

QUARTERLY MEETING.—Quarterly Meeting Service will be held in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening. Love Feast at 6:00 P. M. Preaching by Rev. C. C. WILDER at 7:00 P. M.

CHARLES H. WRIGHT, Pastor.

THE Hook and Ladder boys say at Towanda were royally treated at Towanda last week. They just kept talking about it all the time, and say they cannot say too many good things of the Towanda people. Well, they are pretty good folks, we used to live there ourselves.—Waverly Advocate.

JURIN CLARK, of Canton, was thrown from a colt he was riding last Thursday, striking on his head. The blood ran from his mouth and ears. Dr. J. W. PARSONS was called and made the patient as comfortable as possible. It is impossible at this time to tell how seriously Mr. CLARK is injured.—Canton Sentinel.

The Leligh Valley directors are to have an inspection excursion over their roads in this state next week. It will occupy four days. They leave Philadelphia on the morning of Tuesday, October 18, and will return to that city on Friday, October 21. A number of Eliminians it is expected will accompany the party.—Free Press.

MR. WM. COVERDALE, on Monday last, moved from his former home on Poplar street to his beautiful residence on Second street, near the corner of the State.

CORNERDALE, M. D., will hold every convenience for the further prosecution of her chosen calling. Mrs. C. has many warm friends in this place who wish her the success she richly merits.

JUDICIAL advertising will increase trade, and just here we would remind you that the REPORTER is the best advertising medium in Bradford County. It goes into the homes of the intelligent, refined, and well-to-do citizens of this and the adjoining counties, and those who avail themselves of its large circulation, will reap good returns from their investment.

J. C. JOVILLIE, of South Towanda, met with an accident on Thursday evening last. He stepped on a board made damp by the recent rain, and slipping fell against a stone step. Being unable to move himself he was carried to the house and Dr. PRATT was called, who said no bones were broken, but the muscles were severely strained, and being so advanced in years the shock seems to prostrate him.

For several years a fee of ten cents has been charged for admission to the County Encampment at East Towanda, said to go toward the erection of a soldier's monument. Who has this fund, how much does it amount to, and what is going to be done about the monument?

CANTON SENTINEL. BOWMAN is evidently getting nervous over the ten cents he may have contributed. We trust the proper officers will enlighten him at once.

On Sunday morning last, the building owned by W. B. DORR, just north and immediately adjoining his property, on William street, was discovered to be on fire. The occupants of the dwelling were absent, and Mr. DORR broke in the door and extinguished the flames by the application of a few pails of water. The fire caught from ashes carelessly thrown against the side of the building, and its timely discovery was all that prevented what no doubt would have proved a very disastrous conflagration. The damage was but slight.

MR. J. R. KITTREDGE, editor and proprietor of the K. of H. Advocate, has commenced the publication of a paper in the interests of the Knights and Ladies of Honor. The first number made its appearance last week. It has been characterized "The Record," and is one of the neatest papers, typographically, published in the interest of any secret society. We trust it may prove a financial success to its founder, as it will no doubt prove a great benefit to the Order whose doing it will chronicle.

AS FRANK DALY'S team from Leona was returning from Fall Brook on Sunday last, says the Troy Gazette of last week, with a load of bituminous coal an accident of a serious nature occurred. As they were descending the mountain the neckyoke broke and the wagon which was heavily loaded run forward down the steep descent of the team. The driver, MONROE HUNNELL, and the team but the wagon run over one of his feet and injured him severely. One of the horses was killed.

ATTENTION is directed to the advertisement of A. D. DYE & CO., in another column. This firm have the largest assortment of hardware, etc., of any house doing business in this section of the State. In stores they can supply the wants of all, whether it be for a small bedroom stove of the most diminutive size or the largest and handsomest pattern in parlor heater. As dealers they are courteous and obliging, and have succeeded in building up a large and constantly increasing trade. Any one desiring goods in their line, should not fail to call at their establishment before making a purchase.

SAYS the Troy Gazette of Thursday last: "The water works under the direction of E. B. PARSONS, Esq., are being extended through the town, the line running now up Center St. to supply the School House with water. As we understand it, Mr. PARSONS offers for one hundred dollars a year to supply the town water for bore, and the purchase of the water works would be established at various points and probably in a time public fountain, which would be ornamental and useful. Every one is interested in an abundant supply of pure and wholesome water, and some action will be taken at once.

THIS publishers of Towanda's four excellent weekly newspapers, having needlessly suffered severe loss from the low price of $1.00 per annum charged for their papers, have all advanced the subscription price to $1.50. This is a little more than any county journals can be printed for, unless they are to be printed with state matter from the padded columns of a daily that three-fourths of their subscribers have read elsewhere, or passed over, not caring to read. The paper of a weekly home newspaper who objects to paying $1.50 a year for it doesn't want it very bad.—Pittston Gazette.

PEOPLE who wish to obtain a good book and one which in the course of years they will be able to refer to very often should take the "Life of Garret" which C. B. EASTMAN is agent for. Fully illustrated with fine portraits, views of his home, his war record given, his representative and presidential career fully sketched, the assault of GETTYSBURG, the sickness, suffering and death graphically described. It is a book to interest all. A full history of his funeral and events that cluster around his closing days are given. The book contains 700 pages elegantly printed. Mr. EASTMAN is the agent for this place, Sheikung and Uster.

THE Philadelphia Press now ranks as among the ablest and best newspapers in the United States. Its news columns are daily filled with the latest intelligence of the world. Its editorials are always sound and logical, and deal with all the leading questions of the day. A new, and what will no doubt prove a very interesting feature in the Press, will be a series of short sketches of the leading Divines, lawyers, and statesmen of the State. We do know whether we will be included in the sketches or not—probably not. The man who wishes for a better paper than the Press, will probably wait a considerable lapse of time ere his wish is gratified.

MA. O. P. AYER, of Sheikung, while at work in his flourishing mill at that place on Saturday morning last, had a lucky escape from what might have proved a serious accident. While adjusting the feed to a new and improved back-saw shucker, his coat-sleeve was caught by the shafting and wound in close to the arm, when the belt, which unintentionally had been left rather loose, ran off from his dangerous position. Later in the day his five-year-old son—FRED—had a like escape in a shaft, and would have been badly injured had not his brother, attracted to the spot by the little fellow's screams, arrived just in time to rescue him. It is needless to say that Mr. A. will put boxes around these places, thus saving further trouble.

THE Towanda papers, the Reporter, Argus, Journal and Republican, have pledged themselves to increase their subscription price to $1.50 after Jan. 1st. The Argus says: "This action is positively necessary in order to protect ourselves from bankruptcy. With the increased price of paper and other necessities it has been practically demonstrated that a newspaper cannot be printed for less than $1.50 yearly." The papers entering upon this arrangement bind themselves to strictly and invariably adhere to these terms. It has been a matter of surprise that the publishers in that village should have thrown away an opportunity in the last few years not less than $30,000 in giving it papers better than it paid for.—Troy Gazette.

AMOS PRATT, of Pike, is our authority for the following story: He says, "I have a cat, a very successful hunter, who can be seen daily lugging game to her house. Only a few days since, she brought to the house a young red squirrel, which she and her kitten greatly enjoy to play with, and to all appearance seem to make with each other as if of one family. The squirrel appears to be delighted with his new home and associates, so much so, that he enjoys nursing from the mother cat equally as well as the kitten, and he will suckle the milk through the application of a few pails of water. The cat, which is a very friendly and playful animal, will allow the kitten to play with her membership by lurching. I am sure doubting this story, are invited to call and see for themselves.—Lellaville Advertiser. We do not doubt the story at all. In fact we anticipate that it will not be long ere that cat goes out and catches a Lellaville editor. Should she do so, Mr. Pratt would be a collection of animals which will rival that of the menageries now traveling, not forgetting the Egyptian Bompalus and the Horned Horse of Tartary.
