in some sections.

HICKOR'S planting mill at Canton, narrowly escaped destruction by fire on Monday last week. Sparks from the stove stack set the roof on fire. The flames were discovered before they had made much headway, and a few pals of water sufficed to put them out.

SAYS the Canton correspondent of the Elmira Advertiser: "It is said that there are no less than thirteen candidates for the office of County Treasurer in this county. The fight is raging very hot in Western Bradford, and every candidate is going through his very best paces as the time between this and the convention grows less." Each candidate seems to have the most perfect assurance of his own success. In the convention, it is said, twelve of them must meet with disappointment. It is superfluous to say.

In our judgment, the Elwell House is among the best hotels in Northern Pennsylvania, and KILGORE is one of the most jovial, good-natured landlords extant. It is positively worth at least one dollar just to hear ONALD laugh. It is one of those things that will "lighten up the gloom," as it were, for two or three miles around, on several days—to speak. What a large amount of sunshine some people do carry around them, and what excellent meals some hotels do furnish for a small amount of money.

A HOUSEKEEPER, remarking that in the fruit-canning season the saving of sugar is an item worth looking after, says: "Everybody should know that sugar boiled with an acid, it will be three times as good as when it is not. It is a fact that twelve of them must meet with disappointment. It is superfluous to say."

The pure belonging to PERRY GAFF, living near Jackson Summit, Toga county, was struck by lightning Sunday afternoon and entirely destroyed, with its full contents of the harvest. Another barn adjacent was also destroyed. The loss was about $2,000, with a slight insurance.

At a glass ball about at Canton, on Friday last, between EMERSON CLEVELAND and EDGAR L. DAVENPORT, for a purse of $25, twenty-five balls apiece, resulting in a draw, the winning ball being in favor of DAVENPORT, heading all previous records and showing the finest shooting yet.

The person who can tie a poor half-starved horse to a wagon and let him roam in the lot for seven or eight hours, would not in our judgment, mourn himself to death should his mother-in-law die. There was such a man in town on Saturday last, however.

The Stevensville Brass Band will hold its annual Band Convention in Stevens Park, Stevensville, commencing Monday evening, September 10th, and closing Friday evening, September 14th, with a Grand Band Concert. Professor R. E. CONOVER, of Scranton, will be the Musical Director.

WATKINS Glen. Germania Band. Friday, $2.00. Go.

The last announcement made by VEXSON, the Canadian weather prophet, is to the effect that he will publish no more predictions until his almanac for 1881-2 is issued, which will be sometime in October next. In the meantime the citizens of our country will have to take the weather as it comes.

For a generous supply of excellent Bologna sausage, we are under obligations to JOHN KLINE. We have no hesitancy in pronouncing it as the finest article of the kind we have ever tasted. Jony always has a supply on hand at his market, where all who desire an extra quality of sausage should call.

It is rumored that there is to be an excursion to Mount Champlain and the Switchback, about the first of October. It is a fact that there will be an excursion to Watkins Glen to-morrow (Friday). It will be under the auspices of the Germania Band of this place. The fare for the round trip will be $2.00.

Mrs. WILLIAM ALLEN, residing near Grover, met with quite an accident Monday. As she was driving down Third Mountain her horse ran away, throwing her out, bruising and cutting her badly about the face and head. Dr. PARSONS reports the injured woman as doing well at this time.—Canton Sentinel.

TICKETS for the Germania Band Excursion are now on sale at C. T. KIRBY'S Drug Store, and by members of the Band. They can also be procured at MERRICK'S Office on morning of excursion. Tickets, $3; entrance to Glen, 20 cents extra. Steamboat excursion, 20 cents extra. Train leaves Court House at 7:30 A. M., sharp.

A GRAND Excursion to New York and return, under the management of Rev. S. L. CONDE, of Tunkhannock, Pa., will leave Sayre at 4:45 A. M., Tuesday, September 6th. Tickets good to return by any train within ten days. Fare from Sayre and return, $41; $5.65; Towanda, $5.20. See bills and advertisements.

A MASS of rock containing a clearly defined human form of gigantic proportions, is said to have been discovered in a new coal shaft which is being sunk near Wilkesbarre, at a depth of 475 feet. The length of the form is twelve feet, and the width across the chest four feet. It has been taken out whole, and is to be placed on exhibition.

PETROLEUM was discovered floating on the waters of a creek in Toga county. The oil is of a fine quality and can be bought for considerable less per acre since the "petroleum" has been discovered to come from the carcass of a dead horse, buried near the head waters of the rivulet. And thus do our visions of wealth fly away.

The Housburg Register says that $100,000 worth of 1794 with flowing hair are worth $15. A friend of ours says he will pay $25 for a dollar of the same date with his hair bandaged. Also for a "wild-headed" $10 for a quarter dollar of 1791, with his hair cut $40, and for a dollar of 1780, with "abrupt rings," $41.67.

abolitionists of Connecticut, died Wednesday morning. He was the original author of the "Fugitive Slave Law," and "Arthur Bronson." The gentleman was in 1844-45, we think, Principal of the "Old Academy," at this place, and several of his pupils at that time still reside here. If we remember correctly, Mr. GUNN was married, while he resided here, and his only child—a boy who died a few years ago—was born here. He was an excellent instructor, and a man of much more than ordinary ability. He will not doubt be well remembered by many of our older citizens who will regret to hear of his death.

HAND TORN OFF. On Saturday morning last, says the LaBayville Advertiser of the 18th, while Mr. FRANK BRISTLER, of Prattsville, was feeding his threshing machine at the farm of RANDOLPH BILLINGS, on Ford street, his left hand was caught in the machine and torn nearly up to the wrist. Dr. WAINNER was called, and amputated the arm at the wrist, and the sufferer is doing as well as could be expected. This is a great loss to Mr. BRISTLER, as his vocation is that of farming.

A BROKEN LEG. Mr. HOMER FORTMAY, of Troy, father-in-law of Mr. LEWIS STARR, of this city, yesterday had the misfortune to fall from a buggy, his feet becoming entangled in the lines as he was about to alight. He fell heavily against the curb, breaking his left leg below the knee. Drs. SEELY and UP DE GRASS reduced the fracture and made Mr. FORTMAY as comfortable as possible.—Elmira Advertiser, 16th.

BARN BURNED. The Canton correspondent of the Advertiser gives the following particulars of the burning of a barn near that place on Wednesday last week: "Some little boys were playing around JOHN ROCKE's barn, and a section of the roof fell on itself and fell on the barn. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 1837 resigned his office. During his term of office as an Associate Judge, he displayed his ability and integrity and responsibility to himself and to the people. He was elected by the citizens to the more honorable position of Justice of the Peace, and in 18